The Council Has Decided

The 1985-85 Student Council consisted of many hard working students. Throughout the year we sponsored many activities. We also are in charge of the homecoming festivities, including the dance.

Our annual Christmas movie was a success, as the movie "Krull" kept the student body excited.

All of these activities proves that our Student Council contributes to the improvement of Union High School.

Yearbook Club Rakes In The $

The main goal of the yearbook club is to raise money to pay for the yearbook. This year they did an excellent job. This is the first year they've come out on top. We raised enough money to pay for this year's book and the balance from last year's book.

This was possible thanks to the 43 enthusiastic members of the yearbook club, who actively participated in the fund raisers.

They sold records and magazine subscriptions first. Then they had the annual ad drive. On the ad drive, members car pool to go to neighboring towns and cities to see if businesses would place an ad in the yearbook. They also had the concession stand during the football season. The final fund raiser was selling candy bars, which was very successful.

The members also had a chance to purchase a yearbook club T-shirt this year to identify themselves. Overall it was a great year!

1. Kelly and Molly are absorbed in the club meeting, while Dennis's attention seems to be wandering.
2. What's so interesting, Dale?

They also sold grapefruits and oranges in coordination with the FFA.

In April the Spring Tea and Installation was held. The Installation of new officers and meeting secret grandmothers or friends were the activities.

Singing In The Sun

Show Choir was a real trip this year! Really! On April 10, they traveled to Florida to sing under the gorgeous Florida sun. The purpose of their trip was to perform at Disneyworld, and to compete against other schools, but you can be sure they enjoyed themselves, too!

They worked very hard all year selling items such as candy bars, pizzas, and desserts. They also had a car wash and a chili supper, where they performed. All of their efforts were to reduce the cost of the trip. All of the work definitely paid off for them! The Show Choir appeared on Channel 8 news and made the front page of the Burlington Hawkeye! We're really proud of you Show Choir!

Installing A New Advisor

Admission into the National Honor Society is the greatest honor that can be awarded to a high school student. Before members are elected into the N.H.S. they are looked upon for their abilities in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Members are then chosen and approved by the faculty.

The Dean Blevins "Inner Light Award," is given to a member of the senior class who has outstanding ability throughout their senior year. The 1983-84 winner was Wendy Virgin.

The N.H.S. sponsored its annual "Live Valentine" carnation sale before Valentines day and held its Spring Induction on April 23. The new members were: David Green, Molly Brown, Neesa Merry, Karen Minard, Kim Martin, Regina Pfau, Trisha Barr, and Mrs. Jake. Out Of Chaos ... A Yearbook

In Graphic Design this year, each student worked exceptionally well. Everyone helped each other prepare for deadlines and they were all met and on time.

Having only eight people in class, everyone carried a full load of assignments and still had a great time working with the yearbook. It is a challenge to learn how to get everything right on the forms, and it gets really hectic toward the deadline, but it is very rewarding to each member of the class.

We hope everyone enjoys this yearbook and the effort we put into it to make it the best one yet.

Learning To Create

Students take art classes to enhance their creativity and learn how to develop it. The art classes work with many different medias such as: pen and ink, water colors, acrylic paints, plaster sculpture, ceramic clay, stained glass, pencil, and many more.

Art class helps to emphasize the natural artistic ability in everyone and works on bringing out that hidden talent. The talent was evident in all of the impressive artwork done this year. Mrs. Simmons does a great job at bringing out peoples natural abilities.

English . . .

Always An Open Door Into Communication

English I is taught by Dan Ashton and Ann Jake. Students acquired competency skills in writing paragraphs, summaries, the use of the dictionary, and building a better vocabulary. Also reading a variety of text literature developed their skills.

English II is taught by Dan Ashton. Students were busy this year writing poems, reading plays and short stories, and making their first attempt at writing high school term papers and oral reports.

English III is taught by Ann Jake. Students stressed on a year filled with grammar study. Their composition work consisted of a required term paper, book reports, and business letters. English III literature is also the time for the students to learn about the development of America through American authors and their writings.

The senior English classes are taught by Linda Aten and Ann Jake. The seniors did a wide variety of activities this year. While true there is a textbook for these classes, other activities included writing lab topics, oral readings, book reports, and term papers. As one College English student, Jennifer Ruble, put it, "our year, as a whole, has well prepared us for what lies ahead in college or whatever we choose to do."

