We, the Senior Class of 1965, wish to dedicate this yearbook to our parents.

Our years of school would not have been so memorable without the extra time and patience that you have spent in molding us to be the individuals that we are today. The many sacrifices that you have made for us will long be remembered.

The bus drivers are always busy at the job of picking up the students and delivering them to and from school.

Hot Lunch cooks Gladys Heap, Margie Beresford, and Helen Newman feed us exceptionally well.

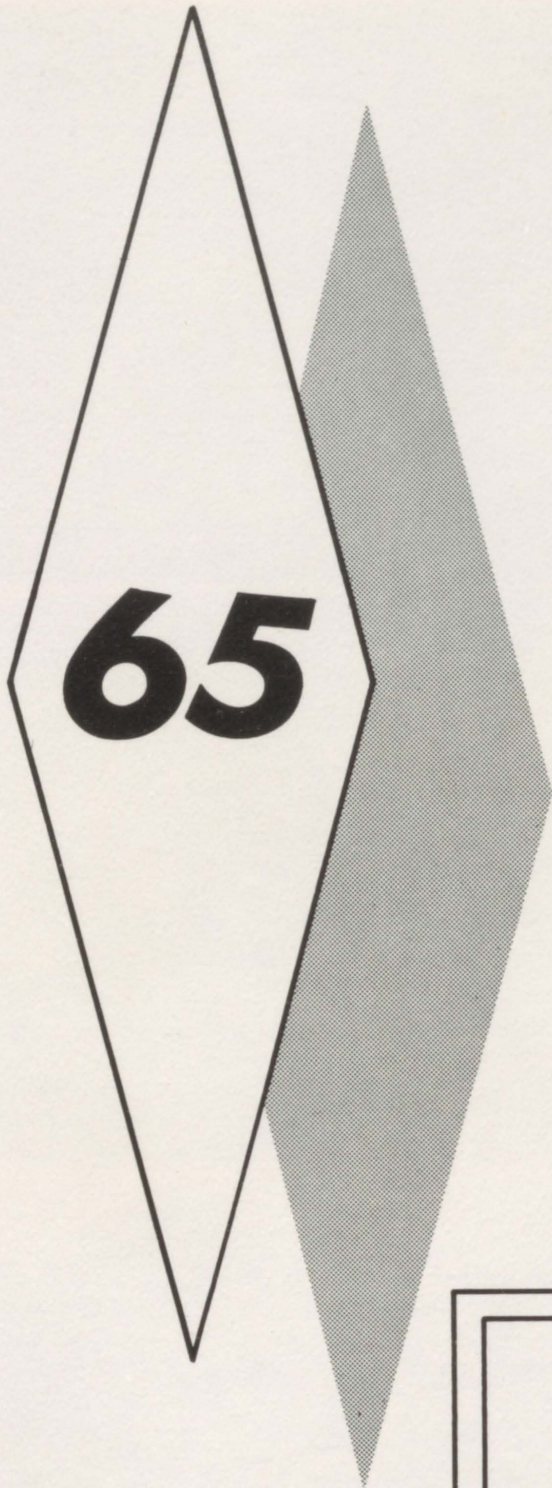

Our janitor, Carl Van Order, keeps Media High School neat and clean for us.

The librarians help make it possible for students and teachers to check out books at any hour of the day.

As new Juniors, we started the eventful year by receiving our class rings. The Homecoming dance was held on October 30 and our candidates were Marcile Butler and Ed Schenck. At our fund raising Junior Carnival our candidates were Dennis Harden and Cheryl Corzatt. This year was the first year we presented a class play. The play was entitled, "I Was A Teenage Dracula." The highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom on April 30. This made our year complete. Now we are looking forward to our year as seniors. Class advisors were Mrs. Duncan and Mr. Walker. No photos were available of Kathy Reynolds and Steve Inghram.

As Freshman we enjoyed our first year at MHS. The first event we enjoyed was our Freshman initiation party. On October 9 we returned the initiation party for the Sophomores. Our candidates for the Junior Carnival were Dennis Overstreet and Carolyn Schenck. King and Queen candidates for Homecoming were Susan Heap and Steve Carlson. We know that as freshmen we are just starting, but we are proud of our achievements. Class advisors were Miss Childress and Mrs. Kozel.

