MADE OF!

DEDICATION

The 1977 Southern High School Yearbook Staff wishes to thank Mrs. Paula Lee for all the time and hard work she has put in to make our Business Education Department and Yearbooks so great. We dedicate this 1977 Southerner to her and wish her the best always.

IN MEMORY

The students of Southern High School would like to remember

for the years of service and the generosity which were given so willingly and unselfishly by these two fine men.

CLASS PROPHECY

And now for our special half-time feature at this 2002 homecoming game. The Southern Rebels wish to pay tribute to the graduates of twenty-five years ago, the class of 1977. Most of them are here tonight, and as we introduce them, they will take their places on the 50 yard line.

Presenting the class of '77: Chuck Corzatt, president of Corzatt air lines, just landed his private plane at the busy Stronghurst Airport a few minutes ago. He brought with him his first-line stewardesses: Ella Bernhardt, Pam Furniss, Luwella Powell, and Peggy Waterman. Don't they look charming in their chic uniforms. Dan Bahan, graduate of an electronics school, is now head trouble-shooter for the Henderson County Telephone Company. The lovely lady carrying the tray of HORS D'OEUVRES is Debbie Bailey, the star of her own television show Gourmet Cooking.

The Reverend Mr. Phil Bernhardt is now the pastor of the Olena Church. Next we have Jay Blender, world famous leader of the powerful organization—Americans Against Alcoholism. Presenting His Honor, Mayor of Carman, Mike Bundy and his beautiful blonde wife.

A famous name in the food business is Johna Carlson, president of the world-wide John Boy's Restaurant chain. Also in the food service business, we have with us the founder and owner of the internationally known restaurant, The Hopper House. She has developed her own secret recipe for the specialty of the house, a deluxe, gourmet hamburger which bears the copyrighted name of HOPPER-WHOPPER. Here's Linda Mynatt.

Here we are charming Becky Carmean, who has recently been recognized by the president of Tupperware as their outstanding salesperson. In her spare time she has become a favorite vocalist with a local dance band.

One of the newest businesses in downtown Stronghurst is the Carnes-Duncan garage where the owners, Don and Melvin are among the new specialist in the new solar-powered motors.

Babysitters are hard to find on the night of a homecoming game! Here is Debbie Coffey with her husband and their ten children. The convent at St. Paul's, near Raritan, kindly permitted one of the nuns, Sister Judy Ebert, to attend this reunion; we are thankful to have her here.

Another of Henderson County's business tycoons is Mike Cole, the president of the board of directors of Cole Implement Company.

Some of the members of the class have distinguished themselves in the field of sports. We would like especially to honor Cindy Fisher, the first woman professional basketball player, and Marty Lafary, a member of the Bears Football team. Marty has with him his wife, the former Kris Ford, who also acts as passing coach. Speaking of Fords, Mark Ford is here. He is another of the county's successful businessmen, with his mail box repair service located in the Carman Mall.

Dr. Tom Myers, veterinarian, has earned his fame by discovering a cure for scours. With him is "Doc" Larry Jarvis, D.D.; he didn't tell us whether D.D. stands for Dr. of Divinity or Dr. of the Davenport.

One of the members of the class of '77 had made a name for herself as a fashion designer. Tonight Kim Keever is featuring her latest creation, spray on slacks. Marilyn Huss is a happily married homemaker living in Suburban Smithshire. In her spare time she works as a fashion model at Kim's exclusive Smithshire boutique.

Some of the class members have chosen the teaching profession; inspired no doubt by their dedicated teachers at Southern. Here are Lori Wireman, who teaches a correspondence course in fiction writing, and Lori Schmitz, who has her own nursery school and also broadcasts a daily network show Romper Room, which originates at WSTR-TV, our local CBS station.

An up-and-coming construction firm, which has recently patented a new, pre-fab home that requires no energy to maintain, is headed by two master builders, and here they are now—Dan Pulse and Randy Scott.

Some members of the class have chosen a military career. Now coming on to the field is Major-General Larry Waddell, military leader and Captain Connie Knupp, Secretary General of the Carman Army.

Back to the flourishing business of the community: South Raritan is the site of a prosperous and delightful massage parlor owned by Diane Keane, Rhonda Wisslead, and Cindy VanArsdale. They have a highly competent bouncer who is also here—Daria Johnson.

The literary career begun during her school days has brought fame and fortune to our class author, Tammy Dixon. After the game she will be in the Home Ec building autographing copies of her latest best seller, TAMMY GIRL, an autobiography in the style of Richard Thomas.

Mary Klein has also achieved fame—hers is in the field of music. She is a concert pianist on tour for Librace Concerts, Inc.

The agricultural community is well represented by the class of '77. Here is Brad Ford and Craig Lant who have a large corporate farm devoted to developing new, hybrid seed varieties. Here also is a feminine farmer, Patty Kelley, who with her husband, is operating a horse farm and riding academy.

Rod McIntyre is the new owner of the Lake Geneva Playboy Club which does a thriving business. Max Hart, professional photographer for the Lake Geneva Playboy Club, has a small acreage near Lomax where he enjoys his hobby of horticulture. His gardening specialty is his favorite plant; he has developed a new, hardy, mashproof strain of pussy-willows.

