SENIORS

"Now see here"

"Ice skating anyone?"

I, Kathleen Hastings, do will and bequeath to some lucky member of the 1970 Practical English class all my various nicknames.

I, Alice Allen, do will and bequeath to my younger sister Barbara my '61 Plymouth in hopes she can keep it off back roads and to Becky Pruett my ability to keep my WITTS.

"Mac"

"Fifty push-ups are a snap."

I, Kathy McNamee do will and bequeath to my brother Greg my ability to get good grades in biology and to Joyce Hurt I leave my outstanding ability to get along well with others.

I, Mary Brant, do will and bequeath to my brother the ability to get along with Mr. Mac Kenzie and my ability to get good grades to anyone who wants it.

I, Carol Somerville, do will and bequeath my love for convertibles to Carol Elston.

I, Elizabeth Lightfoot, do will and bequeath my ambition to be a good seamstress to Theresa Colville.

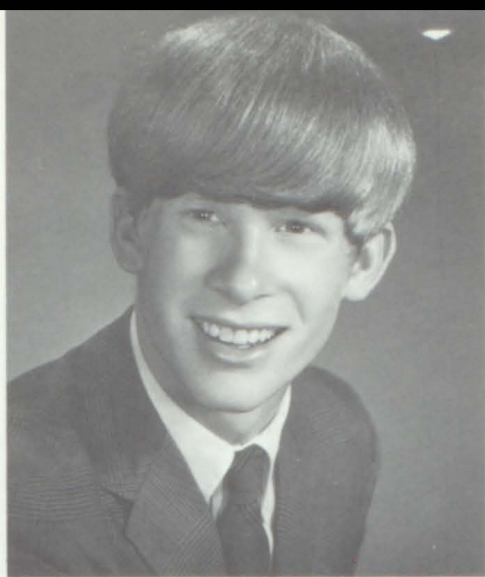

"Shy"

"Wedding Bells"

"But I've tried to quit!"

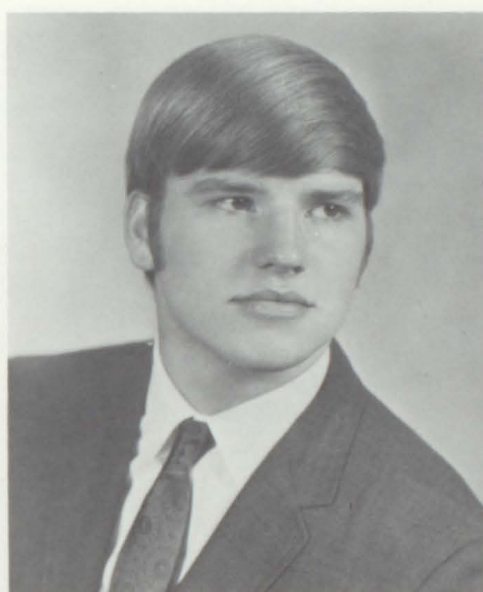

I, Michael Millar, do will and bequeath all my gorilla fingernails to Jeff Bigger and all my Pepsi pop-tops to Loreny Booten.

Freepy Dog

I, Mike Freeman, do will and bequeath my old, greasy FORD parts to Gene Lozier for his new funny car.

HUD

I, Terry Blythe, do will and bequeath to Super Knat my football equipment in hopes he will grow into it, and my way with nicknames to Ann Randall so that she may defend herself.

"Harry"

I, Steve Jacobs, do will and bequeath my ability to get out of class to Gene Lozier and my height to little Linny Grafton.

"Ronja"

I, Ronnie Boyd, do will and bequeath a new V. W. to Jan and Jeff Bigger so they won't have to push the old one up Davenport Hill.

"Hey, Jack, do BLONDS really have more fun?"
Jackie Allen, do will and bequeath my fun in P.E. class to Pam Johnson and to Becky Steele I leave my title Peppy Cheerleader, although she doesn't need it.

"Katie"
I, Kathy Stevenson, do will and bequeath my nickname "Twiggy" to any unfortunate girl who fits it and my luck with any OTHER Hud but mine to Ann Randall.

