SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On August 27, 1945, we entered the wide open portals of Stronghurst Community High School as green freshmen. There were thirty-six members in our class at the beginning of the year.

Our advisors were Miss Belyea and Miss Jern.

Our class officers were:

President-----Charles Smith
Vice Pres.-----Sally Overman
Secretary-----Carol Strand
Treasurer-----Betty Boyd

Initiation day was one we will always remember. We all felt out of place the whole day and again that night when we were given a double dose at a party given by the sophomores.

Sally Overman and Dean Opie were our candidates for king and queen at the Homecoming dance.

During the year we had a St. Patrick's Dance and two parties. We also won a contest for selling the most magazine-subscriptions and were rewarded with a party. Our first year closed when we gave the sophomores a picnic at Crapo Park.

Coming back our sophomore year, we gave the freshman a initiation party in revenge for the one we had given us by the juniors.

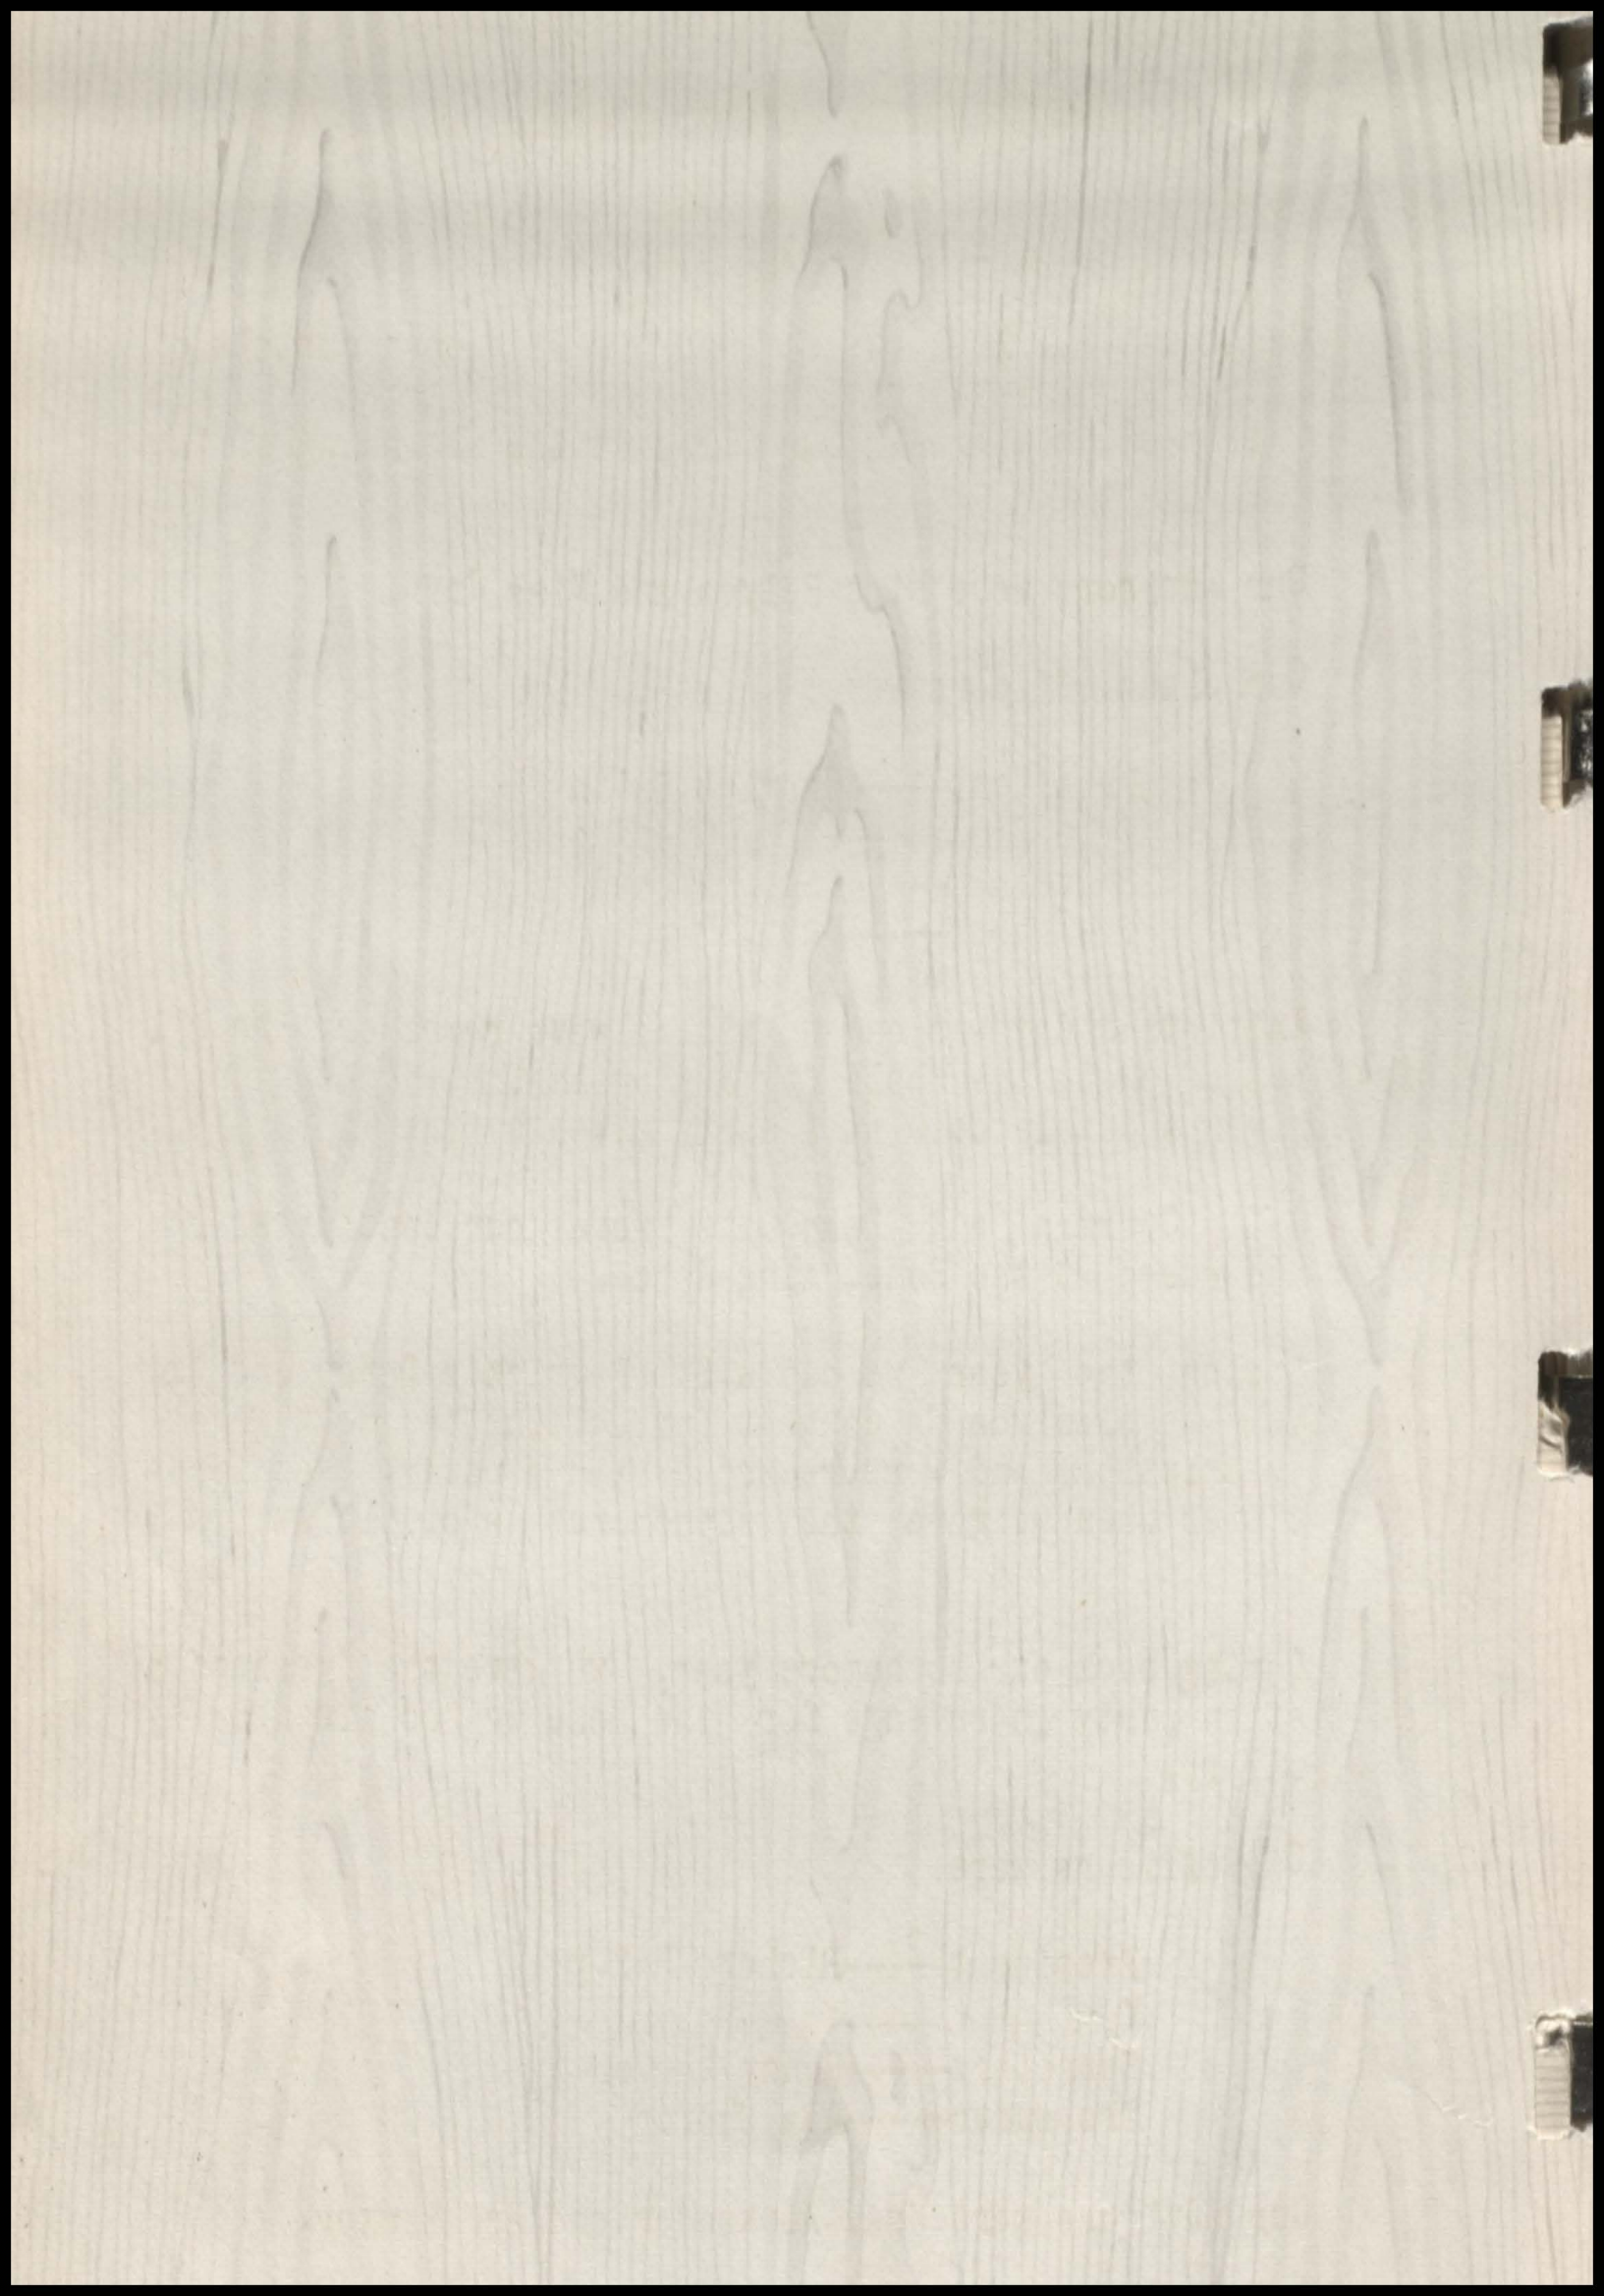

Our officers were:

President-----Richard Riley
Vice Pres.-----Miriam Mellor
Secretary-----Ronny Lauver
Treasurer-----Ada Shafer

Our advisors were Mrs. Alexander and Mr. Parker.

This year we lost Charles Smith, Donald Dalton, Dwayne Spencer, Rex Mynatt, Wilna Bricker, Dean Opie, James Brokaw, Dorothy Shoemate, Doris Corley, Doris Bagles, Zona Munson, and gained Jimmy Bolander, Betty Bolander, and Gene Ring.

This year we sponsored with the Freshman Class a dance and a hayrack ride to LaHarpe and back.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY (Con't.)

After a three months vacation, we again went back to work at Stronghurst. This time as juniors. We gained John Wilcox, La Verne Robinson, and Raleigh Parrish. We lost Gerald Sprock, Sally Overman, Esther Kettlekamp, Dorothy Robertson, Alice Olson, Betty Dixon, and Gene Canfield. During the year Esther Foresman and Ada Shafer left us to become housewives.

Our officers were:

President-----Mary Margaret Brennan
 Vice Pres.-----Ronny Lauver
 Secretary-----Danny Siens
 Treasurer-----Miriam Mellor

Our advisors were Miss Olson and Mr. Hunt.

This year as projects for making money for the Junior-Senior banquet and the trip we hoped to take as seniors, we served refreshments at all home basketball games and sponsored the Christmas Dance. Even though we lost money on the dance it was fun.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was our high point of the year. It took place at the Riverview Country Club in Hamilton. Our orchestra was Archie Cowler's. Everyone told us they had a very enjoyable evening.

Then came the time for the presentation of our Junior Class Play, "Don't Take My Penny." Mr. Tingley directed it. The cast was:

Penny	A girl who wanted a career	Ada Shafer
Sally	A movie star posing as a sweet girl
		Mary Margaret Brennan
Kerry	Penny's boy friend	Ronny Lauver
Joanna	Her best friend	Carol Strand
Greg	Kerry's best friend	Doren Smith
Gram	Penny's Grandmother	Betty Boyd
Mark	Penny's brother	Bob Johnson
Mavis	Penny's sister	Miriam Mellor
Caleb	Penny's father	Richard Riley
Lydia	Penny's mother	Darlene Husted
Monsieur Henri	Fashionist	Danny Siens
Harrison Day	Movie Producer	LaVerne Robinson
Norman Porter		John Wilcox
Red	Delivery boy	Tommy Hicks
Claire	Model	Betty Howell
Elsie	Model	Esther Foresman
Lucil	Model	Betty Bolander

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY (Con't.)

During the summer we collected quite a large sum as seniors at our stand at the fair. We all appreciated the help our parents gave us.

Coming back to school it took us quite a while to get used to the idea that we were now the seniors.

