Senior Will

- I, Jan Bigger, do will and bequeath Jeff Bigger's truck to my brother, Jock, so that he can go "internationaling" any time he wants. To Donna Dickens I leave my love for P.E. class.
- I, Billye Shrader, do will and bequeath my great height to Donna Dickens so that she can really earn the nickname "Skyscraper," and also my many other nicknames to Janet Thompson in hopes that she will get more out of them than I did.
- I, Wanda Briscoe, do will and bequeath my height to Gary Wood and Mike Haney, my ability to get in with the right crowd to John Weir, and my love for Burlington to anyone who can appreciate that town as much as I do.
- I, Loren Booten, do will and bequeath to Steve Swanson my grades in English, and to Fred Peterson my grades in shop.
- I, Sharon Krow, do will and bequeath to Merri Dixon and Debbie Sterett my ability to cheat in Mr. McKenzie's class and not get caught, and to Connie Grafton and Shirley Stotts my funny faces in hopes they will learn to do them right, and to Ray Cooper, a pack of fags.
- I, Terry Petermann, do will and bequeath my ability to get in trouble in study hall to Ann Randall and to Becky Price I leave my ability to tell funny jokes which she needs.
- I, Randy Craig, do will and bequeath to Mr. Wilson, my long hair, and my ability to smoke in the restroom to Micky Cameron.
- I, Pam Pruett, do will and bequeath to "dog" lovers, MY love and to my sister "Clyde" my ability to play volleyball.
- I, Gene Olson, do will and bequeath to Bob Olson my ability to cut "cookies" in the school parking lot, and to Gene Lozier my speeding tickets.
- I, Carol Ann Elston, do will and bequeath to Janice Botton, my ability to have a good time in P.E., and to Pam Johnson my great singing ability.
- I, David Burgdorf, do will and bequeath to my principal, Mr. Wilson, my long hair and sideburns and to my brother, Kevin, my ability to charm young ladies.
- I, Joyce Hurt, do will and bequeath my ability to get out of trouble in most any case to my stepsister, Carol, and my ability to hit moving objects (deer) to Mr. Rose.
- I, Joe Carlson, do will and bequeath to Nancy Richmond, my great love for my older brother Andy, (which there is very little of).
- I, Larry Gene Fillman, do will and bequeath to Mike Henson, my football uniform since he promised Mr. Whiteman he would be "big stuff" next year.
- I, David Hinshaw, do will and bequeath my nickname "Minnow" to the new addition of the Whiteman family, and my ability to get along with the coaching staff to Dan Ruse.
- I, Beverly Woods, do will and bequeath my sewing ability to my cousins and my U.S. history classes to my brother, Jim, in hopes that he will be able to pass.
- I, Brad Price, do will and bequeath my football tactics to Ron Cooper, and my abilities to "Rifle" Rick Coursey. Also my day to day pleasures in school to "Sandburr" Dave Russell.
- I, Jeff Bigger, do will and bequeath my chest to Frank Blake who needs it, and my ability to play football to Jock.
- I, Jim Hamilton, do will and bequeath my locker room "BEN GAY" to Mark Holford.
- I, Dale Galusha, do will and bequeath all my knowledge of Spanish, which is none to Mr. MacKenzie. I leave Frank Stevens my basketball ability and a bigger spoon at lunch period.
- I, Dennis Melvin, do will and bequeath my nickname "Moose" to Frank Blake because he too is a big boy for his age, and to his silent side kick, Randy Sutton, I leave any other qualities which I may possess.
- I, Sherry Whalen, do will and bequeath my bad grades in English to Bob Olson, and my crummy bus rides to my brother Steve. I leave my ability to skip school and not get caught to anyone that can get by with it.
- I, Mitch Cooper, do will and bequeath my newly found ability to score touchdowns in football to Lyle Smith and Dave Wegman in hopes that they will score a lot of them.
- I, Randy Dixon, do will and bequeath, my nickname "Slick" to Byron Whittlesey, and any great driving abilities (if I have any) to Mr. MacKenzie in hopes that he will use them.
- I, Becky Steele, do hereby will and bequeath, to my "sis" Nancy Richmond, all my "spectacular" jokes that I tell at cheerleading practice, and I wish to will my title as "King of the Forest" to Barb Bailey.
- I, Wesley Beal, do will and bequeath my piano playing abilities to LuAnn Lumbeck, and my lightning fingers in typing to Miss Miller or Keith John.

