Senior Class History

For those who attended G. H. S. the happiest memories of their freshman year were initiation and Latin parties. As sophomores they participated in the school carnival and conducted paper drives so that the class could enjoy a trip to Chicago.

The most pleasant memories of those attending O. H. S. were their freshman initiation which made them feel a part of the school, taking an active part in the high school carnival each year, and conducting paper drives.

As "Jolly Juniors" we entered a new school as students of Gladstone-Oquawka High School with twenty-six members, proud to be recognized as upper classmen. Under the direction of Mrs. Swanson, our class sponsor, we sold popcorn and candy at basketball games, and sponsored several school dances which enabled us to entertain the seniors at a banquet at the Plantation in Moline.

As seniors we have worked hard, under the supervision of Mrs. Endres, sponsor, by having a stand at the Gladstone homecoming, conducting a carnival, sponsoring dances, selling Christmas cards, magazines, and Blackhawk tags. As our high school career has almost ended we are filled with anticipation of planning the yearbook, the Senior play, skip day, the Junior-Senior Banquet, the Baccalaureate Services, the awarding of the diplomas in a special service and the senior trip. It was during these four years of high school life that most of us had our first "dates", "formals", and "crushes", which we will long remember.

Senior Prophecy

We, the Senior Class, do hereby certify the following to be our last will and testament, drawn on this first day of March in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty in the Village of Gladstone, County of Henderson, State of Illinois, in the United States of America.

To the faculty we will sincere appreciation for a job well done.

To the Junior Class we give reluctantly, but of necessity, our extreme importance, dignity, knowledge, and lasting influence.

To the Sophomore Class we leave our high scholastic status.

To the freshmen we leave nothing because by the time they become seniors they will have attained such prestige that none of our belongings will seem worthy of their possession.

I, Dennis Ahlberg, will my interest in Burlington to anyone else having interests there and my spare credits to Bob Catterson, so he will be certain of graduating.

I, Marilyn Anderson, will my ability to do grammar to Caroline and Bonnie and my "Oh, Brother" dittie to anyone who wants it.

I, Eleanor Bailey, will my gift of gab to Betty Phelps who already has a good start; my cheering ability to Jack Kage.

I, Loren Bailey, will my good looks and new car to Charles Gray who is to use them to his best advantage.

I, Earl Bielser, will my seat in the history room to Melvin McCabe if he promises not to say "I don't know" any less than I did and my interest in freshman girls to Duane Fryrear who also has interests there.

I, Lloyd Cochran, will my tallness to Donald Dixon and my quiet manners to Wilbur Smith.

I, Doris Hicks, will my list of former boy friends to Betty Woods who may use it for reference in case she loses hers; my loyalty to G-O to my brother, Melvin.

I, Dean Klossing, will my handsome profile to Fred Huss and my books on "Romance" to my brother, Donald.

I, Bob Lewis, will my basketball technique to my brother, Mike; my place in the Chemistry class to Dean Shaw with hopes he doesn't get by with more than I did.

I, Charles McGriff, will my ability to please the teachers to Shirley Seitz and my class ring to a certain Junior girl.

I, Garnett Montroy, will my hope chest to anyone else having hopes and my history "A" to my brother, Jim, who needs it for English.

I, Betty Mohrling, will my interest in cars to everyone who has one; my numerous boy friends to my sister, Donna.

I, Walter Pierson, will my tallness to Glenn McVey and my school skipping ability to Barbara Becker.

I, Bill Pirtle, will my interest in Biggsville to Bill Simons; my book on the correct procedure in filling out a marriage licence to John Dorethy.

