Dedication
ie, the Senior Class of 1951, wish to dedicate our annual to Mr. W. F. Hart, who hes faitheully served as principal and instructor for the past five years.

IN MEMORIUM TO ED KEANE
In his own quiet way, not long ago,
A dear frlend of man was called to go,
In the calm, quiet stillness of night, His soul winged its way to mansions of light. Doubtless, too, in this heavenly land, He is lending his usual helping hand, And showing interest, as he used to do, In school activitiee the whole year through. A man far better than the usual pun, A man so full of life and fun, The Father has called to Him above, Leaving us only his memory to love. May we, when our lives on earth shall end, Join him, whom we so proudly called friend.

E. C. KEANE

PRINCIPALS MESSAGE

This year on May 22, will usher with it a great deal of happiness and also many regrets. This day is graduation at the Media High School. It seems a very short four years ago these students registered to enter high school. This Senior Class appeared to be a. very average group of students.

As their Freshman year began to close they had begun to exhibit a great deal of enthusiasim by entering into all phases of school activities.

When this years seniors became Sophomores they began to lead the field in deholarshif and anay activitiee over many of thelr older classmetec. This class grew more purposeful. Finally several members of the class gained state ride recognition for their ability.

This present year our graduating Seniors have received many high praises in athletics, club work, music and speech. This in turn has permitted our school to remain at the ton of the list.

This class has made it possible for us to carry out our axiom. "The best little school in the State." It is only by having students with the "will to win" and supported by aporeciative parents, teachers, and friends that Media High School cen hold its place in education. This years graduating class had all of these qualities.

We know not what class or whet students will come forth to carry the colors of the school. Next year will show what students will accept this responsibility. We all have faith in the "Spirit and Ideals of Media High."
"Ideals are like stars. You will not succeed in fouchiry them it th your hands, But like the seating man On the decent of Maters, You choose then sis four guide, And, following them, You reach your destiny,"

Mean rile we say, "Good Luck, Seniors."

Our first great event of: the yerrmwas when the Sophomore's initiated us. The girls wore long underwear with bathing suits over them and their Dad's work caps and work shoes. The boys wore shorts and halters and silk hose with their hair in pin curls. To set off our costumes, an egg in a stocking was hung around our necks and we carried a jar of fish worms.

We had two parties during the year. The first was the party for the sophomores in return for our initiation party. 'e had a class party ot Alene con odings home in the spring.

Prophecy

Get set in your favorite easy chair to view the premiere showing of a T. V. show of 1961 entitled SPOTLIGHT ON THE STARS, with the star of the show, Miss Vieva Lindgren. Miss Lindgren has taken over the Faye Emerson spot for Pepsi Cola.

We are indeed priviledged to preview this show for tonight Miss Lindgren will present some of her fellow graduates from the thedia High School elass of '51. She will show how their lives have changed these past ten years.

After a commercial from the Petite Pepsi Pixies, Liss Lindgren introduced her first guest, the former Sherrill Gregory, who is currently starring in the Helen Hayes role on Broadway. She and her Hollywood producer husband, Rene de Val, have just returned from their summer home in Beverly Hills and are now res siding on Park Avenue with a little white poodle Aamed Fifi and Miss Gregory's private Maid, Narie.

Miss Lindgren stated that tonight would be the last night her announcer would be with her. The reason for this is that James Livermore, Bing to you, has accepted the Boris Karloff role in a forthcoming Hollywood production. This is Mr. Livermore's first break from musical comedy since he finished making Mr . Music of 1961. A rumored romance between James and the petite French dancer, Mini, starring nightly at the Tajour club, may be one of the reasons for his increased interestin Hollywood.

Miss Helen Lowber made it to the show despite her busy career as the Betty Futton of the 60\%s. M she divides hev thememetween miollywood and Niew York and spends her tine between engagements on the farm in Kentucky, where she and her husband, a tobacco auctioneer, are raising race horses. Besides the clatter of little hoofs can be heard the patter of little feet.

Swoosh: That must have been Gene Heap, the aviator of the class in his new jet plane. Tuis is no surprise because Gene was up in the air most of the time during hich school days. Wo hope he gets stopped in time to tell us of his Arabian romance. Gene is now the Assistant Shaw of Arabia and has a private little harem all his own.

The president of the Society for Public Betterment, the former Joan Overton, told us of her social work in the metropolis of Mudia, which has risen to a population of $4,000,000$. She is now married to the Henderson County Farm advisor, who was chosen state farmer of 1961. He was formerly from the Terre Haute vicinity.

Miss Linderen than introduced an old friend from her hish school days, Darlys Torrance, who is private secretary for themmunchy: "runchy : IWinchy: mpacker Company. Darlys says you can't veat Crunchies for flavor. Sie spends most of her time on the bosses lap and the laree "carat" she is sporting on the third finger of her left hand is no vegetable.

That dignified gentleman now coming into view is none other than the boisterous member of the class of '51, Jue MoCıeary. Joe is row Dean of Boys' Town and is known to all as the benevolent Father Joseph. An inspiration to all was the rousing number by the U. S. Marine Band under the direction of Mrs. Helen Thomas. She secured this position through her husband's influence since his appointment to Congress as Speaker of the House.

