The 2023-2024 school year came and went in a flash, at least, it seemed that way looking back...

We started the year with 220 students overtaking the halls of West Central High School. More clubs were created in an effort to get students more involved and create a greater sense of belonging within our school. These clubs included a weightlifting club, book club, and yearbook as a club this year (blame your teachers, no one wanted it as a class - ha!!). We saw some struggles and successes throughout all of our sports this year. We had a remarkable number of LTC All-Conference Team Nominees as well as some All-State Team members! Our Science Department was as active as ever - it seemed like every week the labs were in use or Sutton was blowing stuff up! Our Band and Chorus classes, although small, were mighty this year! The play this Spring was phenomenal -- and the cast size has increased significantly this year. FFA, as always, had a successful judging season and stayed active in the community. We saw growth in all of our students this year in several different ways.

The Freshman class learned how the high school operates.

The Sophomore class learned how to drive.

The Junior class learned how to navigate the SAT online.

The Senior class learned about life.

And I learned to enjoy the moment, because you never get it back.

Thank you for a memorable year, and I hope next year is even better!

- Ms. Johnson

Senior Wills

I, Hannah Parkins, will Breeanna Tucker, my will to get things done and graduate so she can live her life to the fullest! life to the fullest!

I, Lacey Bowen, leave the book and good stories to Mr. Holloran, and the aggressive tendencies to Ms. Adams. As for students, I leave Katelyn Ford my house! I leave my brother nothing!

I, Arabella Cook, will Mr. Holloran all my rights, Mr. Boyle my political views, Mrs. Biggs all my kingdom hearts stats, and Mr. Muegge 1000 cats.

I, Christopher Cassiday, will my advice to all students and staff: don't drink the water.

I, Jackson Timmerman, will the ability to get good grades to my Hayden.

I, Daniel Reyes, will to Mr. Williams the ability to keep encouraging players and never give up on the team.

I, Isiah Stephson, will to everyone: know when to be serious and when not to be. Take things seriously, but it's okay to have fun.

I, Harmony Buchanan, leave Mr. Williams Alexia Hall to annoy him and bother him until she graduates.

I, Jacob Peel, would like to pass on my scurvy to Eli Dabbs. He deserves it.

I Connor Sherdahl, leave something somewhere (he'll know what it is) to Bradyn McDermeit, because he is the only one responsible enough to care for it.

I, Blake Cole, will my finishing room to Eric Carlson.

I, Dayne Gittings, will my spot on the judging team to Cooper Gibb.

I Hunter Shrader, will my parking spot to Gizmo.

I, Jaxson Knapp, will leave multiple books filled with postage stamps around the school. Like if you open these books. Bam. A million stamps.

I, Alexia Kane, will Jordan Kane the ability to get straight A's and my front row parking spot as a senior. I will Aubrey Myers the ability to focus reading without her music. I will Jamie Miller the ability to drive as good as me.

I, Piper Ebert, will my "on time to school" days and kindness to Reegan Schafer. I will my style to Paietyn Ludington. I will my determination and passion to the volleyball team. I will my love for choir to Zairah Abbott. To all the underclassmen, I leave you with advice to enjoy your years while you can and always stay humble and kind.

I, Samantha Meyer, will my indecisiveness to Drake Vancil and my RBF to Lauren Winters.

Liberty Miller thinks senior wills are silly, but she WILL miss all of her friends.

beyond wildest dreams

Taylor Swift performs her 44-song setlist to a sold-out crowd during her record-breaking Eras Tour, which became the first concert tour in history to gross over $1 billion. The ongoing tour generated over $6.4 billion in economic impact in the U.S. and Canada, turning Swift into a billionaire herself and paving the way for her to break the record for most No. 1 albums by a woman in history. Along with releasing three new albums, premiering a concert film and becoming the first person to ever win four Album of the Year Grammys, Swift shared the wealth by donating to local food banks at each tour stop and providing bonuses totaling over $55 million to her Eras Tour workers. ## SHE'S A MASTERMIND

Taylor Swift announces the Taylor Swift: The Eras Tour concert film, with tickets selling for $19.89 in honor of her 1989 (Taylor's Version) album. The movie notably cut out major distributors as Swift secretly worked with AMC Theatres directly. This meant she negotiated to keep 57% of the movie revenue, money that otherwise would have gone to a distributor, spurring other performers, like Beyoncé, to do the same.

