Senior Wills

- I, Kay Allen, do will and bequeath my Saturday night out with the girls to Virgil Bigger.
- I, Andy Boyer, do will and bequeath my official "Captain Willy Whizzbang" jersey and my ability to always finish my workout schedule in track to Mike Millar.
- I, Stan Briscoe, do will and bequeath my driving ability to Mr. Whiteman and Mr. Ives, my athletic ability, whatever it may, be to Mike Avery.
- I, Larry Burr, do will and bequeath my typing ability to Eddie Bishop.
- I, Andrew Carlson, do will and bequeath my ability to get caught at anything I try, to Gene Lozier.
- I, Carolyn Cisna, do will and bequeath my love for parties to Betty Jo, my convertible to Terry B., in hopes he can keep in it, my position in the "big girl" gang to whoever can fulfill it, and my worn out books to my brother, Roger, in hopes he uses them.
- I, Paul Clague, do will and bequeath my friends ability to ruin my new car to whoever can afford it.
- I, Mike Cook, do will and bequeath my messy locker to any junior who wants it and promises to keep it cleaner than I did, and my ability to get along with all the teachers to my brother, Fred.
- I, Everett Cox, do will and bequeath my ability to flirt to Victor Stoneking.
- I, Merry Craig, do will and bequeath my love for the Camerons to Tony Bushong, my short dresses to Mrs. Whiteman, and my ability to make up excuses to get out of Home Ec. to Bonnie Cameron.
- I, Karen Detrick, do will and bequeath the "No physical contact in the halls!" rule to Scott Gibb and Kathy Shafer, and my ability to stay in class a whole hour to Karen Gibb.
- I, Jean Dunn, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with teachers to John Bielser, and my grades to Virgil Bigger.
- I, Rex Dunn, do will and bequeath my leadership abilities to Mitch Cooper, and my ability to get kicked out of football games to Ron Boyd, Jeff Bigger, and Dave Zielke.
- I, Connie Highnight, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with teachers to Bev Huttenstine, and my ability to keep out of trouble to Mark Miller.
- I, Charlie Huss, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Rose to Dick Stoneking and Hal Jern, in hopes they may need it in the future.
- I, Terry Huttenstine, do will and bequeath my knack for getting in trouble to Mark Miller.
- I, Dale Johnson, do will and bequeath my basketball ability to Dick Stoneking, and my pool playing ability to Hal Jern, and all of my classes under Mr. Whiteman to Wanda Briscoe.
- I, Connie Jones, do will and bequeath my fun at Union to Diane and Terrie.
- I, Dan Kloster, do will and bequeath my road maps of southern Iowa to Jim Hamilton, in the knowledge that he will find that there's more in Iowa than just corn. I also bequeath my Graham Crackers to Mike Millar.
- I, Steve Law, do will and bequeath my ability to get injured in football to Dick Stoneking and Hal Jern in hopes that they don't.
- I, Lee Leonard do will and bequeath my nickname, "Beezer" and my knack for laziness to Mr. Rose.
- I, Barb Lewis do will and bequeath all my fun at Union to Jackie, my ability to get along with Mrs. W. on buses to Jeanette, and my seat in typing to Reita and Bev in hopes they do a better job than I did.
- I, Laurie Loudon, do will and bequeath my faithful little "Mouse" to the freshman girls, and hope they don't feed him as much $green$ cheese as I did.
- I, Pam Lox, do will and bequeath my cheerleading uniform and ability to louse up cheers to Carol Hill, and my love of Davenport Hill to Mary Watson.