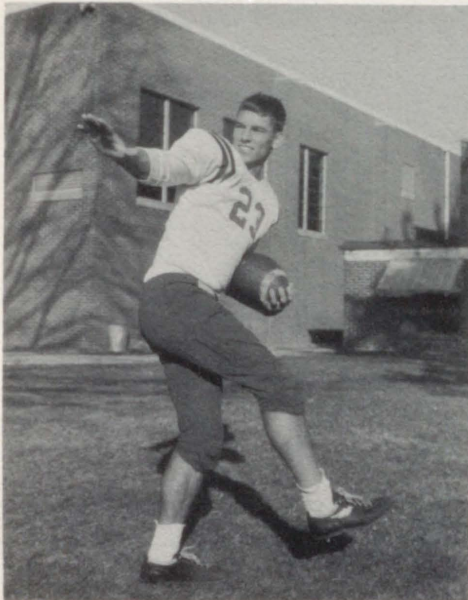

SPORTS

Football

This year's squad worked exceptionally hard all year long to have a very good season. The most valuable defensive players were Steve Kettelkamp and Dwaine Roche. The most valuable offensive player was Jim Heap. The most improved player was Dan Edwards. Steve Kettelkamp was chosen on the KBUR Top Prep team. The squad had a 3-4-1 record. The big win of the season was Homecoming game with Union 26-0 win.

Row 1: J. White, R. Bowen, D. Roche, D. Harden, J. Heap. Row 2: Coach Billups, R. Hulet, P. VanArsdale, B. Mowen, B. McCollum, E. Schenck

The Bulldogs, a pre-season favorite to win the Bi-County Championship, opened the season with strong victories over the two next ranked teams. As the season progressed, a couple of untimely losses forced us to accept a tie with Yorkwood for first. The Bulldogs Won 17 and Lost 7.

The outstanding offense player was Dwaine Roche; defense, Jeff White; most improved, Paul Van Arsdale; best percentage, Dwaine Roche. Jeff White was named to the KBUR listening area prep team.

The JV's got off to a slow start this year mainly because the boys were not used to playing together as a team. After gaining experience and working together through the first few games their pattern of play began to look more like a team effort. They lost one of their better players when Coach Billups decided to start Rodney Bowen on the Varsity Squad. They finished with a 7 wins, 11 losses record.

Track Team Undeclared in Dual Meets

The Track Team was off to a good start with 27 boys on the squad. By the end of the season, 8 boys had received their letters. Media had a record of two wins and one tie in the 8 Track Meets held this year. The year was highlighted by the following school records set by Jeff White of the 1965 track squad: Low Hurdles, 21.8 seconds; 220 yard dash, 22.9 seconds.

Media Choral Groups Enjoyed Successful Year

The Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Marvin Kuipers, made many appearances which included the following: Winter Concert, the Bi-County Festival, and the State Contest. They received an excellent rating at the Contest.

It was also a very successful year for the Girls' Chorus. They performed in the State Contest in Buda, Illinois where they received an excellent rating.

"Has anyone seen a ruler?" Did anyone bring candid shots today?" These are the sounds that are heard each time the Annual Staff meets. Our busy Editor, Linda Harden, and Co-editor, Pam Thompson, along with Mrs. Macgregor, our supervisor, have helped to make this year's annual a successful one. Our business manager, Anita Meyers, kept us within our budget and Janet Covert, our photographer, snapped photos to help us record 1965.

The Boys Chorus, newly formed this year, consisted of 21 members. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed their performance at the Bi-County Festival.

Pep Club

This year we had forty members in our club. The officers for the year were: President, Pam Thompson; Vice-President, Connie Avery; Secretary, Elaine Blender; Treasurer, Mary Corzatt. A large per cent of our members attended the football and basketball games urging the boys on to victory. On October 29, the Pep Club sponsored a Homecoming Pep Rally.