"Smitty"

I, Glenda Smith, do will and bequeath my ability to skip school and not get caught to Janine Carner.

"Working in the office has its advantages."

I, Betty Jo Walters, do will and bequeath to Sharon Krow my great art ability and to Mrs. Price my ability to get out of work in the office.

"Oquawka, where's that?"

I, Peggy Weir, do will and bequeath my shyness to Barbie B. and Jerry V., my ability to make it to Oquawka to Linda Nelson and Ann Randall, and my nickname (B.C.) to Mrs. Whiteman, since she thinks the origin of it is so sweet.

"I prefer blonds."

I, Edward Bishop, do will and bequeath to Sheila Booten my ability to get along with the teachers at Union.

"Where's Max!"

I, Dennis Coover, do will and bequeath my knowledge of Mr. Roses' secret middle name to Frank Stevens and my ability to turn my back on any kind of responsibility to Bill Weir and Dennis Jern.

"Otter"

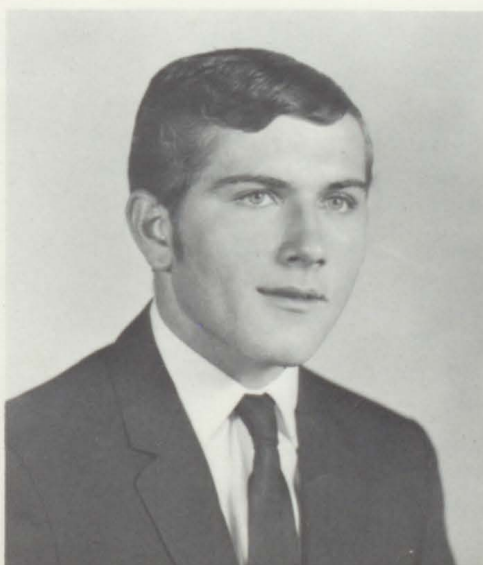

"Where's Dennis?"

I, Max Davenport, do will and bequeath my nickname to "Earl" Henshaw in hopes that he has better luck raising otters than I did and to Ben Poole I will my ability to "walk out."

John Boughton

"I know where it's at!"

"Gulfport is my kind of town!"

I, Russell Decker, do will and bequeath my love for Union teachers to Sandy Bridgman and to Mitch Cooper and Dan Ruse my ability to stay out of trouble, or not get caught.

"I love Burlington."

I, Deborah Randall, do will and bequeath my basket in the girls' P.E. room to Janet Thompson in hopes she can stay out of the way of other seniors next year.

"Mama"

I, Karen Sue Gibb, do will and bequeath my "Car?" to my brother Steve, and my enjoyment of P.E. to the Oquawka trio.

"Mrs. Shaus"

I, Vickie Borg, do will and bequeath my ability to skip study hall to my sisters Peggy and Nancy, in hopes that they can think of better excuses than I did, and my lonely nights at home to Karen Boulton.

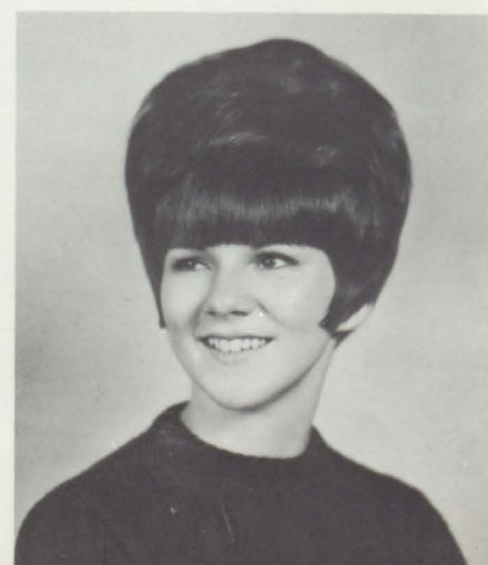

"A Billy Lover!"

I, Diana Seymour, do will and bequeath my position on the cheerleading squad to Cindy Cook and my questionable secretarial work in chorus to my sister, Penny.