For our homecoming game we played Knoxville, after which was the usual dance at the school. After the intermission Don Dobson and his orchestra played "Illinois Loyalty" for the crowning of the King and Queen. Carol Strand and Bob Johnson were crowned.

This year the class had dwindled down to eighteen. La Verne Robinson moved away during the summer and in the middle of the year we lost Darlene Husted.

Our officers were:

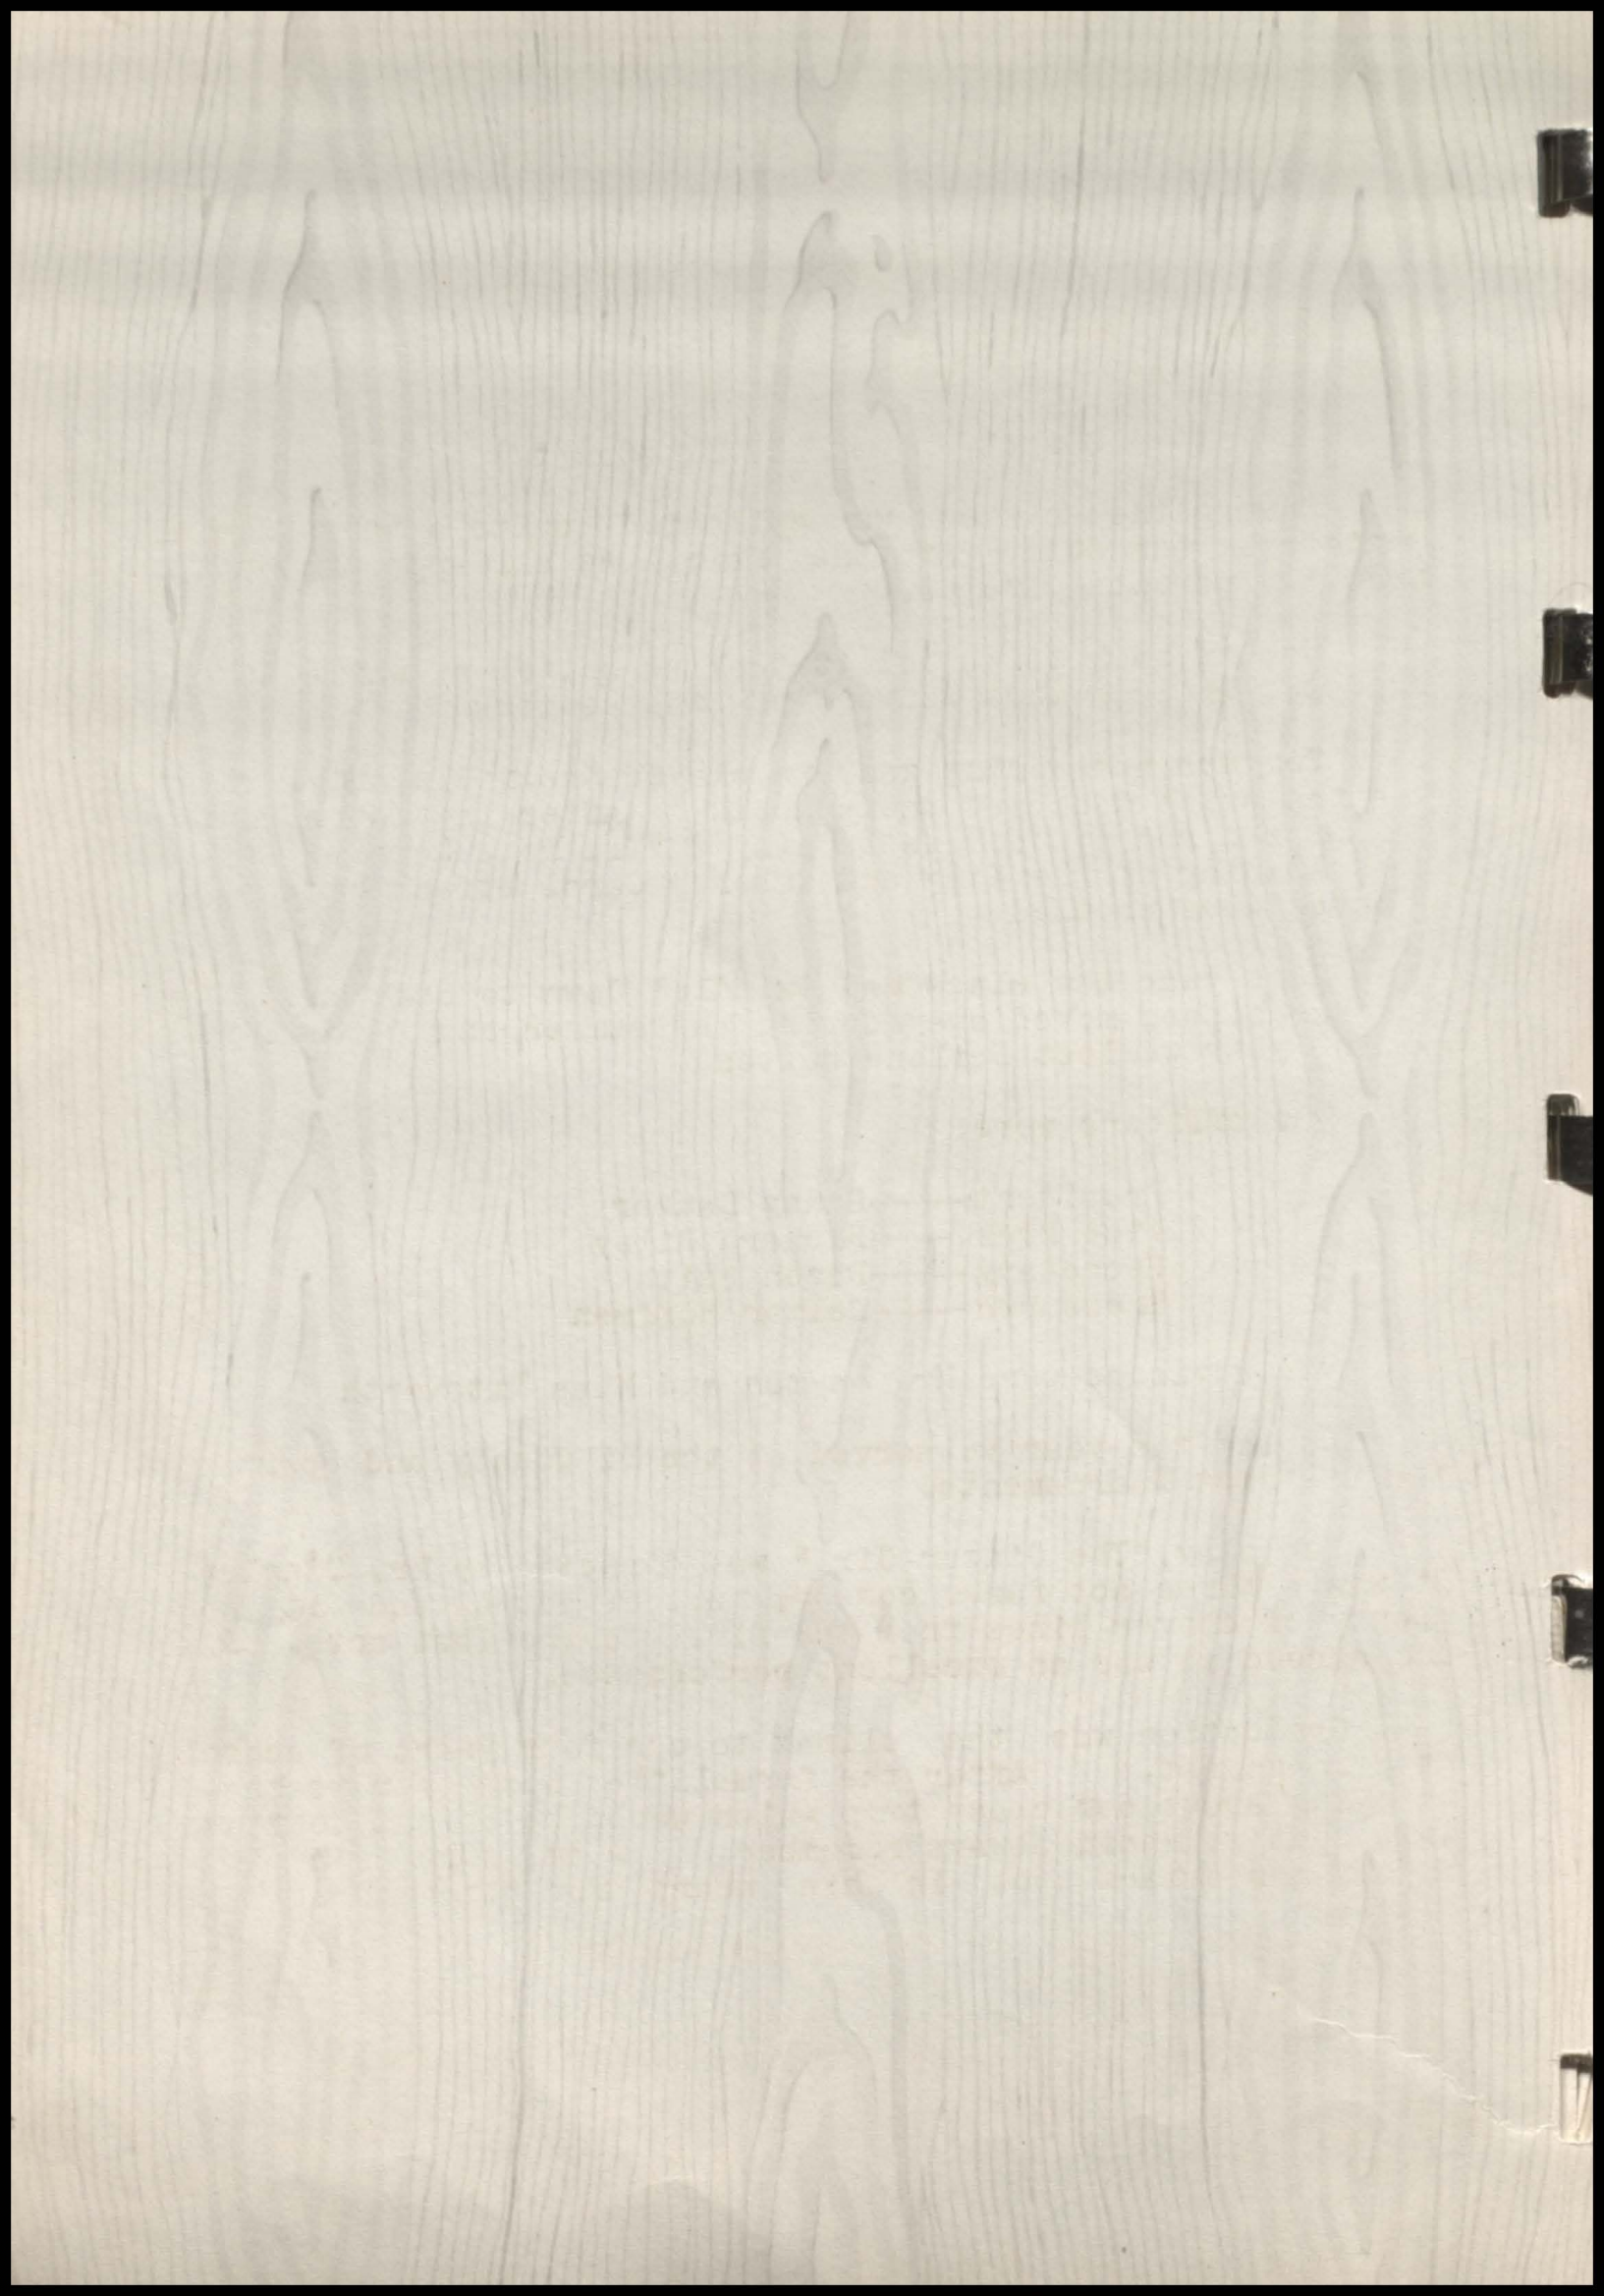

President-----Ronny Lauver
Vice Pres.-----Richard Riley
Secretary-----Doren Smith
Treasurer-----Delmar Huffman

Our advisors were Mr. Layman and Miss Titsworth.

During the year we served at the Bi-County and part of the District Tournaments.

Our play, "The Ginger Girl" was directed by Mr. Tingley. It was a three-act farce comedy, full of action and it had plenty of clever lines from the first to the last acts. All are agreed it was an excellent performance.

Graduation was the climax to our four years of school at Stronghurst. After the formalities were over we began thinking about our class trip which would be an end to those days that we shall always remember. I am sure each class member has a warm spot in his heart for Stronghurst High School.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

The future of America, the class of '49
From the plains of Illinois to California's salty brine;
To all the classes in the nation that go forth this coming
year
Into a world of trouble, conflict, dread, and fear.
May we face it all with courage and I hope in every heart
'May the forth that's kin to youth be never known apart.'
Let us rehearse just briefly what Stronghurst has to give
In this departing class just starting now to live.

Here I see Ruth Anderson
Lively and quite gay.
She'll always find that duties
Are not work, but play.

And Betty Joann Boyd
Is always full of fun.
She chases away troubles
As the gloom flees from the sun.

Mary Margaret was very gay--
Spoke to everyone.
Bright as a ray of sun
(The Son was Ray.)

Is that a piano I hear
Lending its notes so gladly?
It is! And I'm sure the musician
Is none other than Jimmy Bradley.

Julia was our little charm
Never did much harm.
Sometimes she gave a cough
And proceeded to tell someone off.

Tom is a resourceful boy
Doing bookkeeping is his only joy.
He and Alexander get along fine.
(As long as he toes the line.)

Delmar was very smart
Never a woman stole his heart.
Always went his merry way
Says he'll be a farmer some day.

Betty Howell is our Carman Beauty
She really is a cutie.
When she rolls those eyes,
Thunder shakes the earth and rocks the skies.

SENIOR CLASS BOOK

The future of America, the dream of 1890
From the time of Lincoln to Chamberlain's early death
To all the citizens of the nation who have lived this year
A new world of freedom, equality, peace, and love
Has we look at all with courage and I hope in every heart
'Tis the hope that's in the youth of every known age
Let us remember that truly great achievement can be done
In this generation only just starting now to live.

Have I seen Ruth Anderson
Lively and merry
But I always find her
And not work, but play.

And when John Boyd
Is always full of fun,
The enthusiasm of his
As she comes from the sun.

My husband was very gay—
Spoke to everyone,
Believed a way of life
(The Son was gay.)

Is that a piece I hear
Loudly and merrily
It is and I'm sure the matter
Is more than just a melody.

This was our little church
Over 200 years ago,
Baptists and gave a church
And proceeded to tell someone off.

How far responsible boy
How thoughtful the only boy
He was Alexander the Great
The long as he sees the line.

John was very smart
Never a woman told his heart,
Always went the merry way
Days will be a larger one day.

How well in our German church
The really is a saint.

How the bells ring out
Teacher makes the earth and rocks the floor.

SENIOR CLASS POEM (Cont'd.)

Bob Johnson is the Baby Face
Bob and women have a mad race.
When scores take a downward spin
Bob always comes through to win.

Lauver was our president
He was very stern.
Those who were ignorant
Would very soon learn.

