Class Poem

We're the class of '58,
Our high school days are o'er,
But as we go our separate ways,
We'll remember them evermore.

As Freshmen, we came to this fair school
Full of hopes and dreams.
We worked and worked and studied hard,
And had our fun in reams.

Our Sophomore days came and went.
My, how the time did fly!
But as you see, we passed that goal
And became Juniors by and by.

Junior years are busy years,
They say they're hard to pass.
But how we struggled until we found
We were in the Senior class.

But now our senior days are gone,
Memories we'll have always.
Initiation, dances, parties and such,
Football, basketball and class plays.

English, biology, history and ag.,
Home ec. courses, typing and math,
Bookkeeping, physics, driver training and more;
These are a few that helped broaden our path.

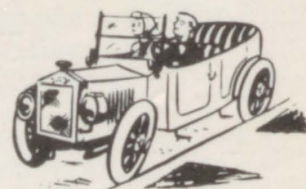

Now we stand ready to face the world,
Or anything else, for that matter.
All we have, or what's to be ours,
We owe to our Alma Mater.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1954, we entered Media High School as Freshmen, with a class of sixteen. As class officers, we chose: Bonnie Bultemeier, Pres; Ray Carlson, Vice-Pres; Norma Berg, Secy; Linda Kemp, Treas; Sue Perrine, Reporter. Our class advisor was Mrs. Doris Palmer. On November 16 we had a Sadie Hawkins' Party for the whole school. Bob Burghorn and Sue Perrine left during the year.

On August 29, 1955, fourteen sophomores were ready to begin their second year at Media High. We elected the following officers: Linda Reynolds, Pres; Bonnie Bultemeier, Vice-Pres; Norma Berg, Sec; Jean Anders, Treas; Ray Rosenbalm, Reporter. We chose Miss Jurgensen and Mr. Shelton as our advisors. Linda Reynolds and Gerry Lenz were our Homecoming representatives. Our candidates for the Junior Carnival were Norma Berg and Sam Waterman. We were happy when Norma was chosen queen. John Boone, Doralee Newland, and Irvin Humes moved away the first of the year.

Our Junior year really began when we received our class rings. Having ordered them in the spring of our Sophomore year, they arrived shortly after the opening of school. Our class officers for this year were; Norma Berg, Pres; Ray Carlson, Vice-Pres; Linda Reynolds, Secy; Linda Kemp, Treas; Joyce Reid, Reporter. Student Council representatives were Jean Anders and Ray Carlson. Miss Bodeen and Mr. Bowen served as our class advisors. This year Joyce Reid and Linda Reynolds were chosen as varsity cheerleaders. Our class skit, "The Viper," won second place at the Homecoming Pep Rally. Ray Carlson and Linda Kemp were our candidates for the Homecoming Dance. Linda was crowned queen. For our Junior Carnival, we chose Jean Anders and Gerry Lenz as candidates for queen and king. On March 22, 1957, the class presented a humorous play, "Grandad Steps Out." It was directed by our English teacher, Miss Bodeen. We sponsored the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held at the Hotel Burlington, May 18. Our theme was "STARDUST." We welcomed Gwen Inghram and Bob Parrack back into the class.

THIS IS IT! Twelve seniors were ready for our last year at M. H. S. Pres, Jean Anders; Vice-Pres, Martin Jacobs; Secy, Norma Berg; Treas, Linda Reynolds; Reporter, Ray Carlson. Joyce Reid and Gerry Lenz were our Student Council Representatives, with Ray Carlson as President of the organization. We chose Mrs. Edythe Johnson and Mr. Walker to be our advisors. Our first big event was our Homecoming with Kirkwood on September 27, 1957. Our king and queen candidates for the dance were Sam Waterman and Gwen Inghram. We were all very happy when they were crowned King and Queen. We presented our class play, "The House Nobody Lived In," on November 8. Our senior pictures arrived in time for us to give them as Christmas gifts. January 17, 1958, ended our first semester. These were the last semester tests we were to take at Media High School. To earn money for our class trip we picked up corn, sponsored eat stands at our home football and basketball games, collected scrap iron, and had a clean-up day. May was full of great expectations. The Juniors honored our class with a Junior-Senior Banquet on May 3. On May 18 was Baccalaureate and on May 20 we received our diplomas. We left Media for our trip East on May 22.

Juniors

We elected the following officers for our Junior class: President, Darvis Overstreet; Vice-President, Curtis Flatt; Secretary, Patty Lee; Treasurer, Neal Brokaw; Reporter, Russell Coburn; Student Council, Bill McCollum and Gary Harden. Mrs. Duncan and Mr. Bowen were our class sponsors. When Russell Coburn left at the end of the first semester, Bonnie Swanson was elected as Reporter.

Our first big event as Juniors was when our class rings came the second week of school.

For Homecoming king and queen attendents we chose Darvis Overstreet and Patty Lee.

The Junior Carnival was held on March 14; for this we chose Curtis Flatt and Bonnie Swanson to be our king and queen candidates.

On April 25, the class presented a three-act comedy play, "Rest Assured." Mrs. Johnson, our English teacher, directed the play.

The Juniors entertained the Senior class and faculty at a banquet at the Hotel Burlington, May 3, 1958.

Future Farmers of America

The Media Chapter of the Future Farmers of America carried an enrollment of 32 during the year. Among these boys, were 48 profit making projects. The officers for the year are as follows: President, Bill McCollum; Vice-President, J. D. Bricker; Secretary, Neal Brokaw; Treasurer, Sam Waterman; Reporter, Darvis Overstreet; Sentinel, Curtis Flatt. Our Advisor is Mr. Walker.

Our forestry project made the chapter some money as did some picnic tables we made and sold. The money in our treasury is used to finance our parent's night supper. We now have a nice surplus for the chapter in the coming year.

The F.F.A. has helped to furnish settings for class plays and has erected a Nativity scene on the high school lawn. Many of the local papers ran stories and pictures of this Christmas decoration.

On March 10, J.D. Bricker, our representative in the F.F.A. Public Speaking Contest, went to Galesburg and won a first-place rating in the sectional contest.

Our shop has been very busy during the year with many metal and wood-working jobs being completed for various people of the community.