Girls Athletic Association

Our officers for 1964-65 were: President, Loma Arnold; Vice-President, Nancy Pogue; Secretary, Kathy Reynolds; Treasurer, Cheryl Corzatt; Sponsor, Mrs. MacGregor. There were thirty-seven members in our association. Thirteen freshmen were initiated into the club on March 16. During the year, the girls participated in many activities including soccer, basketball, volleyball, badminton, archery, bowling; and tumbling. The G.A.A. Annual Dance was held on February 19.

The F.F.A. boys participated in many activities during the year. The highlight for the year was the annual F.F.A. banquet held on October 27. The F.F.A. department has had many other activities during the year including rewiring the shop, putting up a new pegboard ceiling and cedar strips, and eventually painting the ceiling. The Media F.F.A. department officers were: President, Jim Heap; Vice-President, Paul Van Arsdale; Secretary, Ed Schenck; Treasurer, Rich Day; Reporter, Dan Mowen; Sentinel, Jeff White; Advisor, Mr. Stanley Walker.

The F.H.A. has been very busy in the past nine months. Their first activity was the F.F.A.-F.H.A. picnic at Crapo Park. The annual Christmas tea was held on December 18, which was prepared by the F.H.A. girls. Officers for the year were: President, Mary Corzatt; 1st Vice-President, Sara Allison; 2nd Vice-President, Linda Harden; Secretary, Janet Covert; Treasurer, Pam Thompson; Vice-President of Projects, Connie Day; Vice-President of Public Relations, Carol Schenck; Vice-President of Recreation, Karen Galbraith and Carlyn Armstrong; Degrees Chairman, Elaine Blender and Cheryl Corzatt; Historian, Deborah White; Chapter Mother, Mrs. Joe Kozel; Chapter Advisor, Mrs. Wm. Stevenson.

ACTIVITIES

OK, let's get to work!

Autumn Leaves

Homecoming was the most outstanding event of the year. Playing Union, the Bulldogs came out with a victory 26 to 0. A halftime performance was put on by the Media Pep Band. Following the game, a Homecoming Dance was held in the high school gym, featuring the well-known Blue Notes. The theme for the 1964 Homecoming was Autumn Leaves.

Candidates for homecoming were Freshmen Sue Heap and Steve Carlson; Sophomores Carol Schenck and Kerry Gibb; Juniors Marcile Butler and Ed Schenck. Everyone was real happy when Mary Corzatt and Jim Heap, the Senior candidates, were crowned Queen and King.

Junior Carnival Is A Great Success!

November 13 was the date of one of the main attractions during the school year, the Junior Carnival. Each class raised money by setting up stands. The seniors had the food stand and the sponge throw, which was enjoyed by all except the seniors.

This year was a big one for the juniors. Their stands included the King and Queen, novelty, bean count, fortune teller, chance, dart throw, football throw, basketball throw, baseball throw, penny pitch, bingo, candy stand and the auction.

The sophomores set up the golf putt stand, for all promising golfers, and the fish pond.

Many tested their strength by stopping at the nail drive stand set up by the freshmen.

The cake walk was sponsored by the FHA.

Danny Edwards was elected King and Nancy Pogue was elected Queen. Their attendants were Dennis Harden, Cheryl Corzatt, Dennis Overstreet, Carol Schenck, Dwaine Roche, and Linda Avery.

I wish they would hurry.

This is my lucky night!

The Queen is crowned.

The Junior Class presents "I Was A Teen-age Dracula"