Any English room door opens the opportunity for students to further their oral and written skills in communication.

Numbers To Live By

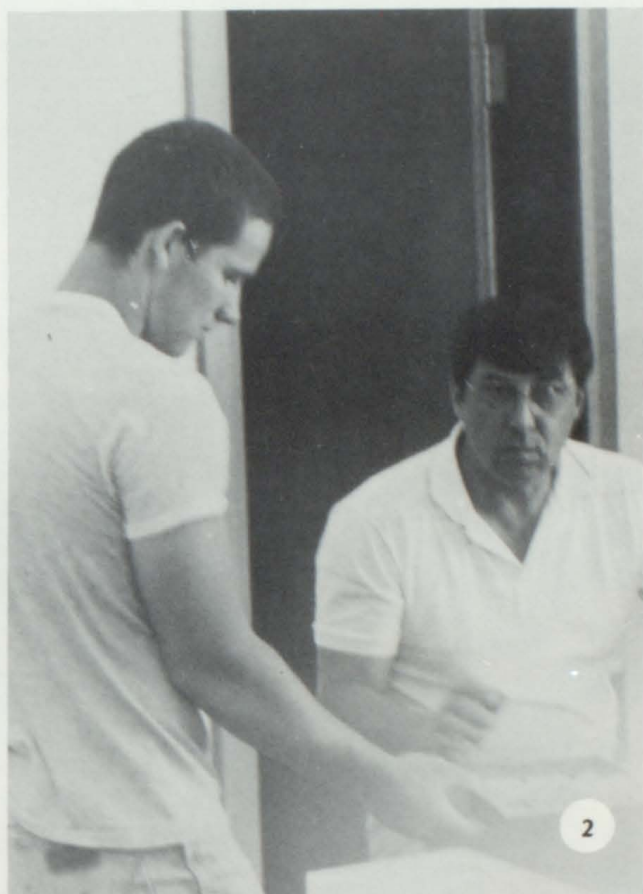

1. Mr. Jake — General Math
General math provides the basic skills in the mathematics world. It lays a foundation that we can build upon.
2. Mr. Shimmin — Algebra, Geometry, Career Math
In Career Math we learn skills we will need to continue using in our life. We learn the manipulation of X's and Y's in Algebra, and why circles, triangles and squares are circles, triangles and squares in geometry.
3. Mr. Sterett — Algebra II, Advanced Math
Algebra II and Advanced Math were combined into one priod this year. Although it was sometimes hectic, we were able to sharpen skills that we had learned earlier.
The math program was changed this year with the drop of the Introduction to MicroComputers class. This class will hopefully be offered again next year.

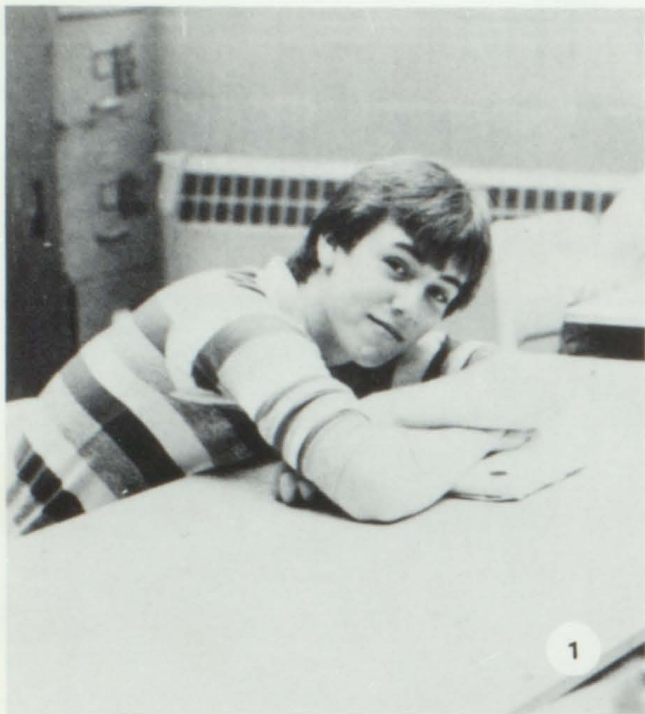

Exploring The Living And Non-Living World

1. Mr. Sterett — Physical Science, Chemistry
Mr. Sterett teaches students about the non-living elements that make up our atmosphere. Physical Science gives the basics of non-living world. In Chemistry, the emphasis is put on experiments with chemicals.
2. Mr. Ives — Biology, Advanced Biology, Biology 400
The science that Mr. Ives teaches covers the living Organisms in our world, from the one-celled amoeba to the multi-celled man. In biology, there are many projects throughout the year. In the fall the students are to have a leaf collection, in the winter they dissect animals, and in the fall they collect bugs. Advanced Biology is a more detailed look at some of the things learned in biology plus new material that was not covered in biology. Biology 400 is an independent studyclass that covers specific areas of science occupations.
3. Mr. Ives passes time on the last day of school.