Senior Wills

- I, Shirley McCoy, do will and bequeath my "Dare Devil Driving" abilities to Jackie Allen, and my unfortunate times with Mr. Whiteman to whoever can produce "wise cracks" as fast as I can.
- I, Edward Melvin, do will and bequeath my Playboy Underwear to Terry Blythe, and my ability to start band riots to Gene Lozier.
- I, Keith Meyer, do will and bequeath my ability to hunt deer to Mr. Rose.
- I, Robert Meyer do will and bequeath my love for playing football to Ron Boyd, and my ability to drive the Underdog to my two sisters.
- I, Louis Ohler, do will and bequeath my abilities to be to band rehearsal on time to Mike Freeman, who has a good start already, and my mechanical knowledge to James Dewitt, who needs every bit he can get.
- I, David Petermann, do will and bequeath my really hot Chevy to my sister, my highway driving abilities to James Dewitt, and my nickname, Arnie "The Flying Farmer" Beswick, to anyone who might need it.
- I, Allen Pullen, do will and bequeath my ability to wreck cars or motorcycles to Bobby Kever.
- I, Linda Ricketts, do will and bequeath my ability to play the clarinet, get along with boys, and get good grades, to Nancy Meyer.
- I, Tom Robbins, do will and bequeath my fire extinguisher to Mr. Sterett, in hopes that he will use it in good faith when we blow up the school during his class.
- I, Larry Robertson, do will and bequeath my love for playing football to Larry Seitz, my nickname back to Terry Blythe, and my coat to Gwen.
- I, Kathy Russell, do will and bequeath my ability to get involved in other peoples problems and my ability to get in trouble to anyone who likes to live dangerously.
- I, Mary Ann Sargeant, do will and bequeath my ability to be engaged to Jan Morris, and all my ability in Office Practice to anyone who wants it.
- I, Ted Seeger, do will and bequeath my ability to get in trouble and worm my way out of it to Kristen Carlson.
- I, Cyndi Seymour, do will and bequeath my unearned name of Schroeder to Jeanette Bailey, in hopes that she and Mrs. Whiteman can prove him innocent, and my smiling disposition to my sister Diana.
- I, Ken Shauman, do will and bequeath all of my "extra" animal cookies to Vickie Borg, and my deep love for red hair to anyone as fortunate as I.
- I, Terry Shinberger, do will and bequeath my American History book to anyone who thinks they know as much as Mr. Whiteman.
- I, Billy Simpson, do will and bequeath my great pleasure of being at U.H.S. to Diana Seymour along with the ability to irritate Mr. Rose.
- I, Donna Smith do will and bequeath my love for those guys in their twenties to Cheryl Allen.
- I, do will and bequeath my ability to stay slim and physically fit to Mr. Rose, my driving abilities to Billy Smith, and my Rumbling Rambler to my sister, Bonnie.
- I, Karen Tee, do will and bequeath my baton to Jimmy Dixon, my charming personality to Bonnie Cameron, all my nicknames to Janine Carner and Carol Hill.
- I, Terry Thacker, do will and bequeath my woman hating ways to Mitch Cooper.
- I, Vickie Watson, do will and bequeath my "mini-skirt" to Pam Jamison, and my love for Chevys to Jackie, Reita, and Bev, in hopes they have as much fun as I did in them.
- I, Marsha Whitmore, do will and bequeath my position in the "Big Girl Gang" to all the Junior Girls who think they can fulfill it and also a pair of tweezers to U.H.S.'s "Twiggy."
- I, Nancy Woods, do will and bequeath my ability to stay out after curfew and not get caught, to my sister, Diana, and my Chevy to Betty Jo in hopes that she can keep gas in it better than I have.
- I, Dean Zielke, do will and bequeath my ability to keep a clean traffic record to David Zielke.

Oh dear!

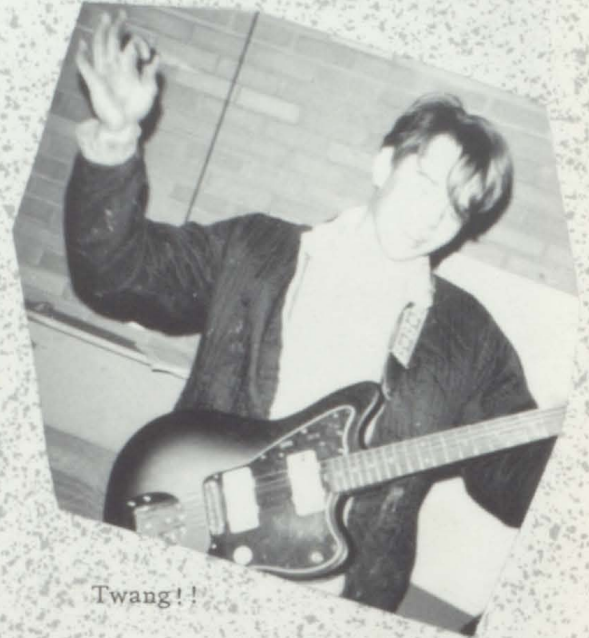

Listen buster . . .

Oh look!!!

Twang!!

Sleeping Beauty.

This is getting me down.

Huh?

Ah Choo!!!!!!

Don't cross me.

