Celebrating A Homecoming Victory

Love needs no words.

I'm losing my mind and no one cares!

Oh Bryan, just ignore her.

Everyone needs to belong to someone.

Don't squeeze so hard.

Gee . . . I don't know.

Wild "Men" at SHS!

I'm A Little Teapot!

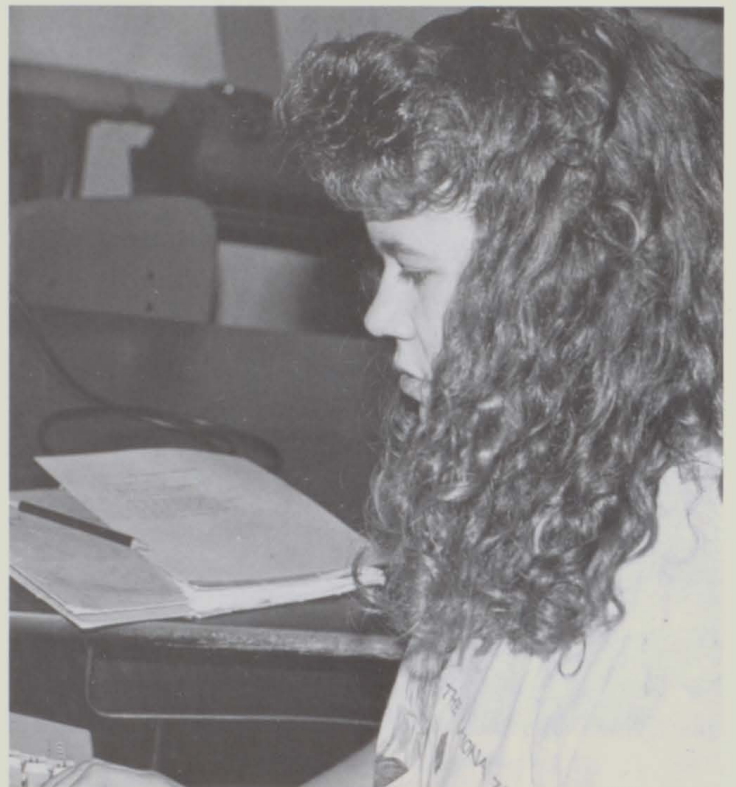

You mean he's here — at SCHOOL!!

Everybody needs help now & then.

CHOW TIME!!

This stuff is INTENSE.