Ag Students Help To Fix And Repair Union High.

This years Ag classes were taught by Tom Faulkner, and included Farm Machinery, Small Engines, and Welding I & II. During the school year the ag classes were involved in several projects to keep Union High School in top shape. They put up a new fence around the bus barn, and also planted new pine trees around the football field and in front of the school to add beauty and protection. Probably the biggest project of the year was cleaning the railings around the patio. The wooden railings were all taken off, sanded, and varnished. The work done by the ag classes is greatly appreciated by all members of Union.

Home Ec., taught by Diane Brennan, was divided into five major classes. Food Service this year was responsible for making the traditional St. Valentine's Day cookies. These were purchased by students and faculty members. Messages were put on these cookies at the buyers request. In Orientation to Home Ec., students studied three different units. These consisted of consumer ed., cooking, and sewing. For students to master their sewing abilities, stuffed animals were constructed. Child Development dealt with the studies of childhood, childhood diseases, nutrition, and pregnancy. In Parenting and Adult Living, students studied the life of the adult. The students wrote up resumes and had interviews for jobs they applied for. They also had the responsibility of planning a make-believe wedding. Foods and Nutrition consisted mainly of nutrition and different kinds of food.

P.E. Classes Learn CPR And Stay In Top Shape.

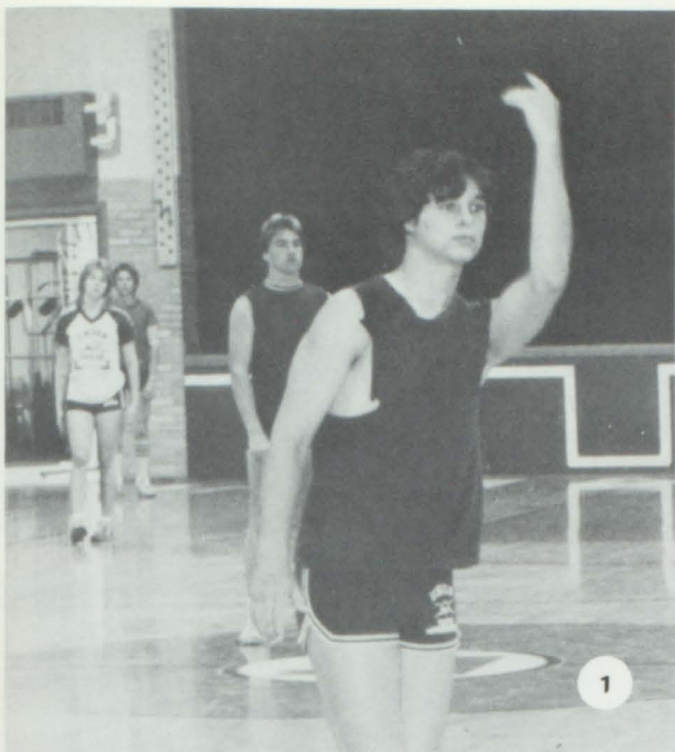

This years P.E. classes were taught by Joe Jake, periods 1-2, and Joe Reynolds, periods 3-7, for the boys. The girls classes were taught by Barb Sprietler, periods 1-6, and Pat Olson, period 7.

During the first of the year, Mr. Jake's classes participated in wrestling and weight lifting, while Mr. Reynold's classes played volleyball. Both girls classes also played volleyball, which was followed by basketball and badminton by all classes.

