SOME REAL SOUTHERN BEAUTIES

They work hard for their money.

What a "WOMAN"!?!

In Russia, the secret to our lasting beauty is "Oil of Siberia"

Rick needs complete concentration for this baton trick.

The minute "he" walked in the room—we could see "he" was a "woman" of distinction.?

I hate to get up in the morning.

Some folks call us strange. We prefer the term "unique".

Did you know . . .

Friends are for hugging.

Hey Dudes, Let's Party!!

I'm waiting to be loved.

Say What?!?

SENIORS

1985 SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Welcome to On Broadway, still owned by the Brad Notestein family. The year is 2005 and we are all gathered here for our 20th year reunion of the Southern High School Class of 1985.

We're very thankful to have Rev. Laura McLain with us this evening to give the Invocation. Luckily she was able to make the long trip from Georgia to be here.

Here's Southern High School's newest principal, Bruce Applegarth. Mr. Applegarth became very popular with the student body after banning all homework and changing the school day to 11:30—2:30.

We're pleased to see that Laura Shankle-Munson, Nobel Peace Prize winner was able to take time out of her busy schedule to be with us this evening. Laura gained this honor by finding a treatment for the removal of hickies.

Mike Wood has turned out to be the Class Sports Star. Always a faithful Dolphin fan, Mike turned on Miami and now plays for the 49ers.

And here's Kim Arnold. She is now running a Spa in Beverly Hills, California.

Next we have Lisa Cassidy. After graduating from Monmouth, she found that one perfect man. Lisa used her education and own life experiences to open her own school of etiquette for young ladies. Enrollment is up so it looks like Lisa will vacation in Florida again.

Sandra Hartman, former class president, married Tony Scott and is living in Media, teaching a Southern Jr. High School, and coaching Volleyball.

Here comes Melvin Munson. Melvin's hair has finally grown back. After coming out of the Navy, he is now running the Antiquity.

Melvin Roth just opened a Farm King store located on the Twin Brook Farm, 2 miles west of Media.

Joe Walters has opened his own night club and put Shenanagins out of business, after receiving his degree in physics. He is currently working on his newest invention, some kind of improved drinking fountain.

Here comes the famous Donna Painter, The Famous Painter, who has painted many famous paintings, along with her husband Terry, who is now the head road commissioner of Chicago.

Here comes Paula Oge, the wreckless race car driver who has won many races throughout the world. Her famous career started at Crapo Park where she has won many races and her car is now on display at Crapo. She is sponsored by Roger's Rodeo.

Strutting in now is Brace Bigger. Brace is currently the Mayor of Hopper and has helped it grow so much that the next World's Fair will be held there.

Driving in now is Scott Wetterling, wait a minute. Scott has just hit a car in a parking lot and is speeding away, fleeing for his life. Scott now owns the southern tip of Florida and a harem, so he tells us.

Here comes Leora Worley with no one else but her new husband David Lee Roth. Leora is also the manager of Van Halen. California Girl Leora and Gigilo David Lee have a house on easy street in Coconut Grove. Leora does the artwork for VH's covers.

Unfortunately Gretchen (Hanger) Alsager cannot be with us tonight because she couldn't find a babysitter. We'd like to congratulate her, however, on her successful career. She is now the owner of Planned Parenthood, Inc.

Troy Andrews, after many years of taking Steroids, has now reached the height of 7 foot. He now plays for the 76ers.

Pam Beard finally finished law school and now resides in the newest mansion in Stronghurst. After 3 years of winning cases in court, and taking bribes on the side, she is now very rich.

Julie Brown Brooks, the head of the respiratory therapy at BMC is using Pam Beard as her lawyer as she is fighting the hospital over a discrimination suit. She got tired of all the "Short" jokes.

After 15 years in the Navy, Jim Knupp transferred to NASA and is the head of the "Star Trek" program. Jim commands under Captain James T. Kirk, and now he goes where no man has ever gone before.

Lisa and Theresa Postle have turned their home into the Roadside Ranch for Wayward Men. Although they have hired some of the former Sophomores of '85 to work their ranch. Lisa and Theresa take no part in the business except collecting the money. They also use Pam Beard's services when they get raided, this usually occurs only once a month.

Shawn Bowman, owner of Bowman's Budweiser Distillery in Shakokan, Ill., was nice enough to supply the cups for tonight.

Brent Schisler now owns the Skoal Chewing Tobacco Factory in Smithshire.

Here comes the famous actress Susan Schacht. We are so happy she took time out from her new movie "Desperately Seeking Susan" Part 2, to be with us tonight.

Here comes Rick Edwards. Rick now farms a lot of ground, but he is not too happy tonight, because his son has just ran away from home. He didn't want to take all the college-prep courses in school so Rick grounded him.

