JAMES EARL STEVENSON
October 16, 1940 - July 2, 1955

In Memoriam

Much to our sorrow, our friend and schoolmate, Jimmie Stevenson, lost his life while swimming July 2, 1955. Jimmie was the son of Charles and Evelyn (Terpening) Stevenson and had always lived in this community. He would have been a member of the sophomore class this year.

It is indeed difficult to lose one so young and vital. We know that his work among us was finished; but his friendliness, good sportsmanship, and ability to carry happiness like a banner will keep his memory bright.

"When earth's last picture is painted and the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colors have faded,
and the youngest critic has died
We shall rest, and faith, we shall need it-- lie down for an aeon or two,
Till the Master of all good workmen
shall put us to work anew."
--Kipling

Senior Class Prophecy

Mr. Evans, who is now teaching social studies and coaching at Ben High School in Denver, Colorado, decided to make a visit to Biggsville, Illinois, where he taught school twenty years ago. Upon arriving in Biggsville, he found many changes had taken place. He was especially interested in the graduated class of 1956. He inquired about them and finally obtained this information;

Gary Saben is now Vice President of Duncan Hines, Inc. Guess who's president. Jack Heinrich is baseball manager for an all-girl baseball team in Iowa City. Blair Surber moved to Arkansas to join his lovely wife and raise a dozen barefoot hillbillies. Barbara Vestal just opened a new restaurant in town. She is such a good "Cook"! Barbara Webb has broken her promise to Joyce Hale that she wouldn't marry for ten years after graduation.

Barbara Duncan, a former English teacher, is happily married to a math professor and is raising the little "ones". Joyce Hale has found her profession back in Kansas City; so has Ora. Janet Gibb, head nurse at Peoria Methodist Hospital, spends her spare moments in Florida. Kendall Tippet, who lives in Los Angeles, has just received the "Daredevils Racers" award for the year. Gene Mumey is now a "Physics" teacher in Biggsville High School. Physics was always his favorite subject in school.

Alfred Leonard is now owner of a hatchery in Biggsville. My, doesn't his wife seem familiar? Lovell Green is now a prosperous farmer living at Rozetta. His hobby is saying "Green" backs! Clifford Knapp is now giving dancing lessons in Burlington at the Authur Murray Studio. Don Simmons, newly elected town mayor, punishes severely anyone who kills "Faculty cats". Martha Brown is now the Henderson County Drivers' Training Instructor. Seems as though she has learned to be quite a cautious driver herself!

Pearl Lipes, who lives in Colorado, is the new book-keeper for Johnston Bros. Marvin Hindman, who recently finished Business College, has a new position as secretary for Annette Sisters. He certainly has learned to be a good lap sitter! Paul Stevenson, a car salesman, is happily married and raising little cheerleaders. Gerald Cantrell, a Texan oil well owner, has recently appeared on the "Person to Person" television show. Paul Gordon is an Ace Jet Pilot in the Air Force. He flies home frequently to visit old flames.
