I'm exactly the way I like me.

Friends always make time for each other.

Love needs no words.

I'm really innocent . . . I only look guilty.

I can use all the LOVE I can get.

A little rebellion now and then is a good thing.

I like DREAMIN'!

We're usually in trouble but it's so much FUN!

Jamie, I'm tired of smiling.

I know I brought somebody to this dance, maybe I should call my Mom.

If you're asking for it you're going to get it.

I can use all the love I can get.

Stick around — we may do something brilliant!

Born to be wild!!!

Let the party begin.

Robert, what does he want from us?

"Dedication To The Seniors"

Another year goes passing by
 Another Prom is here
 To some this brings a joyous smile
 To others, brings a tear
 For four years, you have tread a path
 From dawn to setting sun.
 But now the path gets steeper
 And the climb has just begun.
 We're very glad to know you
 We'll miss you when you're gone
 And to the class of "91"
 We dedicate our Prom.

Class Of 1991 Tenth Reunion

The year is 2001 and the SHS class of 1991 have once again reunited for their 10th year reunion, in the big gym. Looking across the familiar faces, we spot Mike Bell. Mike is manager of Bunji-Mart, the only competition for Jack & Jill in Stronghurst. Bad Boy Rich Oliver, otherwise known as "Crash" has turned his bad boy image around and has become the Bohenkamp of Stronghurst. Tray Funkie, oops, uh we mean Chad Gearhart has become a successful foot doctor, specifically dealing with auto foot injuries.

As we make our way across the floor, all of a sudden we hear a crash. It's Chris Musselman who is currently the tow truck driver in Stronghurst and watches out for people who park illegally at S.H.S.

We heard from the grapevine that Bryan Smith is currently hiding out in a home for battered and abused husbands.

As we look across the gym floor, we hear a familiar voice shouting out karate sounds. It's Amanda Simmons. She runs her own karate school and teaches girls from S.H.S. how to protect themselves in Monmouth from violent girls using golf clubs and bats.

As we move across the gym floor we see two wheelchairs being pushed across the floor. It's Mary Hartman and Gretchen Johnson. They have developed back disorders due to endless nights sleeping in automobiles, therefore having to stay in wheelchairs the rest of their lives.

Mrs. Smith makes her grand entrance, wearing the latest fashion of her now famous store. After retiring as a teacher at S.H.S. she runs her own fashion store and gives excellent advice to her customers on how to dress for success like she does.

Colonel Steve Paszkiet couldn't be with us tonight. He is still in Saudi Arabia pursuing Saddam Hussein at this very moment. Here comes Ann Francis who runs her own boxing ring in LaHarpe. She has just finished her first movie, Rockette 1.

As Aaron Thompson and Jim Brown make their way across the gym floor a foul smell follows them. They have teamed together and run a pig farm. You would think with all that money they are making they could afford to buy deodorant.

Bridget Wilcox opened up her own beauty salon until she got sued by her husband John after dying his hair green while giving him a perm. Since then, she and John have decided it would be best that she return to work at Mazzio's. John's hair is looking better, there is only a tint of green left in it.

George Gibbs has just strutted in. He has just bought a new Cadillac after divorcing his wife no 15. Boy George you've been pretty busy! Ben Zeh who seemed to take a lot of vacation time off during high school has become a truant officer. He goes from door to door making sure no one skips school.

Rosa Ayala, back in the USA for this reunion has become a very talented and rich Paraguayan doctor. Her favorite aspect of her job is giving "Shoots"!

Late as usual, we see Kim Hites tiptoeing her way to her seat. She is now currently the manager of Jack's in Monmouth and is still a regular at Center Stage.

Chad Cargill is currently competing in the Goodwill Games which are taking place in Ethiopia. He has turned out to be a famous discus thrower. Chad we wish you the best of luck!

Phil Long has just walked in sporting the current fashion, the spiked toupe. After all those years of hairspray and mousse, his hair got tired and fell out.

Jill McVey has just made her grand entrance. She has found the cure for mono. After becoming famous and rich, Jill now lives in Beverly Hills with her husband in the lap of luxury.

Corey Timmerman, along with his roommates; Mom Jean and Dad Fritz arrive tonight on his new Ninja equipped with a sidecar in order to arrive in comfort, and in style. Cowabunga Corey!

Unfortunately, Amy Duncan had to leave early because the long hours she puts in at Jack & Jill's Deli. The poor girl's head was pounding and her heart was flopping. Hope you feel better soon.

Blanca Ramirez, now a well-known x-ray technician lives in Los Angeles where she x-ray's the stars most famous parts.

Mrs. Starbuck decided that education doesn't pay well and is now working at Starbuck kennels where she is raising Keeshounds and weiner dogs.

Joie Brokaw formerly of Raritan has become a famous fashion designer and passes all her helpful hints to Mrs. Smith and Mr. Ashton.

Michelle Johnson took over Dr. Pogue's office and helps deal with those hard to please patients.

Bill Williams, automotive genius developed a car that runs on air. He has now left the big town of Stronghurst and has moved on to L.A.

This is what the 10 year reunion was like for the class of 1991. What will happen at the 20 years reunion? No one will ever know until then.
