Stronghurst will find you
Right on the dot! Now don't forget it!

Come on boys do your best
We're going to win.

And when old S. H. S. has won the game--,
So do it boys we've got to win!

SENIOR POEM

Bright and bouncy, happy and merry
Is the girl that we call "Cheri."
Works real hard and get good grades.
This is one girl that's got it made.

Second in line is our Joyce.
As a great scholar, she is our choice.
Dynamic, friendly, happy, and gay,
She will succeed in every way.

The coolest guy you'll see anywhere
Is Ralphie-boy with his parted hair.
When there's something to do, he's there from the start;
When given a chance, he does his part.

Our Senior twosome is Chuck and Carol;
Their joy and happiness could fill a barrel.
It is in Tracey their future lies,
When at the end of the year they say their good-byes.

Harry, Harry, quite contrary
How does your MOPed go?
He drives a Chevy, is lanky and tall;
He does his thing in basketball.

She always has a smile, always says "hi,"
Always has a twinkle in her eye.
As you know, bookkeeping is her class;
Sue Carnes is a real nice lass.

Vicki Conn is one Senior
Who thinks Jim S. couldn't be keener.
You wouldn't ever wonder or guess
That she transferred as a freshman to S.H.S.

Greg is the name, sports the game;
In this field he gains his fame.
Around the school he's known as "Star,"
Here's one guy we know will go far.

Back he came to S.H.S.
Who is this guy? Can't you guess?
To LaHarpe he goes each morn,
An all around guy is Tom Doran.

Reva leads a busy life.
As an active student and wife.
She always manages to get things done
And still has time for some fun.

Next we come to Cindy D.
A sweeter girl you'll never see.
Cindy helps to cheer our team;
As a scholar, she's on the beam.

Tall and slim, lanky and lean,
When he plays his guitar it sounds real keen.
At Homecoming Tom was our King,
He makes all the girls' bells ring.

Rick Evans is the next on the list,
On the track team, he will be missed.
Farming is like Rick's right hand,
We're always sure he'll take the right stand.

In his working life a 'Bell' tolls
For the school paper he is always taking polls.
Steve is often seen with a goatee,
To success he holds the key.

Who drives around in a monogramed truck?
Some say when he got Ellen he was in luck.
He is lots of fun and often a real kill;
This has got to be only our Bill.

Brad's the guy whose sport is track,
Opponents will only be able to see his back.
This is one guy who is never up tight,
His hair is always in ringlets and his head always light.

Now here is a gal who is always around
She goes with a guy with a name of the sound.
Nickie is just starting to drive the 'Mustang,'
She begins things off with a capital bang!

Donna is really on the ball,
She thinks John is the best guy of all.
Always willing to lend a hand,
To be a nurse is what she has planned.

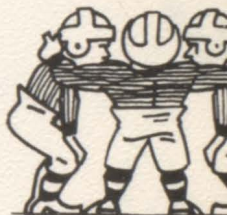

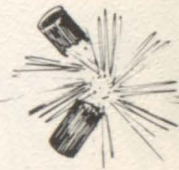

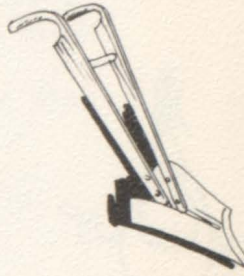

Whose heart is held by a girl across the river
And who keep his head going around in a 'tiver,'
Michael Hicks is the one we mean;
Football is where he lets off his steam.

Here's a girl we all know well,
When you want some action give her a yell.
Always ready to answer the call,
With Belinda around, life is a ball.

Ellen Isaacson's full of pep;
In front of the band you can see her step.
Very active, versatile, and sweet,
She thinks Bill can't be beat.

The guy who's next in line is "Jake."
At playing the trumpet he's terrifically great.
His face is known throughout the school,
When you've heard his wit, you'll agree he's cool.

Carol Lillard is quite petite,
Most folks say she's pretty sweet.
Always smiling, friendly, and gay,
We wish her the best in every way.

From Fairfield he came here,
Ted Mahan is new this year.
Driving around in his car so keen,
He makes good use of this speedy machine.

Mike Munson is a transplant from Montana,
Don't be surprised if he wears a bandanna.
In every class kidding around,
Even so, his future is pretty sound.

If ever you want a joker or ham,
Just call up the expert Pam.
There's never a dull moment when she's around,
She'll get a good time off the ground.

The guy who's next in line is Dave Plackett;
While beating his drums he sure makes a racket.
When they pass out good times, he always there,
If there's mischief in the making, he does his share.

Ted plays football with ease;
Laura Sue he's sure to please.
With his Mustang he'll never part,
Just watch him get a good start.

Guess which girl is next in line?
As our F.H.A. President, she's mighty fine.
Helpful in anything, especially art,
Jo Schar is willing to do her part.

Black-haired and brown-eyed Sue wins our heart,
And we know Ted's the one from whom she won't depart.
Eyes crinkled up in the grin we know well,
Sue is the girl everyone thinks is swell.

Sideburns are Archie's bag,
In fixing cars he does not lag.
You never see him in a fight,
When he's riding around in his Chevy white.

Leading the cheers, "acing" her tests,
Meeting lots of neat people at beauty contests.
She's always laughing and heads the S. C.
Peg's one of those people you wish you could be.

With easy confidence every time,
Dave White gives the right answer with a shine.
Excelling in both books and sports,
We know his success won't be short.

ACTIVITIES

QUEEN PEGGY AND KING TOM WITH THEIR ROYAL COURT: Mike Hicks, Delmar Jacob, John Ford, Jane Fort, Sue Scott, and Cindy Duncan. Crown bearers were Galen Baxter and Beth Bruce.

Homecoming activities got underway the week of October 6. On October 9 the traditional snake dance and bonfire were canceled due to the weather but a pep rally was held in the gymnasium.

The theme of Homecoming was "The Future," and again because of the weather, the parade was postponed until Friday, October 17.

Backed by loyal fans the Trojans came out wet and victorious over Yorkwood with a score of 28 to 6. The evening was topped by the coronation of Peggy Steck and Tom Eisenmayer as the royalty of Homecoming '69.

The following Friday the Homecoming parade added the finishing touch with the Junior class float winning first, Sophomore class second, and junior high placing third.

JUNIOR - SENIOR PROM 1970

The 1970 Junior - Senior Prom, Arrivederci Roma, was held on a chilly May 16 at Holiday Inn, Burlington. The welcome was given by Junior class president, Danny Mitchell and answered by Senior class president, Delmar Jacob. A buffet supper was served, after which we had our guest speaker, Lyman Fort. After a short intermission, we danced to the music of the "Freedom Field," from Galesburg. Couples gathered around the pool side and the punch bowl while not dancing. The evening was considered a success by all.