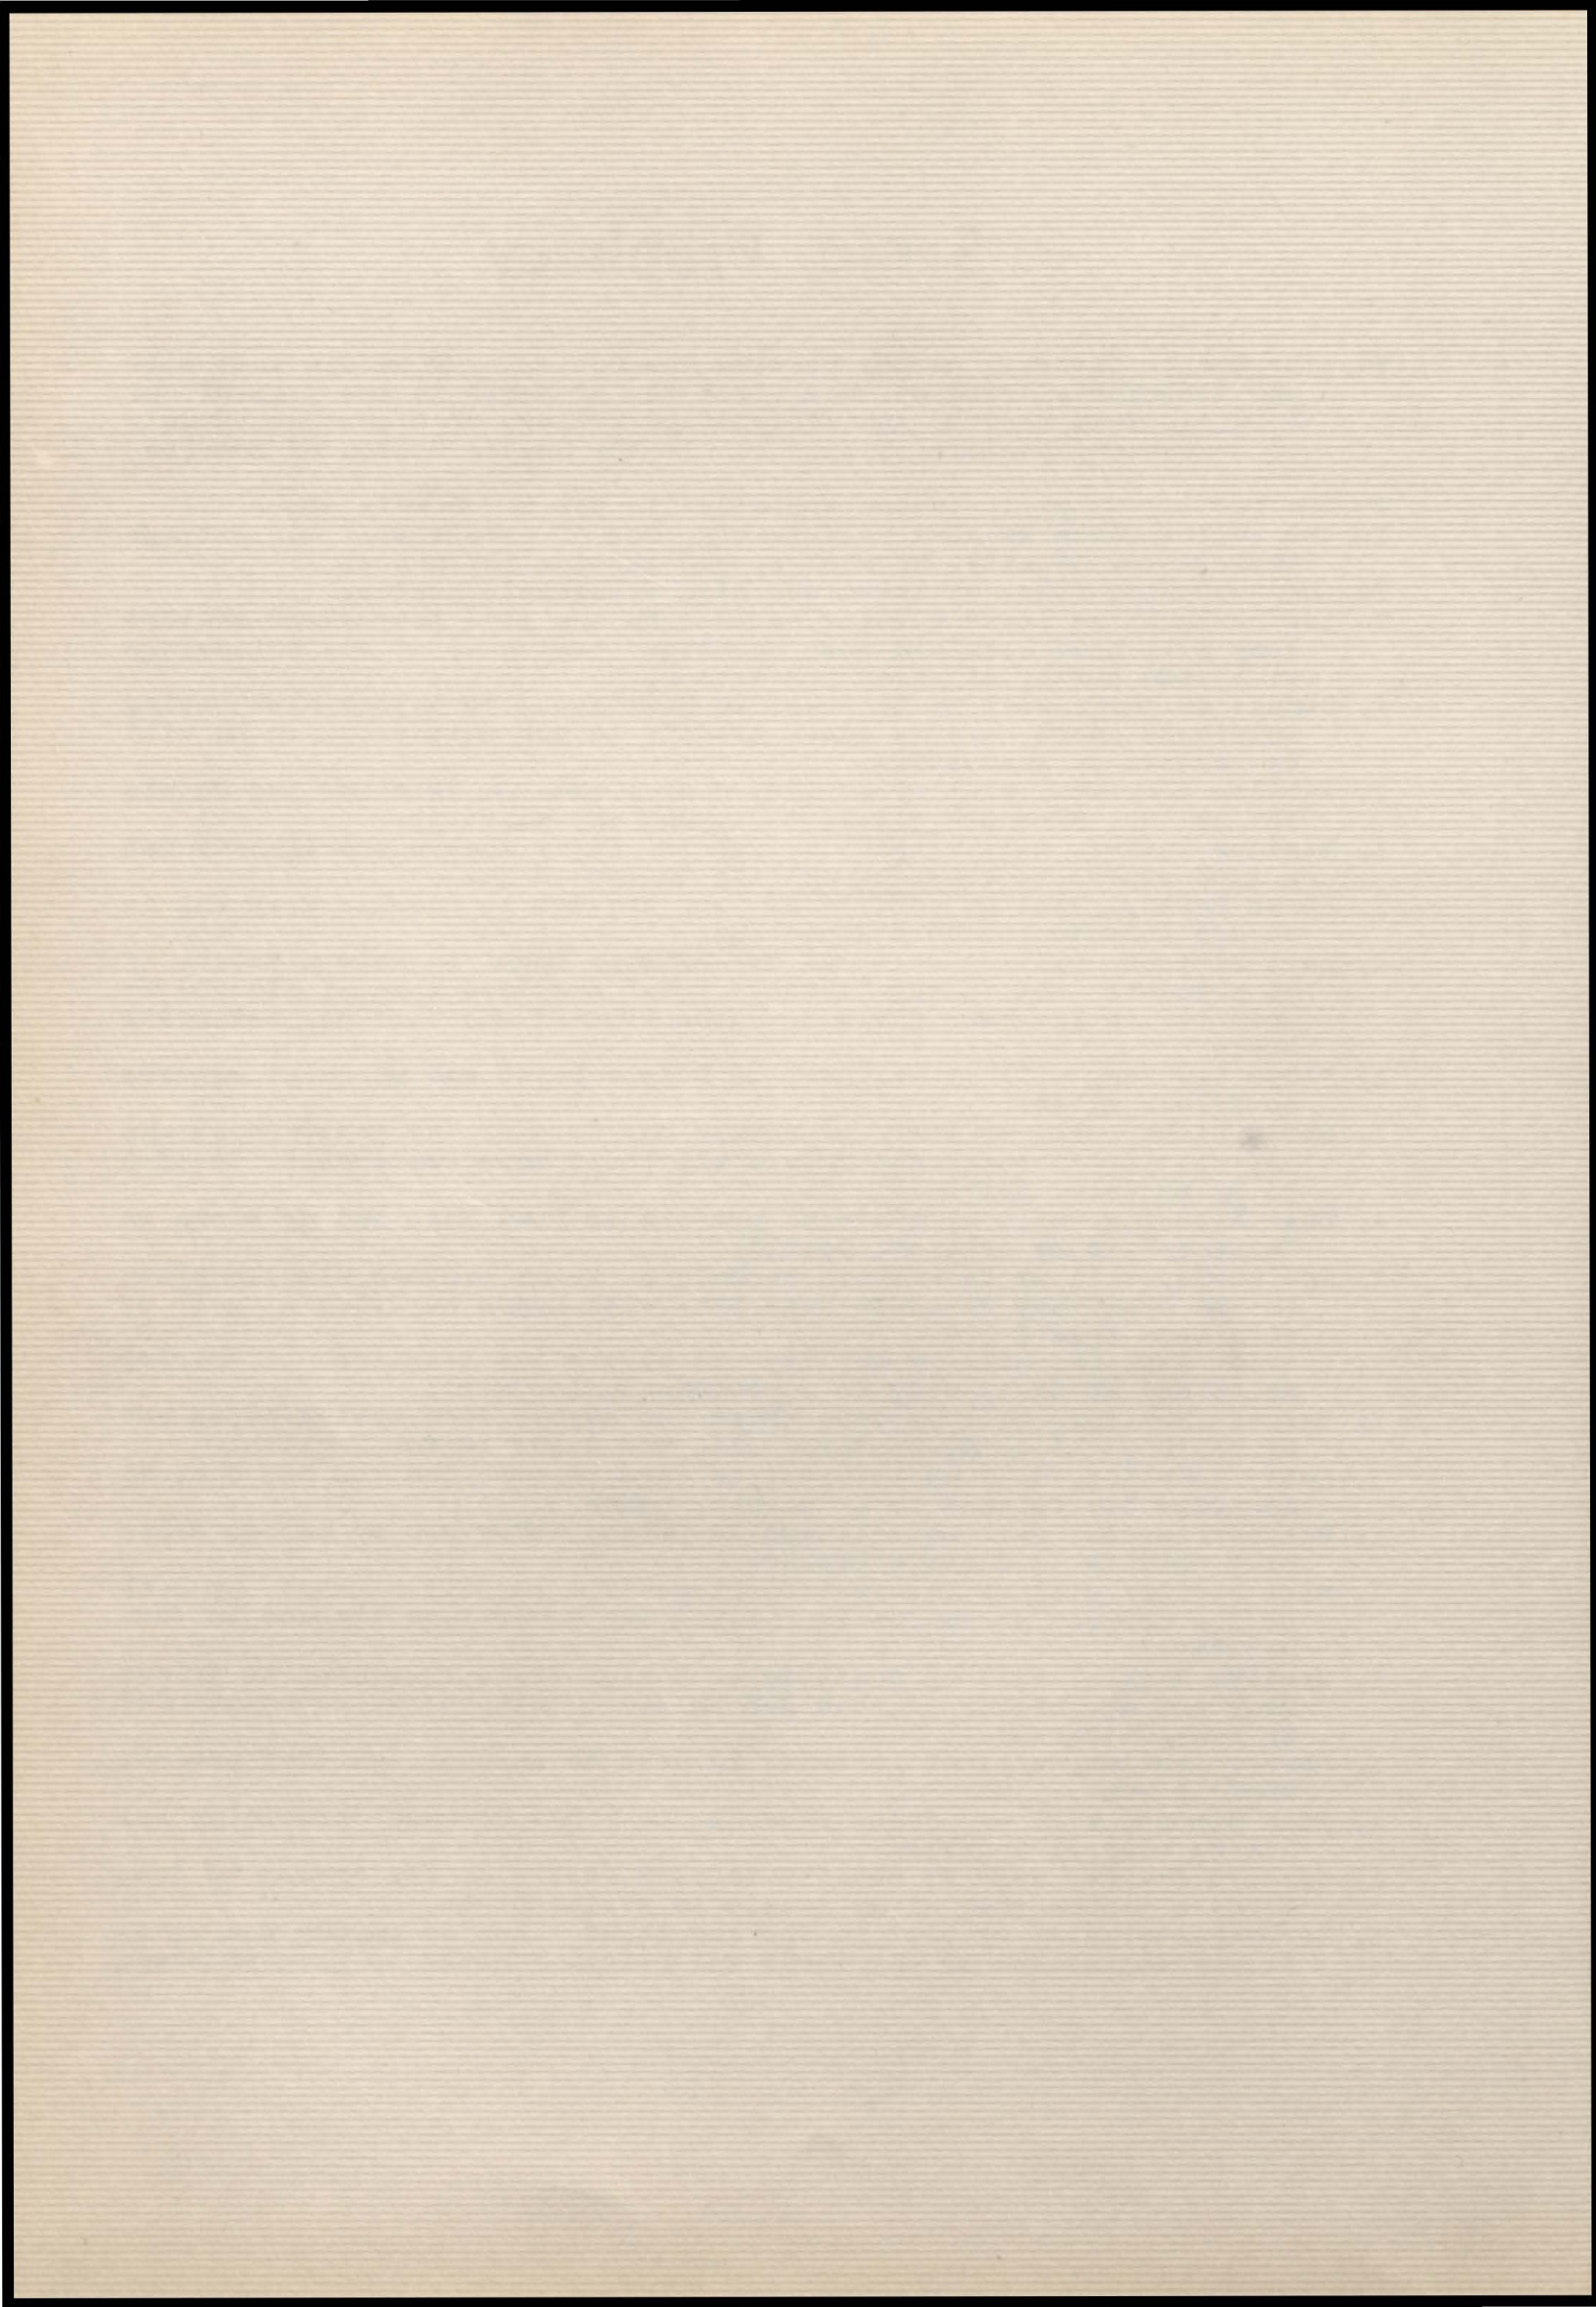

I, Marilyn Riggle, will my position as Senior Class Treasurer to Arlene Rudy and my ability to chew gum in class without being apprehended to Bill Catterson.

I, Sherry Rhoades, will my interest in pets to anyone else that prefers them to men.

I, Anne Simons, will my dance records to Doris Cochran providing she dances only with girls.

I, Carolyn Spears, will my ability to type fast with few errors to Ivan Jern; a carbon copy of my ideals to Elaine Dixon.

I, Larry Werts, will my seat in the shorthand class to anyone who wants it; my collection of big words and bright remarks to Bernard Peters.

Senior Prophecy

Looking into the future we see that Mary Jones, a senior at G-O, will receive a letter on March 15, 1960, from the '50 class secretary, Carolyn Spears, giving them information about the '50 graduating class members.

Bill is a brick layer in the state of Washington. He is still single but visits Biggsville quite often.

Larry is a professor of chemistry at the U. of Idaho. Happily married he is the father of four lovely daughters.

Carolyn is the Homemaking Supervisor for California and is married to a distinguished lawyer.

Eleanor is a head nurse at a hospital in Baileyville, California. Married and the mother of red-headed twins. A Private Secretary in Nevada. Betty plans to be married soon.

Earl and Mildred are married. Earl is a promising young electrician in Wyoming.

Anne plays basketball with the famous "Red-Heads"... Single but looking for eligible bachelors in Kansas.

Lloyd is a prosperous cattle owner in Arizona and, of all things, married. He must not be as bashful as he was at S. O. H. S.

Richard Alecock (Marilyn Riggle '50) is kept busy scribbling floors, caring for their triplets and entertaining at their ranch in Texas.

Chuck lives in Iowa but spends most of his time fishing in Michigan. Mrs. McGriff is formerly of Tennessee.

Buck is a general contractor in Illinois and likes his established business. His wife is the former Ramona Manning. Their boy is now one year old.

Marilyn is very busy as a S. S. Supt. and with her missionary work in Alabama.