Miriam is an intelligent gal
With a lending hand she never scowls.
And with good marks she leaves our portals
To join some university.

Raleigh is a man of culture.
(As long as it is Agriculture)
He expects to take his vows
While he is raising and milking cows.

Doren was a cute one,
When he looked a girl's way
Away she would run--
And jump in his Chevolet.

Carol was our glamor girl
Gave every boy a whirl.
Ask her who her beau was--Oh just him
Of course, we all know she meant Jim.

Siens is the good buddie.
His hair is brown and his cheeks are ruddy.
He is among the heavy eaters
And devotes his time to Eleanor Peters.

John Wilcox is a steady guy
Looks a girl right straight in the eye.
When he does this
They swoon and sigh!

Last and least is me.
The shortest branch on our family tree.
I'm not fancy you see
Just plain Dick Riley.

We say good-by to the Senior War;
We wave to the teachers
And what is more,
Throw back a bottle of hair restorer.

Betty Howell and Dick Riley

SENIOR PROPHECY

Place: Rocket Roof, New York City

Time: February 29, 1959.

The Rocket Roof, a very beautiful and richly decorated night club, owned by James Bradley is just opening tonight. This building was constructed by the great engineer, Delmar Huffman, and decorated by the famous artisans, Miss Mary Margaret Brennan, and Miss Betty Joann Boyd. The music used to open this beautiful club is presented by Doren Smith, his trumpet, and his orchestra.

Outside, dressed in a blue and gold uniform, we see John Wilcox as the door man. As he stands waiting for the cars to arrive he wonders if he will see any of his old classmates again. Finally the first car appears, it is a big, black limousine, but wait who is the driver? It is none other than our old schoolmate, Danny Siens. As John opens the door he is surprised to find in this car Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lauver. Mrs. Lauver is the former Carol Strand. Ronny is now the president of the biggest sports company in America.

As we enter we are greeted by Mr. and Mrs. James Bradley. Mrs. Bradley is the former Betty Howell of Carman, Illinois. We are seated at a table near the floor show by Raleigh Parrish another old classmate. We have heard of the excellent food that the cook, Miss Judy Hess, has served in well known spots all over the world and could not resist sampling it.

As we are served our first course the lights are dimmed and Tommy Hicks with his clarinet steps into the spot-light. He is the greatest clarinet player in this country. Next into the spot-light is Ruth Anderson, the most popular singer of this time. She sings one of the songs composed by the famous composer, Richard Riley, better known to us as Dick. These features are announced by Mr. Robert Johnson, who also is the sponsor of a musical radio show called "The Popular Song Parade of the Day".

After the closing hour of the club we all meet in James' office to talk over old times. When we are altogether we find sixteen of us, but wasn't there seventeen in our class. Who is the missing person? It is Miriam Mellor who is away on a business trip in Europe.

Tonight we have not only celebrated the opening of the Rocket Roof but to our surprise we have again seen or heard of, for the first time since the night of graduation, each one of our classmates of the class of '49.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 3, 1946, thirty-nine fascinated pupils known as "green freshman" or "freshies" entered SHS. After the thrilling event of being initiated by the sophomores we became bonafide students of SHS. We then lost the name given to us at the first of the year.

Our class advisors were Mr. Overman and Mr. Meyer. Our class officers were:

President----Don Logan
Vice Pres.---Ray Myers
Secretary----Ada M. Combites
Treasurer----Mary A. Ford

Our king and queen were Helen Shafer and Jack Harsch.

We were all active in everything that went on around us. Our first year was closed by giving a picnic for the sophomores at Crapo Park.

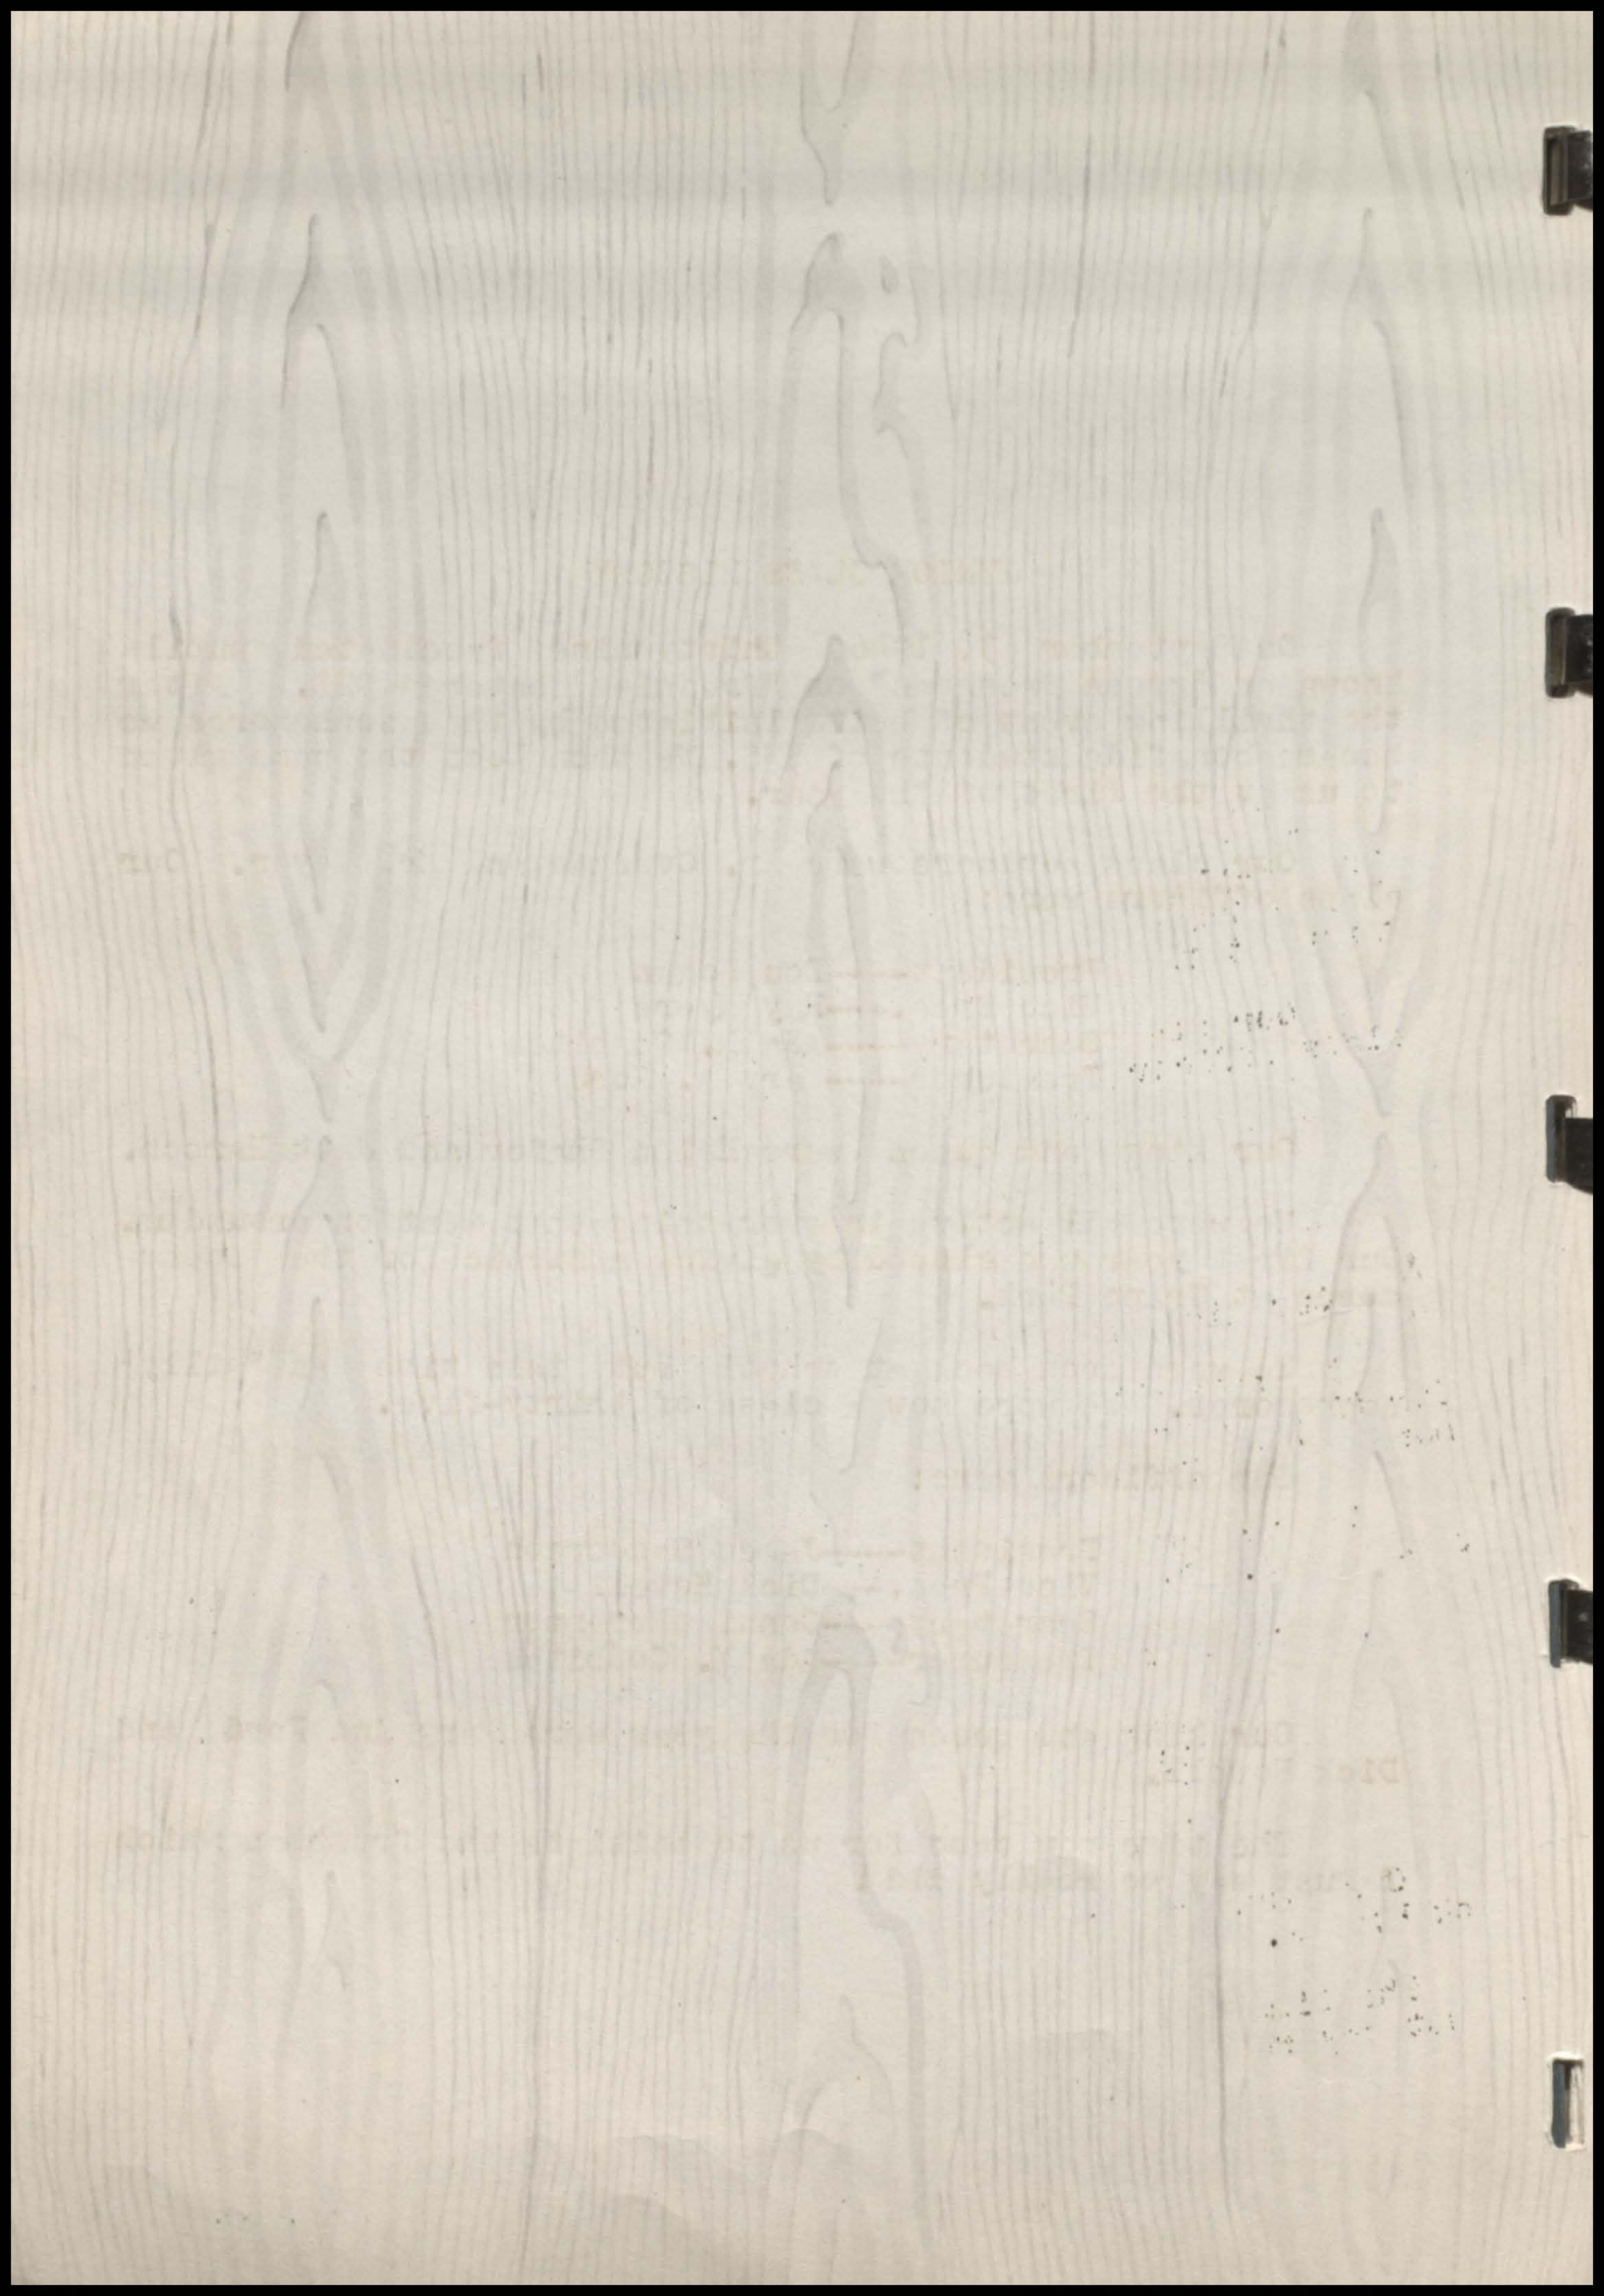

We were soon back at school but this time as "silly" sophomores. We were now a class of thirty-five.

