The 1971 Union Football season started off with two consecutive wins over Westmer in a dustbowl and Roseville at home. After that came three defeats at the hands of LaHarpe, Yorkwood, and Warren. It took a game, against R.M.A. to get back on the winning side again. In the game against Aledo, Union played their best of the year in the second half but lost the game in the first half. The game against Southern ended the season unfruitfully as defeat came 44-6.

HARD AT WORK

THINCLADS RUN

OVER OPPONENTS

Track practice started on March 1, 1972 with 31 reporting, including returning lettermen Bob Bailey, Lyle Smith, Dave Wegman, Clark Kelly, Marc Olson, and Mike Ruberg.

On April 14 we journeyed to Keokuk for the relays and came away with three trophies--2nd in the Class B section of the meet, plus the 400 yard low hurdle shuttle and the mile relay. The shuttle team consisted of Bob Bailey, Lyle Smith, Dan Millar and Rodney Slover and the winning time was 49.9 seconds. The mile relay team consisted of Bob Bailey, Dale Kruse, Dan Millar, and Lyle Smith, and the winning time was 3:46.4. Rushville won the meet with 46 points, and Union edged our Mediapolis, Iowa by 40 points to 39, with eight other schools trailing behind.

At the Carthage Relays Union picked up 52 points and another 2nd place trophy by beating out Rushville and Carthage, and 15 other schools. Lyle Smith set a new meet record in the high hurdles of 15.4 seconds, and tied his own school record. Lyle also set a new long jump record for the meet with a leap of 21' 1-5/8". The mile medley team of Dale Kruse, Lyle Jones, Dan Millar, and Dave Wegman picked up gold medals, and did the mile relay team of Bob Bailey, Dale Kruse, Dan Millar, and Lyle Smith.

On May 2 we traveled to Roseville for the Bi-County meet and hopes of winning it. When the final event was over--the pole vault--we had been edged out of the winners circle by Southern by 2 points--59 to 57. The freshmen came through with flying colors and won their division by a score of 41-1/3 points; ten points over second place.

On May 5 we were at Monmouth for the First Annual Open Track and Field Meet. No team scores were officially kept, although we had the second highest number of points, behind Monmouth, with Lyle Jones, Lyle Smith, Marc Olson, Dave Wegman, Dale Kruse, Mike Ruberg, Dan Millar, and Clark Kelly earning points.

We spent the next day at the Rockridge Relays. We came home with medals from the long jump, the sprint medley and the mile relay. The relay teams consisted of Bob Bailey, Lyle Jones, Mike Ruberg, and Lyle Smith in the sprint, and Bob Bailey, Dale Kruse, Mike Ruberg, and Lyle Smith in the Mile. Total points came to 53, good enough for fourth place.

At the Roseville Relays on May 9, we amassed 30 points. The low hurdle shuttle relay team of Bob Bailey, Rod Slover, Dan Millar, and Lyle Smith set a new school record of 59.1 seconds, and we picked up points in the distance medley, 880 varsity relay, mile relay, pole vault, and long jump.

On May 19, we journeyed to Galesburg for the District Meet. Lyle Smith placed second in the long jump, and thus qualified for the State. He also placed fourth in the high hurdles. Bob Bailey placed third in the 180 low hurdles, and set a new school record in this event of 20.7 seconds, but missed qualifying for State by about half-a-stride. Dave Wegman set a new school record in the mile run of 4:47.3, breaking his own record of 4:49.0 set last year.

At this point, in late May, we have only the Ft. Madison Relays left. In our dual meets we have outscored our opponents by 447-1/2 to 197-1/2, or better than 2 points for every one scored against us. Overall we have scored 832-1/2 points, and Bob Bailey, Lyle Smith, Lyle Jones, Clark Kelly, Terry Krow, Dale Kruse, Dan Millar, Marc Olson, Bob Price, Bruce Ruberg, Mike Ruberg, Rod Slover, Kevin Shauman, Frank Stevens, Dave Wegman, and John Wegman have lettered. The top five scorers in top to bottom order include Lyle Smith with 189-1/2 points, Bob Bailey with 85-1/2 points, Lyle Jones with 85 points, Dale Kruse with 70-3/4 points, and Dave Wegman with 70-1/2 points. But, while not scoring as many points, the remaining members of the Union thin-clads all helped to make the season a good one. Recognition is also due to statistician Deborah Sterett for three years of keeping the score book at the meets, and to manager Jack Olson.