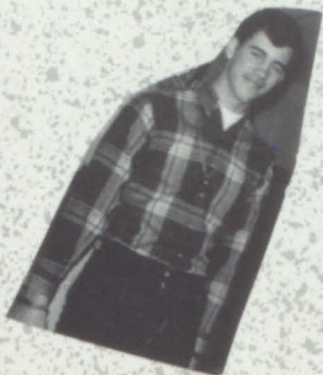

Our leader?????

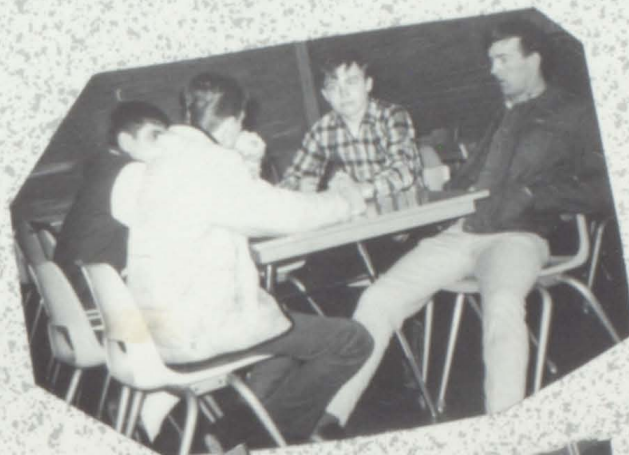

I did it.

What?

It's not fair.

Well, it's like this . . .

Smile Kenny!!!!

I'm happy!

Oh Teddy!

Hi Allen!

Pierre and Rube

It's playtime everyone!

You caught me off guard.

I'm tired!

What's so funny?

Just a typical

Forget it

Music by West Side Depot

- ✓ Barb Lewis: Barb is planning a state-wide campaign to pass a bill in the legislature that would provide for a 24-hour towing service. These trucks, furnished by the Millar Supply Company, would travel ALL the roads in the state to help poor people who found themselves stuck.
- Cyndi Seymour: Cyndi is overjoyed. She has just become a large stockholder in the Bailey Tool Corporation.
- Billy Simpson: Billy has quit his regular job and accepted the position of a traveling salesman. He wants to go where he can "SEYMOUR" of the country.
- ✓ Dean Zielke: Dean is our famous horse trainer. He has no difficulties now, but at first he said those darn horses just kept a boltin' and a boltin' and a boltin' . . .
- ✓ Ken Shauman: Because of his influence in high school, Ken has returned to Union as our fine new band director.
- ✓ Paul Clague: Paul, who was known to certain people, as the "hairy he-man" of Union, is opening up a new real estate business. He has finally decided to call it the Smith Real Estate Company after much persuasion from his "silent partner."
- Connie Hignight: Connie has accepted the position of secretary in a fine firm in Washington. But she is kind of nervous because she gets SHOOK so easily.
- Carolyn Cisna: Carolyn has just returned from Robertsville where she has just finished a new pre-fab addition to her Meyer Brewery. She says it's cheaper that way.
- Charles Huss: As a famous hair stylist, Charlie is now known as "Sharlee". He knows that those new hair styles get a person anywhere. They're A-OK.
- ✓ Andy Carlson: Andy has finally received his masters degree from college. He has now accepted the unusual post of dean of a womens' college in Richmond.
- ✓ Kay Allen: Kay has taken up an unusual career. She teaches the famous "KEEVER" frogs how to leap high for frog races.
- ✓ Mike Cook: Mike has gained much recognition as a famous chef. He says that his famous meat dish did it. He calls it "Filet of Essex".
- ✓ Louis Ohler: After inheriting a large sum of money, Louis has bought out the Oscar-Meyer Meat Corporation. He is going to call it the Marti-Meyer Meat Corporation.
- Connie Jones: Connie is a new owner of a fine restaurant in Paris. Her speciality of the house is a new kind of sandwich. It's called the "SHINBERGER".
- ✓ Mary Ann Sargent: Mary is a new employee at the Holloway Candy Company. They make milk duds and slow-pokes But she would really like to quit work, get married, and raise her own little "slow-pokes".
- David Petermann: David has finished a course in Public Relations, but he is having trouble finding a job. Everywhere he goes, they tell him that his boisterous personality isn't suitable for that type of position.
- Tom Robbins: After enjoying it so much in school, Tom has become a librarian in Hastings, Nebraska.
- Vicki Watson: Vicki is so happy. Herb has just given her an engagement ring. Vick finally "persuaded" him that he can't marry his car or his friends.
- Donna Smith: Poor Donna was so nervous when she entered the WACS. Because of this nervousness, she got the name of her camp mixed-up. She got into the mens' basic training and caused a national uproar.
- ✓ Ted Seeger: Ted has tried valiently for years to get the approval from Christine's parents. He's still trying.
- Dan Kloster: Much to our surprise, Dan has gone into the auto body repair business. He says he expects to prosper in his new career. Who wouldn't with the sky being so cluttered with flying (cough) objects.
- John Waterman: John has gotten married and has started a new business at the same time. He cross-breeds watermelons and apples.
- ✓ Marsha Whitmore: During school, Marsha and her parents visited Florida quite often. We have learned that she will live there permanently as a professional tamer of alli-GATORS!
- Terry Shinberger: Terry has finally decided to get married. He's figured it out that if you can't keep up with the Joneses, you might as well join them.
- ✓ Karen Detrick: In future years, we find Karen in a prospering business. Her "cricket" farm is now numbered at 100,000, but those "little ones" are multiplying rapidly.