Our officers were:

President----James Sanderson
Vice Pres.---Dick Howell
Secretary----Connie Peterson
Treasurer----Ada M. Combites

Our king and queen for the year were Mary Ann Ford and Dick Howell.

The time now came for us to initiate the freshman which I must say we really did!

Our class took part in many activities throughout the year, such as band, mixed chorus, girls' chorus, boys' chorus, FHA, FFA, GAA, football, basketball, etc.

We again enjoyed a picnic at Crapo Park which ended our school term for the time being.

Once more we see fall roll around and are back at school but this time we find ourselves juniors. We now have thirty-five jolly members. Our advisors are Miss Olson and Mr. Hunt.

Our officers for the year are:

President-----Raymond Annegers
Vice Pres.-----Jesse Rehm
Secretary-----Ada M. Combites
Treasurer-----Connie Peterson
Reporter-----Bobbie Jean Jones

Our king and queen this year were Ada Marie Combites and Ray Myers.

The juniors gave the play "The Adorable Imp" which was most successful, and all the class enjoyed contributing their part toward helping in this event. The directors were Mr. Tingley and Miss Titsworth.

This year we are sponsoring a food stand at the basketball games to help our financial status.

We are all looking forward to the Junior-Senior Prom which will take place this spring. We are also looking forward to next year for it will be our last year ~~in~~ ^{at} SHS.

Regulish seventeen-year-old Betty Lou Gordon played the part of an eleven-year-old imp because her mother, Pamela, who was a pretty widow, told a wealthy admirer she was only twenty-nine! Pamela, disgusted because her old sweetheart, Brian Barkley, won't propose, became interested in rich Dilworth and invited him--his cousin, Ross Waldron, his grandfather Winston, and Winston's ward, Imogene Van Ryndon--to spend the week end. Dil suffered from dyspepsia, old Winston had the gout and the snooty Imogene was allergic to cats and sneezed at the very mention of one. Betty Lou learned that Ross was the boy she fell in love with at first sight at a football game. To keep Ross from proposing to Imogene, the Adorable Imp played all manner of ludicrous tricks upon them. Brian, jealous of Dil, disguises himself as Tompkins, the new butler, and proceeded to make Dil's life miserable. Grandpa Winston developed a yen for the imp's grandmother Abby, also a widow. Clint Purdy, Abby's old admirer, disguises himself as Maggie O'Cork, the Irish cook, and goes to work on Winston with a vengeance! From the moment the Pickrells arrive there is a hilarious tangle of laugh situations. The Pickrells and the haughty ward finally vanquished and the Adorable Imp got her man--formed the riotous climax of this super-hilarious farce.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Just twenty-four of us green freshies started to school in the fall of 1947. We chose the following as our leaders:

President----Mary Lou Bowen
Vice Pres.---Jack McIntyre
Sec.-Treas.--Robert Foresman

Our class advisors were Mrs. Alexander and Mr. Myers.

Our candidates for homecoming queen were William Canfield and Mary Ann Kemp.

Joan Shafer was elected as one of the cheerleaders for the junior varsity.

In the fall of 1948 our class, "silly sophomores," had dropped to nineteen in number. Billy Waddill and Mabel Waterman are missing from our roll call this year.

From our class this year we chose our leaders to be:

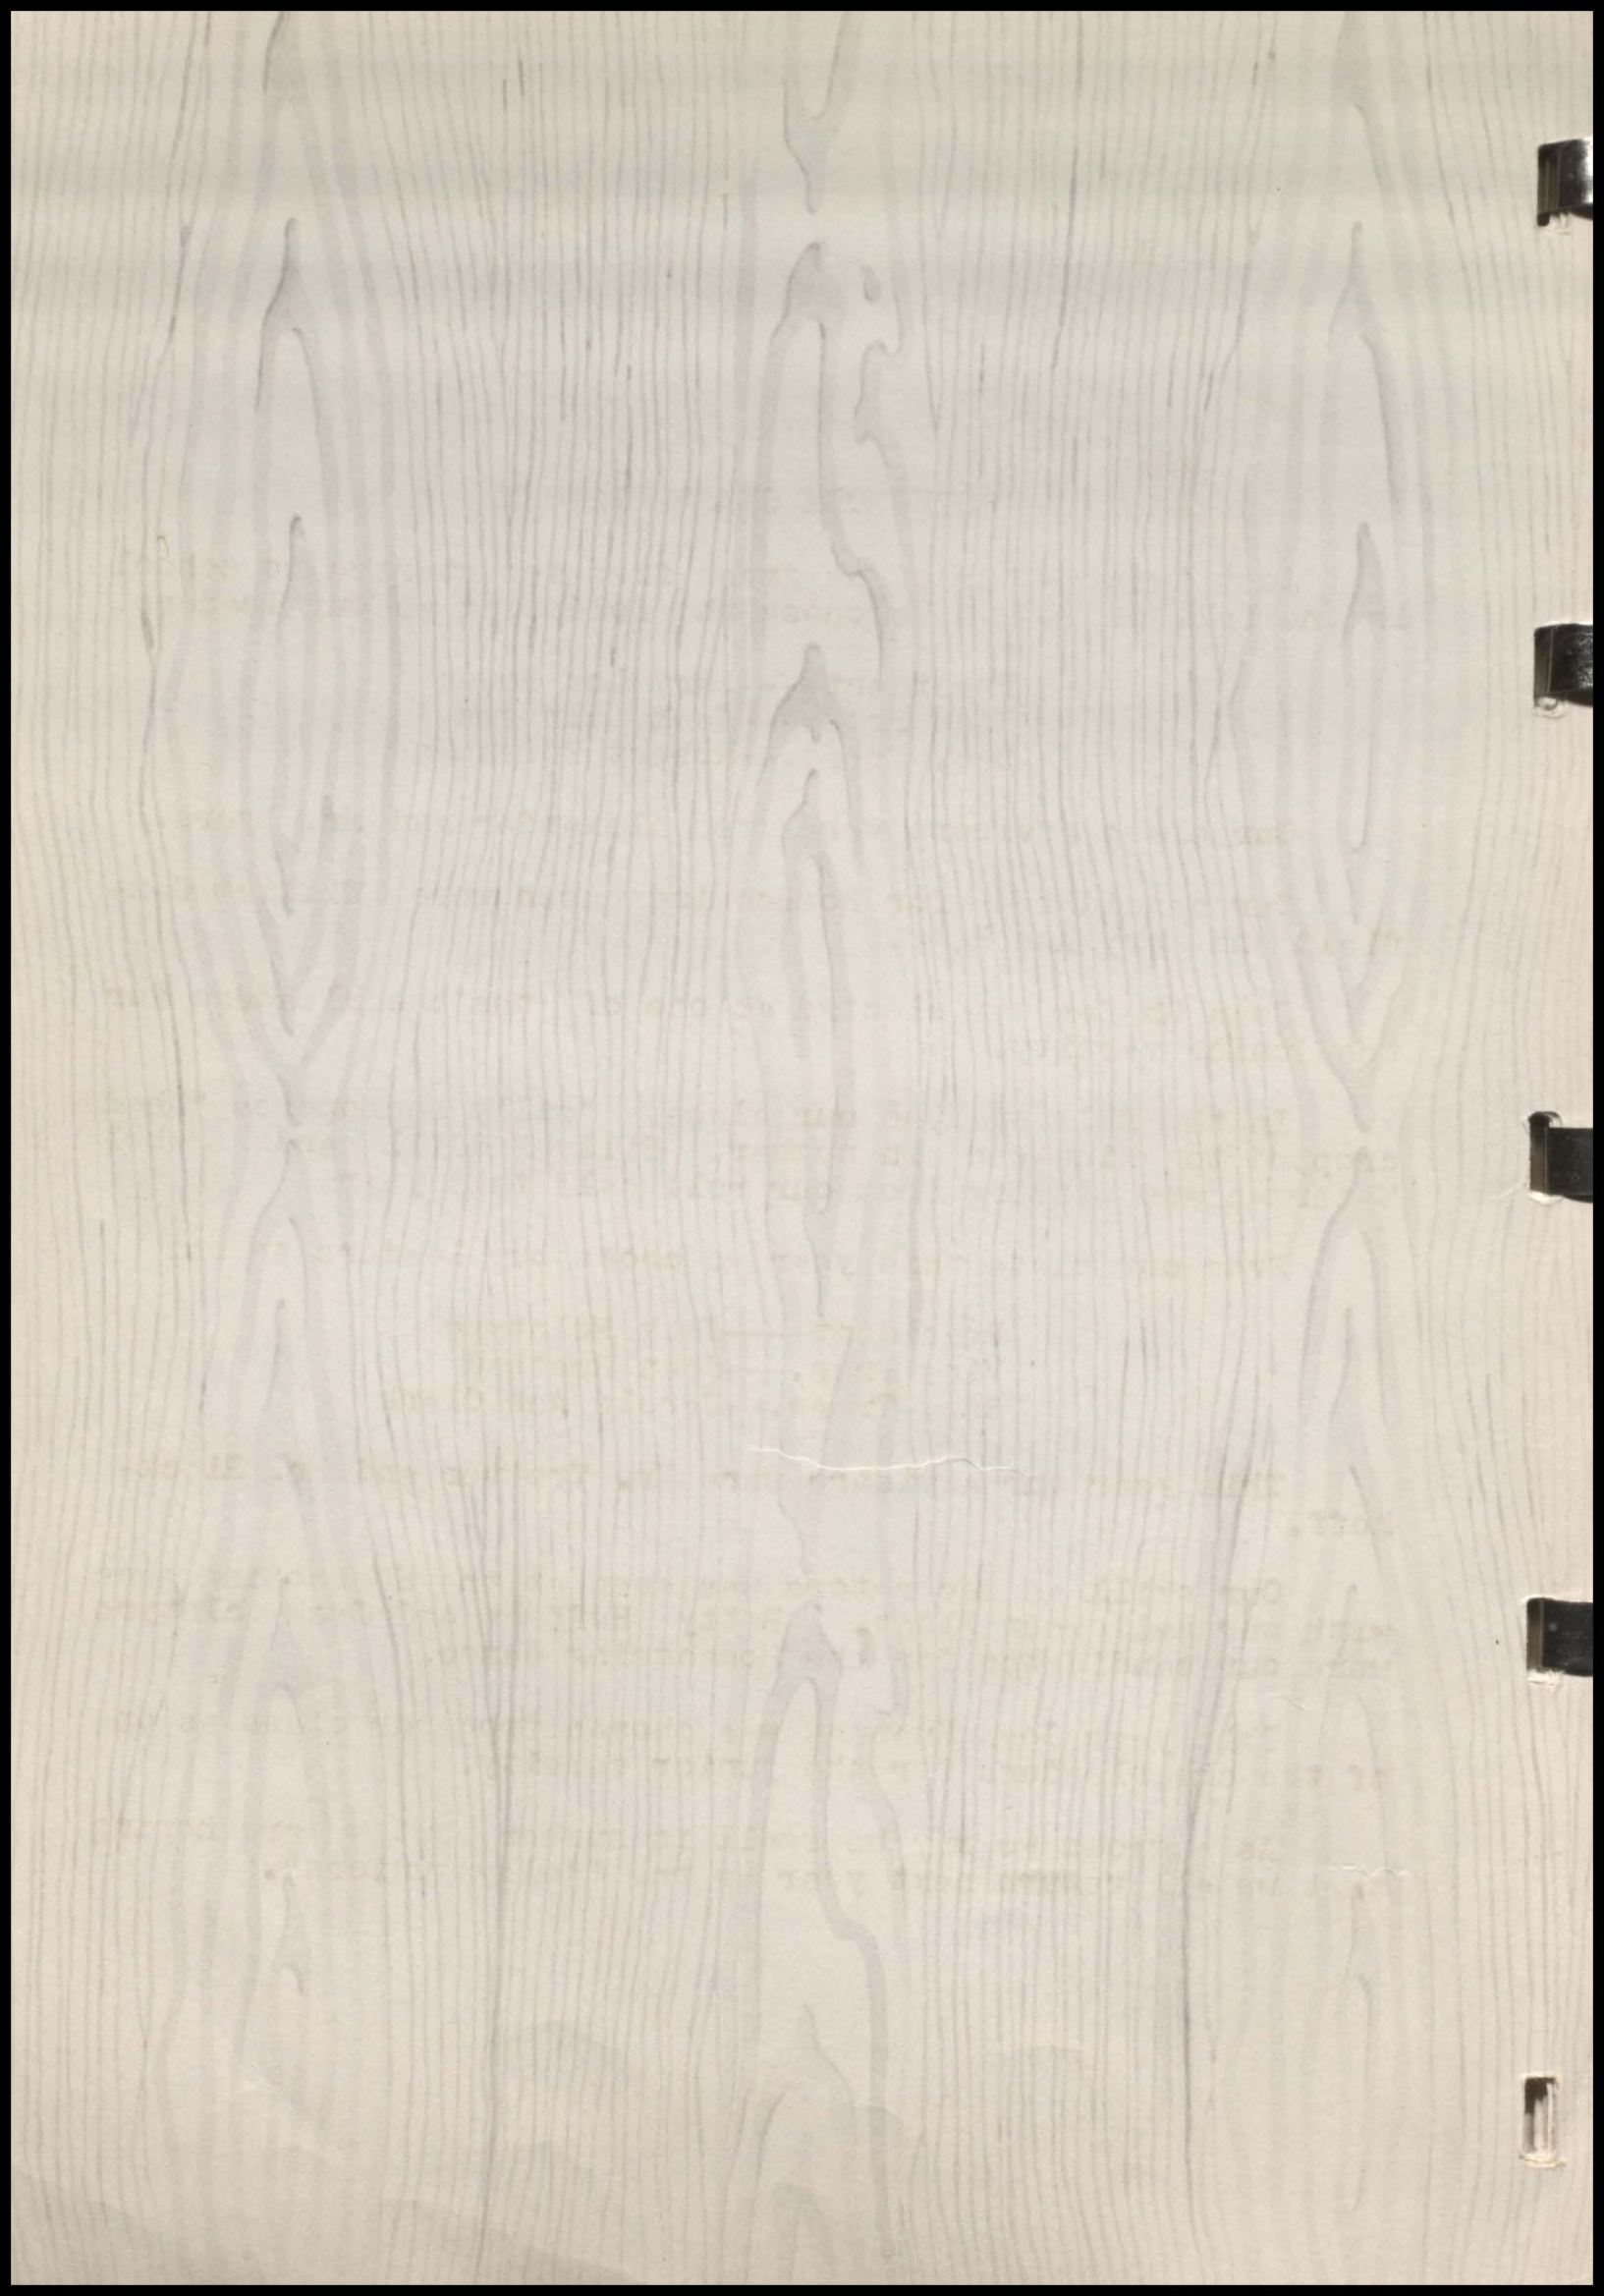

President----Jack McIntyre
Vice Pres.---Joan Husted
Sec.-Treas.--Carole Ann Clark