Janet Saben was chosen as Burlington Band Days Queen on October 2, 1971. Even though it rained, Janet was crowned and received a dozen red roses plus a gold watch.

This year Union won second prize for a float in the Christmas parade in Burlington. The name of it was "Ten Little Indians" and those "Indians" that rode the float were Amy Boyer, Patty Schultz, Dana Meloan, Nancy Pirtle, and Janice Van Tine. Many people worked hard to bring this happy memory to U.H.S.

May 12 And 13

I'd like to take you back to a time when the world was much more simple. . .

Ka-do-ta!

It's nice to be with you again, Little Mary.

Tell me, Captain, do you breeze?

Swinging on a swing! Good heavens, what will they say?

Nothing that concerns you has happened.

Do you ever dream of Vienna?

That's it Miss Nancy. Watch the birdie!

Oh joy delicious!

Oh yes, but Marta Harri is my favorite.

Running here and running there!

Me ask great sky spirit if I should make you my son.

Don't look now, but. . .

Oh Corporal, I thought you were someone else!

She was willing to be thrilling for her information!

You man now. You my son. Now me give you presents.

Particularly to little girls!

Gon wa ha, Mary Sunshine. Gon wa ha.

Look to the red, white, and blue!

What do you mean you don't have any vacancies!

Lonnie Simpson, percussionist, added rhythm to the musical.

You're pulling my hair!

- I, PENNY SEYMOUR, will to Debbie F. my dating and taxi service and my love for tall dark haired guys from over yonder. To Barb R. I leave my position as cheerleader and a year's supply of excuses to get out of study hall. The happy memories are mine to keep.
- I, ROBIN ALTIZER, do will and bequeath all the fun I had in PE to Jeane Graham and Mary Guenther. To Joni Hultgren, I give my ability to hand in all the assignments in World History class.
- I, DIANA SMITH, do will and bequeath to Randy Simpson my ability to stay out of trouble with the cops, to Russ Kindig our English class, my house to Cheri and Teri and all the fun I've had out here to Bruce, Brian Carlson, Bo Olson, and Shane P.
- I, SHERRI SMITH, do will and bequeath my ability to chew gum in Mr. Sterett's class without getting caught to anyone that needs it, my FFA (size large) jacket to Rodney Eaton in hopes that he'll grow into it, my gracefulness in PE to Vickie Copeland in hopes she'll use it and my love of parties and staying out late without getting caught to Ronnie Cooper and my brother Greg in hopes that they'll have as much fun as I did.
- I, VICKIE COPELAND, do will and bequeath Hazel Copeland my locker and to always keep it clean and nice like hers isn't.
- I, BECKY PRICE, do will and bequeath the S. T. Powder Room to anyone who really needs it and to all the Sugar Crisp lovers of America, I leave Mr. Robert D. Rose.
- I, KATHY ADAIR, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mrs. Lang to Marc O'Minnow, to my brother Tom, the privilege to be first in alphabetical order and the nickname "Satch", and to J.S. first chair flute.
- I, JENETTE MOONEY, do will and bequeath all my love for Valvoline to Donna McGraw, and my ability to come to school every day to my brother Bill in hopes he can do better.
- I, KEITH JOHN, do will and bequeath my ability to make turnovers in basketball and four inches of my height to Rodney Eaton. Every little bit helps.
- I, JOHN HENRY, do will and bequeath to Paul Carner a pair of relatively unused size 9 1/2 red suede tennies with the hopes that he will use them more than I did. To Mr. Whiteman, my ability to put up with a nickname, and my nicknme to "Mouse Slover" in hopes he will grow into it.

