Senior Class Poem

Twenty-one Seniors and jolly are we,
As the road ahead to our future we see.
Good times that we've had, though a few have been bad,
Will live in our memories as happy and glad.

We will now depart on our separate ways, But we'll remember each other for the rest of our days.
And as we gaze back on our high school life,
The fun that we had will oer' shadow the strife.

By Chuck Galbraith

Answers on Page 30

When the books close, and the last bell rings,
And carefree days are lost to mundane things-
When nostalgia strikes, and your memory waned,
And you remember the faces but not the names-
Pick up your yearbook and leaf it through,
And remember the days so dear to you.