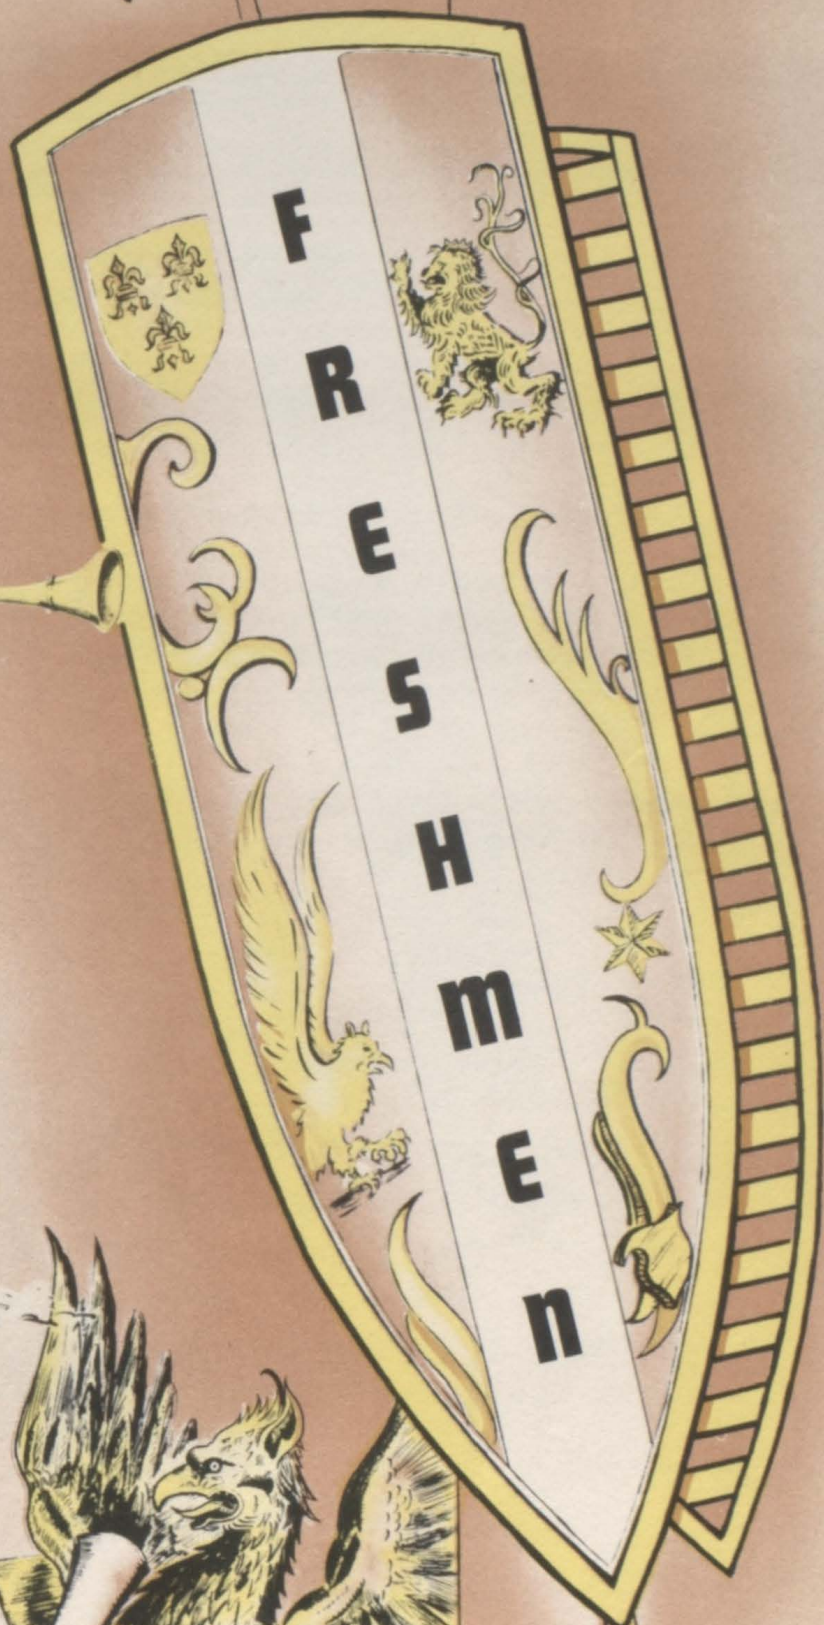

This year our advisors were Mr. Trotter and Mr. Rieckhoff.

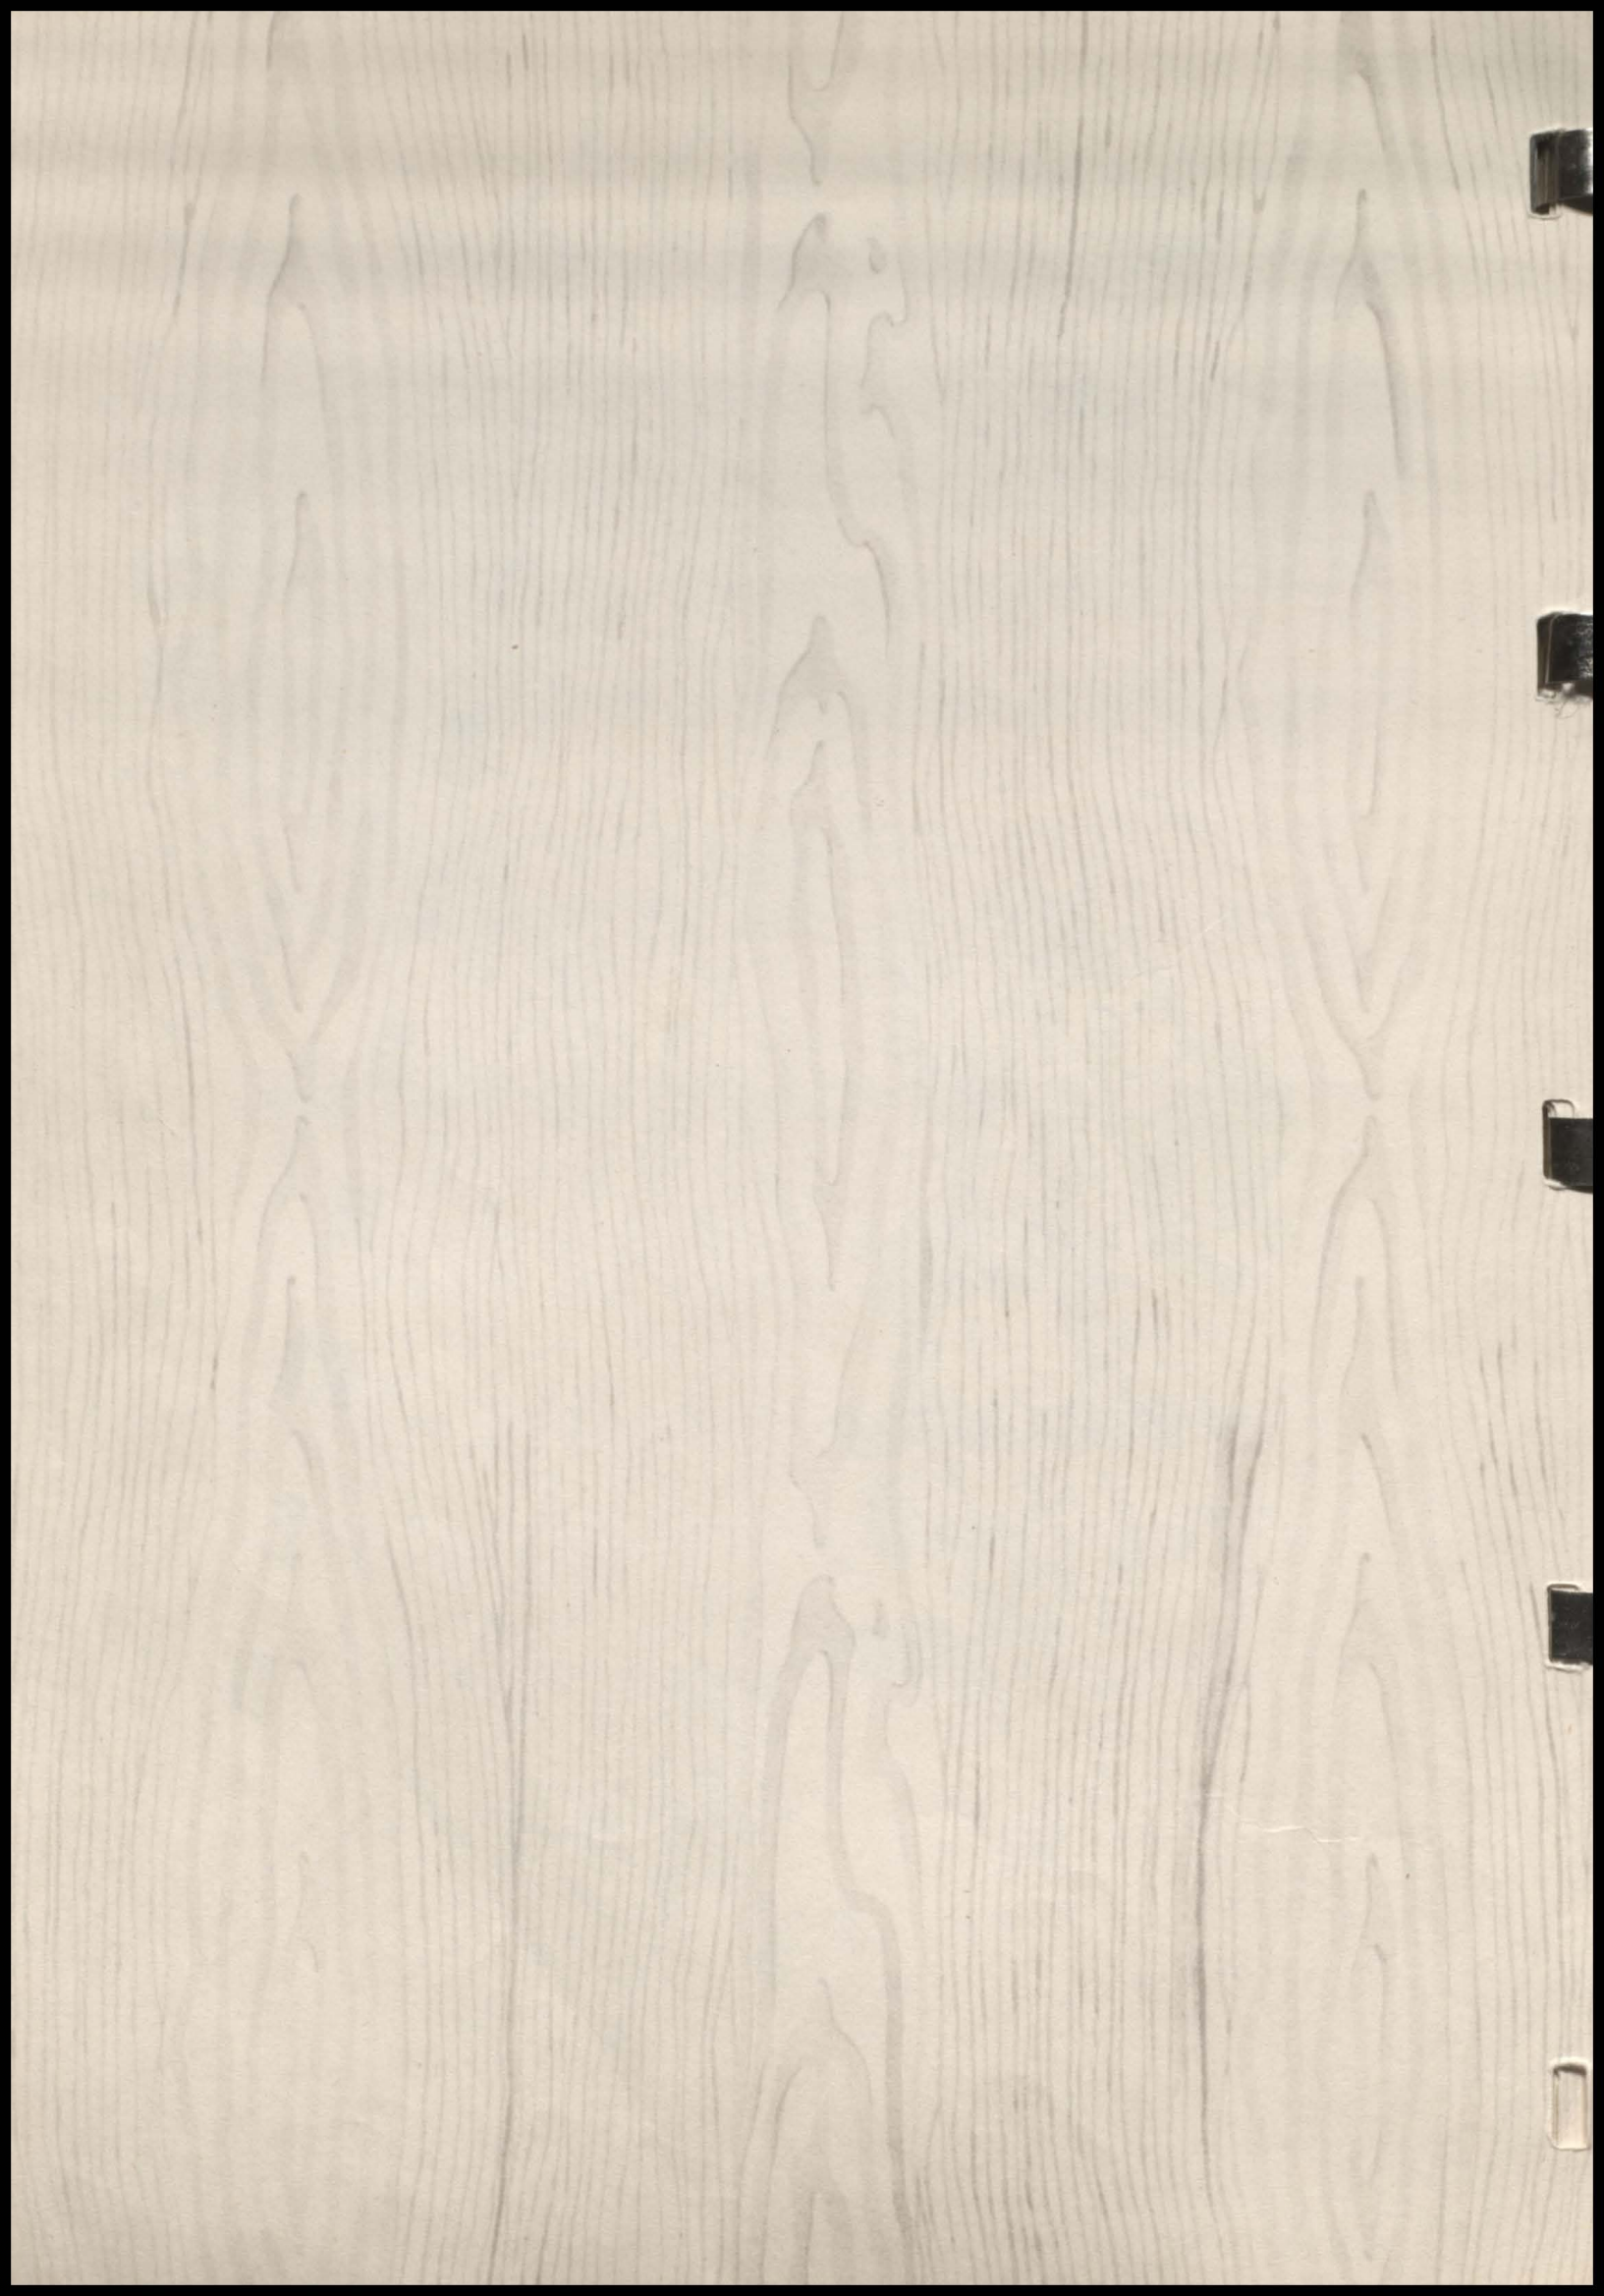

Our skill as decorators was seen at the Homecoming game with our Halloween Float. Betty Huffman and Jack McIntyre were our candidates for the Homecoming dance.

