A Man of Men

We, the Seniors of '66, wish to express our deep appreciation to the man who has done so much for our school, for all his contributions-- not only to the school, but to the community as well--the 1966 Wever staff wishes to salute Mr. Carl Shelton, retiring principle, as an educator, a counselor, and a friend--but most of all as an outstanding citizen of Media.

CUSTODIAN - Carl Van Order, who has been at Media High School for the past few years plays an important part in keeping our school neat and clean.

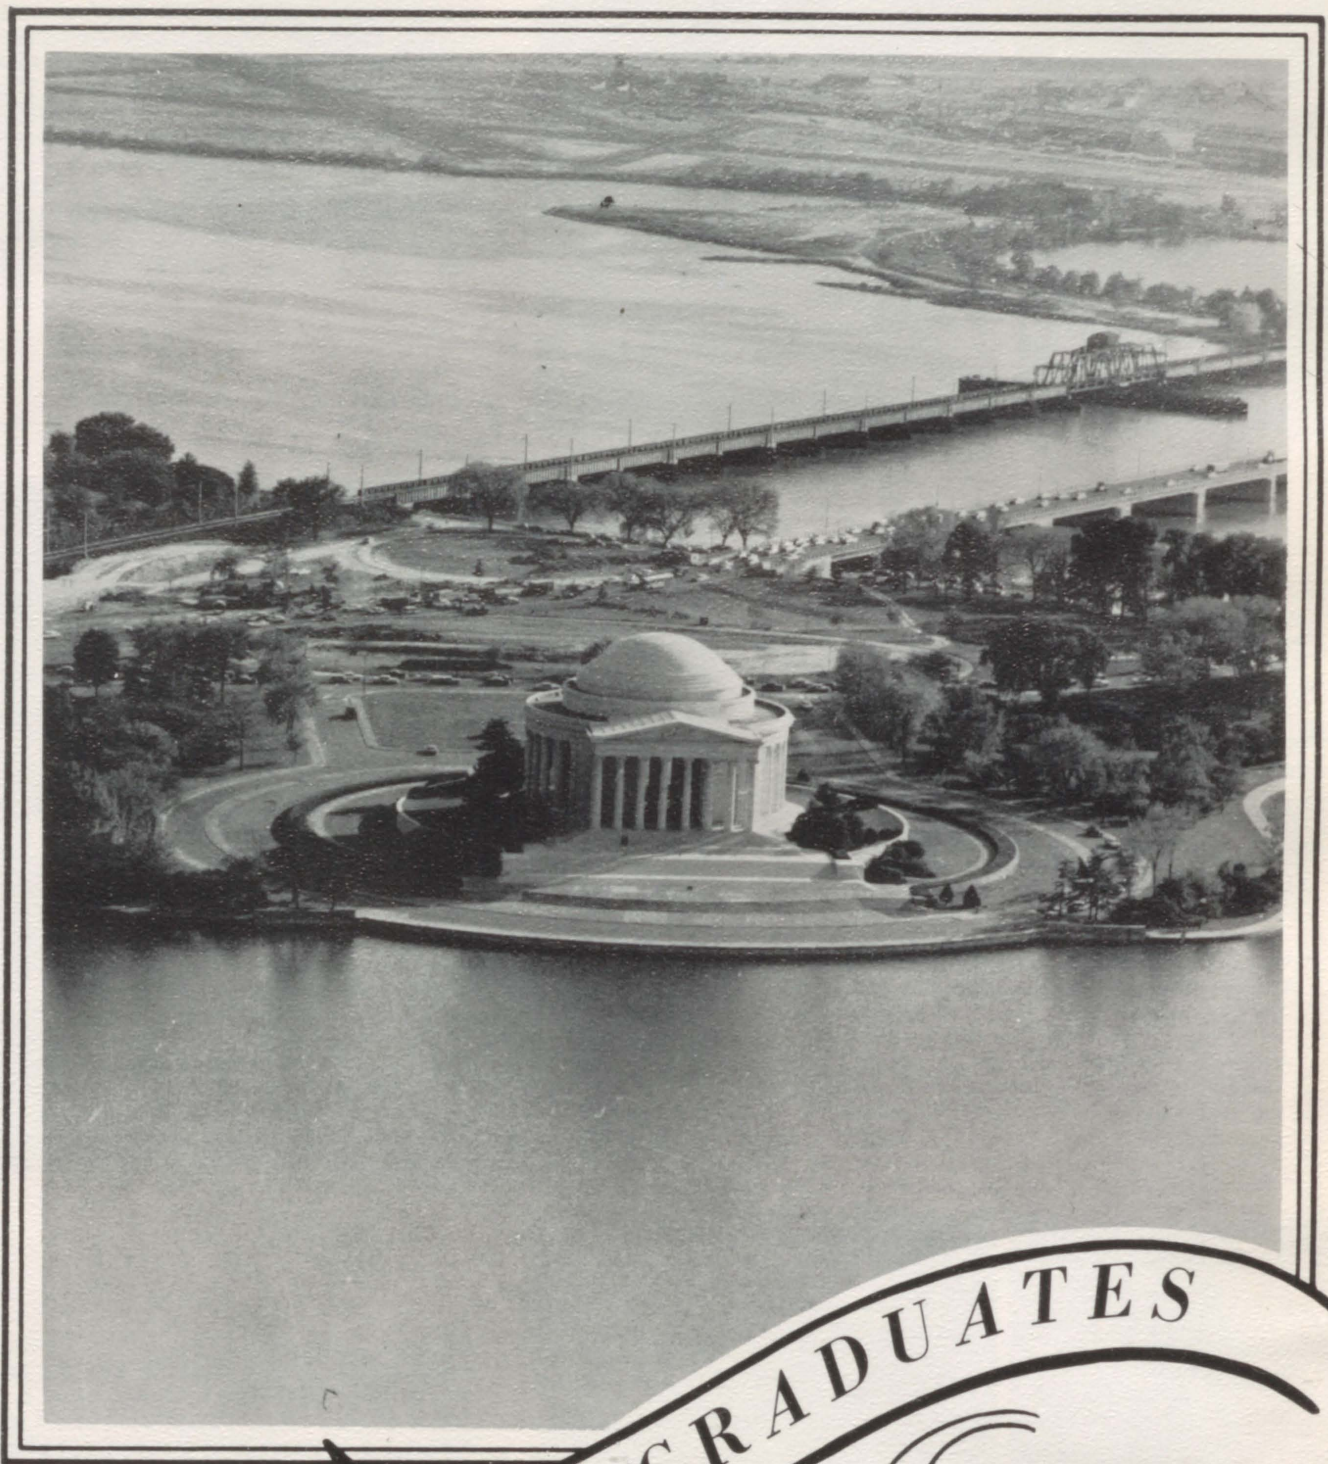

FLAG RAISERS - Karen Galbraith and Cheryl Corzatt, are always on the job of raising and lowering the flag.

BOOKEEPER - Elna Erickson, you will find her busily keeping the school records in order.

COOKS - Lois Davis, Louise Booth, and Jean Kettlekamp. What would Media High do without its cooks? They are on the job every day of the school year and feed us very well.

Twenty-six Sophomores started another year at M.H.S. Linda Cassiday joined the class soon after the year began. One of the big events of the year was the Freshman Initiation held on October 15. We elected Rick Thompson and Kay White as our King and Queen candidates for Homecoming. On January 7, we had a record-hop after the R.M.A. basketball game, which was a big success. For the Junior Carnival we elected Elmer Berg and Martha Musser to represent our Sophomore class as King and Queen candidates. Our advisors for this year were Mrs. Stevenson and Mr. O'Connor.

Eighteen green freshmen entered Media High School in August of 1965 to begin our high school career.