Senior Will

- I, Kathy Shafer, do will and bequeath the happy and sad moments of love to anyone as fortunate as I, and to my brother all the fun I had dissecting in biology.
- I, Linda Grafton, do will and bequeath to Connie Grafton, my love for her boyfriend, to Becky Price my nicknames weiner and worm, and to Mr. Rose, the hope that someone guesses his middle name.
- I, Larry Seitz, do will and bequeath my "crazy-leg" running ability in football to Dan and Gary, and to Martha Meyer I leave my "super-hot" pick-up in hopes that it runs better for her than it did for me!
- I, Victor Stoneking, do will and bequeath my ability to get into trouble to Freddy Peterson and my shop grades to "Otis" Ortery.
- I, Esther Detrick, do will and bequeath to Mike Henry my inability to get my spelling done for English.
- I, Gerald Whitmore, do will and bequeath to my sister, the chewing-outs from Mr. Rose, and my good grades in shop to whomever deserves them.
- I, Kathy Schultz, do will and bequeath my fun in biology class with Mr. Ives to my cousin Nina Slover, my ability to keep a smile on my face to my sister and any improvement to my brother.
- I, Kathy Boyd, do will and bequeath all my fun English classes to my brother, Bobby. To Becky Price I leave all the gossip I tell at the lunch table!
- I, Gary W. Meyer, do will and bequeath to Kathy and John A., Judy and Carolyn L. my persuasiveness, and to Kathy I leave all my deep emotions.
- I, Reita Sebastian, do will and bequeath to Connie Grafton, my love for Biggsville guys especially ones belonging to the same family, and to Betty Rogers I leave my hairstyle in hopes that she can do something with it.
- I, James DeWitt, do will and bequeath to Charlie Pruett, my locker because he needs another one, and to "Otis" Ortery, the skill of busting a watermelon over his head.
- I, Mary Watson, incapable of mental and physical endeavors, hereby will and bequeath my 5' 2" height to Linda McChesney who may need to hide once in a while, and my interest in the "L. S." to Janine Carner.
- I, Jerry Van Tine, do hereby will and bequeath my exceptional, but unused basketball ability and my seldom used black P. F. flyers to Frank Stevens in hopes that he will put them both to use.
- I, Jeanette Bailey, do will and bequeath my nickname Bagley, to Dana, and my ability to stay out of trouble to the special group of junior girls, J. C., C. H., A. R., M. M., N. B., and B. B.
- I, Karen Boulton, do will and bequeath the things I have left unlearned (?) to anyone who finds and uses a better technique than I did.
- I, Robert Randall, do will and bequeath my ability to keep out of study hall to all of my sisters, and my football ability to my cousin, Tim Gray.
- I, Linda Williams, do will and bequeath my nickname of "Zelda" to Ann Randall, my shyness to Barb Bailey, and my ability to stay out of trouble and still have fun to my brother, Ed.
- I, Brenda Smith, do will and bequeath my "vivid and outgoing personality?" to my brother Lyle, and my shorthand book to anyone who thinks they might enjoy it."
- I, Bill Smith do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Hippen to Greg Hamburg.

Union Track Squad Defeats W. Burlington

The Union track squad participated in eight dual and triangular meets this year to amass a total of 610 1/2 points, plus four large meets--the Bi-County, District, Roseville Relays, and the Fort Madison Relays.

As of May 15 three school records have been shattered as follows:

Pole Vault	Randy Steele	11'3"
High Jump	Steve Wegman	6'
Mile Relay	Steele, D. Wegman Higbee, and Price	3:45.3

Steve Wegman placed second in the 880 yard run at the District meet to qualify for the State Meet in Champaign on May 22-23.

The squad topped the 100 mark in one meet this year, beating West Burlington 106 1/2 to 25 1/2 and came close a second time with a score of 94 1/2 to beating Dallas City (58 1/2) and Bowen (25). The other meets were more evenly matched and the scores lower.

The lettermen this year include the following: Gary Gibb, Jamie Green, David Higbee, Clark Kelly, Scott Kelly, Dennis Melvin, Brad Price, Larry Seitz, Lyle Smith, Randy Steele, Dave Wegman, Steve Wegman, and Tim Wilson.

The annual High Scorer Award goes to Steve Wegman this year for collecting a total of 120 1/4 points up to May 15.

Three of this year's lettermen include seniors (Higbee, Price, and Seitz) who had not participated in track before, but who were a definite asset to the squad.