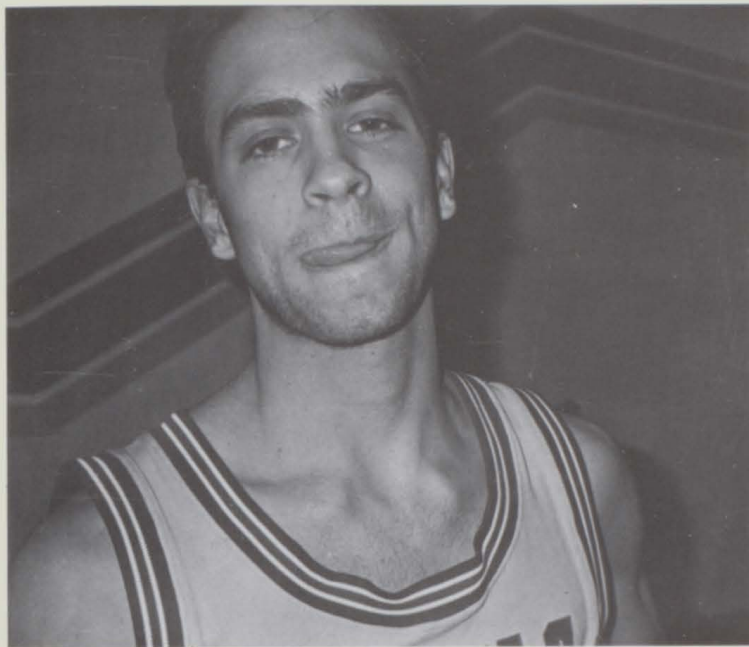

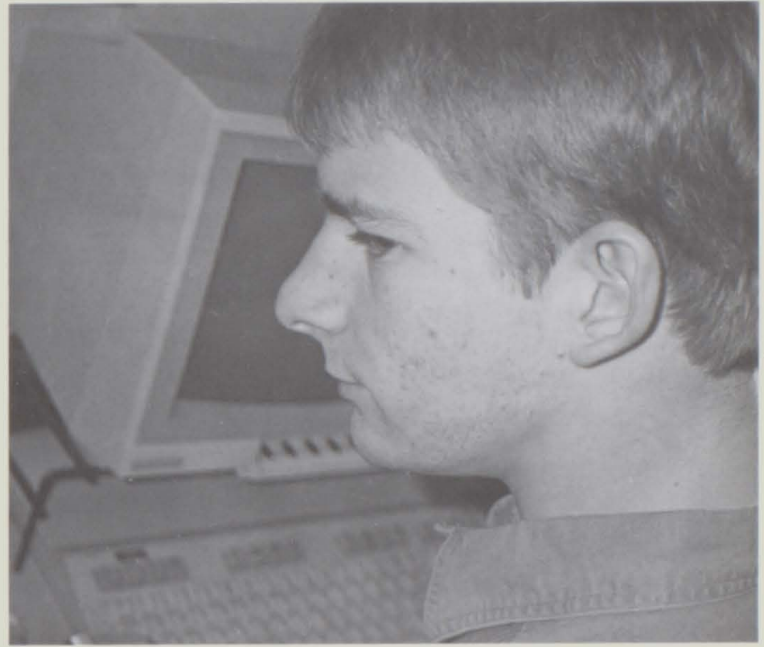

Look, no hands!!

Oh — do you really think I've lost weight.

I just hate it when I forget my kleenex.

What deadline?

I don't want to hear it!

The 'girls' in Monmouth don't mind. Why should you?

Where's a weekend when you need one?

Short and Cuddly is in.

Accounting II is so FLIN.

I don't even know why I got up this morning.

Take me . . . I'm yours!

If my Mom calls, tell her I'm at the library.

The image features a background of horizontal yellow lines on a grey, speckled surface. Overlaid on this are several vertical, dark grey zigzag lines. Fun With Our Friends

Some senior memories in the making.

Memories of summer basketball camp.

Hey Amy, you got a quarter I can borrow.

What's the matter Jamie, somebody take your computer.

Having fun one last time as Seniors.

Building Trades Class builds a new Home Ec Room or two.

Does Mrs. Keever know you're in her chair.

Faculty Funnies

Mrs. LaRae Roth — Student Teacher, English

Mr. Murray Ricketts — Stu. Teach., P.E. & Geog.

Mr. Ricketts form of Relaxation.

This job gets pretty boring.

I know it's around here somewhere.

Swing it Charlotte!

The way I see it, detention should be at least 2 hours.

You want to know why you failed Geometry?!? Don't make me laugh.

CHAD WICKERSHAM

Senior Class Prophecy In The Year 2000

You are cordially invited to attend the Southern High School Class of 1990 ten year reunion. When: May 22, 2000; Where: Southern High School Gymnasium at 7:00 p.m.; The D.J. is Mr. Gary "Rockin" Ricketts; Sponsors: (as always) Mr. Gary Ricketts and Mr. Jeff Nichols.

It is the night of May 22, 2000. Gary "Rockin" Ricketts is setting up the sound system for the reunion of his favorite Southern Senior Class — the Class of 1990. Mr. Nichols is putting the finishing touches on the decorations that he has been working on all day (by himself). As they are finishing up, someone arrives early.

It is one of their co-workers, Jenny (Link) Wood. Jenny, after much hard work, took over Mrs. Bigger's place as the Health Occupations teacher and the school nurse. She keeps herself busy by checking for head lice and assigning a lot of homework. Time passes and more guests begin to arrive. Stacie (Burrell) Timmerman, the head nurse at the Annie Jane Fort Retirement Center, walks in with her husband Corey. Behind Corey are five small children. Unfortunately, it gets boring in Stronghurst sometimes. The next to come is Darci (Andrews) Sly. After a brief career as a physical therapist, she started helping her husband, Scott, on the farm. She enjoys slopping pigs, cleaning out the barn, and driving tractors.

Mr. Nichols picks up a copy of the Henderson County Quill whose editor by the way is none other than Dan Bell. The headline reads "Vancil Named Hog Farmer of the Year." It seems that Arby Vancil has made a very successful career of hog farming and plans to start a fertilizer business. Mr. Nichols also notices an ad for Heather's Hair Boutique, formerly the Antiquity. Heather Bengel has a new line of beauty products for dogs, including the "Doggie" tanning bed and the "Poodle Perm."

Mr. Nichols turns to the page with the arrests on it. Brian Jack's picture is on the page, but not because he was arrested for the hundredth time. Brian was named Henderson County Truant Officer of the Month. Way to go Brian!