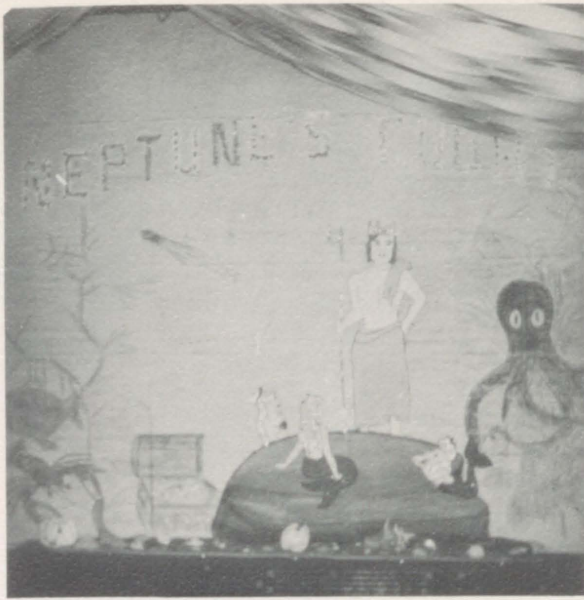

I Was A Teen-age Dracula, a mystery-comedy in three acts by Gene Donovan, was given by the Junior Class, April 2, 1965. The leading male character was Bob McCollum, who played Steve Dracca. The leading female was Kathy Reynolds, who played the modern miss. The cast included Sue Marshall, a modern miss (Kathy Reynolds); Pete, her brother (Ed Schenck); Enid Purdy, her aunt (Coni Hobby); Clyde Purdy, her uncle (Jerry Gearhart); Audrey, her girl friend (Carolyn Armstrong); Termite, Pete's pal (Steve Inghram); Marlene, the maid (Marcile Butler); Steve Dracca from Transylvania (Bob McCollum); Dr. Cole, a visitor (Dennis Harden); Mrs. Erskine, a neighbor (Connie Hull); Steinbeck, a policeman (Dana Rockel); Dodo and Jackie, dear ghouls (Linda Avery and Karen Galbraith); Lola (Debby White); Batty (Cheryl Corzatt); two attendants (Vivian Carlson and Marilyn Magee).

The Senior Class presents "The Perfect Idiot"

The Perfect Idiot, a farce in three acts by Eunice and Grant Atkinson, was given by the Senior Class, November 20, 1964. The leading male character was Eliot Duncan, the young genius. The cast included Margaret Tennyson, mother of the household (Nancy Pogue); Jackie Tennyson, her youngest son (Paul VanArsdale); Rhodora, the maid (Loma Arnold); Roger Tennyson, father of Dan and Jackie (Richard Hulet); Walter P. Latherby, soap manufacturer, (Dwayne Roche); Daniel Tennyson, the young genius (Eliot Duncan); Arthur Barnard, principal of Center High School (Jeff White); Miss Baker, a teacher (Mary Jane Cavins); Linda Barnard, Mr. Barnard's daughter (Sara Allison); Jeannie Wilson, Jackie's girl (Janet Covert); Aloysius (Puff) Witomski, star athlete (James Heap); Carla Carlson, Puff's girl (Pam Thompson); A Policman (Bill Mowen); Dr. Hockhorst Von Barf, a psychiatrist (Joe Galbreath); Miss Booth, a newspaper reporter (Penny Hull).

"Neptune's Court"

was a very beautiful theme for the 1965 Junior-Senior Prom. This exciting affair was initiated by a banquet at Media Presbyterian Church and followed by an orchestra dance held at the Media High School Gym. "Tiny Bigg's Band" provided music. The stage was decorated with a white whale waves, and a fish net. The theme of "Neptune's Court" was emphasized by a figure of Neptune and three mermaids in the bottom of the sea.

The officers for 1964-1965 were President, Mary Corzatt; Vice-President, Mary Jane Cavins; Treasurer, Joe Galbreath; Secretary, Richard Hulet.

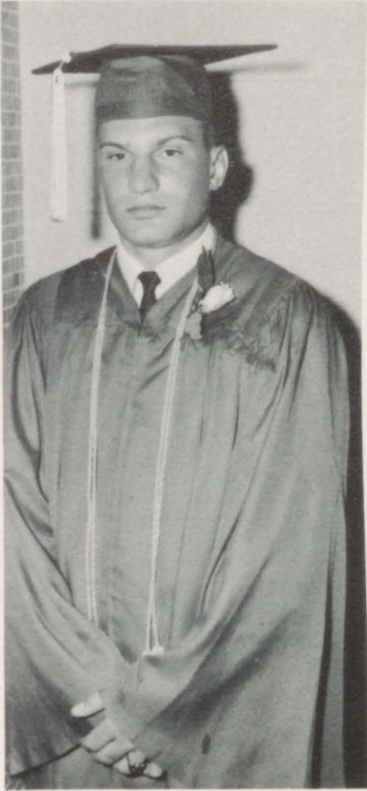

Media High Speech Team

The speech team representing Media included Dana Rockel, Carolyn Sawings, Kathy Reynolds, Loma Arnold, Barbara Yaley, Edward Schenck, Joe Galbreath, Sara Allison, Marcile Butler and Dwaine Roche. Our team tied for second place in the Bi-County speech contest held at Little York. Speech coach was Mrs. Margaret Duncan. Our team also made a good showing at the District Tournament.