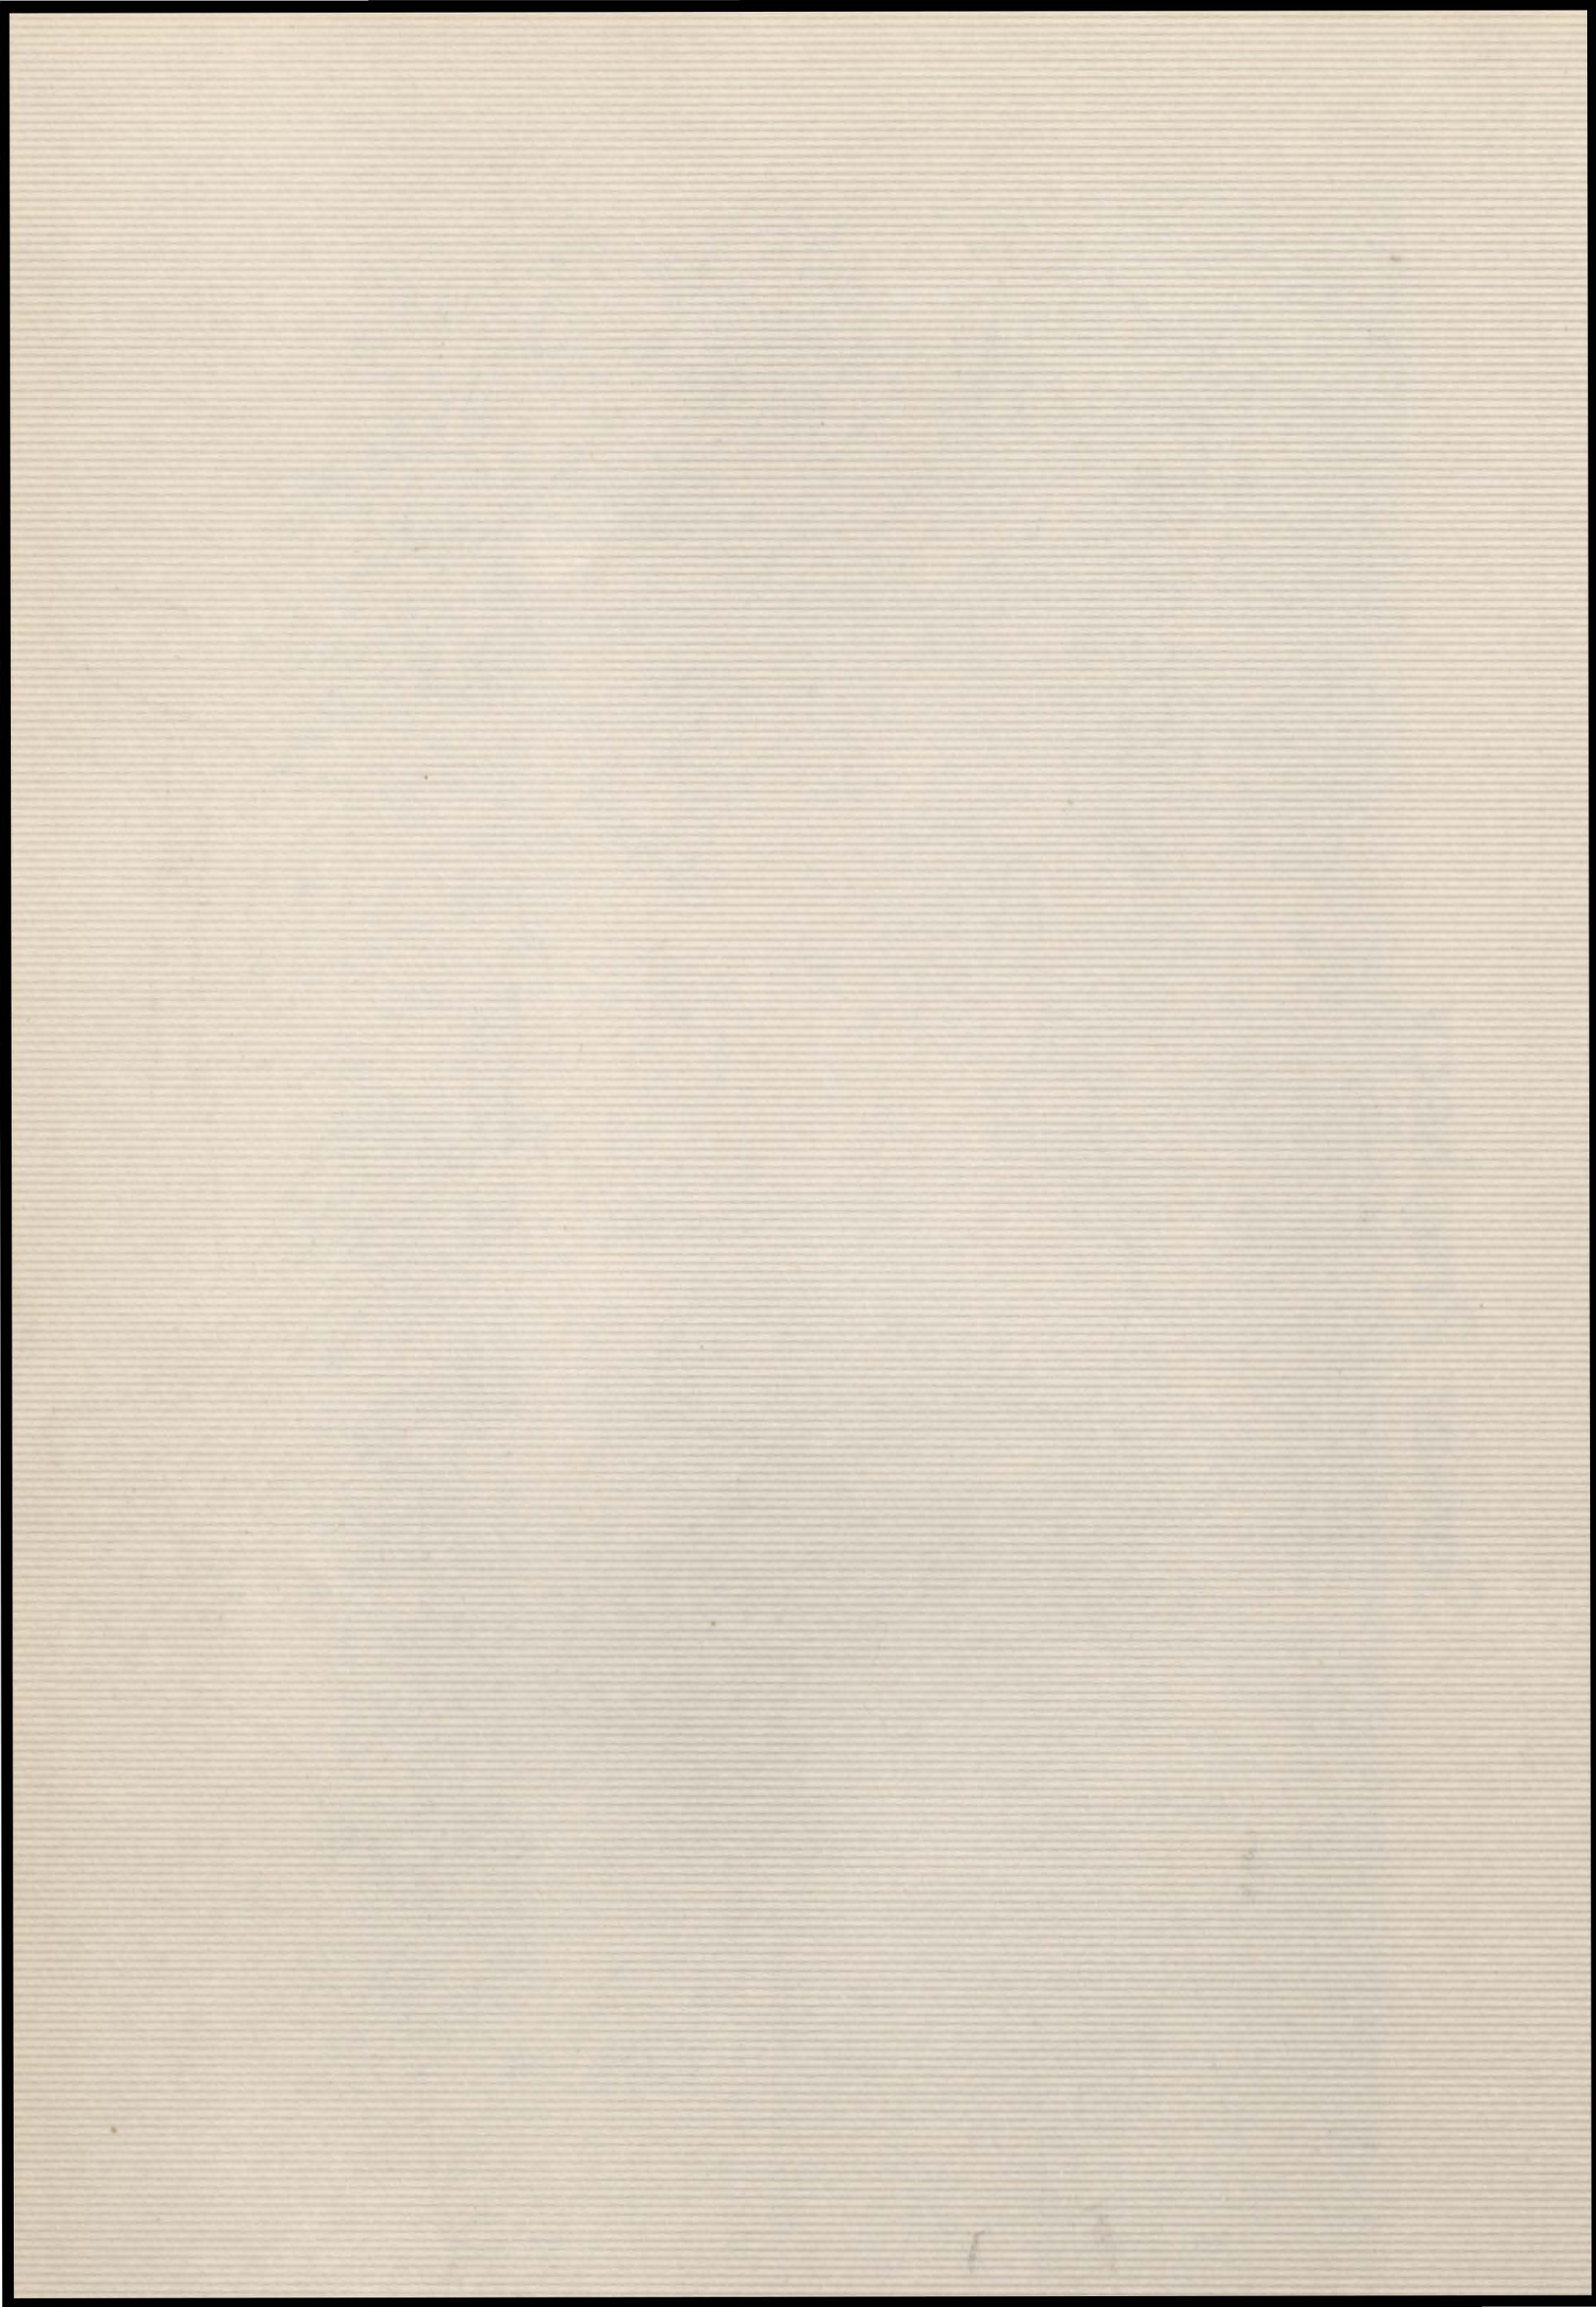

Boris — now in Canada and after 10 years of romancing has finally decided to join the lonely hearts club.

Sherry is in Maine and is married to an engineer with two small children.

Dean owns a big farm in Illinois and is a S. S. Supt. He married a beautiful blond from Colorado.

