HOME

The Southern Rebels celebrated Homecoming with their usual flair, but with a twist. Halls were decorated in the middle of the week, the class activities were all on one day, and there was not a volleyball game during the skits!

The week was celebrated every day by students wearing designated outfits. Monday was Bib Day, Tuesday was Hat Day, Wednesday was No Sweat (Sweatsuit) Day, Thursday was Red, Blue, and Gray Day, and Friday was Dress-Up Day.

I feel so macho today!

We burnt the Bears for Homecoming!

COMING

Thursday night were the skits and the bonfire. Mr. Bavery gave a short talk and the people were led in cheers by the Rebel cheerleaders. A snake dance followed.

Friday, the elementary and high school students gathered at the football field for a pep assembly. That evening, the Rebels make it a happy Homecoming by defeating the Yorkwood Bears 59-0.

The Homecoming Dance featured the DeCounter Brothers Band. Crowning of the 1979 Homecoming Royalty was at 10:30.

On Saturday, April 19, 1980, Southern High School held their Prom at the Holiday Inn in Burlington, Iowa. The theme was, "Sail On."

The Welcome was given by the Junior Class President, Melony Jarvis. Senior Treasurer Cheryl Huss, thanked the Juniors for presenting them with a Senior Prom.

The guests were served a delicious meal which included roast turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, tossed salad, salad dressing, crackers, hot rolls, butter and milk or iced tea.

Following the meal, music was provided by Cathy Corzatt, Denise Pence, Chris Hausknecht, Melony Jarvis and Robin Dowell. The selections included, "Through the Eyes of Love" and "I don't Know How To Love Him." Then Dave Morrison, the guest speaker, reminisced Jr. High days. Natalie Dowell and Dean Wetzel read the Senior Wills. The Master of Ceremonies was Rhonda Phillips.

The attendants were Kelly Ford, Alan White, Barb Smith and Dan Lafary. The Queen was Kay Dillard and the King was Roger Shaner.

Sail On

Sail on down the line about a half a mile or so and I don't really want to know where you're going. Maybe once or twice you see, time after time I tried not to hold on to what we've got, but now you're going. And I don't mind about the things you're going to say Lord, but I gave all my money and my time. I know it's a shame, but I'm giving you back your name. Yeah, yeah. Guess I'll be on my way. I won't be back to stay. I guess I'll move along, I'm looking for a good time.

Sail on down the line, ain't it funny how the time can go on, men say they told me so, but it doesn't matter. It was plain to see that a small town boy like me, just wasn't your cup of tea. I was wishful thinking. I gave you my heart, and I tried to make you happy, and you gave me nothing in return. You know it ain't so hard to say, "would you please just go away". I've thrown away the blues, I'm tired of being used. I want everyone to know. I'm looking for a good time, good time.

CHORUS:

Whoa, sail on, honey. Good times never felt so good. Sail on, sugar, good times never felt so good.

Robin Jarvis - Editor; Cheryl Huss - Editor, Vicky Kever - Advisor; Lori Torrance - Editor.

The 1980 Southerner staff sold advertisements to area merchants at the beginning of the school year to help defray yearbook costs. Besides selling the advertisements, the Yearbook Club served at the FS Supper, sponsored a soup supper, had concession stands at volleyball games and sold crystal ornaments. Members sold subscriptions to students during the school year so that the students could pick up their 1980 yearbooks quickly at the beginning of the 1980-81 school year. The club members, especially the editorial staff, helped Mrs. Kever lay out the pages and type the copy sheets. Mr. Geiser and Photo Club members helped make the 1980 Southerner a success by taking, developing, and printing many pictures used in the yearbook. The Yearbook Club would like to thank those who volunteered their time and efforts so that we could bring the Southern High students a yearbook full of memories. The editorial staff of the 1980 Southerner would especially like to thank Mrs. Kever for her time, effort and caring. Mrs. Kever would like to thank Cheryl Huss and Robin Jarvis for giving up their third hour 2nd semester to work entirely on the yearbook. The book could never have been completed without their time and dedication.

A little TLC please

Debbie saves the day.

Oh, what a bonehead!

W.H.I.P.P.E.D.

One little, two little, three little indians . . .

Crazy

Ready, O.K.

Oh, there's worms in the bowl!

