Foreword

The 1963 BEACON STAFF is happy to present this year's book, representing the seasons. Activities are represented during the different seasons--only the classes are continuous, but we know when, by purpose or chance, in future years, you pick up the book, turn the various pages, you will be reminded of the knowledge gained, and the many, many, happy times spent at good ole SHS.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Everett Johnson, Wendell Wetterling, Lyman Fort, Bernie Schar, Pres. Milford Dowell, Jack Stevenson, and Lee Carlson.

We of Stronghurst realize that our school has succeeded because of these men who have shaped the policies of our school.

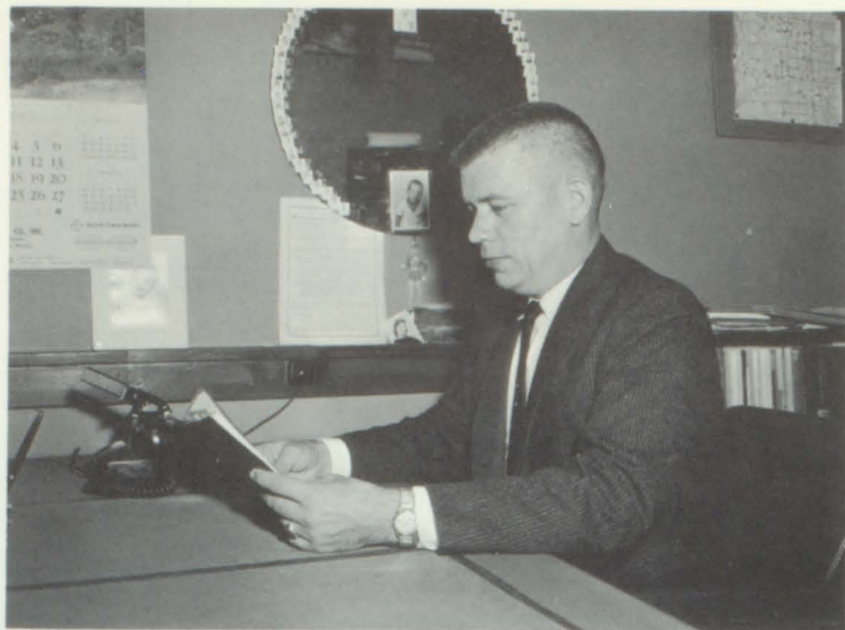

They ably choose teachers who have vision. As world wide events change the destiny of men, each year the heads of the departments re-evaluate course content, ever alert to the need to alter courses, according to the demands of the colleges, business and living.

SENIOR POEM

Charles Beard is one of the best
When in track he's never seen to rest;
He will speak to anyone and say "hi,"
But when he leaves he hates to say "bye."

David Bell is one of the boys we know
Who can put on a one man show;
For hidden talent he keeps put away,
Possibly for some rainy day.

When it comes to girls he's right in line,
If there is a Nancy Caroline;
Because Doug Bennett is big in size
He thinks he can whip any of the guys.

He's one of the shortest in our class,
In all his work he will stay to the last.
For Phillip Bowman is one of the guys,
Who may some day grow to be real high.

She's one of the cute girls in our school,
Who sometimes disagrees with the rules.
But Judy Dalton and all the boys
Always finds time for laughs and joys.

Just because his name is a girl's
And he has a few little curls,
Sharon Dowell will do his best
To please himself and all the rest.

She's all alone when it comes to band
For with her bass clarinet in her hand;
Because Carol Duncan will try anything
Even when she tries to sing.

He's the center of attention in the football
line,
For with his size he fits just find;
Because Ron Foresman is big and tall
Every one runs before he falls.

For being quiet and being shy
She will greet you with a "hi."
In her seat when the bell rings
You will find Sandra Gittings.

She likes to sing and play in band
Or anything to use her hands;
For being a cheerleader in our school
Edith Isaacson follows all the rules.

She's lots of fun to be around,
Because sometimes she acts a clown;
She has a smile for everyone,
For Mary Kobus is lots of fun.

Barbara Morgan is the next in line
To tell about something it's not hard to find.
She's in band and chorus and all the rest,
But cheerleading she did the best.

Dick Nolen is the star of the year,
But to Linda he's just her "dear,"
He's one of the best in any sport
For making points he's never short.

Lee Pendry who we all know
Who doesn't seem to have a foe;
In football he does real great
And never seemed to be real late.

He's one of the best who is quiet and shy
But always greets you with a "hi,"
He's hardly in a hurry and on the run
Because his name is Algie Peterson.

She studies and studies and does her best
And never has much time for her rest.
But for Dick she really cares
With Linda Roper, her times he shares.

Her future plans are already made
Which some bills will have to be paid;
A housewife is what she wants to be
For Penny Ryan in marriage she will lead.

She studies and studies every night
And is always sharp and very bright;
She enjoys band and chorus and does her best
For Sara Schar never gets much rest.

She never has time to get things done
Because she's always on the run.
In trying to do things just right
Nancy Shunick stays up some nights.

When it comes to girls, he's right there
But there's one girl who he will not share;
He's one great guy you'll all agree
Carl Smith, know more as Smitty.

She's sort of quiet and sort of shy
But always greets you with a "hi,"
In band and chorus she's always there
Her talents, Barb Staley, likes to share.

In basketball and football and in track
Energy is what he never lacks;
One girl to dances he'll always bring
Because his name is John Wetterling.

I'm the one who thunk this up
So I'll receive the silver cup
For I'm the one who takes the blame
For Arla Effland is my name.

HOMECOMING "62"

Many people from the surrounding area attended the annual homecoming festivities on October 13, 1962. The gymnasium was beautifully decorated in the theme of "Blue Hawaii" with ukeleles, tropical birds, and multi-colored leis on the walls. The center decoration was a replica of a tropical isle with a pool surrounded by a sand beach and palm trees. The atmosphere was completed by the music of the Sportsman.

The dance was triumphant in spite of the defeating of the Trojans by the R.M.A. Rough Riders. There is seldom a time when statistics tell the story in a football game but the story of R.M.A.'s 12 to 0 win over Stronghurst on October 13 is told in the figures on the tilt.

Nancy Shunick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shunick, and David Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bell of Stronghurst, won the Popularity Contest at the local high school carnival held on Tuesday, October 30, 1962. Both are seniors, and will represent the student body in those desirable qualities of character and personality which the school strives to instill such as modesty and reserve, cheerfulness, friendliness, dependability, spirit of service; varied interests and loyalty, ambition and high ideals. We believe the choice of these two young people as leaders will do much to raise the standards of the student body this school year. Nancy Isaacson and Dick Nolen presented the crowns.