This year Joan Husted was chosen from our class as one of the cheerleaders for the junior varsity.

As a group we may be small in number, but we are hoping that we all return next year as the "jolly juniors".

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

This first year of our new adventure was started by the election of officers who were chosen as follows:

President-----Nancy Ford
Vice Pres.-----Roger Peterson
Treasurer-----James Morris

Our class advisors were Mrs. Alexander and Mr. Tingley.

The dreaded moment, "Initiation", finally arrived. All of us went through our required stunts feeling fine, and the climax of the affair was the marriage of Roger Peterson and Ruth Tracy. Thus ended the hour of our being "Green Freshies"

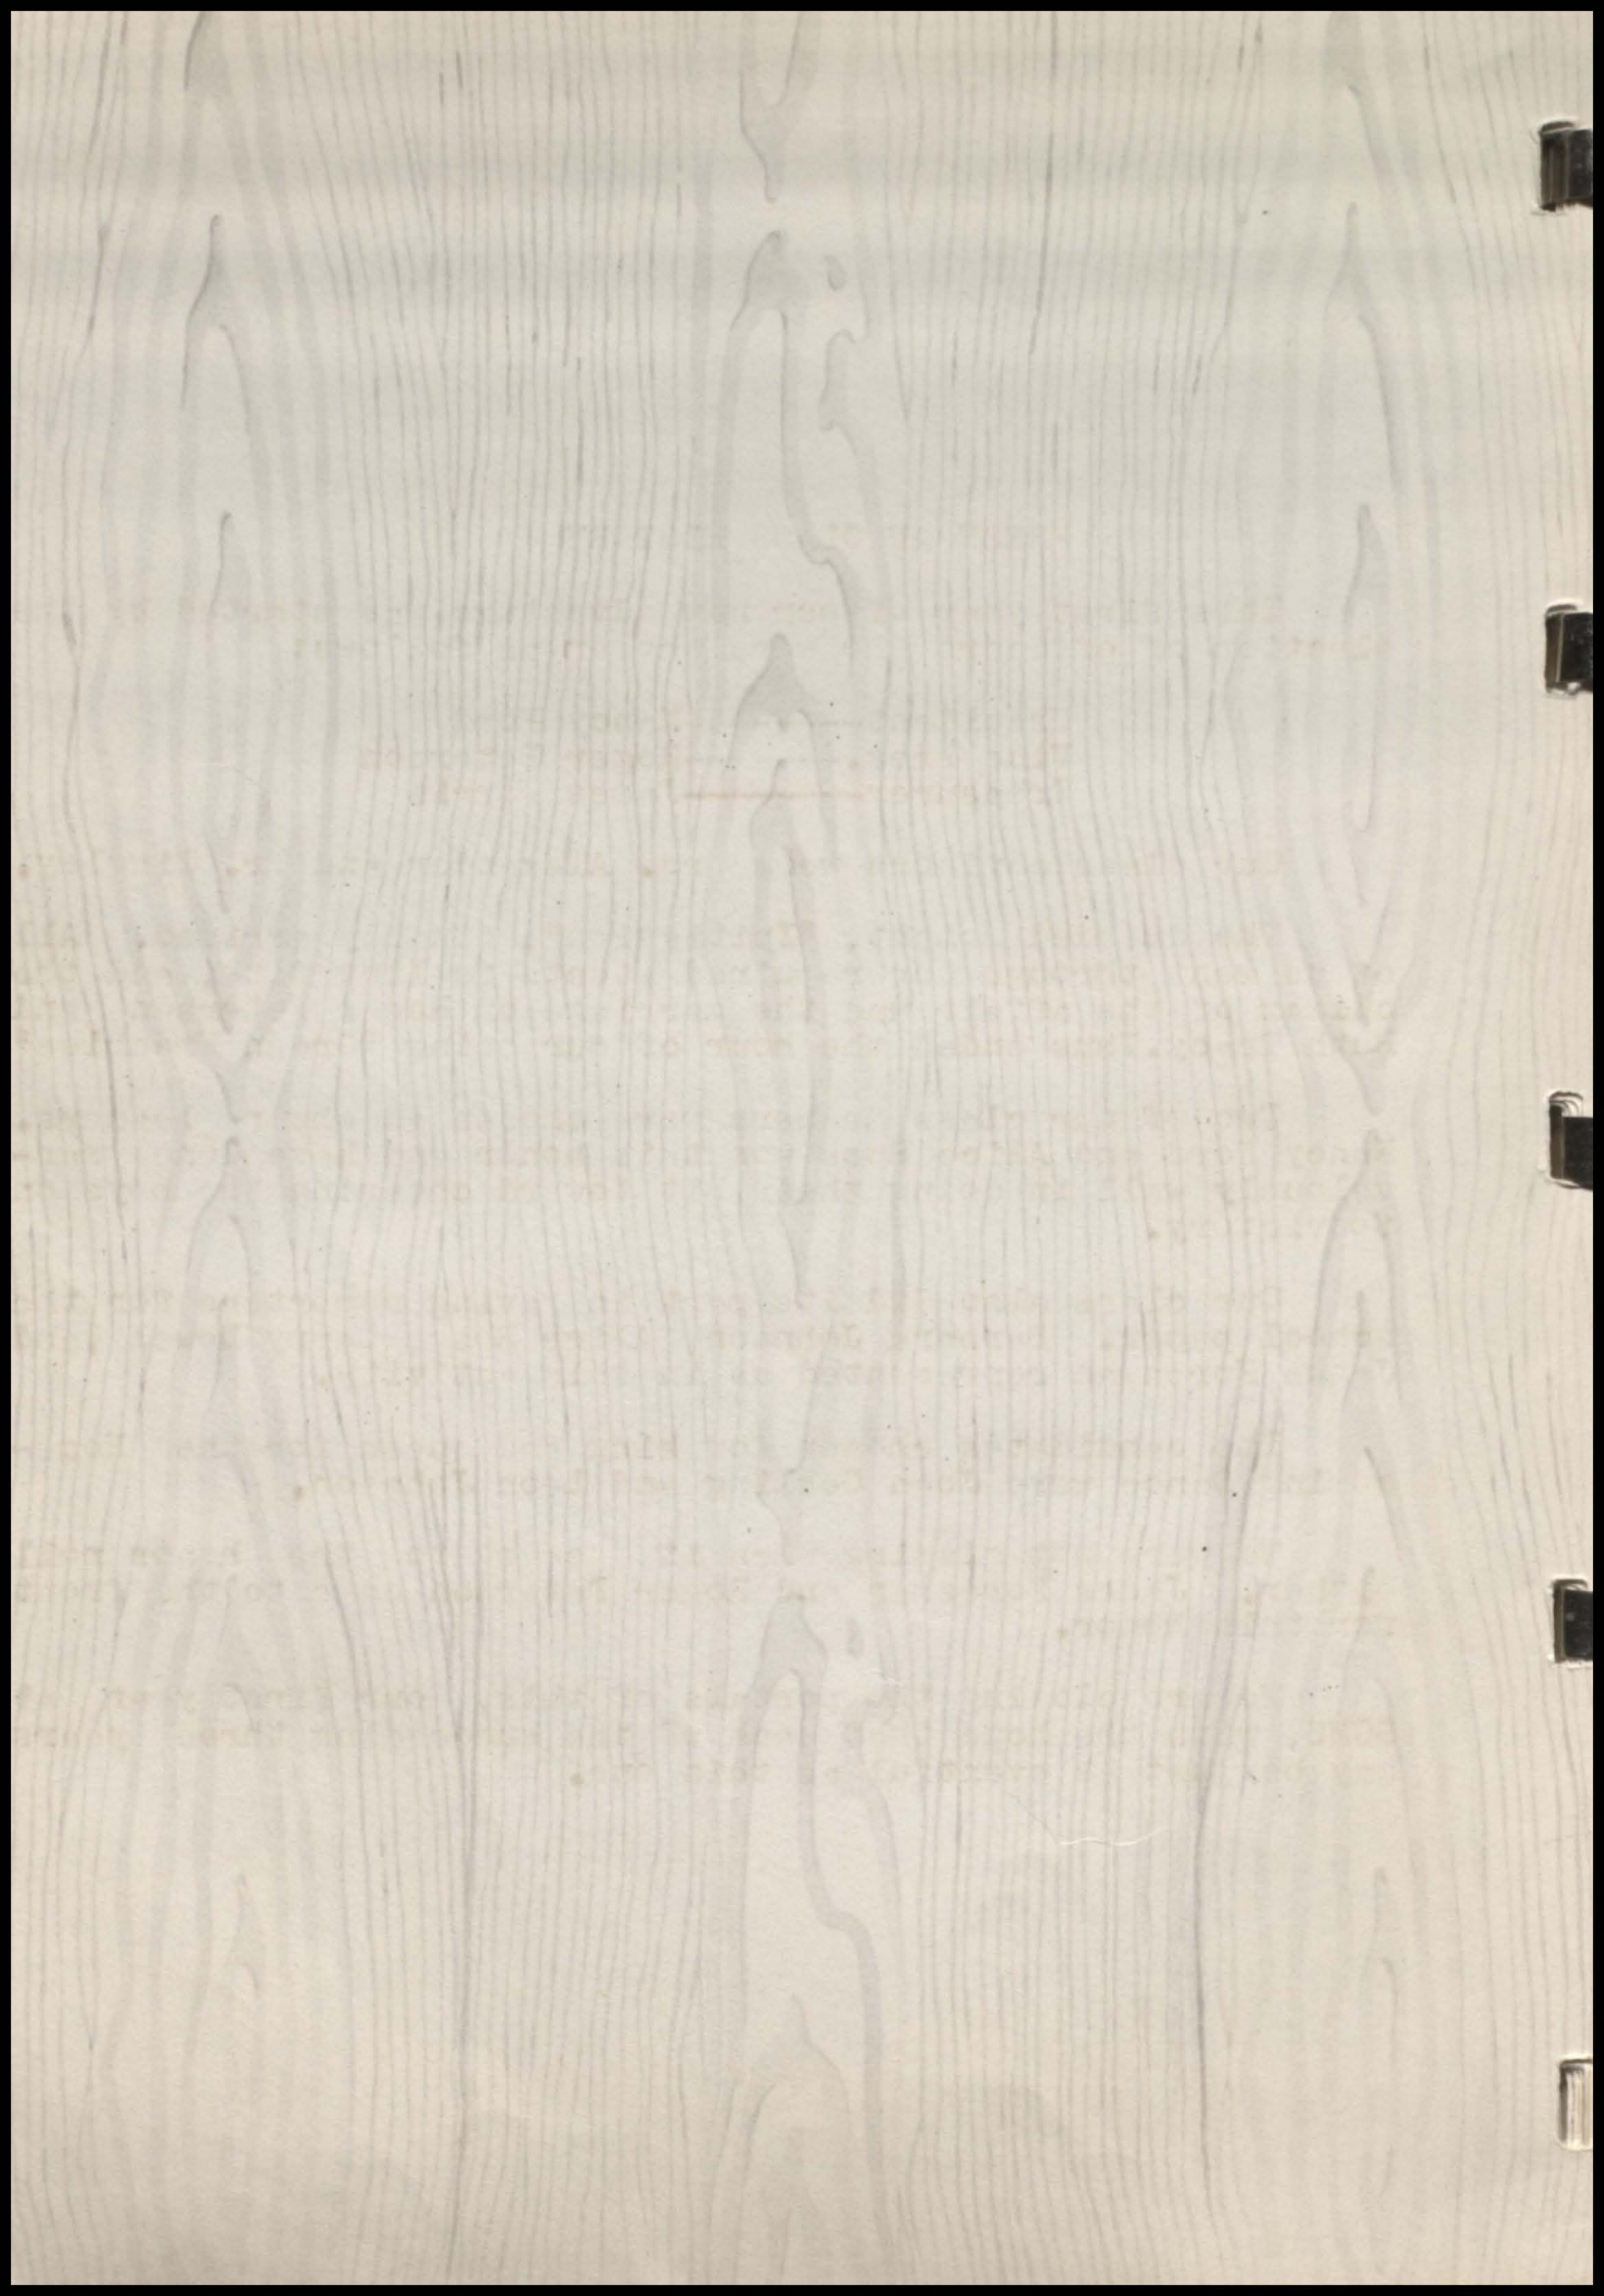

Two of our class members were chosen as cheer leaders. Nancy Ford and Alice Ross won this honor and have done marvelously well in doing their bit toward cheering the boys on to victory.

Our class also did its part in having reporters for the school paper. Barbara Johnson, Alice Ross, Larry Dowell, and James Foresman represented us in this activity.