Most of our guests were brought here tonight by Manley's Train Station owned by no other than Ms. Shelley Manley.

This puts an end to tonight's reunion. We'd like to thank everyone for coming and we'd like to wish them another happy 20 years!!!!

1985 SENIOR CLASS WILLS

We, the Senior Class of 1985, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make and declare this, our last will and testament in the manner following, that is to say:

I, KIM ARNOLD, being of sound mind and not so perfect body, will a piece of string and a hairbrush to Kelly Stewart so she won't lose it, and to Scott Neff, a large selection of earrings.

I, LISA POSTLE, being of sound mind and body, will my umbrella to a certain freshman girl, so in case it rains she won't drown.

I, MELVIN ROTH, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave the following: To the faculty I leave my ability to keep my hair. To the class of '88 I leave my ability to be a quarterback, so they will at least have something to work with. To the class of '87 I leave the ability to stay out of the girls locker room. To the class of '86 I leave my ability to write a short, meaningful will.

I, SANDRA HARTMAN, being of peaceful mind and devoted body, will my ability not to feel obligated to go out for every sport to any SHS students.

I, JULIE BROWN, being of tall mind and short body, will my ability not to be a tease, not to flirt with the male faculty, and not to always try to be the center of attention to a certain Sophomore girl.

I, GRETCHEN HANGER, being of warped mind and indisposed body, will my "Senior Wardrobe" to any underclassmen who also gets caught in the act, and to a certain sophomore, I will my ability to have a boyfriend to stick with, so I don't have to try to steal somebody else's.

I, THERESA POSTLE, being of sound mind and unfit body, will all my hairbrushes to Kelly Stewart so she will always have one.

I, PAULA OGE, being of mysterious mind and body, will my ability to be in chorus and sing (especially on key) to the altos, because without Gretchen and I, they're going to need it. And to Susan Schacht, I will my lamp so she will have something to entertain herself with at college.

I, JIM KNUPP, being of serious mind and strong body, will a Porsche, 44 magnum and a pint of blood to Todd Nichols. The Porsche and the 44 magnum so he can escape a certain town unharmed and a pint of blood to make up for what surfaces on his neck.

I, SUSAN SCHACHT, being of unique mind and body, will my ability to have fun to all those students at SHS who are under the misconception that it is a chemically induced state of being, and to Paula Oge, I leave my Smurf glass, because I don't need it anymore.

I, BRUCE APPLGARTH, being of pre-calculus mind and waxed body, will my athletes foot to Alan Lefler and my bottle of Elmer's Glue to a certain junior, so he can be stuck on something else besides himself.

I, LAURA SHANKLE, being of crazy mind and unwilling body, will to Jeanette all my excess weight, to Lauri my muscles so she can attract guys at the Y, to Heather my self-confidence, and to a certain junior girl, my ability to have only one face.

I, BRENT SCHISLER, being of sound mind and gorgeous body, will my ability to sleep in class to all the incoming freshmen.

I, LISA CASSIDAY, being of crazy mind and out of shape body, will my attitude and confidence in basketball to Michelle Voeller, so she will have the guts to go out next year.

I, BRAD NOTESTEIN, being of saturated mind and blorped body, will to all the remaining students, upper and lower classmen, the ability to have one, and only one set of parents to know where you are on weekends.

I, MIKE WOOD, being of dried up mind and wasted body, will my ability to dodge bullets and not get stabbed at parties to the underclassmen, so the teachers won't have to worry about them.

I, JOE WALTERS, being of derelict mind and staggering body, will to all the students parents the ability to know where their kids are instead of reading it in the paper.

I, RICK EDWARDS, being of chemical imbalanced mind and not enough body, will to the underclassmen the ability to grow a chest because that's what you need to get along at SHS.

I, MARCIE JOHNSON, being of red mind and fully clothed body, will my underwear to Tracey Cargill so she can never go without again.

I, BRACE BIGGER, being of blitzed mind and muscular body, will my ability to keep out of trouble to all underclassmen.

I, TROY ANDREWS, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to play any sport while injured to a certain freshman.

I, MELVIN MUNSON, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to comb my hair in a 30 MPH wind to anyone who wants it.

I, LAURA MCLAIN, being of stable mind and body, will my calm collected exterior and ability to stay out of trouble to Scott Neff.

I, SCOTT WETTERLING, being of fermented mind and abused body, will my ability not to write about my love life on the wall of SHS to the sophomore boys.

I, PAM BEARD, being of worn out mind and normal body, will my ability to determine the difference between drive and reverse to Tracey Cargill.

I, SHAWN BOWMAN, being of pickled mind and round body, will my football abilities to my little brother (he needs them!!), my driving abilities to Todd Nichols, and my left left to Gomez, so he doesn't have to hobble around all day.