- I, KATHY STUBBS, do will and bequeath my sewing machine to Dopher so he can sew up the seat of his pants HIMSELF next year. And I also leave him Mary Allaman with orders to watch him for me, and to a new sophomore, M.B. I leave a wash rag and a tube of Clearasil. (Dry up) . . .
- I, TIM GRAY, do will and bequeath to Cathy Douglas all of my love and admiration for this school, to Karen Lumbeck all of my music ability, to my Little Brother (Stevie) everything that he ever needs.
- I, ANN WILCOX, do will and bequeath my car keys to Janet Saben, in hopes that she doesn't lose them; my nickname "Horse" to Jim Olson, and a pair of extra-long basketball trunks to Den-Den.
- I, JAN VAN TINE, do hereby will and bequeath my ability of transforming unexcused tardys into excused tardys to Lyle Jones, (the title holder of unexcused tardys, 16) and also to P.O. an "ace" of a kind I leave my memories and fun times I've had here my last years at UHS.
- I, GREG McNAMEE, do will and bequeath my good looks to Tweet; my ability to skip without getting caught to Connie; and finally to Mickey Bishop a life-time body guard for Connie.
- I, ROGER CISNA, hopefully being of sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Marcella "The Kid" Ebert all of my art works out of my old locker and to Lyle Jones, my place as ace, number 1 trumpet player in the band so next year he can louse up the solo during the National Anthem.
- I, SHIRLEY STOTTS, do will and bequeath to Wanda Scott, my ability to always have a good time in Levis and to Mr. Rose, my nervous stomach on opening night and a plastic bag in hopes that he'll use it wisely.
- I, CONNIE GRAFTON, do will and bequeath to Randy Grafton the great driving skills that have long been inherited in our family and to Randy Simpson, I leave a package of unused razor blades.
- I, PATTY SCHULTZ, do will and bequeath to Vickie and Judy Keever anything they want that I've had out here in hope that they put it to better use than I did but have just as much fun and to the oncoming Seniors I hope they get everything they want without having to argue with the Juniors to get it.
- I, SINA EDDINGFIELD, do will and bequeath all of my messes in Art II to Debbie Thomas and a shoulder to cry on whenever she feels the need. To Sherri Bruscia I leave my ghastly hate of 2nd hour study hall, my uncouth method of always telling everyone what I thought, to anyone who can use it wiser than I did, and to Mrs. Reynolds I give my thanks for being the best teacher I've ever had.
- I, KAREN CONDREAY, after serious thought and consideration, do will my seat in Modern Lit to anyone dumb enough to want it, my Bookkeeping practice set to Janice Booten, and my seat in Mrs. Krey's class to Barb Randall because she enjoys her classes so much.
- I, MERRI DIXON, do will and bequeath to Larry G., Karen P., and Steve T., my new book entitled, "How to Find Your Way out of Gulfport without Really Trying."
- I, THERESE GRANNEMAN, do will and bequeath to my brother Larry and his partner in crime, Mike Jacobs, the ability to know a fire truck when I see one. To Karen Peterson I leave one pair of second-hand shoes.
- I, NANNETTE HAINDS, do will and bequeath my everything to David Thompson with the exception of our hiding places at U.H.S., as he will have no use for them after I am gone, instead I give them to Tina Alecock, hoping that she enjoys them as much as I did.
- I, NANCY PIRTLE, do will and bequeath to my brother Dan my ability to get along with Mr. Whiteman and to David T. my ability to stay out of trouble; to Sandi S. my love for dark haired guys; and to Mr. Rose my thanks for being a fabulous teacher.
- I, JOHN ZIELKIE, hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with those Guenther girls to Bo Olson and some other boy at U.H.S. that might be interested in Beth. And my ability to sneak into class late and not get caught to all the boys who walk their girls to class.
- I, JUDY GUENTHER, do will and bequeath second hour P.E. twenty squat thrusts, to third hour study hall a deck of cards and to Mary and Beth my ability to have fun.
- I, SHERRY HINSHAW, do will and bequeath my technique of staying out of trouble to Bev Nelson and to Janie I leave a siren, to my cousin Mark Olson I leave a cold, raw fish, and to Tumor a tumor.
- I, CAROLYN LAWSON, do will and bequeath to L.G., M.B., and N.S., the memories, good and bad, of "the station", "the parking lot", and "the trailer". Also to L.G. and M.B. I leave excuses to get to town after school. To Amy Boyer I leave all the hatred I could possibly have for a certain "DOG".
- I, ANITA ALLAMAN, do will and bequeath my ability to slaughter pep music to Kathy Carner, being able to lose people at prom to Steve Gray and to anyone who can stand them I leave M.B. and J.F.
- I, CHRIS FORTUNE, hereby will and bequeath my fondness of silence to Karen P., my leftover graham crackers to Jim O., and my ability to reason with fishes to Jeanne D. To Barb S., I leave my round slide rule.