"I like "bones," especially Ham Bones!"

I, Nancy Meyer, do will and bequeath my love for "Ham" to those who like spicy foods, my girlfriends to Dale Galusha and my love for cheerleading and of Union to my sister, Marti.

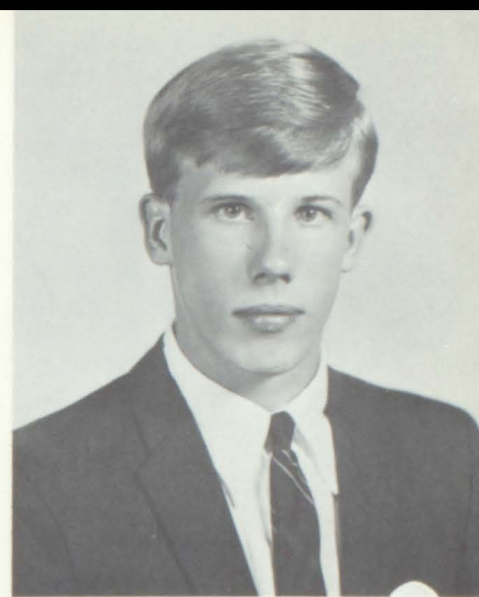

"I like HAM-BURGERS!"

"Finally hooked"

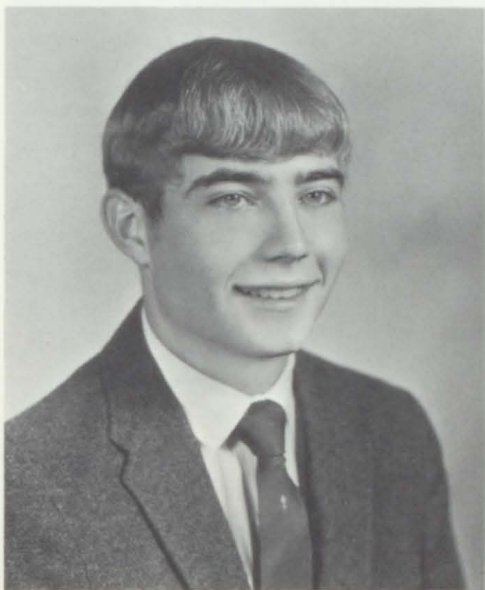

I, Michael West, do will and bequeath to Peggy Borg all the fun I have had at Union and to Tom Galbraith I leave my U.S. history grades.

I, Scott Gibb, do hereby will and bequeath the following: my letter jacket to Kathy Shafer, and the corner by Mrs. Link's room to Becky Steel and Wesley Beal.

I, Ron Gibb, do will and bequeath my ability to make lay-ups to Dave Henshaw and Gary Gibb, all my nicknames to Steve Wegman, and my Hall's Cough Drops to "Zelda" Williams.

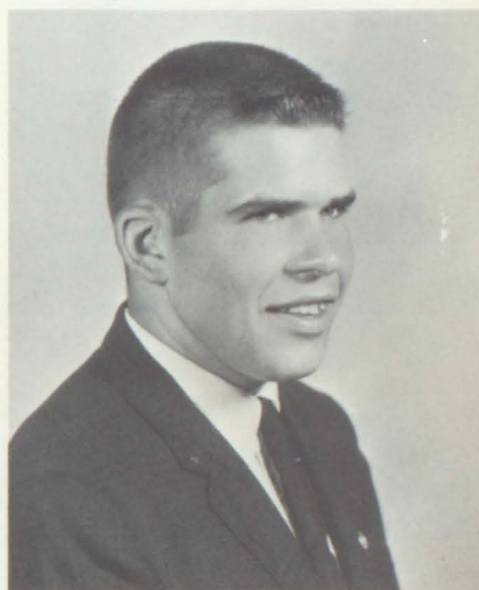

I, David Zielke, do will and bequeath to Mr. White-man and the '70 football team the Bi County Championship.

