1975

1975 SOUTHERNER

LOYALTY

(Tune: Waiting for the Robert E. Lee)

The Southern High Rebels are coming your way now.
We're aiming for victory and we're gonna say
That we will - go - fight - and win this game tonight
Southern High Rebels you're doing all right!

We're shouting—

Southern High Rebels are going to fight now.
Oh, we're gonna make it, 'cause we're in the right,
So we will - get tough - show everyone our stuff
And win for our Southern High.

And when you see that red, blue, and grey,
Stand up and shout. Hey! Hey!
For we are proud that we are
The Southern High Rebels (The Southern High Rebels)
The Southern Rebels are great!
Let's show them how they rate!
Let's give a BIG CHEER for our Southern Rebels
Fight, boys, for the red, blue, and grey!

DEDICATION

The Yearbook Club dedicates the 1975 SOUTHERNER to Mrs. Ford. In addition to her regular classes including several sections of Girls' P. E. and Ecology, Mrs. Ford has sacrificed much of her time to the sponsorship of the cheerleading and pom-pom squads and until recently GAA. We feel that much of her contribution in time often goes unnoticed and through this dedication her efforts will be partially rewarded. Thank you, Mrs. Ford, for your interest in the students of Southern High School.

ALONE AGAIN

I was alone once,
back before high school,
with nothing to do and no-where to go.
With hardly any friends.
Young and immature.
Too young for anything except high school and our freshman year.
It was different with 17 mods instead of 9 hours
and we were new at it
but we stuck to it and we made it,
Together.
Then our sophomore year came,
with our rings,
and we were getting used to not having a 17-mod day but now a 28-mod day.
We stuck to it and we made it,
Together.
After that our junior year came with our first prom
which was new and exciting with dinner, dancing and bowling, and American History came which was rough

but we stuck to it and we made it,
Together.
Finally our senior year arrived with thoughts of graduation and only 9 months left together.
We've become the closest of friends without realizing it and we've stuck through the 4 years
Together.
Through ups and downs,
winnings and losings,
through classes and teachers,
boyfriends and girlfriends and break-ups and make-ups we've made it together.
But now we're leaving,
going our separate ways,
and once again
I'll be alone.