Our next guest is a professional scholar, Janet Spears, who will soon complete her second doctor's degree. She is a life member of Mensa, the organization for superbrains.

Here is Dr. Linda Baldwin who has won fame for her cancer clinic, where she has made important discoveries about the cure and prevention of that dread disease.

Ladies and gentlemen: We now present the glamorous, mid-eastern, Highness, Diane Sandage. Ladies and gentlemen: Rod Phillips and Here Serene Highness, Diane Sandage.

Another member of the illustrious class of '77 to achieve musical note is Dan Grimes who got his start at good old Southern in a group known as "Adair's Awfuls." After graduating from Oral Roberts University, he became a gospel singer on radio and TV. He now has his own band and chorus, which travels throughout the world giving concerts. Of course, Dan sings only in French! Bryan Heap has become a famous inventor. His latest contribution to the betterment of mankind is a car that will run under water if it is driven into a river. Because Henderson County has undergone such commercial development in the last quarter century, the firm of Harden and Jacob, Certified Public Accountants, has become most successful, Brenda and Olive have amassed great fortunes, thanks to their excellent training in Mrs. Lee's classes.

Here is Cindy Murphy, famous world traveler. She is a busy guide for foreign tours, and just happens to be in the country for this special occasion.

Donna Sullivan, having learned in SAE how NOT to run a motel, has achieved success as a motel manager, and is now second vice president of Sheridan Inns.

Looking after the welfare of the city of our community are three experienced social workers: Shirley Anderson, Julie Wilson, and Rhonda Plackett. What would the city do without them?

Some of the businesses of a quarter century ago are now under new management. Among these is Davison's Ford Sales, now Marty's Motors.

Here is Wendel Shaner, we're glad to see he could take time from his job as manager of Jack's Discount to be with us tonight.

Darryl Lenz and Craig Smith are co-owners of one of the biggest fastest growing businesses in the state of Illinois, The Smith and Lenz Still and Brewery Corporation—every batch pre-tested!

Oh, we're glad to see that Gwen Wetzel could take time away from her patients to be with us. Gwen works long hours as head of physical therapy at the Henderson County Memorial hospital in Media.

This concludes . . . no wait a minute, who are those two old men hobbling onto the field? They couldn't have been members of the class. What? They are? Still living?!! Amazing!!! I'm happy to be able to present the faculty sponsors of the class of '77. The man with the cane is none other than our beloved Mr. Geiser who taught twenty years at Southern, then retired to the Blue Grass country of Kentucky to use his photography to publish pornographic magazines. The spry old duffer with the beard and handle bar mustache has to be none other than Mr. Salter. When the class of '77 graduated, he was so broken up that he retired from teaching. He now is a renounced director of off Broadway plays. In fact, far off Broadway. He is the owner, producer, and star at the Biggsville Palace, currently playing a revival of OUR MISS BROOKS, one of his most successful early productions.

This concludes our half time presentation. Here come Coach Bavery leading his Rebels onto the field in his special souped-up, motorized wheel chair. The Rebels, with 335 straight wins are leading at the half: Rebels 42—Eagles 0. Now, here is your play-by-play commentator Jack Richey.

1977 SOUTHERNER YEARBOOK CLUB

Tom Myers, Senior Bus. Mgr.; Mrs. Lee, Advisor; Karen Schroeder, Junior Editor; Julie Baxter, Junior Bus. Mgr.; Olive Jacob, Senior Editor.

The 1977 Southerner Staff sold advertisements to local merchants at the beginning of the school year in order to make money to help pay for the cost of printing and publishing the yearbooks. This project helps to reduce the cost of the yearbook to students. The Yearbook Club members also sold subscriptions to students during the school year so the students could pick up their 1977 yearbooks quickly at the beginning of the 1977-78 school year. The club members, especially the officers helped Mrs. Lee lay out the pages of the yearbook and type the copy sheets for it. Mr. Geiser and the Photography Club members helped make the 1977 Southerner a success by taking, developing, and printing many, many pictures used in the yearbook. The Yearbook Club would like to thank those who volunteered their time and efforts so that we could bring all the Southern High students a yearbook full of memories in picture and print.

THE REBEL SEASON

The Southern Rebels love to play football, and the '76 Rebels were no exception. The Rebels rolled up nine straight regular season victories on their way to winning their third consecutive Bi-County Conference Championship. The 7-0 conference record established an all time Bi-County Conference record of twenty consecutive wins. The Rebel's season closed at 9-1 with a 21-20 defeat in the opening round of the state 1-A playoffs.

The '76 Rebels faced the toughest regular season this year but responded in the true Southern Tradition. The Rebels handled 2A opponents Notre Dame and Knoxville before polishing off their seven Bi-County Conference opponents. In the process the Rebels also made "Little All-Stater" Marty Lafary the state scoring king with 200 points.

The '76 Rebels were a proud team. Their accomplishments will live in the memories of their fans for years to come.

And the band played on.

"Yes, Folks, it's really me!"

"And if you pull this rope just right ..."

The Jazziest place in town.

"Next, I give a speech on how to grow pansies."

"Aw, come on, Krissy, don't be so shy!"

Open your mouth and close your eyes and Miss BIG will give you a big surprise.