"In love"

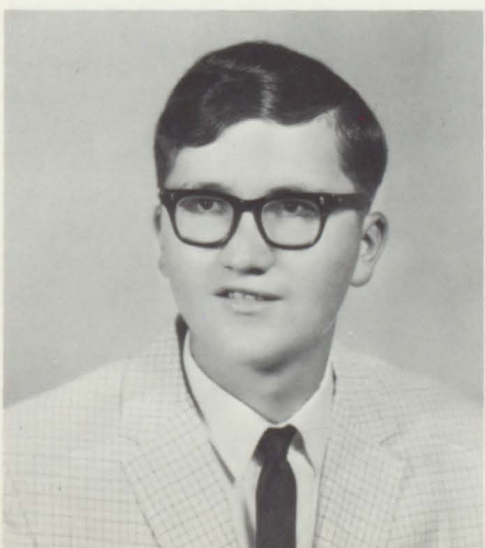

"Big Zielk"

"I, Jack Wilson, do will and bequeath my ability to talk back to Bob Hill for emergency uses only and to J. C. and the Oquawka trio I leave my love for those swinging Christmas parties.

I, David Bouquet, do will and bequeath my white "greaser" socks to anyone who cares to wear them and to Neener my letter-less jacket.

"Band Pres"

"Daisy-Waisy"

SAILOR SUPPORTER

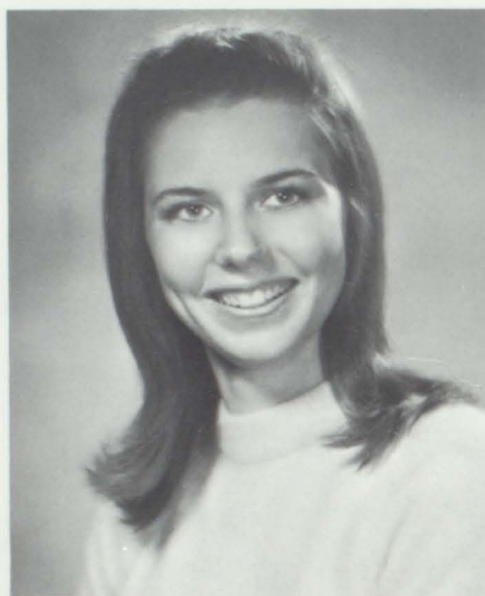

I, Wanda Essex, do will and bequeath all my fun at Union to Linda Williams and Debbie Lant.

"JOLLY JO"

I, Pam Jamison, do will and bequeath my SHY personality and quiet voice to Barb Bailey and my ability to solve unknowns in chemistry to Bob Hill.

"BRAINY"

I, Cheryl McChesney, do will and bequeath my locker #30 to posterity, my attraction to the 'Rozetta Clique' to my sister, Linda, and my ability to get out of P.E. to Mary Watson and Lynn Kelly.

"CHERYL LINK"

I, Cheryl Allen, do will and bequeath to Reita Sebastian my ability to find things in pockets.

"Long-haired boys are best!"

I, Vickie Decker, do will and bequeath to Joe Carlson the lost ability to purchase pink negligees, to my brother Ray, my great athletic ability.

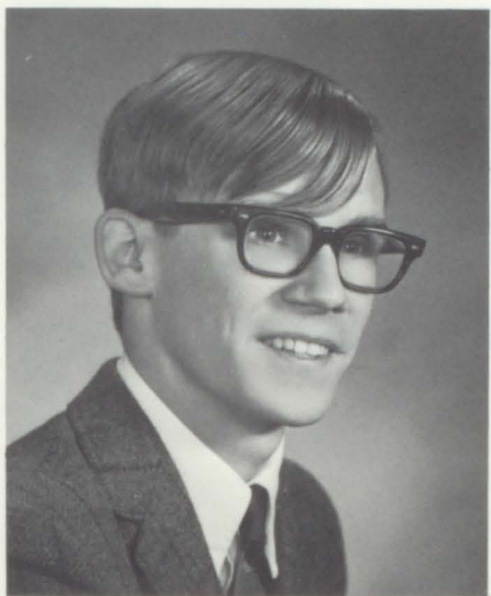

"Monkey"

I, Mark Miller, do will and bequeath to Jock Mooney my knowledge of walk-outs.