--Despair--

I am so tired--
too tired to sleep,
too sad to cry--
too weary to weep,

TV

As I sit home at night,
I wonder what to do,
So I turn on the boob tube
And watch channel two.

At 6:30 there's Lucy, Mannix,
And even HeeHaw,
While at 7, I watch
This Week in Pro Football.

At 8, there's a movie,
Shaft is the name,
While at 9 the show's
The Name of the Game.

9:30 is the best time
For me,
The name of the show is Night Gallery.

At 10 o'clock--
News, weather and sports,
While at 10:30
It's the after game reports.

At 11 o'clock
I go to bed,
And relax my aching,
Brainwashed head.

MY LIFE

My life has been a river
Rollin' to the sea
And no one's dammed this river,
Not God, not even me.

It's varied ripples are the hours
Of days that have gone by
And as this river nears the sea
I sit alone and cry.

Why must my precious life
So violently end
Like breakers crashing on the rocks,
And sea spray in the wind?

SPEAK NOT

Speak not of flowers in the spring,
 Or heather on the moor.
 Remember our golden wedding ring
 And the snow-white gown I wore.

Speak not of youth--our younger days
 Or foolishness so fine.
 Remember the mountain in morning haze,
 And the times we've drank the wine.

Speak not of death which ends our life
 Or the fortunes we have lost,
 Forget the troubles and the strife,
 And the nights we've turned and tossed.

Remember the love I hold for you
 Will forever remain true,
 Through the darkest hours
 Or in shady bowers,
 And in skies of clearest blue.

Ann Wilcox

In a dark and dismal graveyard,
 Where the lifeless eternally sleep,
 And darkness hides the angels
 Who have their Father's Flock to keep;

There sits a cold, unfeeling slab,
 A reminder to his wife,
 Of all he was; success and failures,
 The things that count in life.

Fingers of moss creep to hide his name
 That one might see, and read,
 A name synonomous with riches,
 But broken by poverty.

Once the nation would have mourned,
 A holiday would be proclaimed,
 But lack of money and steadfast friends,
 Made him a nothing, with no name.

Who remembers that numbing, cold day
 Of boredom, impatience, sorrows,
 Of perfectly executed bows and courtesies,
 To the widow of the hour.

I remember a choking collar,
 A starched one like Dad used to buy,
 An old one that I found to use,
 And a suit that I bought,

For five dollars at a second hand shop,
 Of heavy tweed that seemed
 As if it could stop
 A gale from passing through.

I remembered how my father looked,
 Pale and course lopped shock of gray,
 And stubble growth from three days,
 In his last gray suit with only one patch
 Upon his left knee.

The oak casket was all we could afford
 But you needn't have the best
 To bury your father
 When you've done everything for him
 All of his life once lived.

I don't remember the ride to the cemetary,
 I think I fell asleep along the way,
 But I remember arriving there,
 And counting the mourners, three including me.

The casket was lowered slowly down,
 Down into the living ground,
 And all this without a sound,
 Except that of creaking ropes.

Mother hadn't even cried,
 For awhile back she wanted him to die,
 But now without money,
 Disgust lies where love once did.

I was sorry I couldn't do him better,
 But I was without a job to make
 The money for all the finery
 That he should have gotten.

All of it done and over now,
 I still miss him and mother may die anytime,
 And I'll be left by myself
 With no one to carry me on.