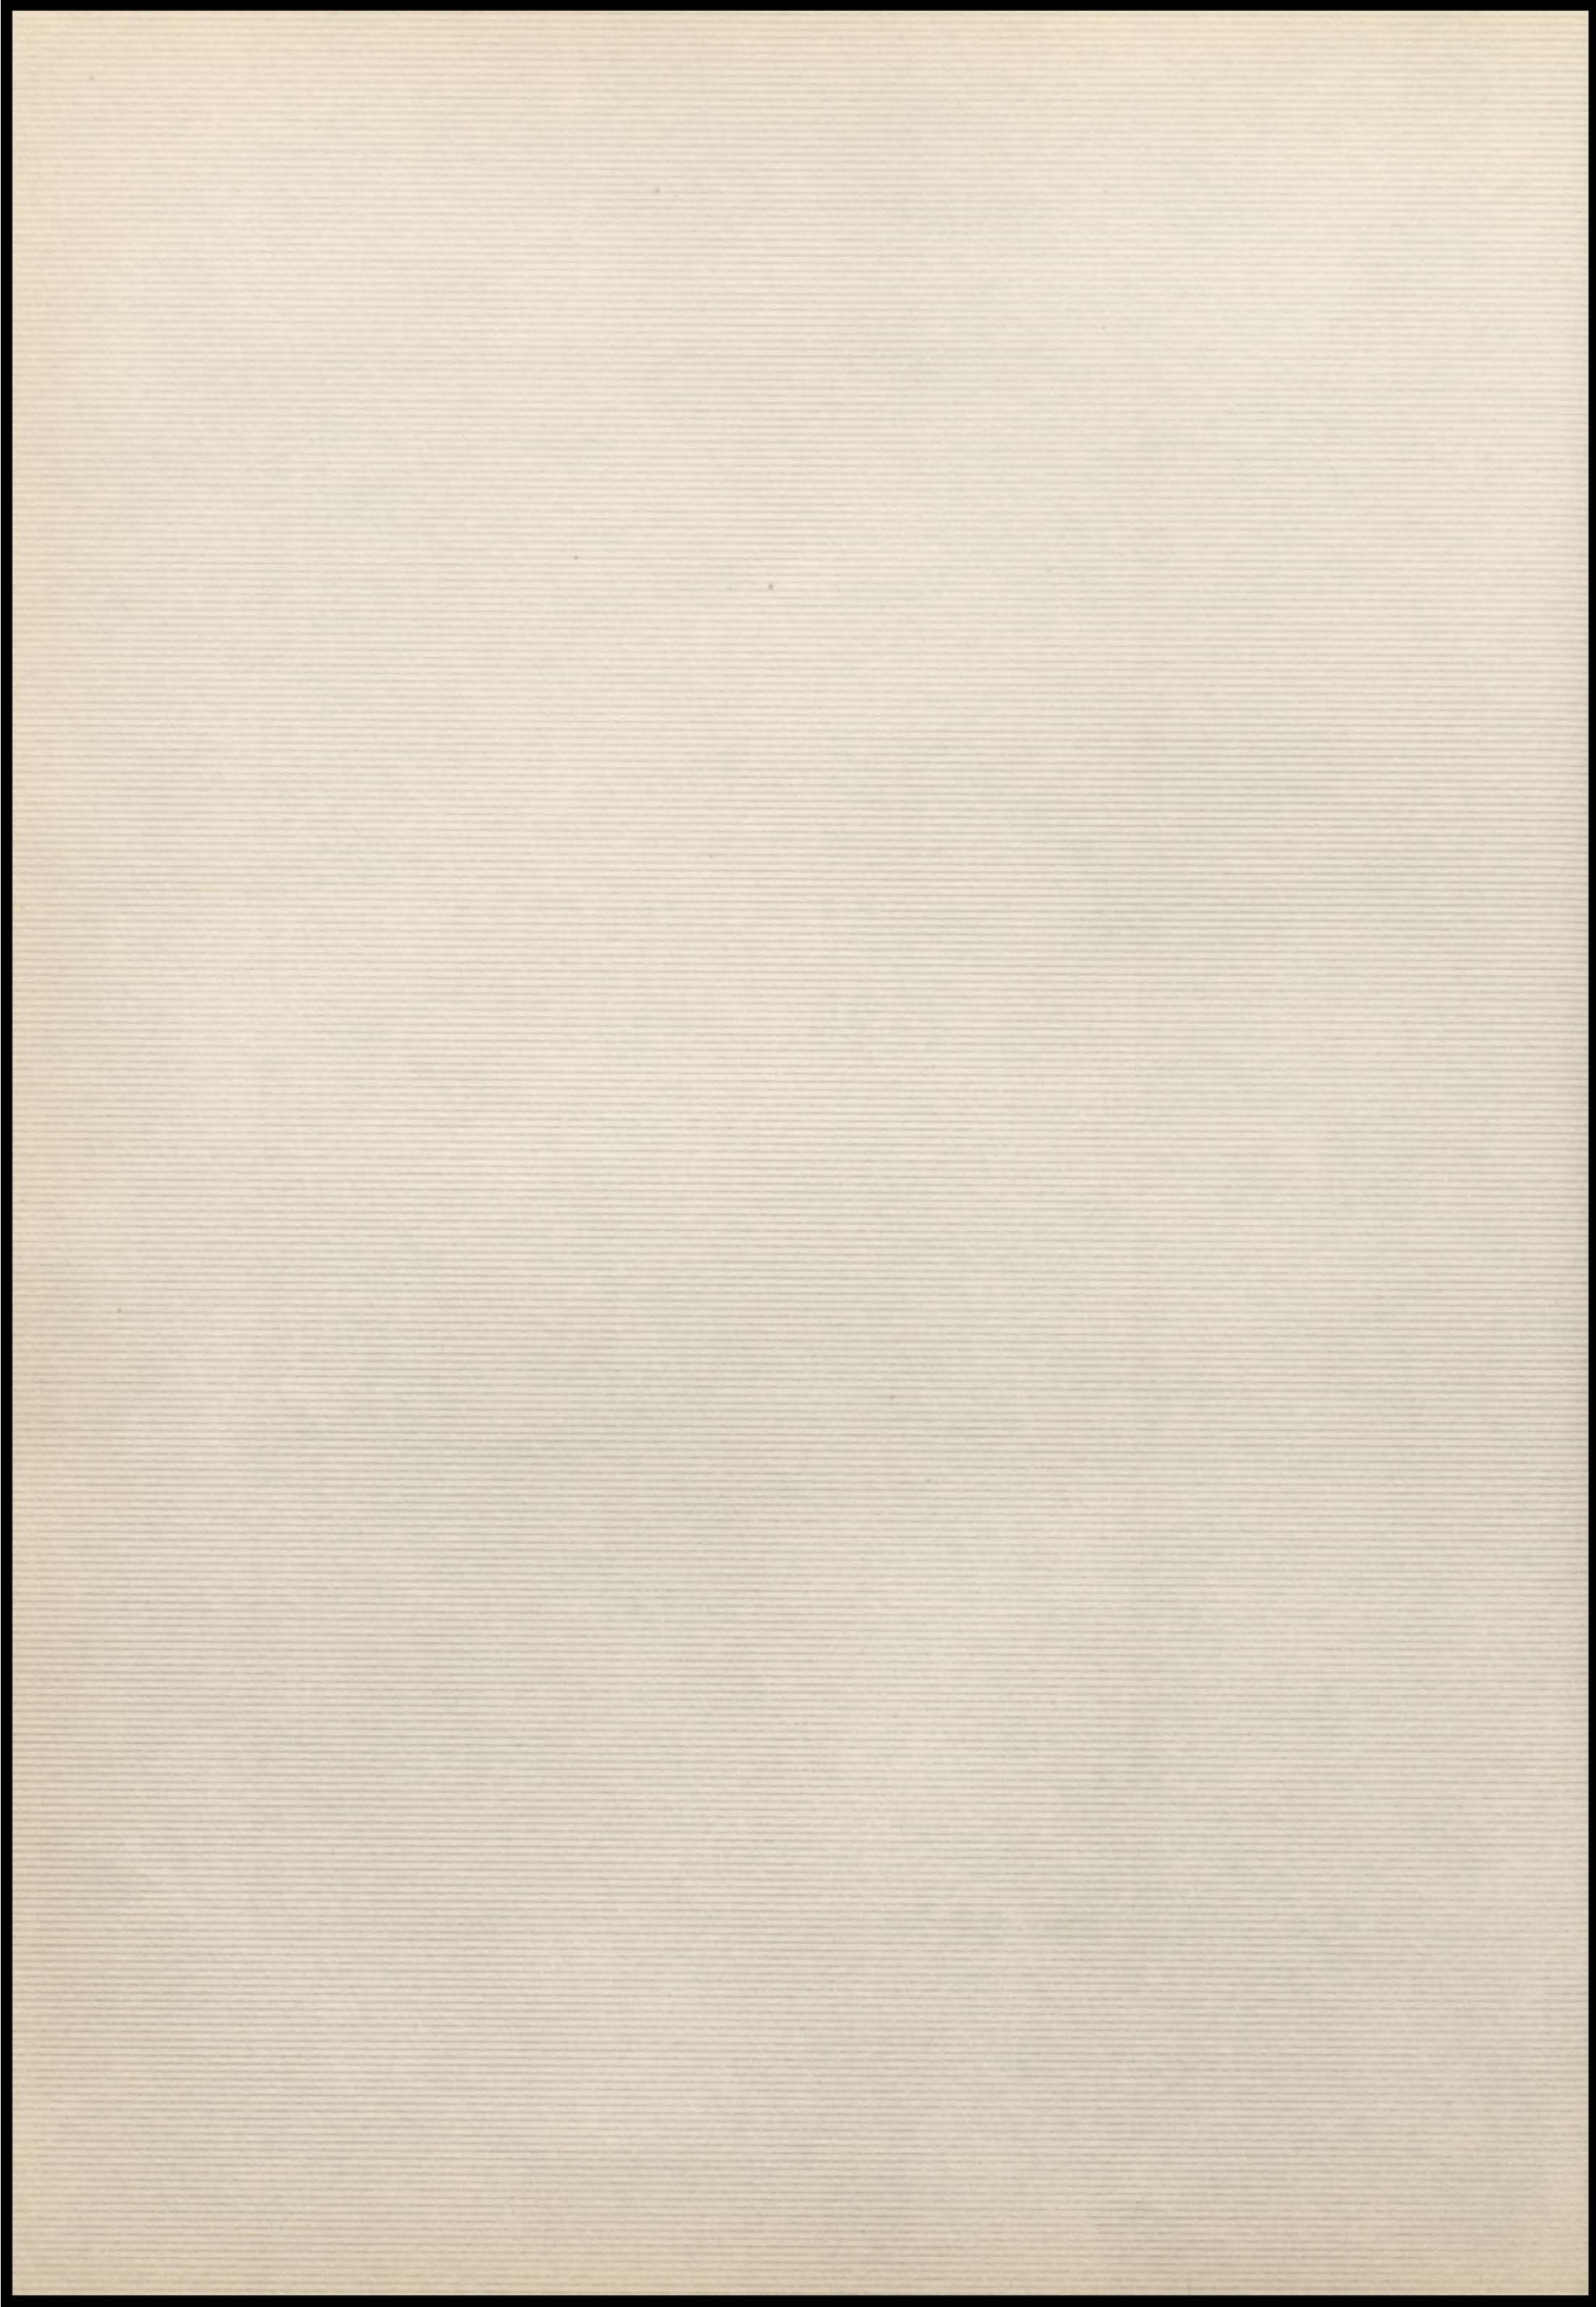

Garnett is working in a department store in New York. She has one child and a very handsome husband.

Mrs. Marr.....Director

Eleanor is a shrinking violet. She is the problem child of the Rosses, and the cause of the family's moving from the city to Medford, where Eleanor may adjust herself more readily socially. Mr. Ross has bought the bank in which Dave Adams has been working for years, and the Adamses feel the responsibility for making the Rosses welcome to their city. But Bob Adams simply refuses to squire Eleanor around and introduce her to the young people of the community. He hates girls, and flatly rebels against being made a tool for the advancement of his father's business aspirations.

At last Bob and Eleanor meet. Strangely enough, they are drawn together in "respect at first sight." Then completely by accident, they overhear their elders discussing them, and are so astounded by what they hear that they vow to teach their parents a lesson. Bob stealthily appropriates Pauline's new formal for Eleanor to wear, and in perfect reciprocity, Eleanor filches brother Jim's tuxedo for Bob. Then off in a blaze of glory they dash in Jim's yellow roadster!

A committee is working on the Student Council Constitution and it is hoped that it will be finished and adopted by the end of the school year.

The purposes of the organization are: (1) to furnish citizenship training, (2) to allow students to have a voice in student activities, (3) to promote proper student and faculty relationship, (4) to stimulate and develop a healthy school spirit, (5) to promote the best interests of the school; (6) to solve the different problems of students and of the school in general.

Student Council decided that the student body should give 25 cents each to the Mooseheart Orphanage at Mooseheart, Illinois, instead of exchanging gifts at Christmas.

A noon hour program is being set up to provide entertainment for students remaining at school during the noon hour. Dancing and ping pong are the activities being considered.

Row 1: Dean Klossing, Sammy Stevenson, Bill Simons, Willie Bielser, Harold Ahlberg, Orville Simons, Bernard Peters, Robert Pfister

