- I, John Adair, do will and bequeath my flattop to Jim Louck.
- I, Herb Anderson, do will and bequeath my ability to get breaks from teachers, stay out of trouble and the job of getting along with a certain coach to Wendell Stevenson.
- I, Tex Bainbridge, do will and bequeath my brains for getting good grades to Carl Peterson and my love for girls to Larry Bushong.
- I, Linda Bielser, do will and bequeath to Charlotte Bielser my good times in high school and to Margie Seitz I leave my ability to give everyone in the car a thrilling ride.
- I, Ilona Boyd, do will and bequeath my bottle of peroxide to Sandra Olson.
- I, Kay Brent, do will and bequeath my nickname "Rabbit" and all the other little names I have accumulated in the past four years back to the giver.
- I, Dean Campbell, do will and bequeath my ability to sleep in every class to any Junior who likes to watch Jack Paar.
- I, Mary Jo Cline, do will and bequeath my ability to stay out of the office to Marilyn Mudd.
- I, Dianne Curry, do will and bequeath my cheerleading position to Margie Seitz in hopes that she enjoys it as much as I did and all the fun I have had in high school to Charlotte Bielser and Carole Coover.
- I, Caroline Decker, do will and bequeath my ability to fight at school undetected to Bonnie McCoy, because she can't.
- I, Carl Detrick, do will and bequeath my love for mathematics to Raymond Shook.
- I, Mary Ellen Detrick, do will and bequeath all my books to my brother, Jerry, in hopes he studies more than I did. I leave all my fun to Janice Ferguson.
- I, Myrna Doole, do will and bequeath my height to Bonnie Epperly.
- I, Mike Dooley, do will and bequeath my amazing humor and dazzling wit to anyone who has nerve enough to use it.
- I, Cathy Douglas, do will and bequeath my natural blonde hair to Carole Coover.
- I, Elizabeth Dunne, do will and bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble, not only at school but elsewhere, to Judy Lox.
- I, Bonnie Fassett, do will and bequeath my ability to go steady for one year with the same boy to Janie McIntire.
- I, Lance Gluesing, do will and bequeath my great ability to play basketball to Doug James.
- I, Kathleen Griffiths, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with a certain teacher to Steve Griffiths.
- I, Judy Hayes, do will and bequeath my "good grades" to my three brothers and hope they have as much fun getting them as I did. To Mr. George I give back my French horn in hopes that he may find someone who can play it better than I.
- I, Ethel Hendrickson, do will and bequeath my nickname "legs" to Becky Sandy, my locker to Janie McIntire, and my books to Barb McCoy in hopes she makes better use of them than I did.
- I, Dorothy Henshaw, do will and bequeath my ability to keep lost articles out of the Physiology and Spanish rooms and the office to Joyce Henshaw.
- I, Barbara Johnson, do will and bequeath my driving ability to Margaret Farm.
- I, Mary Leaverton, do will and bequeath my place in senior year to Lois Baughman and she can have my books too if she wants them. To my niece, Lorain Booten, my ability to behave myself, because she will need it.
- I, Charles Lightfoot, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with teachers and play basketball to Eddie Hull.