I, Tom Lawson, do will and bequeath to Scott Kelly the U.H.S. drum section, to Janine Carner I leave our school bus, and to Lynn Kelly I leave next year's freshmen.

"A Lost Soul"

"Burp"

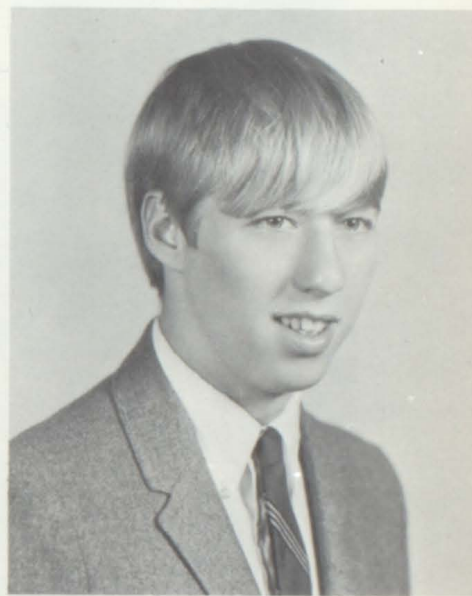

I, Allen Henshaw, do will and bequeath my ability to get kicked out of geography class and to David Henshaw my ability to roll cars.

I, Jerry Olson, do will and bequeath my ability to tell better jokes to Kent Seymour, who needs it.

"Wanna Drag?"

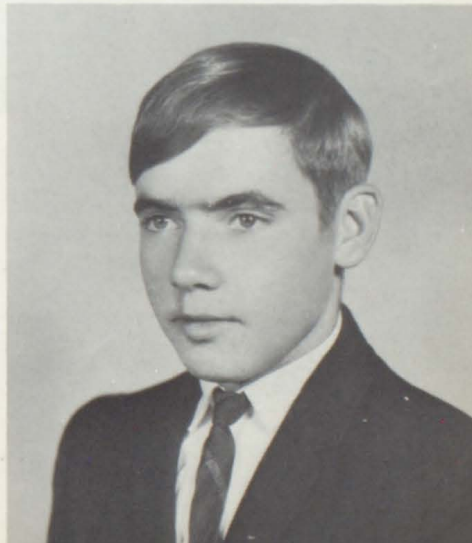

I, Duane Larkins, do will and bequeath to Carol Hill, Marcia Bell, Ann Randall, Sherrie Smith and Diana Smith my ability to have fun and to get along with the boys as well as I get along with the girls.

"Happy-go-lucky"

"God's gift to girls"

Music by Doyle Hoyer

*Theme:
"Knee
Deep in Daisies"*

Forrest Adams: Forrest is now Dean of Men at Princeton. He is an authority on women's wiles because Carol was forever using them on him.

Alice Allen: Alice has completely overhauled her '55 Chevy, but it still hangs low in the back. This is because of the trunk load of oil she carries to refill her smoke screen every half mile.

Cheryl Allen: Cheryl is no longer lost. She has found her missing "Link".

Jackie Allen: Jackie is the sole owner of her own company; "Wood Products".

Virgil Bigger: Virgil has finally got his cycle in running condition. He has just been reinstated as "Leader of the Varmits".

Eddie Bishop: Since we last seen Eddie, he has taken a new position with the Arthur Murray Dance Studio teaching all the other flying squirrels how to do the "Rocky Shuffle".

Terry Blythe and Kathy Stevenson: I can see Terry and Kathy married. They're getting ready to go out. Kathy says, "I don't have a thing to wear to the "Walk Out".

Vickie Borg: Because of her great ability of designing clothes for royalty, Vickie is now the head designer at King Shauman, Inc.

John Boughton: John made arrangements with the state police for a seasonal ticket to save money. The money which he saves will be donated to a home for runaway boys.

David Bouquet: David has just opened a door in floristry. He crossed a carnation with an aster and came up with a "Carner".

Ronnie Boyd: Ron is now a champion weight lifter. He no longer rides in his Volkswagon. He carries it and Kathy, too.