We then elected our class officers as follows: John Keane, President; Wayne McCollum, Vice-President; Barbara Thomas, Secretary; Gary Rockel, Treasurer; Marilyn Blender and Patty Bowen, Student Council. Our advisors are Mrs. Kozel and Mr. Kuipers.

On October 15 we were given an initiation party by the Sophomores. On November 6 we gave them a return party.

Soon homecoming was here and we elected Dianna Avery and Wayne McCollum as our candidates.

Our attendants for Junior Carnival were Barbara Lowry and Mike Vickers.

We are looking forward to our Sophomore year.

ORGANIZATIONS

Media Band Sets All Time Record

The Media Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Marvin Kuipers, presented a winter and a spring concert during the year. March 24, they participated in the Bi-County Band Festival at Warren. State contest came in the spring when the band traveled to Bartonville and received a super rating.

The Marching Band was represented at the Prime Beef Festival in Monmouth, the area band festival in Burlington, and the Christmas Parade in Burlington. Kathy Reynolds was Media's candidate for queen of the area band festival.

The Media Band ended an excellent year by finishing 2nd in the Sweepstakes for Class D bands in the state of Illinois. This year our solos and ensembles broke an all time record for receiving 14 firsts and 7 seconds.

ACTIVITIES

Only Yesterday

Thursday evening, the night before the Homecoming game with Stronghurst, we had a pep rally at the football field. The Junior girls presented us with a pep skit.

At our Homecoming game with Stronghurst we were defeated by a score of 7-0. Following the game, a Homecoming Dance was held in the high school gym, featuring the James Bainbridge Band.