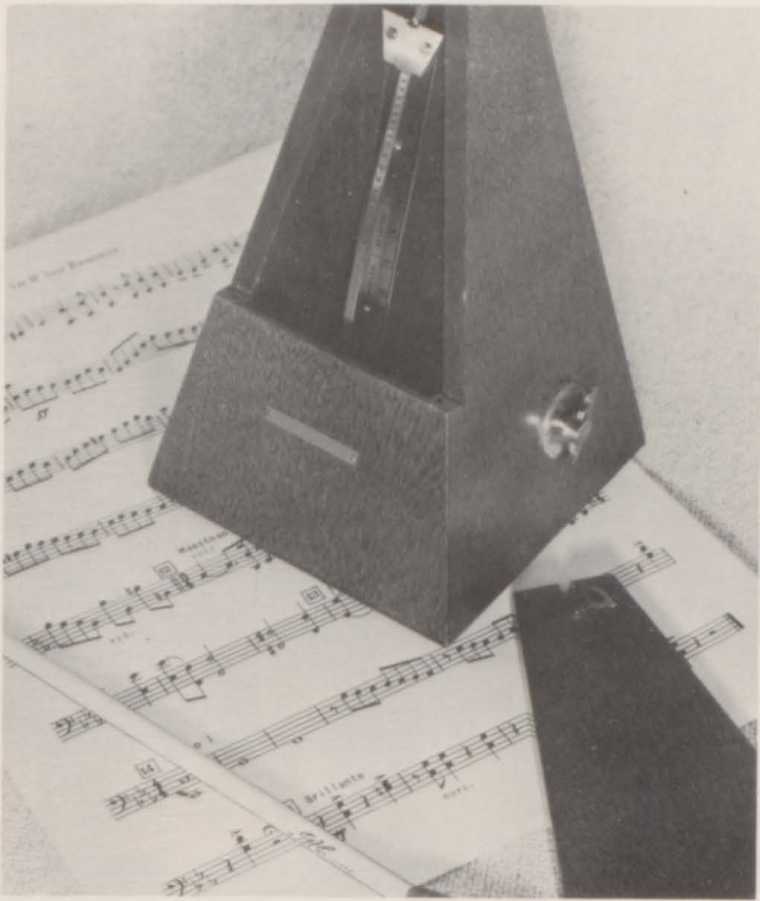

- I, Charles Liston, do will and bequeath my ability and love for College Preparatory English to Harold Watson because next year he will no doubt need it.
- I, Wayne Lukens, do will and bequeath my ability to irk Mr. George by playing the key of K# while the rest of the band is playing in Ob to Gary Myers in hopes he does better.
- I, Robert Mahr, do will and bequeath my love for literature to Jim Trone.
- I, Laura McKee, do will and bequeath my ability to wreck cars and do dishes to my brother, Lawrence. To the Junior boys I leave my locker in hopes they spend as much time inside it as I did. Carole, you may have my black book. To everyone I leave my giggles and hope they use them as much as I have.
- I, Becky Moore, do will and bequeath my nickname "shorty" to Janie Vestal and hope that she has someone as nice as I do to call her that.
- I, Jane Muske, do will and bequeath my ability to spot Russian jets to Charlotte Bielser and Margie Seitz and my good grades to my brother, Danny, hoping he gets better ones.
- I, Tom Pullen, do will and bequeath my ability to do Union High's homecoming white-washing to Margie Seitz and Charlotte Bielser, hoping they do a better cleaning job that I did this year.
- I, Merlin Ray, do will and bequeath my neutral position in Mr. Head's heated debates to anyone who doesn't want to argue.
- I, Louise Renken, do will and bequeath my affection for short boys to Mary Adair in hopes that she never has to use it and my ability to soap Mr. Head's windows and get away with it to Inez Albin.
- I, Betty Reynolds, do will and bequeath my nickname "no nougates" back to the giver and also the fun I have had all the years of high school to my brother, Sheldon.
- I, George Reynolds, do will and bequeath my wild times at school and other places to Jim Nelson and my ability to help Louise Renken to anyone with a bar of soap.
- I, Karen Roller, do will and bequeath all the rocks in the stone quarry to Leona Johnson.
- I, Betty Salyers, do will and bequeath my love for Elvis Presley to Mr. Head.
- I, Barbara Smith, do will and bequeath my love for convertibles to Mr. Reynolds, my extra 2 x 1/2 boards to Mr. Cox, my books and fun at Union High to Denise Roller, and my place in the senior year to my brother, Glen.
- I, Doug Smith, do will and bequeath my seat in all of Mr. Head's classes to Kent Hamilton, my ability for going steady to Don Brent and my place on the basketball bench to Tom Fullerton, in hopes that he can do more with it than I did.
- I, Pat Streeter, do will and bequeath my diet book to Janice Clague.
- I, Gary Tee, do will and bequeath my ability to get into various fights with the opposite sex to anyone stupid enough to go with them, and all my fun to Eddie Hull and Mike Tee.
- I, Cecil Thacker, do will and bequeath my woman hating ways and my unconceitedness to Keith Whitmore.
- I, Jacque Van Tine, do will and bequeath my happiness to be out of high school to anyone who will be as glad to be out as I am.
- I, Terry Vancil, do will and bequeath my athletic ability and size to Wendell Stevenson and hope that he starts growing. And my ability to have fun in any class to anyone dumb enough to try it.
- I, Beverly Whittlesey, do will and bequeath my ability to go to school regularly to Judy Lox in hopes she does better.
- We, Patricia Smith, Kay Jamieson, Linda Blair and Joan Woods, do will and bequeath our ability to stick together through thick and thin to Leona Johnson, Louetta Henson, Shirley Poole, and Ruby Whitmore.

State of the Union Staff

Deadlines and headlines are the dominants for the State of the Union Staff, which is composed of the Office Practice class. State of the Union, a weekly, is a source of information, entertainment, and humor. Hardworking and indefatigable, the staff labors late on publication days to get the newspaper out.

We are the Future Homemakers of America
 We face the future with warm courage,
 And High hope.
 For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
 Old and precious values.
 For we are the builders of homes.
 Homes for America's future.
 Homes where living will be the expression of Everything that is good and fair.
 Homes where truth and love and security and faith
 Will be realities, not dreams.

The MEMORIES of the PAST

As up to date as a jet-plane!
 As meaningful as your school song!
 . . . your official JOSTEN class ring.
 . . . capturing precious
 memories in JOSTEN'S exclusive life-time sunshine 10K gold.
 . . . symbolizing school spirit thru exclusive copyrighted JOSTEN designs.