IT'S A BARBIE WORLD

Actor Margot Robbie stars as Stereotypical Barbie in the Greta Gerwig-directed hit movie Barbie. Moviegoers everywhere painted theaters pink as they flocked to see the film, which raked in over $1.4 billion worldwide and marked a historic milestone as the highest-grossing female-directed film of all time. The movie's soundtrack also broke records, with hits like Dua Lipa's "Dance The Night" and Billie Eilish's "What Was I Made For?" gaining viral popularity through streaming and social media platforms.

BARBENHEIMER BONANZA

The simultaneous release of Greta Gerwig's Barbie and Christopher Nolan's Oppenheimer on July 21, dubbed "Barbenheimer" by fans, quickly becomes the cultural phenomenon of the summer. The contrasting worlds of the glittery-pink, feel-good musical comedy and the dark, historical biopic took social media by storm and sparked an unexpected alliance between the two films. Deemed as the "great pop culture unifier of the year," the frenzy offered a box office revival as the fourth-strongest opening weekend ever in cinemas.

100 YEARS OF MAGIC

Disney celebrates its 100th anniversary on Oct. 16. The company, founded in 1923 by Walt Disney, became known for creating classic animated films like Snow White and Cinderella, as well as contemporary fan favorites, including the Frozen franchise. Disney celebrated this anniversary with special events at their theme parks, exclusive merchandise and the release of Once Upon a Studio, an original short film that followed Mickey Mouse as he gathered some of Disney's most legendary characters for a group photo.

A NEW RENAISSANCE

Thirty-two-time Grammy winner Beyoncé performs to one of five sold-out crowds at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in London, England, during her 56-show Renaissance World Tour. The global tour stopped at a number of cities scattered across the U.S. and Europe, grossing a whopping $579 million and boosting the American economy by $4.5 billion. Her first solo headline tour in seven years, Beyoncé's Renaissance spanned almost three hours in length and saw fans of all ages dressed head to toe in dazzling sci-fi disco-themed outfits fit for a queen.

THAT'S MY QUARTERBACK

American football players Marcus Mariota, Patrick Mahomes and Kirk Cousins attend the Hollywood premiere of Netflix's new television documentary series "Quarterback." The show became a hit as it took viewers behind the scenes of what life was like in the NFL for the three pro quarterbacks, with plans for a second season soon announced. Netflix's "Beckham," another sports documentary series that followed soccer icon David Beckham's meteoric rise and career, hit #1 on Netflix charts while garnering 30 million views and 145 million hours of viewing time in just three weeks.

STRIKING IN SOLIDARITY

Actors Adam Sandler and Ben Stiller walk the picket line of the SAG-AFTRA strike in New York City. The Writers Guild of America (WGA) and the Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (SAG-AFTRA) both went on strike in the summer over wages, streaming residuals and job security related to AI. Both groups reached agreements with the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers (AMPTP) in the fall and called off the strike. Photo credit: Newscom

driving change

President Joe Biden becomes the first sitting president to join a picket line as he speaks to union workers from three major car companies leading a historic strike under Union Auto Workers President Shawn Fain on Sept. 15. The strike began when dissatisfaction with stagnant wages and rising profits led the workforce to unite and cease operations. Striking came to an end on Oct. 30, as Ford, Stellantis and General Motors tentatively agreed to deals in line with UAW demands.

MCCARTHY OUSTED, JOHNSON SWORN IN

Congress successfully elects Rep. Mike Johnson as Speaker of the House following the failed attempts of three other Republican nominees. On Oct. 3, former House Speaker Kevin McCarthy was voted out of his position as a result of a motion filed by Rep. Matt Gaetz, leaving the House unable to conduct business for three weeks. This was the first time in American history a House speaker was removed from office before the end of their term.

UNDER PRESSURE

A recent study reveals that New York City, home to 421 skyscrapers, is sinking under the weight of its own buildings. Researchers from the U.S. Geological Survey and the University of Rhode Island studying sea-level rise in coastal cities found that the collective weight of the city's 1,084,954 buildings – amounting to a staggering 1.68 trillion pounds – was causing NYC to gradually sink by up to 2 millimeters per year. This, compounded with melting ice sheets linked to rising sea levels, posed a heightened flood risk to the Big Apple.