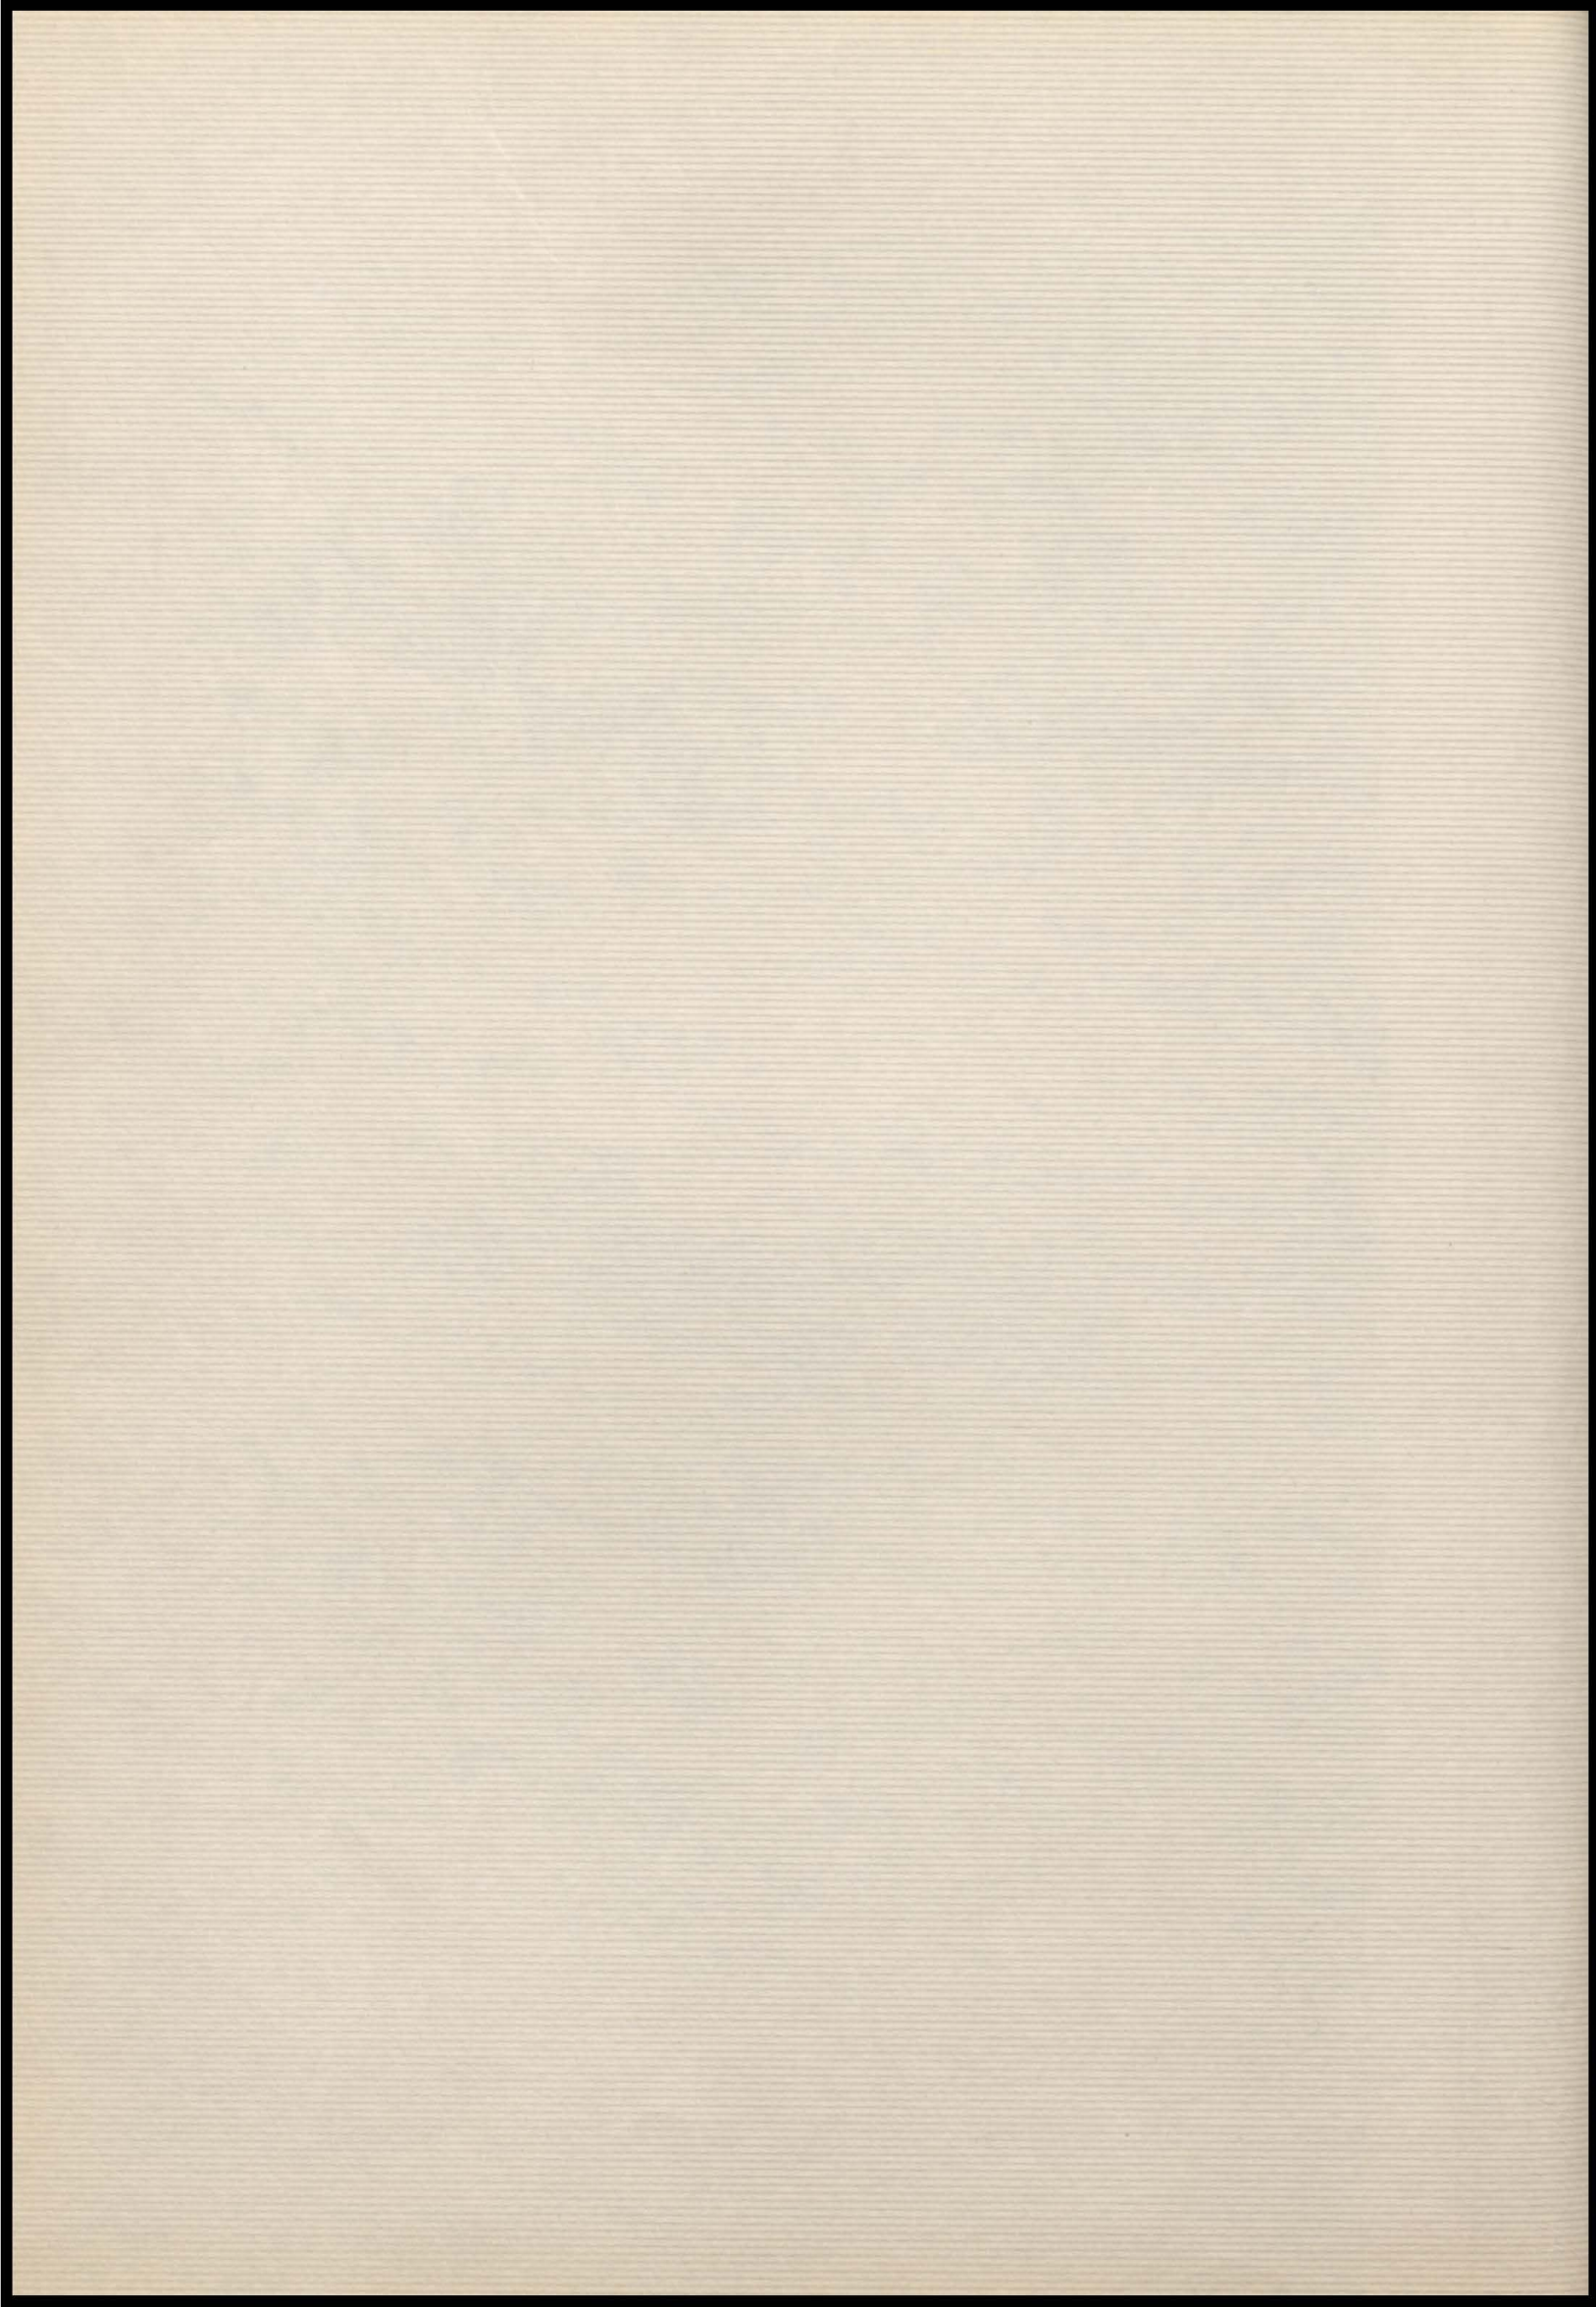

G-O's first football season brought 41 boys out on the practice field under the direction of coaches Zuege and Collins. Since Johnny Dorethy was the only experienced player, it took a lot of practice to build an eleven-man football team. The team made a good showing in the four games it played. While the season produced no victories, better results are expected next year.