Paul, hard at work.

I think I'm gonna get sick.

World's greatest flasher.

SHS In

I won! I won!

Oh Apple, you're such a ham.

Action

Jean, Jean, the running machine.

Oh, this aching headache.

I'm too tired to run.

Why do they make these things so heavy.

Boy, track makes me so hungry!

Well, I think . . .

Senior Wills

I, Peter Anderson, leave my insanity and wildness to Kurt Fowler.

I, Jean Brown, will my ability to control my temper in basketball to Patty Mynatt.

I, Tina Brown, will my ability to bring back fond memories with Coppertone to Barb Smith.

I, Rick Cole, being of sound mind and body do will and bequeath my ability to grow hair on my legs to Dennie Coffey.

I, Roger Countryman, make my will to the future graduates of Southern to stop making out these wills for there is no reason for them.

I, Natalie Dowell, will my ability to fall and never get hurt to Rhonda Phillips, but that doesn't matter because she always seems to recover from P.E. injuries before basketball practice.

I, Carmella Evans, will my sunny disposition, great outlook, attitude and my smile to Patty Mynatt.

I, Brian Gerhardt, will my mind to anybody that can write dirty poems as dirty as mine.

I, Jay Harrell, will my ability to tell the difference between a male and female state cop to Fred Brokaw.

I, Jerry Huffman, being of stable mind and body will my ability to play football to Floyd Bavary.

I, Cheryl Huss, will my ability to TRY SO HARD to get along with Aimee McIntire to all the future Rebel Cheerleaders.

I, Tim Jack, do will and bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble to Steve Venardi.

I, Robin Jarvis, being of sound mind and body (more or less) hereby will my ability to get along with Mr. Bavary to Patty Mynatt.

I, Angie Johnson, will my ability to go on a date with Mark Lefler and come home without a hickey to any girl who has ever dated him or ever will.

I, Lisa Johnson, will my nickname "Sleeza" to any female member of the junior class to continue its usage at S.H.S.

I, Hank Kleiber, being of sound mind and auto will to Steve Venardi a car like the one I have so he will have one that runs.

I, Bob McIntyre, being of sound mind and body will Brad Cole to be an American Gigolo like me!

I, Mark L. Missavage, being of sound mind and decent body hereby will my ability of common sense to Kurt Fowler.

I, Doug Olsen, will my harem to Mark McIntyre.

I, Bryan Pence, being of sound mind and body hereby will my pickup truck to Roger Shaner, and Roger make sure there's oil in it when you drive it because new engines cost too much (know what I mean)!

I, Greg Pence, being of sound mind and body hereby will Roger Shaner a case of oil for his truck.

I, Randy Plath, of sound mind and healthy body will my ability to detect and to extinguish fires in the boys bathrooms to Mr. Johnson.

I, Scott Postle, will my coaching ability to Burrell, because at least when I start a ballgame I can finish it.

I, Glenda Quigley, will my humorous attitude to Alan "Wobbly" White who has a great start already.

I, Jon Schar, of questionable mind and a very sound body will my trench coat and red beret to Coach Burrell so he can go to the Chelsea with Coach Clifton.

I, Shelley Siens, will my ability to find one guy to Nancy Dowell.

I, Pam Talbott, will Gert & Tilly's Bar and Grill to any underclassman who would like to run it.

I, Lori Torrance, do will and bequeath my ability not to get ticketed to Dan Lafary and Aimee McIntire.

I, Dean Wetzel, of partly sound mind and very sound body will my trench coat to Mr. Clifton, so when he sneaks off to the Chelsea he is not recognized.

I, Sarah Williams, being of sound mind will my ability to keep things that should be kept to Connie Queen.

Little boy blue, go blow your horn!

See, seniors aren't too good to do work!

Seniors HARD at Work?

Talbott, get to work!

Old basketball players don't die, they just get better!

SENIORS

Hi! I'm Jeff Thomas and you're not. As chief of police of the Los Angeles Police Department, I'd like to welcome you to the 25th year reunion of the class of 1980. In case you don't know where we are, we are at the new Convention Center located in the North Forty. This new complex is owned and operated by Scott Postle and managed by Jeff LaFayette. In the off-season, Scott and Jeff coach the reigning state basketball champs-the Southern Rebels. Some of their stars are John Morrison Jr., Jerry Huffman II, and Douglas Dillard. Speaking of John and Jerry, there they are.

