SOUTHERNER

1981

The Southern High Rebels are coming your way now.
We're aiming for victory and we're gonna say
That we will—go—fight—and win this game tonight
Southern High Rebels you're doing all right!

We're shouting—

Southern High Rebels are going to fight now.
Oh, we're gonna make it, 'cause we're in the right,
So we will—get tough—show everyone our stuff
And win for our Southern High.

And when you see that red, blue, and grey,
Stand up and shout. Hey! Hey!
For we are proud that we are
The Southern High Rebels (The Southern High Rebels)
The Southern Rebels are great!
Let's show them how they rate!
Let's give a big cheer for our Southern Rebels
Fight, boys, for the red, blue, and grey!

The yearbook club and staff took off school one day to sell advertisements and also ran the concession stand during the volleyball games. These two projects, along with the usual selling of yearbooks enabled us to make enough money to pay for this year's books, as well as leave extra for next year.

We would like to give a special thanks to: Mrs. Keever for being a super advisor, Mr. Geiser and the photo club for supplying us with candid's, Bill Watkins for most of the other pictures, and Bob Welch for his great ideas and time.

Did someone let Nancy in on the secret?

If I'd known you look like this in the morning...

I say, what a jolly good time it is!

"My poor mother died before I was born."

Dear, can we afford this mansion?

"Let us pray."

The year is 2006. The class of 1981 is gathered here tonight for our 25th reunion aboard the spaceshuttle, Southerner.

Because space has become the final frontier, who else could be more qualified to lead us on this voyage than our own Debbie Fields, who is presently employed at Kennedy Space Center and will be our pilot for this evening.

We wish to inform you, before we start out, that you needn't have fears about any engine malfunctions. Two of our old classmates, Jon Garst and Rod Hillman, will tend to any difficulties that may crop up in the course of this trip.

The interior designer, Miss Annjeanette Pulse, created the breath taking decor you see tonight. Miss Pulse, however, is absent because she thought we were taking a test.

And ladies, please try to keep your hands off our two handsome stewards. You may recognize them by their sexy walks. Why here they come now, (Roger "Strut" Shaner) and (Alan "Wobly" While). Tips will be allowed, eh gentlemen?

Tending the bar tonight is our expert of fine wines. Mr. Blake Heap. He was solely in charge of choosing our selection of drinks. Many of the wines were imported from Italy, where he has spent part of the past 25 years.

The beer has been donated by two of our classmates, Mark Lefler and Mark McIntyre. They are co-owners of Mark's Brewery, located between Kentucky Fried Chicken and Nick's Gym in the prospering town of Olena. Many thanks to you fellows.

Furnishing the food tonight are the cook's from Melony's Place in Gladstone. Melony is also the winner of the Betty Crocker gold medal award, which she received for her fresh buns.

We have just one more old classmate to thank for his donation of time and skill to make this reunion a safe one. Mr. Mike Anders, formerly of Smithshire, and currently of New York is filling in as head security guard. Let's have a round of applause for all these people who are helping make this trip an enjoyable one.

Although you should know this by now, we would like to mention that our dear President of the U.S., and former classmate, Miss Laura Hicks is unable to attend tonight because of gunshot wounds she received—one in each ear. We have sent President Hicks a dozen roses and a pair of complimentary earrings. Replicas of the earrings can be purchased from Aimee McIntyre in the lobby after dinner.

We have also been blessed by knowing one of God's right hand men and his lovely wife, Steve and Connie Vernardi. They have been so busy spreading the good word that they just couldn't make it tonight. But they assured us that their prayers would be with us.

There are Jeff and Vicki Adkinson! Vicki is a secretary in Raritan, and Jeff is president of the Roseville Rooster Club. They have two children—the girl goes to Roseville, and the boy to Southern, so he can play football.

Right down the road from them lives Miss Body-Builder of Henderson County, Patty Mynatt. She is competing at the state level next month. Good Luck, Pat!

Well here comes Danny and Aimee, still going steady after all these years.

Kelly Ford is Las Vegas' upcoming stand-up comedian. Stand up Kelly, so we can laugh.

Speaking of laughing, Mary Eisenmayer has recently patented a laughing doll for hyenas. It's guaranteed to laugh louder and better than any normal animal.

Some of our classmates have moved into the teaching profession. The former Nancy Smith, now Mrs. Mick Pulse, is teaching English in California. I see they brought along their two children who are well known TV stars on the Mickey Mouse Club Show. Don't they look cute in their mouseketeers outfits?