Steve Law: Steve has been on and off crutches for a few months now. He got his foot caught in the horn again and Diane found out about it.

Steve Brown: Steve is finishing a new novel, "How to Skip School in One Easy Lesson!"

Ed Melvin: Ed is our famed big game hunter. He has a wall full of all kinds of trophies. He is looking now for a "moose". Preferably a female one.

Larry Robertson: Larry has an undecided career ahead of him. He can't stay awake long enough to figure out what he wants to do.

Kathy Russell: Kathy is now employed as a private secretary at the Hopkins Bathtub Manufacturing Company.

Pam Lox: Pam is happily married now and looking fine. The fact that she is happy is making her eat a lot and she finds that she has gotten a "little Bigger".

Terry Thacker: Terry is the same old guy we knew in high school. He still borrows money, sleeps late, and holds unsteady job. And he's still enjoying all of it.

Roger Spangler: Back in high school, Roger was known to us as "Elvis". He has now taken up the singing profession, but as in high school, he still hasn't made it.

Everett Cox: Everett, the now famed obstetrician, is doing great in his new career. He says De-trick is all in the technique.

Dale Johnson: Dale always made us think of the friendly fellow we all know. But I can't tell you what he is doing now, because since we are girls, Wanda won't let us talk to him.

Vicki Kennedy: Vicki is studying anthropology in her spare time and is tracing her ancestral origin. She has gotten back to Egyptian times, when Cleopatra reigned.

Linda Ricketts: Linda is at the time planning a trip to Las Vegas, but she has to wait until Mike gets out of school for summer vacation.

Lee Leonard: Lee has followed along with his high school habits and is now new owner of the Playboy Club in New York. He had to pay a high price for it, too.

Bob Meyer: Architecture has become Bob's new career. He finds it very interesting to re-do and occasionally LIVE in old houses.

Merry Craig: Merry and Ronnie finally got married after Ronnie's return from the service. They are having financial difficulties though because Merry won't let Ronnie out of the house long enough to find a job.

Karen Tee: Karen's really made it big! She's the first woman ever to win the Indianapolis "500". Her winning auto is called the "Tareyton 100".

Keith Meyer: Keith is at the time working out in "Pullen's Boxing Camp." He will have no trouble winning many bouts since he had so much PRACTICE in high school.

Andy Boyer: Andy, now known as the "Big A", is the man about the college sororities. He has many dates but never with the same girl because he is too fast for them.

Larry Burr: Larry always enjoyed his Senior classes of Typing II and Office Practice because of the high percentage of female vs. male students. Well he decided to carry through with that wonderful plan and entered college as a Home Economics major.

Alan Pullen: As in high school, Alan still enjoys his wine, women, and song. And like in high school, they still all happen on those Wednesday nights. Isn't that right, Marsh?

Nancy Woods: Nancy has revealed her new personality to us. She's turned into a real swinger and is top performer at Woodys' Lounge.

Laurie Loudon: Laurie has just finished a new book. The name of it is "10 Easy Ways to Enjoy Life". It only contains 10 chapters, but she is already revising it so it will contain 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, or EVEN MORE chapters.

Shirley McCoy: Shirley and J. D. have just returned from a glorious honeymoon. But she got hypnotized again and now she can't even enjoy those wild parties in the park.

Rex Dunn: Rex has gone into the road building business. He runs the catapillar that digs holes and breaks up hills.

Stanley Briscoe: We are glad to announce that Stan has just become vice-president of the Stevenson Bull-Whip Corporation. We have the inside scoop that he received this post in the business because he knew the president quite well.