John is a licensed electrician, so don't worry about anything being stolen. He has a great burglar alarm, just ask his wife. Shelley is the president of the Carman State Bank. In the ten years of its existence, there have been no burglaries. This great bank was constructed by Huffman's Hardy Houses, which is owned by, you guess it, Jerry Huffman.

Now arriving is Mark and Vicki Missavage. Mark is a technically advanced electrician for Huffman's Hardy Houses. Vicki is head dietician at the Convention Center. Also working at the Convention Center is the former Robin Jarvis, who is the corporate lawyer for North Forty, Inc. She will arrive as soon as she gets done defending Representative Neff on an alleged bribery charge.

The mural behind the head table was donated by the former Carmella Evans as advertisement for her highly successful accounting agency, C.M. Evans, Inc.

The banquet tonight will include roast hog, donated by Harrell and Cole Hog Confinement, ran by Jay Harrell and Rick Cole. Managerial duties are handled by Rick's wife, the former Rose Wisslead. Dr. Jon Schar, assisted by his lovely wife, Jean, checked the hogs that we'll be eating tonight.

The chefs for tonight are the former Angie Johnson and Pam Talbott, who got plenty of experience working at the Media Restaurant. In their spare time, along with Nat Dowell, Gert Quigley, Patty Johnson and Rose Cole (when Rick's gone) they run the Playgirl Club which features the male strippers, Tim Beckman, Tim Dillon, and Tim Jack, though not necessarily in that order.

For all of you who party too hearty, Dr. Mona ElKhatib and the former Joni Smith, who is a registered nurse, are able to take care of you. Also on duty at the hospital complex is Brian Gerhardt and Kim Downing, who are in charge of administrative duties. For those of you who can't make it there by yourself, Tina Waterman, E.M.T. and Bryan Pence, air ambulance pilot, will fly you there.

Excuse me, we have an announcement. Janet Magner, world renowned beautician, assisted by Lisa Nichols, will make you ladies beautiful for a minimal fee, in the salon next to the bar.

We would like to thank Ron Bell, for letting us use his computer to locate all you fools, I mean, classmates, and to the former Stacey Norris and Lori Torrance for typing the invitations and other necessary clerical duties. We would also like to thank Randy Plath and Thad Carlson for such efficient maintenance service. It has made the stay much nicer.

Roger Countryman, Scott Dillard, Bob McIntire, Mark Furniss, and Randy Jarvis are members of the labor force-they are hard-working industrialists.

Now arriving in the black limousine is Representative Chuck Neff and his lawyer.

Turning our thoughts back to our alma mater, Coach Lisa Johnson led the 2005 girls' basketball team to a state championship. The former Cheryl Huss took over Mrs. Keever's job as business education instructor. Mrs. Keever left her position 20 years ago just before she gave birth to twins. The elementary is well-staffed with the former Sarah Williams and Sherry Adams. Rhonda Blender teaches the fourth graders.

The fresh vegetables were furnished by Dean Wetzel and Greg Pence.

For those of you who recall the Pro-gas tank incident during our senior football season, you will be happy to know that no vandalism has occurred in this area since Hank Kleiber took over as probation officer.

Yesterday at the Scott Postle Golf classic, our own Pete Anderson, professional golfer, won. Presenting him with his trophy was our local sports commentator Oly Olsen, who also does commercials for Olympia beer.

Let's all say a prayer for Ken Mosher, who cannot be with us tonight. Ken left for Russia with the Peace Corps.

Mr. Salter could not be with us because he is in Florida with the class of 2005. Mr. Geiser is in the hall with a Polaroid One-Step. He forgot how to use his Canon AE-1.

Southern High just ain't as happy as it used to be now that Mr. Johnson had to get false teeth.

Thank you for coming and I hope to see you again in 25 years. Excuse me, but I have to fly back to L.A. to help Charlie's Angels rescue Dan Tanna.

"Don't worry about rebounding, get down the floor."

Knock on wood.

"You did that?"

One big Sex Machine!

We really feel GREAT!

I can't believe you said that.

"Well, my grandpappy says . . ."

Hi Ho Hi Ho, it's off to school we go!

It really does turn black when you hit it.