Mark Detrick is in Alaska teaching a "How To Keep Cool" class.

Ted Stull and Mark Bundy are currently employed at our old school. Mr. Bundy took over Will Bavary's spot—you all remember him don't you? And Mr. Stull took over as guidance counselor for Mrs. Hart.

We also have some world-renowned classmates. Heading the list with his Nobel Prize in Chemistry is our own Bob Wireman. He discovered the 115th element. He said he couldn't think what to call it, so he spelled his name backwards. (Bob)?

Robin, I believe you won a Nobel Prize for your book of poems, didn't you?

Yes, but I'm not the only author in the crowd. Marilyn Roth has also received much recognition for her science fiction novel.

John Jarvis has also acquired some fame. He is listed as the World's Leading Authority—on everything. And Bob isn't the only one who invented something; Fred Brokaw, the renowned cattle rancher has developed a new breed of cattle. They have six legs, which enables them to walk easier.

That brave and daring Kurt Fowler is selling real estate to people in foreign galaxies. He is quite successful at it too, from all reports heard.

Several of our classmates still reside in the Southern area. Jean-Paul Baxter is employed at Plumber's Unlimited in Macomb. He makes commercials and does all other advertising for the firm. Brad and Barb Cole live outside of Smithshire. Brad is farming family land and Barb is working as a medical assistant at the Smithshire University Hospital.

The former Cathy Corzatt owns and operates the Catherine Lynne Cosmetic Factory. The home plant is in Stronghurst.

The mass-transit system in Stronghurst is run by Terry Day. It started as a simple trolley running up and down main street, and has grown into a sizable business that keeps Stronghurst moving.

Kay Dillard has been reemployed by C.E. Neff. He was going to adopt her, but she was of age, so he hired her back as his secretary. He nominated her for secretary of the year, but the pageant hasn't been held yet.

Larry and Amy Harrell run the sizable Harrell farms outside of Stronghurst. They have two children. Maude and Larry Jr. They supply 25% of the grain that is exported from the U.S.

Tom and Pam Keane are still mixing paint on Main Street in Stronghurst. And right down the street from them is Shinkle's Jack and Jill, owned by Eric, of course. He asked us to inform all of you that he is having a sale this week—½ price on all Shinkies Twinkies. "A better buy for the wise guy."

Stronghurst is also proud to have as one of its businesses, Debbie's Baby Shop. The former Debbie Swank and her husband Randy are the owners of this babysitting agency.

Their main patrons are the little baggies of Dave Waterman (alias bags). He is employed at Twomey's and is living a block from Debbie's agency.

Well, I'll be darned, look who just came in—it's Dennis Coffey. What'd you say Dennis? Oh, he's just proud to be here! Guess some people never change. And speaking of never changing—there's Nancy Dowell—Hey Nancy! Nancy! Wake Up! Always such a lively gal. Nancy is, unfortunately unemployed right now. I guess she fell asleep and lost her position at the fence post factory.

Oh Goodness! Here comes Denise Pence. Heaven's Denise, what happened to you? You say you had a boo-boo with your car? That's just awful!

Some of our classmates have taken on some rather odd professions after they graduated. Take Chris Hausknecht, for example. Chris' unique talents have enabled her to teach sign language to the blind at the local House of Disconnect.

If anyone was wondering whatever happened to the Anderson cousins we are pleased to tell you they are prospering quite well. Kevin is head of his own construction business and Tony is now a 5—count 'em 5 star general in the Carman Army.

And what would Carman be now, if our Dan Beckman had not contributed a little something to the liveliness. Dan, that famous swinging single, is working at the local Carman Club Bar as a male stripper.

Lori Pinson currently resides in the beautiful Pinhead Estates in Beverly Hills. She has 12 grandchildren and is in business with Rhonda Phillips, running a junk yard. Rhonda supplies the wrecked cars and Lori furnishes the tow truck.

Well, look who's walking, or should I say rolling, in now. It's Mr. Geiser and Mr. Salter in their wheelchairs.

Rumor has it that Mr. Johnson wanted to attend, but all his visiting days at the nursing home had been used up, so they wouldn't let him out.

Well, that's the class of 1981, after 25 years. It looks like they're still the same, even after a quarter of a century.

Yeah, the good things in life never change.