This number featured Ruth Rankin and her cravavatious clarinet. Ruth is now living on a huge dairy farm near Good Hope. Besides her musical interests Ruth finds time to be society editor for the Raritan Reporter, which now has the world's largest circulation.

Livinc noar Ruth is the former Josie McCleary.

 made from the products of Cramer's Raboit Ranch which she owns jointly with her husband.

Flash: Donald "Wreck" Rothzen has just won top honors in a national hot rod race. Donald also owns a Rolls Royce in which he makes frequent trips to the Brown residence in Raritan. He has been going steady with Kathleen for 10 years. Let's hope they don't make any hasty decisions about marriage.

Another of the 1951 graduates has just become fanous: 'Ve don't see how the former Ruth Wallace found time out from her busy career to set the world's typine record. She is top stenographer and typist for the $U$. 11 . and is privately married to the Brazilian embassador to this country. They have several little sonors and senoritas.

Although our former advisor Coach Shelton known to the nuclear physicist world as the successor to Einstein, has just discovered a medicinal use for atomic onercy and secure for the common cold, we will always think of him as a kindly old gentleman with the tall tales and congeniel. ripe.
 Brokaw, now starring in Firago. mr. Brokew is world renouned for his stirring performances at the Metropolitan opera. He is now married to the star of this show and they are residing in their modest twentyfour room Park Avenue apartment.

After graduation from the London Conservatory of Music, Nancy Campbell started upon her illustrous career by playing the leading role in "Madame Butterfly ${ }^{\prime \prime}$. Since her retirement from the stage she is teaching voice in the Tri-Cities, and in her spare time supervises work at her board-stretcher factory. Besides his taxi-cab driving service Pete Utzinger owns a fender and body repair shop on the side. He is this establishments most frequent customer. Small brown-haired wife whom we have livingly heard him call Jeannie is his private lawyer and manages to get most of his disputes settled out of court.

In conclusion Miss Lindgren presented the noted author, Masy Ellen Gittings, who has jus\%"sispleted work in which she holds top honors since taking Emily Post's place in this field.

Miss Lindgren then bade farevell to her classmates until they should return to again brighten the spotlight of her show with their star porformances in 1971.

Twas the fall of "4?" just four years ago, That the class of " 51 " came to Media Mich all a low. Through our Freshman year we had times of frustration, But the worst of all was our initiation.

Then our Sophomore year rolled around, With us happy as a lark and silly as a clown. Te had a hayrack ride and a dance too, And of course, we had our lessons to do.

Then in the fall of " $49^{\prime \prime}$, we again came to liedia Rich's hall,
Known as the Jolly Juniors, which the teachers will recall.
With a carnival and a class play and Junior-senior Banquet too,
This was ane year that kent us from feeling bile.
Now although it s nard to believe, Sixteen seniors are going to leave. There's Gene and Jim and Josie and Don, Joe and Pete and Ruth and John.

Sherrill and Jean and Ruth and Mary Ellen, Darlys and Vieva and Nancy and Helen. ITedia High we hate to go. Because we 'te learned to love you so.

Some of the things we sponsored to make money were: a hay rack ride, paper and scran iron drive, and a dance. We were very happy when they all proved suecessful.

We were all very proud when Kathleen Brown and Ronald Brewer were chosen Queen and King of the Carnival. We were just as proud of Shirley Rothmen when she crowned Homecoming Queen.

To show how active we were all year lone, there were seventeen out of nineteen out for chorus, nine for band, eight plus one manager for football, nine for basketball, and eighteen for speech. We also had sereral people out for solos and ensembles. Four of the boys were initiated into the M Club.

During the first six weeks we lost the Boone twins and Anita Hartley joined us the first mart of the secon semester, having transfered from Dwioht. Now we have only eighteen silly sophomores looking for the day they will be jolly Juniors.

ACTIVITIES

The "Media" of The Cunard Lines

The F. P. A. is organized as an integral part of the vocational-agriculture department. Its scope is as wide as the United States and all its possessions, this being startiingly evident by the fact that F.F.A, members attend the National. Convention from Aleska, Porto R1co, Hamail, as well as our 48 states, F. F. A. furnishes an orgenized framework in which members compete for degrees, may hold office, and can find comparison for their projects. The officers for the Media Chapter this year were:

Gene Heap, James Livermore, John Brokaw, Donald Rothzen were able to attend the National. vention at Kansas City, John was a member of the Na - tional Chorus at the Convention. The boys were impressed by seeing 15000 boys in a meeting being run by their own officers.

In the vo-ag shop all the classes learned something of use and care of tools, carpentry, sheet metal work, and general mechanics. The freshmen and sophomores were merely introduced to these subjects but Ag. 3 was a shop class primarily. Building and repair jobs that are typical of all farm were performed. In shop the Ag. Classes made scenery for dramatic and musical stage productios put on by the high school.

