We, the Senior Class of 1968 wish to express our appreciation to our parents by dedicating this issue of the Wever to them.

Their tireless efforts, their guidance, their unselfish assistance, and their consideration will help make our high school days more memorable.

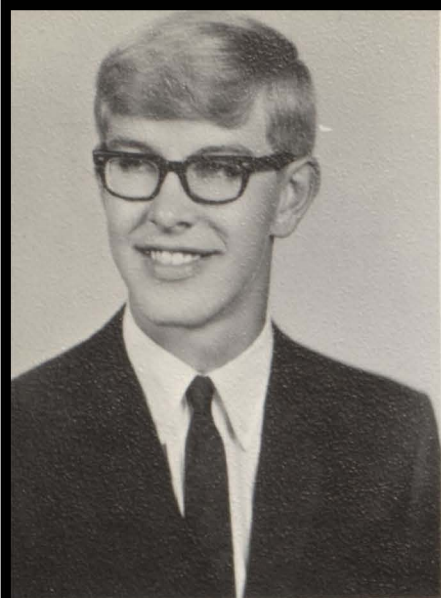

Their devoted time and patience have helped provide us with a sense of honor, dignity, respect, and fair play. We honor them not only as parents but as great achievers of the past who have paved the way for us, the achievers of tomorrow.

Officers

Freshmen

We started our Freshman year with nineteen members.

Class officers for the year were President, Ron Hobby; Vice President, Alan Heap; Secretary, Darryl Mowen; Treasurer, Bob Kane; and Reporter, Nannette Waddell. Ruth Musser and Alan Heap were elected as Student Council representatives and Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. Stevenson as class advisors.

In October we honored the Sophomores with a return party for our Freshman initiation.

Homecoming and Junior Carnival were the two big events of the year. Ronnie Hobby and Janet Keane represented our class as Homecoming candidates and Alan Heap and Cindy White as Carnival candidates.

We are proud of our accomplishments but we realize this is just a beginning. With this in mind, we look forward to three more exciting years at Media High School.

ACTIVITIES

"Moments To Remember"

Get out of the way, Karen.

Watch your step!

Watch those scissors, Jack!

See, it's easy Wayne.

Who said that?

Hey! Quit rocking the ladder.

Indigestion doesn't bother Mrs. White.

Help!

Don't fence us in.

A Big Success--Junior Carnival

One of the highlights of the school year was the Junior Carnival held on November 17, 1967. For the first time in the history of the school, the Juniors were in charge of every stand except the Cake Walk and the Food Stand.

Cindee White was crowned Queen and Wayne McCollum was crowned King by Barb Thomas and John Keane. Their attendants were Jackie Thomas, Jay Cassiday, Marilyn Blender, Roger Aker, Vickie Link, and Alan Heap.

Royalty

Well, here your skill isn't tested!

Sock it to me!

Not again?

Oh, Magic Bowl . . .

Fattening?!

A Cake Walk?

What do you mean there's a spot on my dress?

Hey! Put that down, kid!

Change for a hundred dollar bill?!

"Stairway to the Stars"

The site of the 1968 Junior-Senior prom was the Galesburg Holiday Inn. This event, held on May 3, was in honor of the Senior class. The evening began with a delicious banquet followed by dancing. Tiny Bigg's orchestra provided music for the gala evening. The tables were decorated with blue candles and silver stars.

Barb Thomsa, president of the Junior class, presented the welcome, and the response was given by Rick Thompson, president of the Senior class. Mr. Walker gave a brief address, commenting on our future, relating to the theme, "Stairway to the Stars."

Awards Night

Rick Thompson, President of the Senior class, gave the history of the class, starting with their freshman year.

The National Honor Society held the induction of new members into the Society on Awards Night. Mrs. Duncan and Mr. Walker are the advisors.

The National Honor Society's officers for the 1967-68 year are: Elmer Berg, President; Rick Thompson, Vice-President; Lorna Harden, Secretary; and Martha Musser, Treasurer.

Carolyn Scheck, Elmer Berg, Bob Heikes, and Susan Duncan had perfect attendance during their 4 years in high school.

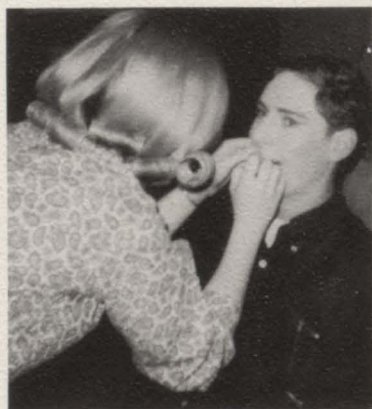

Bob Kane was presented the Top Greenhand Award.

Starting Eleven

Senior Backs and Lineman

With only two returning starters back from the 1966-67 squad and the conversion of Rick Thompson from an end to a quarterback, the outlook was rather dim for the 1967-68 season.

The Bulldogs desire and hustle proved this to be wrong as they won 2, tied 1, and lost 4, ending the season playing very respectable football. These boys improved each week and with the exception of two games, they made their opponents go "all out" to beat Media.

The season was a success considering the lack of experience and the number of starters back from last years team.

HUMOR

Me, Tarzan...You, Jane!

What do you mean we're out of pop?

A strike, of course.

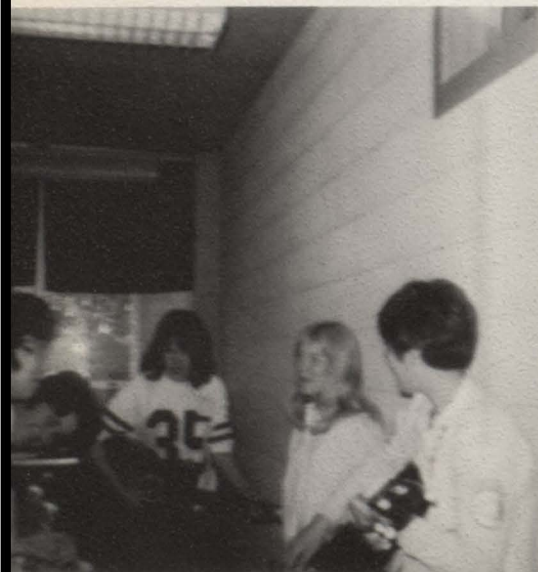

Now, Kay...

Oh, I didn't either!

Happy Birthday; Dan.

Hey! Hey! We're the Apes!

Me! Like girls!

I told you to drop that knife!

A very studious class?

Martha! You're studying?

And then she said that I said you...

Of courage above and beyond...

She says I'm crazy!

Are we ahead, Rita?

The green Freshmen.

Like Mother, like son.

The END!