Also in the paper is the church lady, Debbie Cargill. She is the leader in the campaign to shut down Crapo Park to teenagers.

All of a sudden, Mr. Nichols hears a lot of commotion. He drops the paper and runs to look out the window. It seems Brendan Schaley, the traffic cop has caused a traffic jam. No one can blame Brendan, for he only directs traffic on the weekends for the kids cruising the strip. He occupies the rest of his time by being the crossing guard for the elementary kids. A huge black limo pulls up and Dustin Duncan, the head of the FBI steps out. Mr. Nichols remembers reading that Dustin Duncan was suspected of taking bribes from drug dealers but those charges have never been proven. Another limo arrives and Andy Davis, the mayor of Smithshire gets out. His wife Blanca is by his side as always.

Still another limo arrives. Out steps Danielle Bowen and Lori Venardi. Danielle married a millionaire and moved to Aruba. Lori became the champion female body builder of the world. They still remain the best of friends.

The next couple to arrive is Doug and Brenda (Stimpson) Anderson.

Brenda is the manager of Jack's Discount Store and Doug is a sergeant in the army. Every year, however, he takes time off to judge the Miss Zimbabwe pageant in Africa. Also in Business is Bonnie Carnes. She became the manager of Jumer's in the Quad Cities and now books all the farmers' heavy metal bands for entertainment.

The next to arrive is Cara Musselman. After the death of a distant relative, she inherited the Musselman's Applesauce Company and now enjoys a luxurious life. She brought along her latest product, Applesauce Pizza.

The last millionaire to arrive is Tiffany (Anderson) Smith. On a visit to Oklahoma, she discovered oil and her life has never been the same since. Kim (Root) Salmon arrives next. She has just returned from shooting pictures of wild apes in Africa for National Geographic.

Amy Geiser is also in the journalism business. She is writing for the National Enquirer and Star magazines, two very distinguished papers.

Mr. Ricketts walks over and turns on the big screen TV in the middle of the gym. The first program he sees is Dr. Donna: Everything You Wanted To Know About Sex. Donna took over Dr. Ruth's place when she retired. Mr. Ricketts flips the channel very quickly. On the next channel, he sees the familiar face of Scott Sherman. Scott took over Babe Winkleman's place on the weekly fishing show. Mr. Ricketts turns the channel and sees Eric Mowen on the evening news. It seems Eric has set the new world record for the 300 low hurdles. Mr. Ricketts changes the channel again. He finds that Jennifer Leath is hosting a documentary of the evils of teenage parties. Her guest is Debbie Cargill. Mr. Ricketts decided that he had had enough TV, so he turned it off.

He turned around to see Amy Schisler coming in the door with ten kids behind her. Amy took over the Small World Preschool but she couldn't find a babysitter for her kids tonight.

Christy (Smith) Bowman and Doug are the next to arrive. Christy now enjoys the very successful career of designing women's lingerie.

Dr. Michelle McCann arrives next. No, she is not a human doctor, she is a vet. She is currently under investigation along with her accountant Richard Knapp for allegedly stealing millions of dollars from little old ladies and their dogs. Denise (Mesecher) Seitz comes in the door next. Denise got a job at Donutland and was recently promoted to head donut maker along with all the Mt. Dew she could drink.

Carla (Smith) and Roy Day arrive next. Carla became a Laker Pom Pom girl. She is currently working on the movie: Laker Girls Part 6.

The last two guests to arrive are Mike Swisher and Chad Wickersham. It seems there was a riot at the Galesburg prison. As warden of the prison, Mike called on Chad for help. Chad had no problem with the prisoners because they were much like the kids he hung out with in his pool hall. After moving to Arizona, Chad came to Stronghurst and bought the pool hall because he missed the night life.

The now "older" seniors had all arrived for the reunion. They danced and partied the night away. As the last person left, Mr. Nichols and Mr. Ricketts could not help wondering what the next 10 years could bring.

I don't know where you left it Darti?

What an idea Brian!!

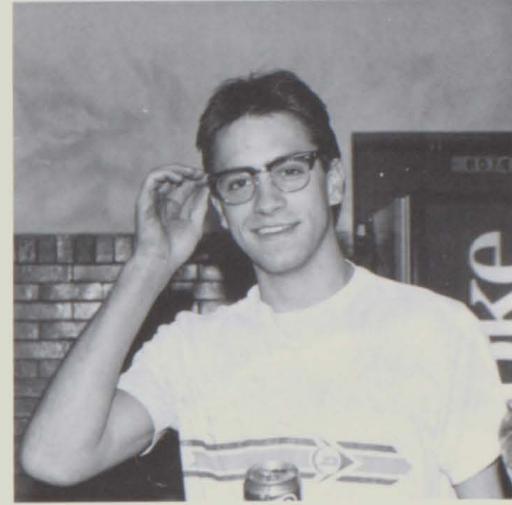

Heather lends a helping hand.