The High School Farm is where the boys get the actukl experience in doing ferm Jobs. Right: at the present time some of the boys are digging up and cleaning tile leading from the milkhouse. The farm has recently been turned over to a commercial farm operator, but will remain under the management of the vocational agriculture instructor. The classes will assist him in management problems, especially those in which they can encounter new experiences. The farm will continue to operate under a conservation and Iivestock system. It is planned for the students to participate in future construction of soil saving devices, soil testing, building repair, building conetruction, livestock management, and in planning operation.

In May our annual F. F. A. Banquet was held.

JUIIIOR CLASS PLAY SYIOPSIS

John Betterly, small town business man, conceals his nodest race trace speculations from his haranguing wife until the day when he draws a winner. $$ 500,000$ at stake, and he cannot locate the necessary ticket which he had carelessly used as a bookmark! His partner, young Nick Barnes, in love with Peggy,John's daughter, shares in the deal, and together they comb the Betterly home, to no avail. Further complications arise when a raval claimant appears at the bank with a fake ticket. of course the right coupon is found; and if you become a good auditor-dective(as you most surely will) you will enjoy having your solution verified. But there is still another surprise for you in the romance of Peggy and Nick.

Much good comedy is provided by Godiva, the negro maid, whose drawling tempo and idiosyncrasies contrast sharply with the intense mood and action of the other characters.

When school started this fall there were twentyfive members ready to start off with a loud "toot".

During the year the band played at several events at school. These included the senior class play, a basketball game sponsored by the Wever Staff, and at Award Night.

Another event that the band took part in was a parade to welcome Santa Claus at Burlington, November 24. Despitie: the temperature winich mappened to bea around $8^{\circ}$ below, we felt very ninored and happy that we were the only high school band playing for the parade. The $\$ 60$ that the Chamber of Commerce gave us to help pay for our new piano, lessened the hardships of the day.

After Christmas we started practicing on numbers for the Bi-County Band Festival which was held February 15 at Kirkwood.

Duane Torrance played a baritone solo, "Romance", in the District Jusic Contest at Abingdon, March 31. Duane received a third place rating.

The last event of the year and one in which we hod a lot of fun was a concert at Galesburg in the new Knox College Gym. Twenty selected schools and nearly 1,000 students spent the whole day as sort of a play day, along with the concert in the evening. At 10:30 A.M. we had rehearsal in the new gym. At four o'clock, during recreation period, some of us went swimming in the new pool at the college. The barbeque held at $5: 30$ was enough to tease any appetite. We closed our eventful day with the evening concert. Nembers in band this year were: Clarinets-Ruth Rankin, Vieva Lindgren,Dick Overstreet, Gary Wisslead, Shirley Rothzen; Cornets Nancy Campbell, futh Wallace, Keith Waller, Kathleen Brown, Sammy Wallace, Terecia Van Arsdale, Lawrence Brokawi Cysibals - Josie Miccieaty: Trombones - Sherrill Gregory, Sybella Saben, James Blender: Bass Horn-Lewis Arnold; Bass Drum - Carlyle Johnson; Snare Drum-Ardene Torrance; Baritone-Duane Torrance; Baritone Sax- Frank Bigger; Tenor Sax - Darlys Torrance, James Corzatt; Baton Twirlers - Marian Lauver, Anita Hartley.

The mired chorus consisted of fifty-two members, twenty-four oils and twenty-etoht boys. Thempoys chorus conskaten of twphty-eteththoys mhd tsemAM were twenty-five in girls chorus.

The first big event of the year was a musical show "Singing Our Way Through the U.S.A." which was given November 20 in the gym. The singing of nonular songs from each state was really a hit with everyone. There mere quartets, duets, solo, dances, cowboy numbers, and many different acts that everyone enjoyed. This was the first night we used our new piano. It is a Cable Nolson Spinet piano which we purchased from Lyon and Healy in Chicago. The proceeds from our production went toward the payments on it. Mr. Walkers Ag class built a cabinet on the stape where we keep the diano safe from scratches.

Durine: the Christmas season the combined Media Grade and Hirh School choruses pat on a beautiful cred Christmas Pareant.

After Christmas vacation we started nracticing on the numbers for the B1-County Chorus Festival, which was held March 20 at Roseville.

As individuals, various members of the chorus have taken हctive nart in provicing music for social functions throurhout the year. Numbered amone these events were the Mother's Christmas Tea sponsored by the F. H. A. ,

Among all the books in our library this year was 125 books which had been newly rebound at Pfisterers Bindery in Galesburg. The correct Dewey Decimal number was embossed on each book.

The library is very adequate in books, magazines and reference materials that are up to date. Some of the magazines in our library are, namely, "Ideal," "Holiday," "Cornet," "Life," "Readers Digest," "Post," "Time," and "Skyways."

A nemspaper frak was kent in the stuaty hall where students had the oprortunity to read them in leisure time. Newspapers from Galesburg, Monmouth, Burlington, Chicago, Rock Island, Aledo, and Raritan were quite welcomed by students and faculty members.

Shelf checkers used a systematic way in checking their assigned shelves. Each shelf was checked at least twice a week. Books were seldom lost and usually were easily located.