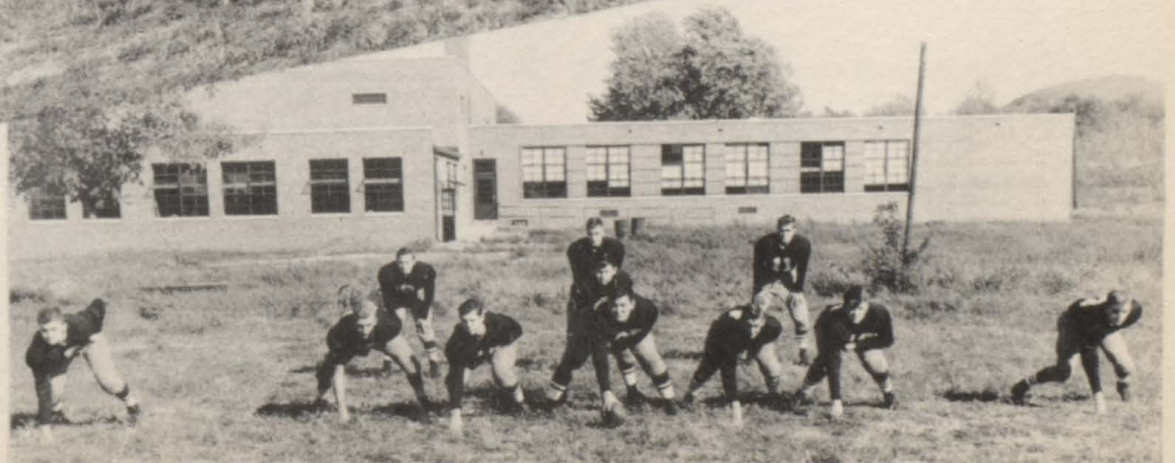

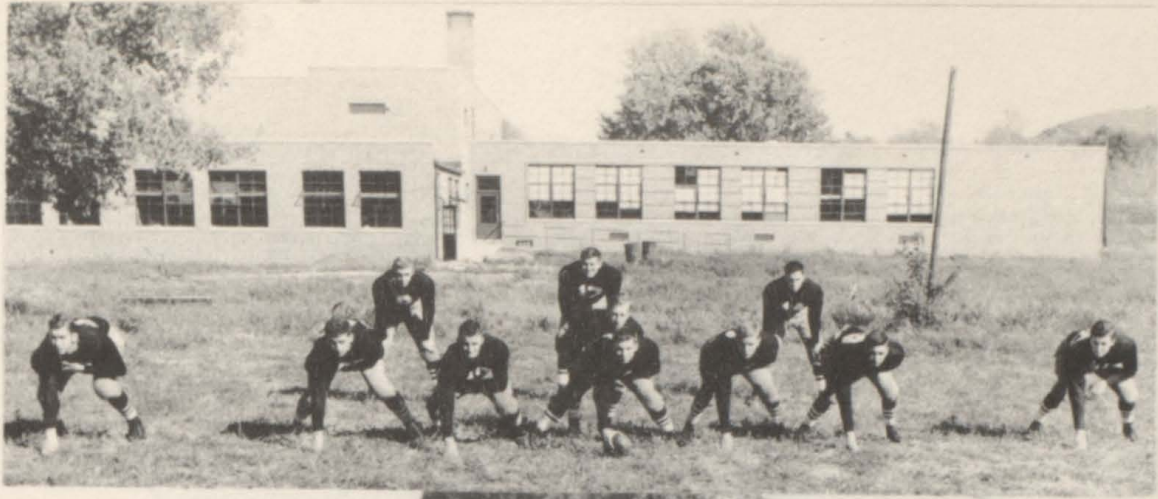

Letters have been awarded to Buck Bailey, Earl Bielser, Bob Lewis and Walter Pierson, Seniors; Melvin McCabe, Duane Fryrear, Johnny Dorethy and Fred Huss, Juniors; Sammy Stevenson, Earl Robertson, Dick Van Tine and Daryl Thompson, Sophomores; Bill McGraw, Freshman.