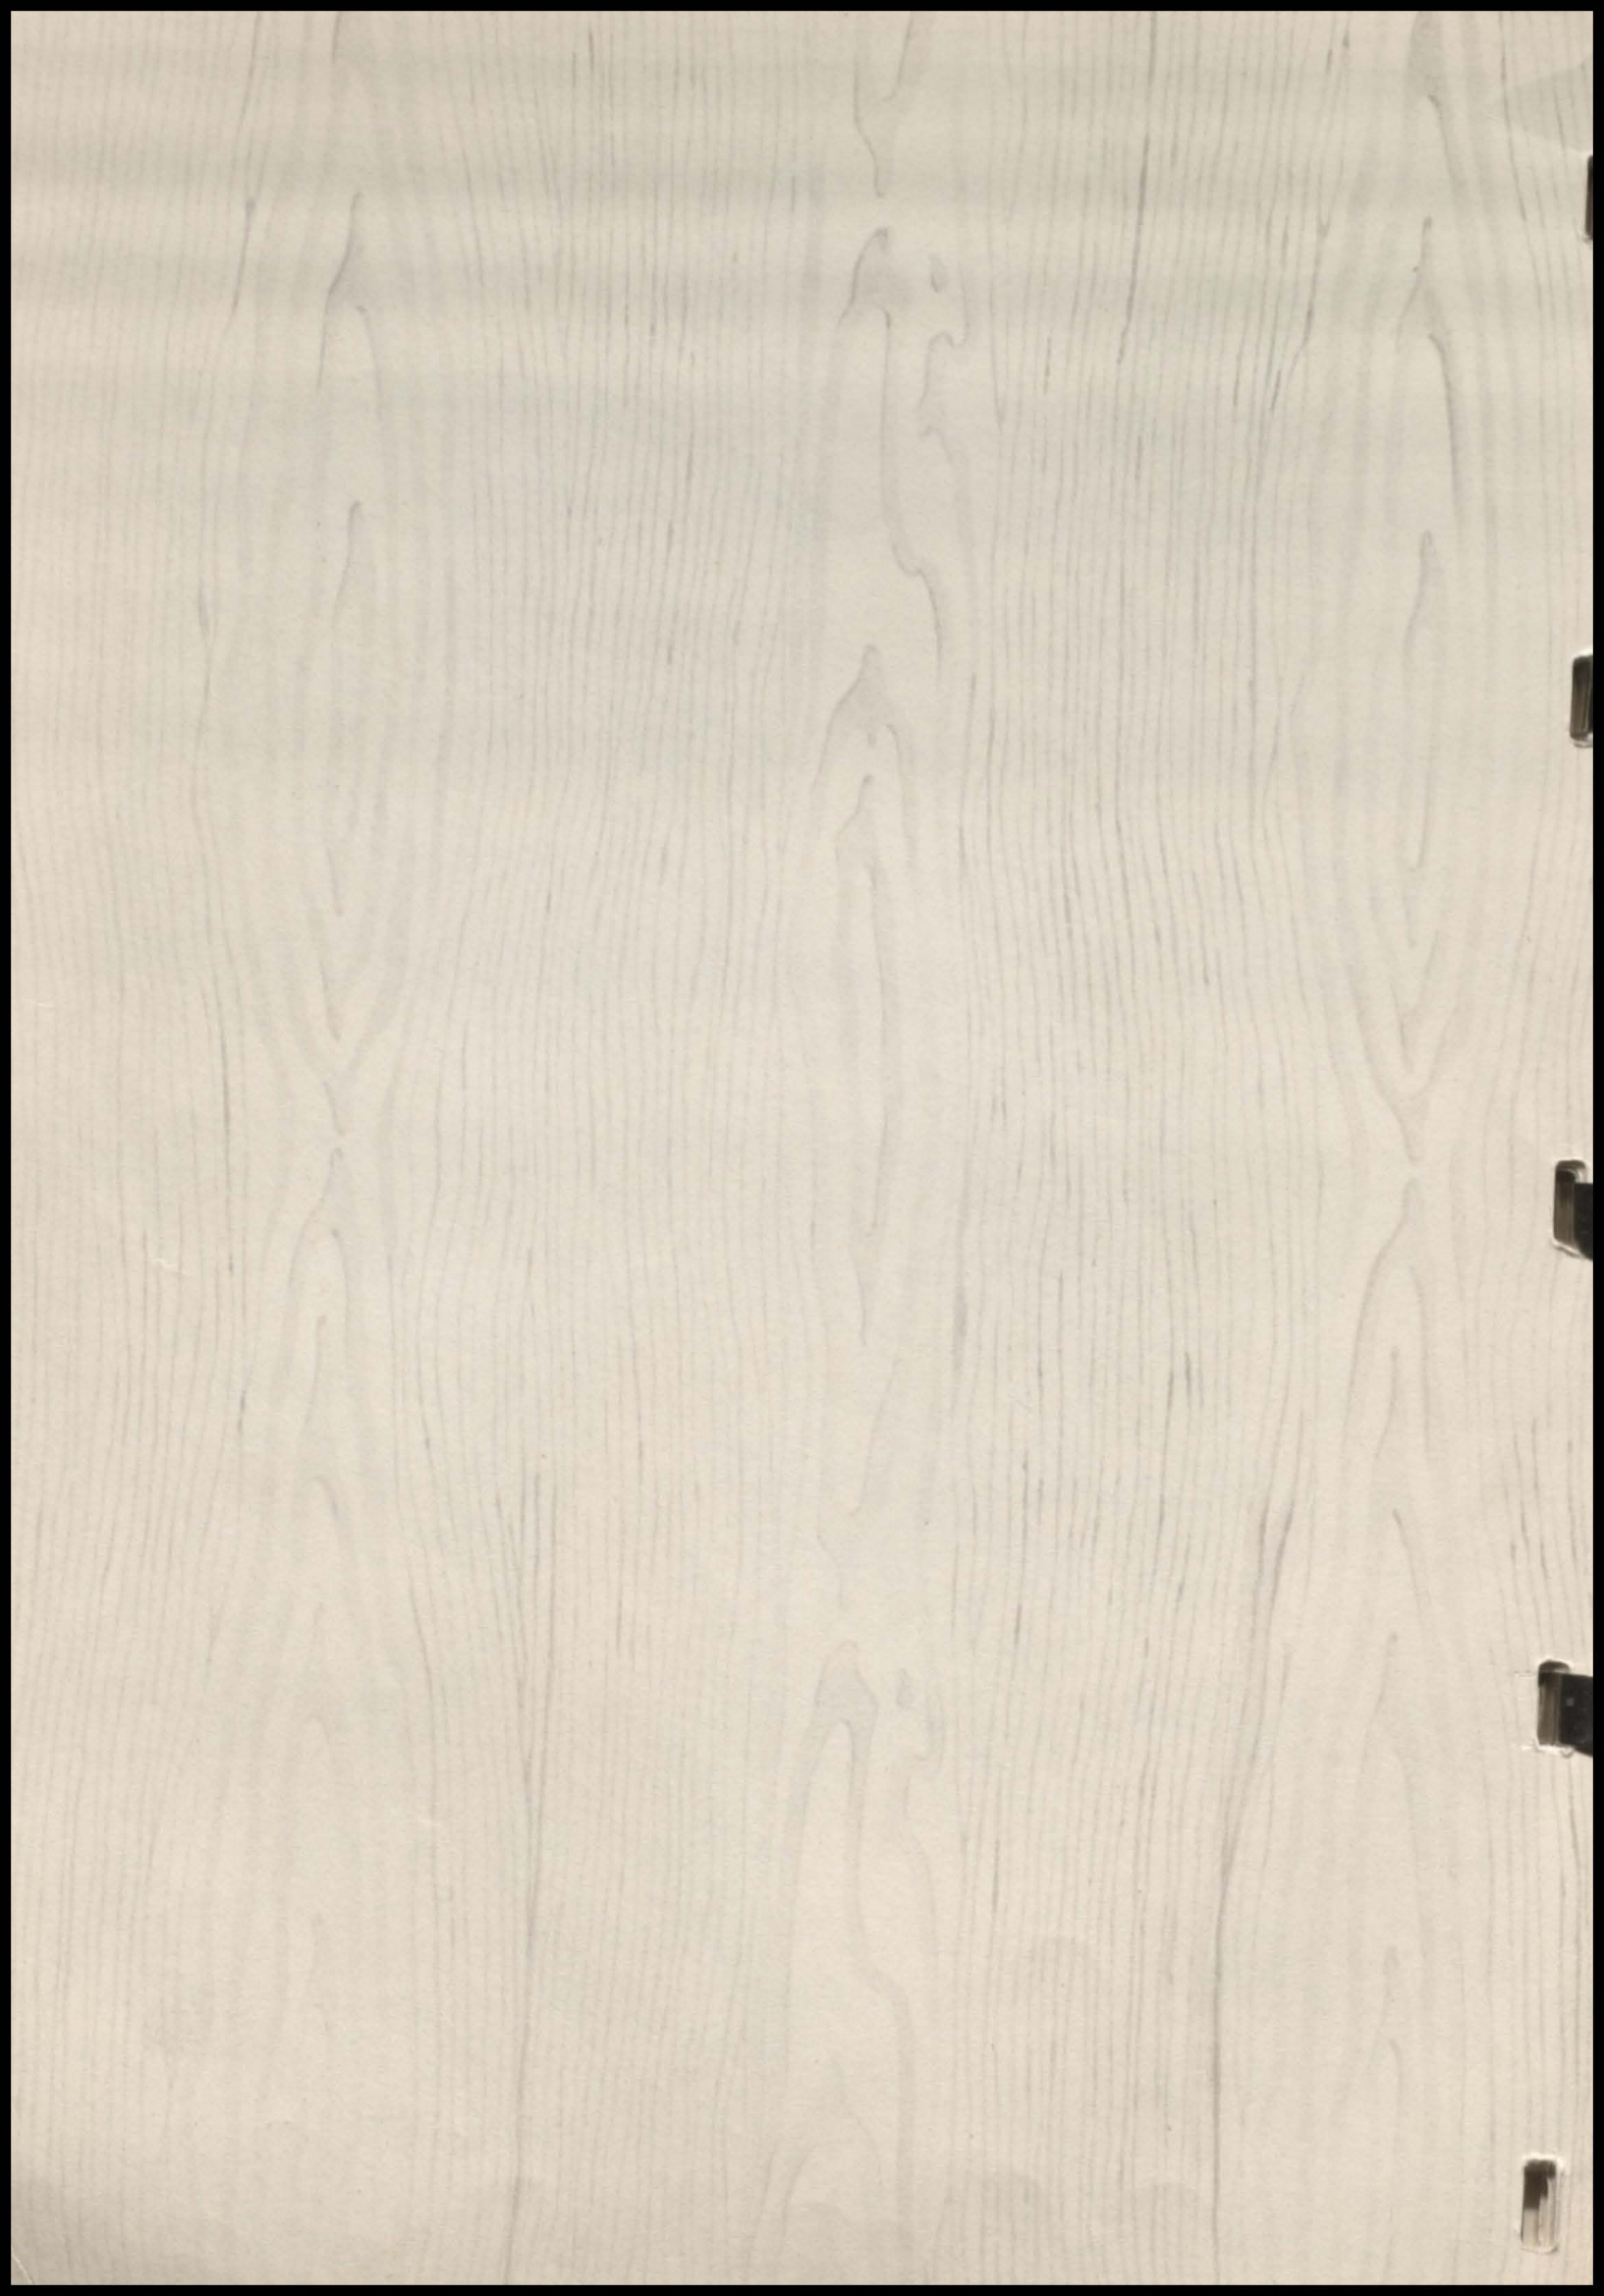

The candidates chosen for king and queen for the Homecoming Dance were Joan Gesling and Leon Johnson.

We were not missing when it came to the honor roll either. James Foresman and Roger Peterson came to the front for this honor.

We are closing the portals of this, our first year at SGHS, with the hope that each of the succeeding three years may be just as eventful as this one.

A goodly number of students remained to clean up the building in order that regular class might be resumed on Friday.

The Beacon Club wishes to express its appreciation and thanks to all those contributing in any way, especially to those donating home-made cakes for the cake walk.

The radio raffled off was won by Mr. Ted Barnett, of Monmouth, Illinois.

The evening of fun was climaxed by the crowning of the 1948 Carnival Queen. Connie Peterson was the winner of this honor. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peterson of Stronghurst, Illinois. Connie is a member of the junior class and is active in all activities of the high school.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class play, "The Ginger Girl", was presented on April 8, 1949, under the direction of Mr. Tingley.

The action of the play, a farce comedy, takes place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wardner, when Mr. Wardner reluctantly agrees to take in an elderly lady boarder; a friend of Grace's aunt.

A young and beautiful movie actress accidentally drops in and is accepted by Harry as the boarder during Grace's absence. The boarder fails to appear and the neighbors take it up from there.

The cast included:

Ronny Lauver	----	Harry Wardner	...	A young business man
Miriam Mellor	----	Grace Wardner	...	His wife
Delmar Huffman	--	Charles Heinz	...	A radio announcer
Carol Strand	----	Laura Heinz	His wife
Richard Riley	---	Ezra Meek	The banker
Ruth Anderson	---	Iolly Sheldon	...	The Ginger Girl
Danny Siens	----	August Cringle	..	A wealthy westerner
Doren Smith	----	Herbert Mosely	..	A neighbor
Mary M. Brennan	-	Jenny Reamer	...	Another neighbor
Betty Boyd	----	Della	A maid
James Bradley	---	Maguire	A policeman
Robert Johnson	--	Carter	A doctor

Posters, tickets, programs, advertising, and stage properties were taken care of by committees headed by Julia Hess Betty Howell, John Wilcox, Raleigh Parrish, and Thomas Hicks.

The play had plenty of action and clever lines from the first to the last acts, and was certainly well received by the gym-packed interested audience who saw it.

"The Ginger Girl" was wholly successful both as to quality and finances. The characters were cast to perfection and as the class is small, the director is to be commended on his ability in doing a fine job, and the cast is to be commended on their ability to act. James Bradley and Thomas Hicks entertained the audience between acts by playing piano duets and solos.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

"Garden Gaities" was the theme of the annual Juniors Senior Banquet of 1948. The evening of May 26 proved to be very beautiful for a formal dinner and dance. The place chosen for the affair was the Hamilton Country Club.

Dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. in the country club dining room. The seniors, board members and their wives, and the faculty were the guests of the juniors at the banquet. Following the meal an entertaining program was presented by the juniors. Richard Riley acted as toast master. The program consisted of "Morning Glory Welcome" by Mary Margaret Brennan and a "Tulip Response" by Ethel Dowell. James Bradley played several numbers on the piano. Mr. Clarence Mellor gave comments representing the board of education and Mr. Harold Ferris represented the faculty. Ruth Anderson gave a humorous reading and a group of junior girls gave some vocal musical numbers.

Decorations on the dinner tables include white carnation bouquets, the senior class flower and white and blue nut cups.

The ball room was decorated with a false ceiling of pastel colored streamers and silver stars. Reflection of the stars made by the blue lights added an interesting note to the decorations. Picket fences and archways were used at each end and in the center of the dance floor. These fences were covered with evergreen branches and artificial roses in pastel colors. A bird bath and sun dial used in the garden made the setting even more realistic.

Punch and cookies were served from a table decorated in keeping with the rest of the theme. The entire room looked like a beautiful garden in full bloom and from the many windows could be seen the Mississippi River which gave the dance a delightful atmosphere.

Archie Cowler's five piece orchestra furnished the music for the evening. The music was exceptionally good and everyone enjoyed the dancing period. A very comfortable lounge adjoined the dance floor and several of the guests played cards during the evening.

The seniors wish to extend their thanks and appreciation to the juniors and their sponsors Miss Olson and Mr. Hunt for this most enjoyable evening and never-to-be-forgotten event that goes down in their book of memories.

F.H.A.

During this year (1948-49) the Future Homemakers of America, have indeed, been very busy. With the capable leadership of our President, Ada Marie Combites, and the co-operation of the members, new and old, we have accomplished a great deal.

The officers for this year were Ada Marie Combites, President; Connie Peterson, Vice President; Marcia Sprock, Secretary; Joan Hustead, Treasurer; Miriam Mellor, reporter; Betty Ann Foresman, Historian; Mary Lou Bown, Parliamentarian; Barbara Bradley, song leader.

During the first six-weeks we had our first meeting. At this meeting we decided the amount of dues for this year and several smaller points of interest. All in all we were off with a bang.

The F.H.A. was very active the second six-weeks. We packed Red Cross boxes, Christmas gift boxes to be sent overseas, and sent old clothes overseas. We also collected money for the Junior Red Cross membership. The weight of the boxes was 143 pounds. We also paid the postage for these boxes. Another thing that kept us busy was getting material for our program booklets. Much time was spent in stenciling, mimeographing, and putting them together.

To commemorate National F.H.A. week we put flowers in the different churches. We also planned to plant red rose bushes near the school in the spring.

During the third six-weeks period the F.H.A. acted as solicitors for the Abraham Lincoln Food Train donations. Ten girls canvassed the homes in Stronghurst. "Success" was our motto! The F.H.A. decided that they would like to give a contribution to the Food Train. We gave five dollars to the amount the high school was giving.