Honors

Steve Kettlekamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kettlekamp, Media, won Valedictory honors of the class of 1965 with an average of 4.87.

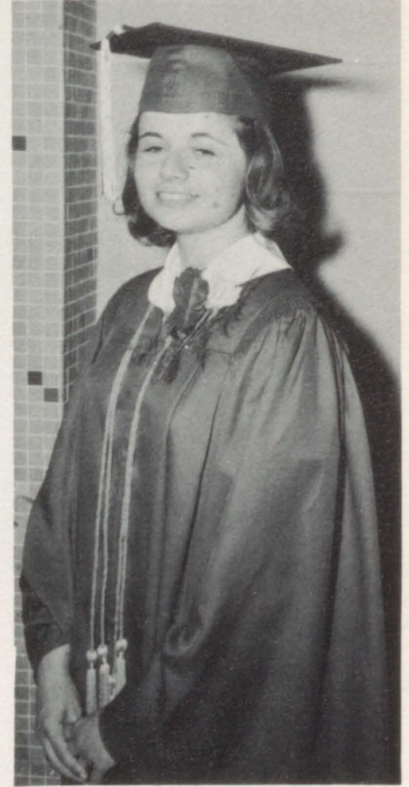

He has participated in football, basketball, track, band, and chorus.

Steve also has been a member of the Student Council, the National Honor Society, and the Society of Academic Achievement. He has been accepted at Iowa Wesleyan College, Mr. Pleasant, Iowa.

Mary Jane Cavins, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Cavins, Media, won Salutatory honors with an average of 4.81. She is a member of the National Honor Society and the Society for Academic Achievement.

Mary Jane has participated in many activities including GAA, Pep Club, band and speech.

She has been accepted at Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri.

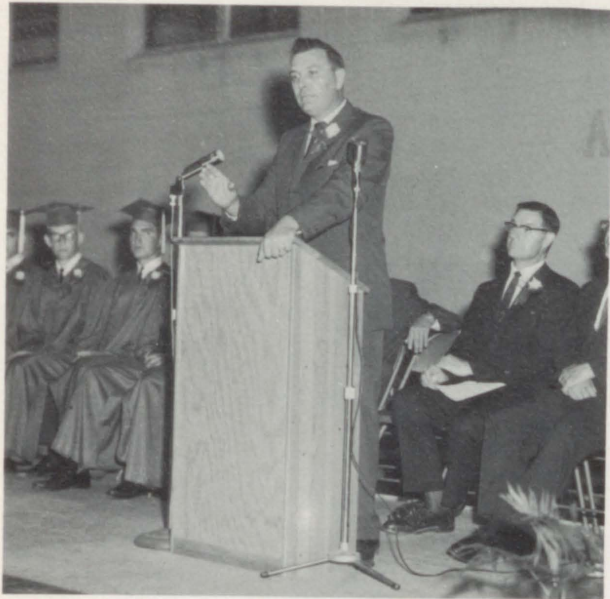

Selected by their classmates were Mary Jane Cavins and Eliot Duncan, who are the recipients of the D. A. R. (Daughters of the American Revolution) awards. In determining the winners, personal essential citizenship qualities were considered. These qualities included honesty, service, punctuality, leadership, patriotism, and truthfulness.

Eliot has participated in football, track, band, chorus and speech. He has taken part in both class plays and has been a member of the student council and National Honor Society. Eliot has been accepted at Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois.

Mary Jane has been active in many activities during her four years in high school and has won Salutatory honors for 1965.