Would this face lie?

Toilet paper beehive.

I live to make a FASHION STATEMENT.

Doug and Brenda at it again.

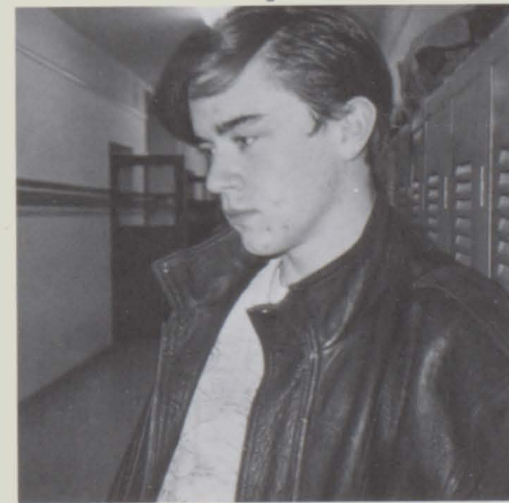

Working Girls.

Pfew Arfry — you SMELL!!

S.O.S. from the Pre-Cal Room.

I feel overwhelmed by it all.

Hey Dan, you look a little like Coach Morgan.

Need a hand Ann?

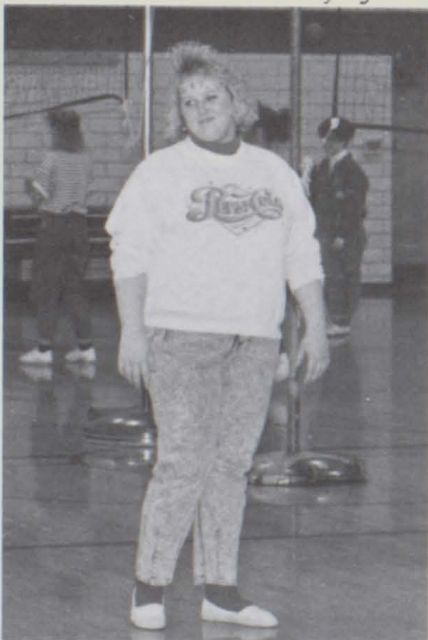

It's a camera Doug, what did you think it was?

Leave me alone, I'm filing music!

It's called homework George!

Volleyball just isn't my sport.

No caption necessary.

Come on Arb, smile.

Childcare has a special visitor.

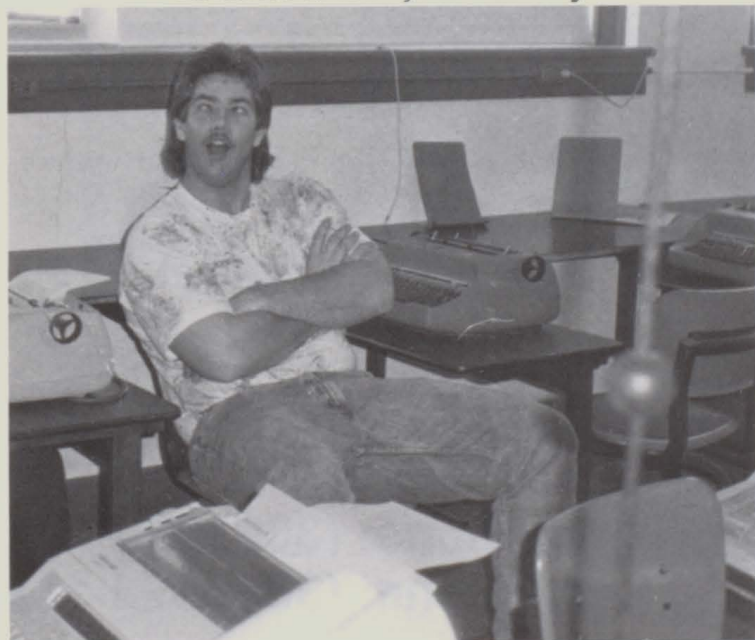

Here's looking at you kid.

But Mrs. Keever, this is my seat in Accounting.

Oh my gosh Mike!

This is one of my more intelligent looks.

You say What!?!