Mary Brant: Mary wanted to be a bubble dancer, but her folks said: "No soap!"

Dennis Coover: Dennis is now captain of the Oquawka police force and is very unpopular with the teens because of his knowledge of good locations for parties and his ability to crash them at the wrong time.

Max Davenport: Max has now joined the Barnum-Bailey Circus. His trained otters pack a full house every night.

Rusty Decker: Rusty has just completed the Golden Gate Bridge. He is now working on the construction of the "Sandy Bridge" in Gulfport.

Vickie Decker: I suppose you heard that the Nobel Prize for architecture was awarded to Vickie's parents.

Wanda Essex: Wanda is now a home ec teacher and takes care of all her little "Cooks".

Mike Freeman: Mike has made quite a success. He's running a modeling business. Employs dozens of tough girl models. Mike's only complaint is there's so much bookkeeping connected with the modeling business. He spends entirely too much time going over the figures.

Karen Gibb: Karen is employed by the Monmouth Hospital. She takes care of the dead bodies, but prefers live ones.

Scott Gibb: Scott is going up in the world. He is now president of the Shafer Pen Company.

Ron Gibb: Ron has been trying for years to find the secret of growing miniature "Sweet Williams". He hasn't succeeded yet, but he's still trying.

Kathy Hastings: Kathy has become a large stockholder of the J. R. Reynolds Tobacco Company. This way she can buy their products at a discount.

Allen Henshaw: I can see some flies using Allen's bald head to practice for their ice show.

Steve Jacobs: Steve is now a famous fisherman. His love for worms is what won him over.

Pam Jamison: Pam has just been elected the first lady Republican president. No one thought she'd make it because she was so quiet and shy in school.

Duane Larkins: Because of Duane's great ability in handling women he has become the No. 1 representative of Avon Products.

Tom Lawson: Tom has just discovered a new way to grow flowers on his pants. He was tired of the ones he had.

Elizabeth Lightfoot: Elizabeth says her eyesight is growing weaker in her old age. All she can see is a Hayes.

Cheryl McChesney: Cheryl has just been awarded the Pulitzer Prize for her new book entitled: WORK MAKES THE WORLD GO ROUND.

Kathy McNamee: Kathy is a real world traveler. She looked down into an extinct volcanic crater when she was in Greece and said, "It looks like Hades." And the guide smiled and said to Kathy, "Oh, you Americans! You've been everywhere!"

Nancy Meyer: Nancy is now manager of advertising of the Hamilton Food Chain. She won't be in for a promotion if she doesn't ham it up.

Mike Millar: We never thought it would happen, but Mike has finally become "unhinged" over Barb.

Mark Miller: Mark is now employed by the Lawson Zoo. He takes care of the monkeys.

Jerry Olson: Jerry is now a red-blooded all American hippy. He carries flowers, is bearded, long-haired, and barefooted. He is carrying a sign which reads "Hugging and kissing builds strong bodies twelve ways."

Craig Ortery: Craig is a famous chemist as you all knew he would be. Even here at UHS he knew that you breathe oxygen in the daytime and at night you breathe nitrogen.

Debi Randall: Debi has just won the world's championship for log rolling which was held at the Randall Tree Farm.

Diana Seymour: Diana is now employed by the Simpson Insurance Agency. She is collecting balances on Bills.

Glenda Smith: Glenda has become private secretary to the president of "Rodeffer" Cheese Company. She obtained this position through a knowledge of her boss.

Carol Somerville: Carol is not worried about a college education. She has a job all cooked up in the Union cafeteria.

Betty Jo Walters: Betty has opened a junk yard and is selling car parts. It's been said that some people get discounts. Is that true, Jerry?

Peggy Weir: Peggy really surprised us all. She has joined a convent and has become Reverend Mother of the nuns.

Mike West: Mike has just won the championship as Peg board player of the U.S.

Jack Wilson: Jack has finally reached his lifetime goal; photographer for Playboy.

David Zielke: Dave has just finished a course at Patricia Stevens School of Charm. Since he graduated with honors, he intends to open his own charm school at Rozetta.