The Homecoming Royalty was Karen Galbraith and Dennis Harden, both Seniors. Their attendants were Marcia Cortelyou and Paul Dixon, Juniors; Kay White and Rick Thompson, Sophomores; Dianna Avery and Wayne McCollum, Freshmen.

Junior Carnival--A Great Success

One of the most outstanding events this year was the Junior Carnival.

Each class out-did themselves with the following stands:

The Seniors were in charge of the food stand and the sponge throw. The sponge throw was a highlight for all parents, teachers, underclassmen, and all other enemies of the Seniors.

The Juniors had the following stands; bingo, candy, penny pitch, basketball throw, football throw, baseball throw, coin count, money drop, fortune teller, dart throw, and king and queen stands. Chances were also sold on a bulldog sweatshirt.

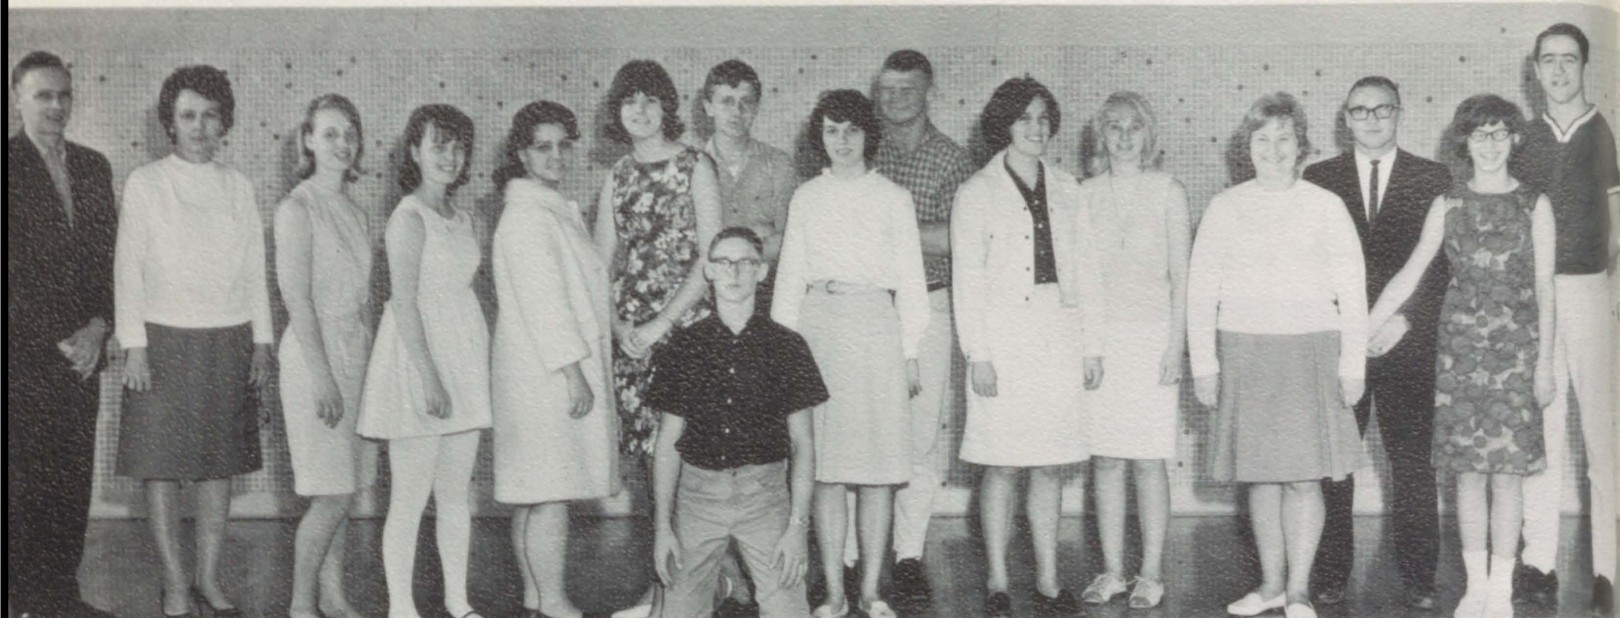

The Sophomores were in charge of the golf stand and the fish pond.

The Freshmen profited from the race track.

Each class chose their candidates for king and queen by popular vote. The candidates were as follows: Freshmen-Barbara Lowry and Mike Vickers; Sophomores-Martha Musser and Elmer Berg; Juniors-Connie Avery and Rich Day; Seniors-Gloria Wallace and Steve Inghram. Carol Schenck, Secretary of the Junior Class, crowned Rich Day King, and Glen McCollum, President of the Junior Class, crowned Barbara Lowry Queen.