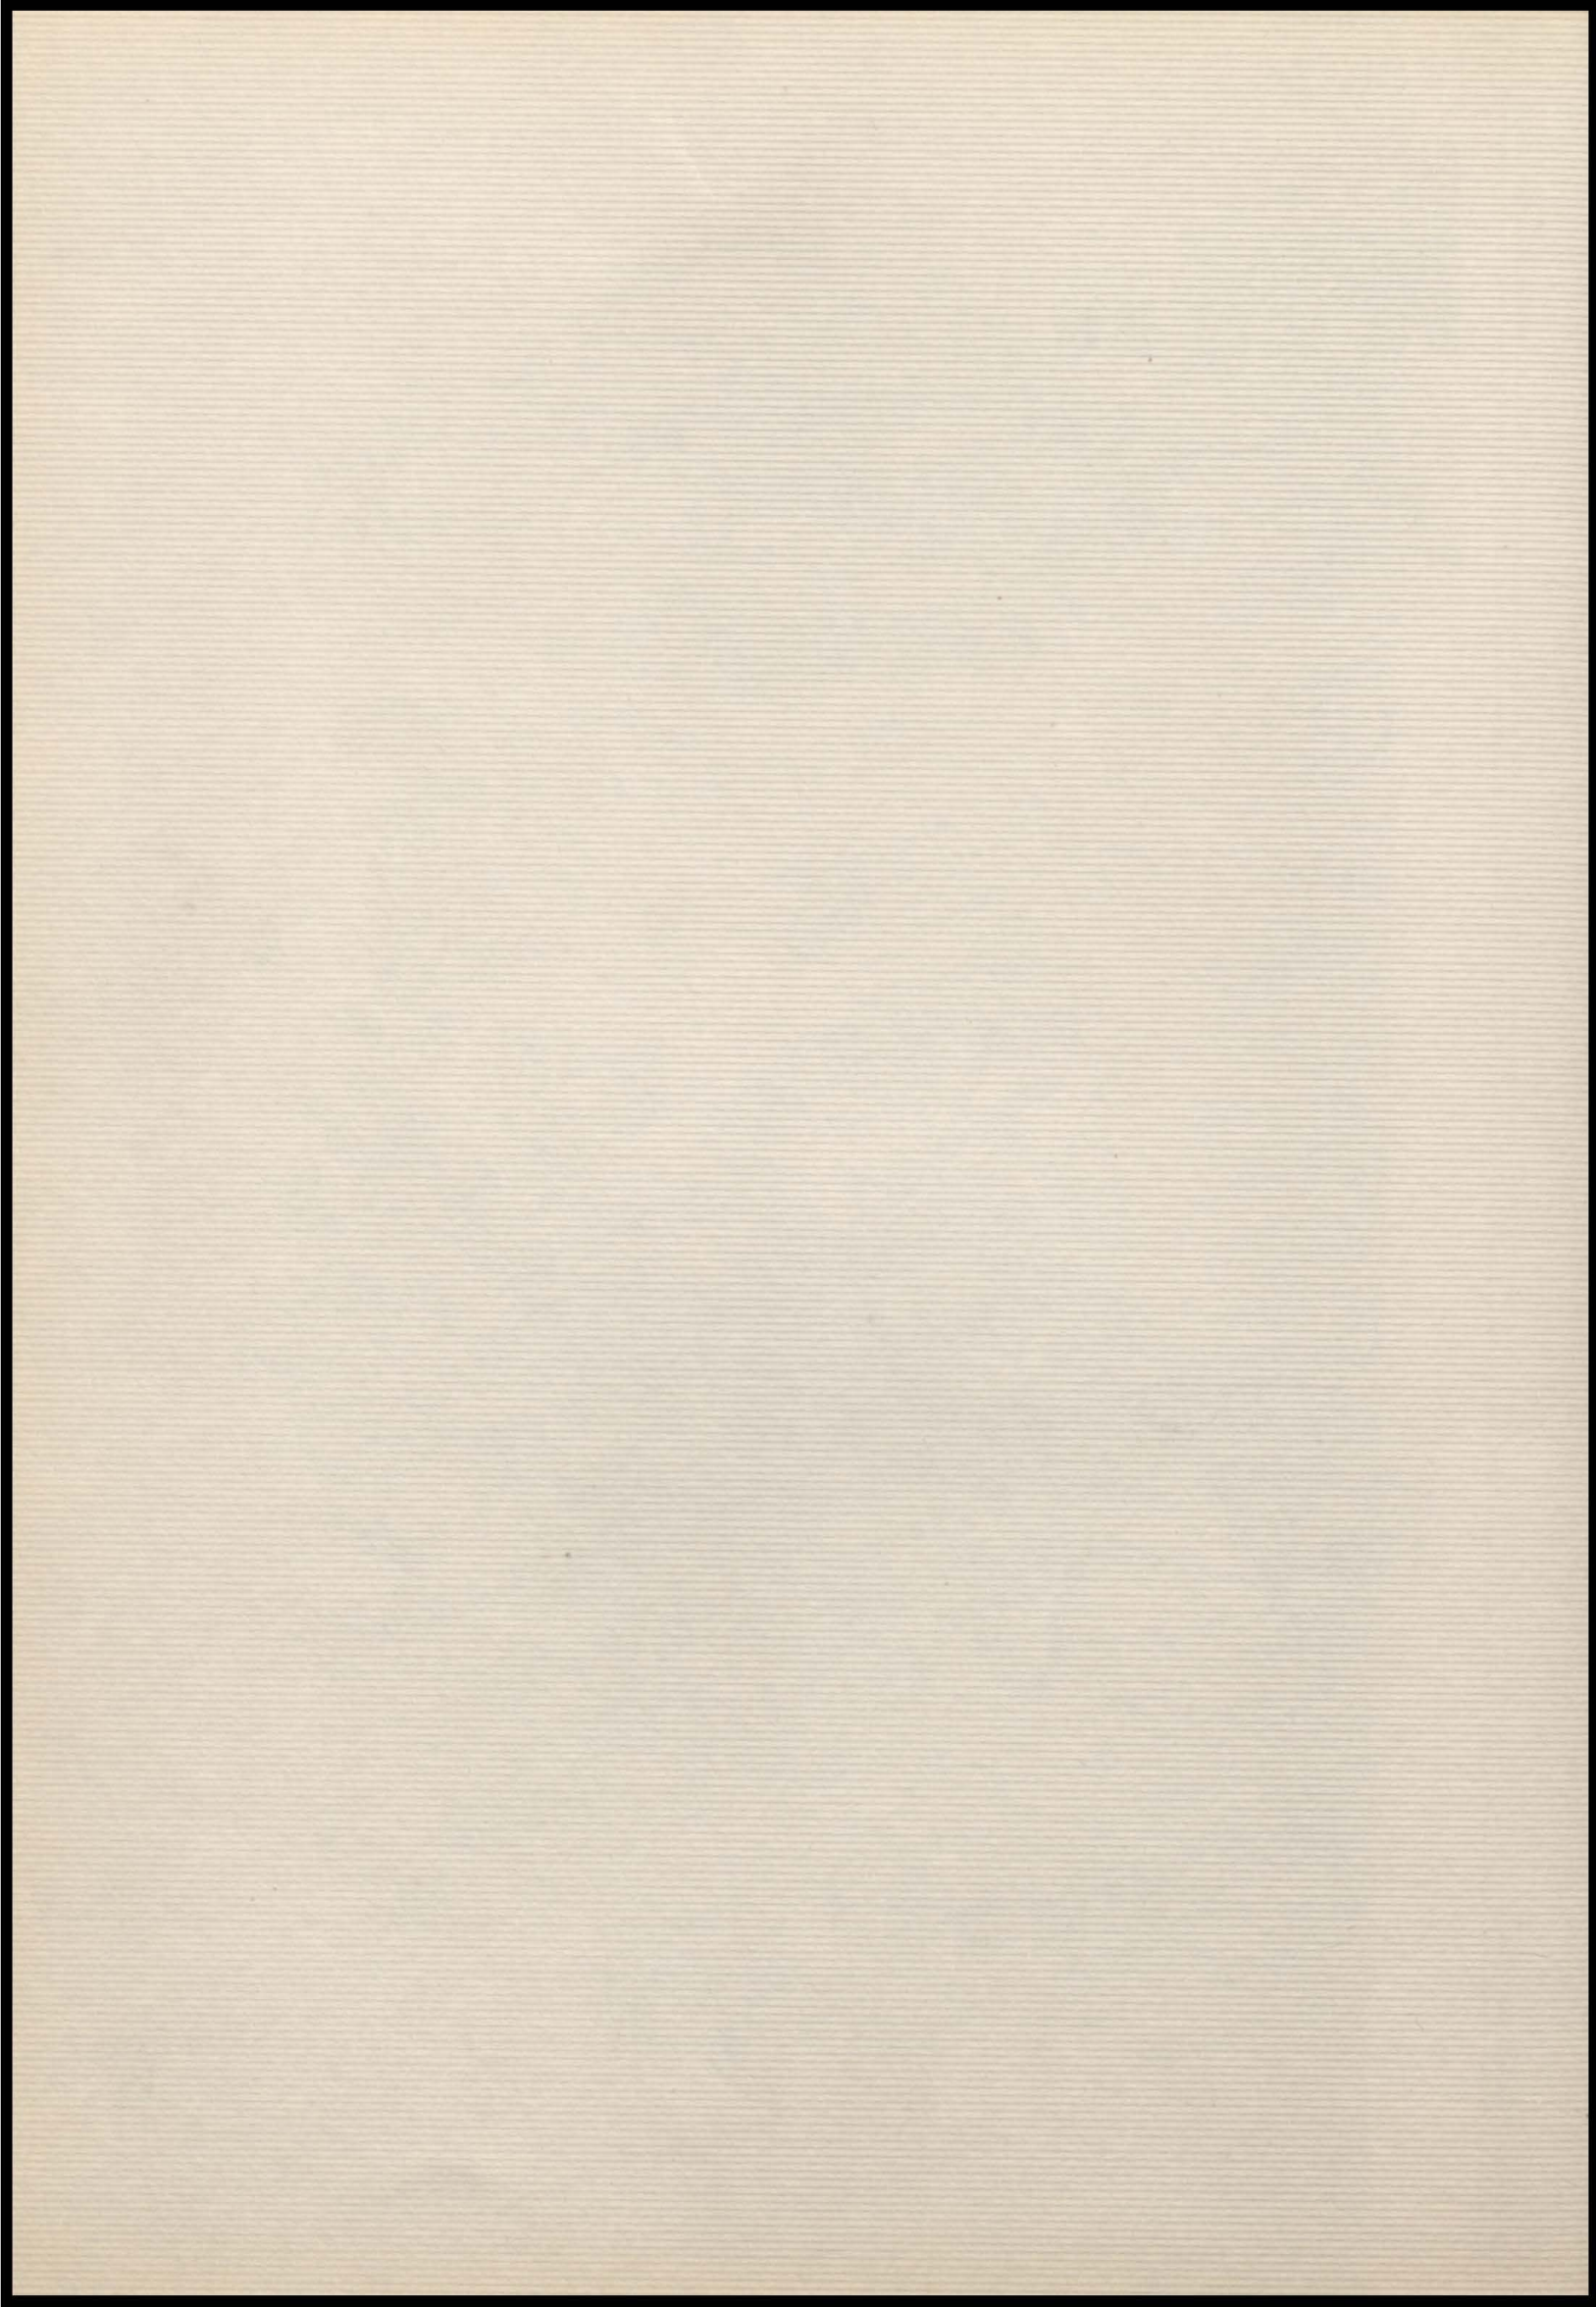

The school owes a debt of gratitude to John Ekelof, Principal of the Oquawka Grade School, who assisted with the coaching of the football team.

Every effort is being made to place more emphasis on track and to make it a major sport at G-O. At the present time the facilities are not adequate but it is hoped that a track will be completed this spring so that dual-meets can be held with conference opponents.

The team has been entered in two meets, The Wilco Conference Meet which is to be held May 3 at Monmouth College and the County Meet, Friday, April 28 at Media. The men with the best performances through-out the season will compete in the District Meet, May 12 and 13 at Rock Island. District Meet winners will compete at Champaign in the State Meet, May 19 and 20.