On December 8 the F.H.A. gave a program and tea for parents and friends. There were about 159 people attending this program and the girls presented a very interesting entertainment.

With December comes Christmas and with Christmas comes the F.H.A.-F.F.A. caroling group. The night was brisk and cold, but not too cold for the group. We hope everyone liked our songs.

Rallies are loads of fun to go to and we did have fun at the rally in Macomb. Our President, Ada Marie, was Section 9 vice president so took part in the program. We had a good representation that Saturday in February. Many new friends

President-----Jesse Rehm
Vice Pres.----Dewayne Harvey
Secretary----Robert Foresman
Treasurer----Raymond Annegars
Reporter-----Dan Siens
Advisor-----Mr. J. M. Hunt

Many and varied activities have been engaged in and are being planned. The chapter has made good progress this year and can rightfully be proud of their work. The membership includes 18 students who earned a gross income of $4500 from their farming programs the past year.

Jesse Rehm and Dick Riley represented our chapter at the annual State Convention in June, 1948 at the University of Illinois. Dewayne Harvey, Raymond Annegars, and Dick Riley composed our dairy judging team at the State Judging Contest in June, 1948 at Champaign, Illinois.

A transportation paid trip to the 1948 Illinois State Fair was enjoyed by Jerry Brooks, Raymond Annegars, Bob Johnson and Jesse Rehm. The boys spent two days at the fair. Several of our members exhibited their livestock at the Henderson County fair held in August, 1948.

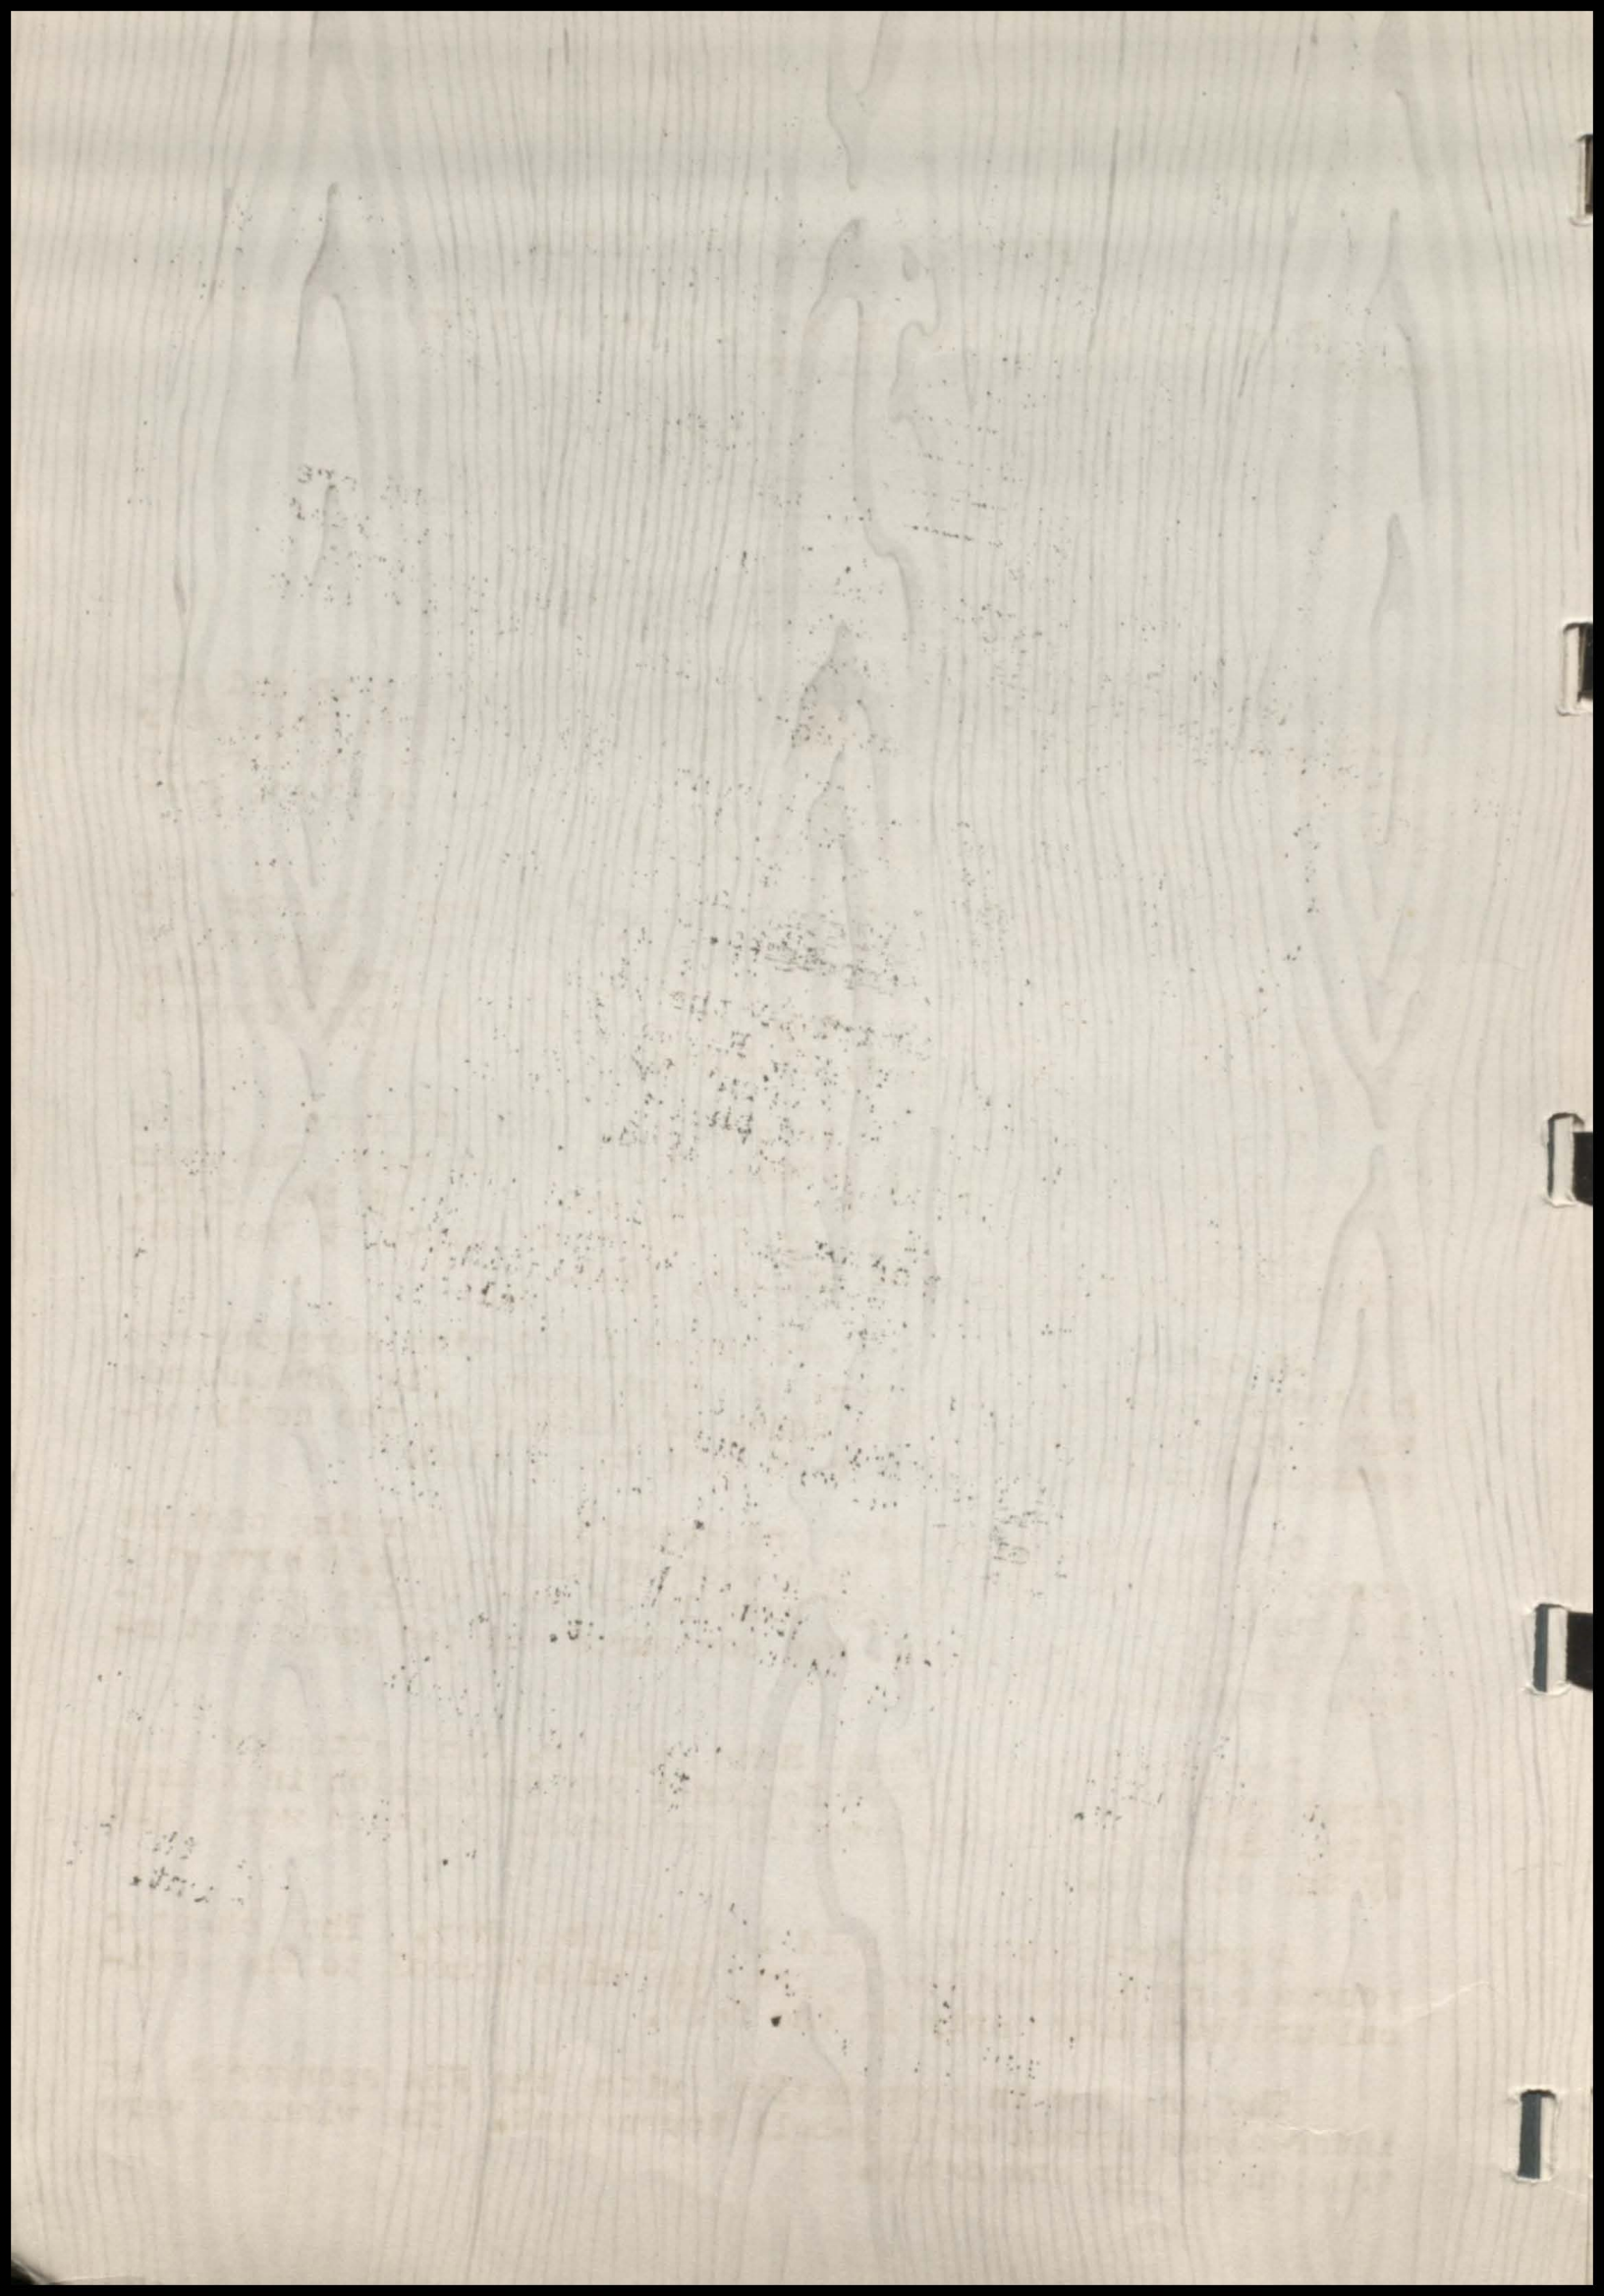

An orderly impressive greenhand initiation ceremony was held during the latter part of September. Six Greenhands were accepted. We had the honor of initiating the newly organized Terre Haute Chapter at that time, also.

One of our cooperative endeavors is the farming of eight acres of school property just west of the campus. We harvested 150 bushels of oats and 250 bushels of corn with a gross income of $375. The field was contoured and two gross waterways established.

Dewayne Harvey, Jesse Rehm and Mr. Hunt attended the first two days of the 1948 National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. Transportation and hotel expenses were paid by the chapter.

A project tour was held late in November. The chapter poured a concrete sidewalk from the high school to the agriculture building early in the fall.

The chapter in cooperation with the FHA sponsored an inter-class school volley-ball tournament. The winners were treated to pop and candy.

A swine improvement association was formulated in December with Dewayne Harvey elected president. This group includes boys with swine projects who are interested in improving their herds.

The newly organized "Thrift Bank" got underway before the Christmas vacation. Leon Johnson was elected treasurer and Dewayne Harvey and Raymond Annegans appointed to help with its administration. This is in reality an FFA savings account. The money will earn interest by investment in cooperative projects.

The chapter now owns a complete set of ritual paraphernalia and the members have purchased $80 worth of FFA official clothing and jewelry.

Eight of our members journeyed with Mr. Merlin Foresman to Chicago in November to attend the International Livestock Exposition. They spent three days and two nights in the windy city. Transportation was paid by the chapter.

A "Chain Gilt Project" is being started this spring. A Hampshire gilt is to be purchased by the Thrift Bank and farmed out to Dewayne Harvey. He will return the gilt and one pig later in the summer. These in turn shall be farmed out.

Our chapter sponsored the "Ralph Pierce Magic Show" in January. It was a top performance and keenly enjoyed by those present.

We are selling Vitality garden seeds again this year to our community. The campaign promises to be a real success.

We donated $5 to the CROP overseas shipment project as a part of our community service program.

We are preparing a team for the Section VII parliamentary procedure contest and plan to have an entry in the public speaking contest, also. Plans are for a bigger and better Parent and Son banquet this spring.

We have entered the Chapter Contest and are hoping to win in our section of 18 schools. We placed second last year and can do better this year.