The Senior Class presents "A Date With Judy"

"A Date With Judy", a comedy in three acts by Aileen Leslie, was given by the Senior Class, April 1, 1966. The leading male character was John Keane, Judy's younger brother, Randolph Foster. The leading female character was Marcile Butler, who played Judy Foster. The cast included Melvin Foster, Judy's father (Dana Rockel); Dora Foster, Judy's mother (Debby White); Hannah, the maid (Connie Hull); Barbara Winsocket, Judy's friend (Cheryl Corzatt); Oogie Pringle, the man in Judy's life (Ed Schenck); Mitzi Hoffman, another of Judy's friends (Karen Galbraith); Mr. Martindale, a theatrical producer (Jerry Gearhart); Mrs. Hotchkiss, the laundry lady (Vivian Carlson); Eloise Hotchkiss, her daughter, who elocutes (Kathy Reynolds); Mrs. Shultzhammer, of the P.T.A. (Ruby Overstreet); Rexford Meredith O'Connor, a new boy in town (Dennis Harden); and Susie, Rex's kid sister (Connie Day).

The Junior Class Play was Entitled "Mystery in the Library"

This play was written by Helen Hines, and was given on November 12, 1965. The leading male character was President Hartman, President of Clarke College, played by Paul Dixon. The leading female character was Claribeth Harris, Assistant Editor of "The Bugle", played by Carol Schenck. The cast included Ellsworth Larson, Editor of "The Bugle", Glen McCollum; Jay Manson, The "It" boy of the school, Kerry Gibb; Dick Martin, sports Editor of "The Bugle", Danny Edwards; Shorty George Business Manager of "The Bugle" and eternal pal of Jay Manson, Mike Hull; Dora Dean, Society Editor of "The Bugle, Elaine Blender; Margaret Allison, Literary Editor of "The Bugle", Connie Avery; Annie Goopy, The three Chinese monkeys in reverse, She sees all, Hears all, and Tells all, Linda Aker; Benny Lyon, One of the Alpha Fraternity Boys, Danny Mowen; Inspector Burke, Of the Police Department, Mike Palmer; Swenson, Dumb Sock of the Police Force, Rodney Bowen; Electrician, Donald Gipe; Two Policemen, Ronnie Gipe and Steve Harden; and Herman Heinrich, The Mystery Man, Max Galbraith.

"Moonlight and Roses"

was the theme for the 1966 Junior-Senior Prom. This formal affair was initiated by a banquet at the Raritan Reform Church and followed by an orchestra dance held at the Media High School Gym. "The Swingsters" provided the entertainment. A country garden scene including a bench, a birdbath, colored lights, rose-bushes and white rocks carried out the theme.

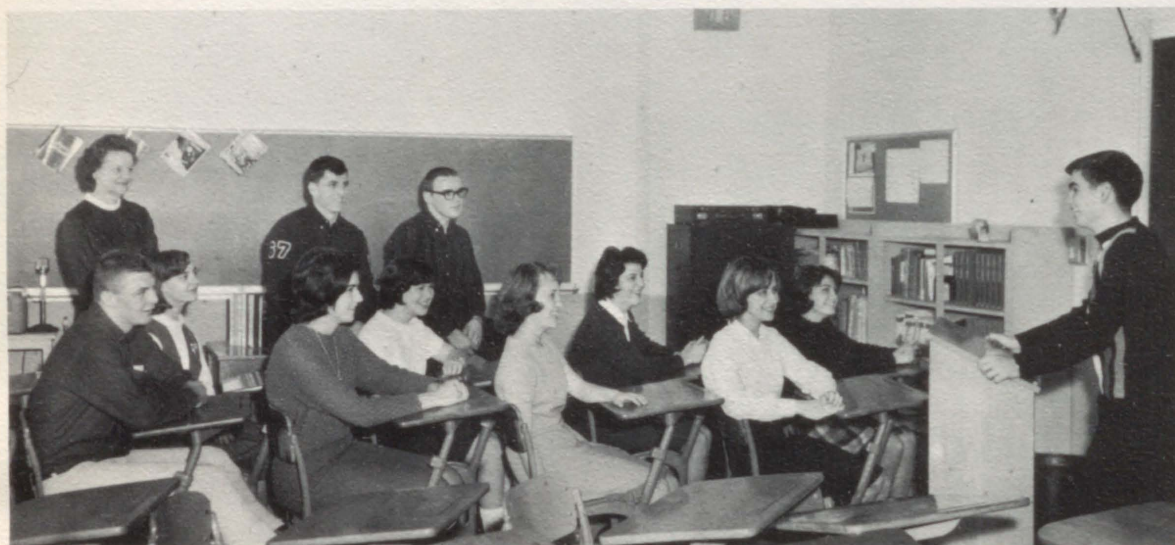

Student Council