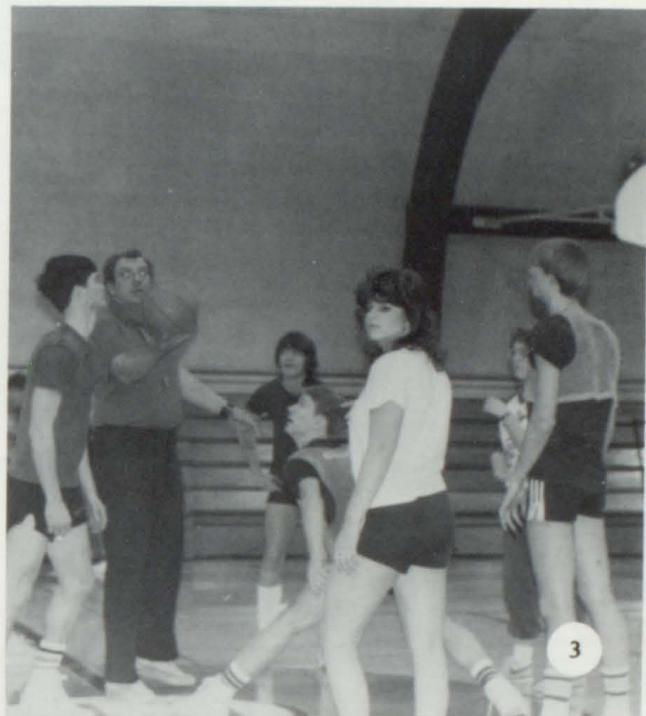

When this was finished all juniors and seniors were required to take and pass a CPR course. During CPR, the classes also bowled at Country Fun on Mon., Tues., Thurs., and Fri., for two weeks. All the students had a lot of fun including the teachers.

When bowling was through and the weather became nice again, the classes went outside. The boys stayed in shape by playing softball and doing some running while the girls did aerobics and ran.

3. Miss Olson — Health

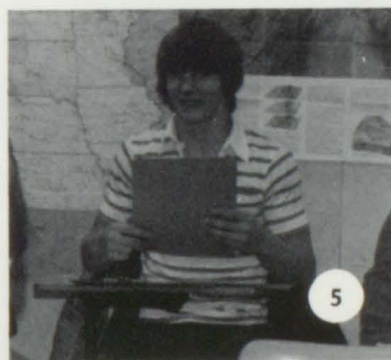

Health is something that many of us take for granted. We, however, need to know how to keep ourselves healthy. Miss Olson does this. In her class, students are taught how to stay healthy, and about many illnesses that may affect us.

Looking Back On The Past

Union's history classes were U.S. History, taught by Miss Olson; World History, taught by Mr. Goff; and World Geography, taught by Mr. Jake. The students in these history classes learned former U.S. presidents, the Constitution, world battles and wars, and other well-known events that marked certain points in U.S. and world history. World geography students learned locations of continents, countries, cities and towns. They did their share of coloring maps and had many quizzes and tests over their newly found map-reading skills.

Taking Time Out

Coop provided these lucky seniors with the opportunity to miss a half a day of school while rendering their services to local employers. Through Miss Brennan, Carl Chandler worked under Joe Boughton at the Standard station in Oquawka; Matt Hill was employed by Hy-Vee Foods, Burlington, IA; Brenda Oaks was employed by Gene Fassett Real Estate, Biggsville, IL; Tag Olson worked at Red & White Foods, Monmouth, IL; Brian Stevenson worked for Bill Stevenson, Gladstone, IL; and Jeff Ward farmed under Bob Carner, Kirkwood, IL.

Spanish I students were: Stacey Foster, Beth Flowers, Damon Carr, Richard Temple, and Melissa Scott. They traveled to Monmouth every morning, missing first and second periods, but not seeming to mind much. Becky Gray was the only Union High student to participate in the Health Occupations program, held at Southern High School.

Teachers Meet Students Needs

At Union High School it is recognized that some students do not have the same scholastic ability as others. For these students it is possible to get assistance from teachers in the Resource Room. The teachers, Mrs. Schact and Mrs. Hill, help students by tutoring and supporting them in their studies.

Kristy Bielser is our only blind student at Union. She is taught by Mrs. Gardiner. Most of her books and materials come from Springfield by loan. If materials cannot be obtained, they are brailled or taped for her at the school. She does her homework in braille and then it is translated into print for her teachers.

Consumers Education and Drivers Education are both required to graduate. Both classes are taught by Mr. Goff, who makes them fun as well as interesting and educational. In Consumers Education, students are taught the value of money and how to manage it wisely. Learning the basic rules of driving is part of Drivers Education as well as spending six hours behind the wheel with Mr. Goff before he turns the students loose with their blue slips.

Everyone always remembers Mr. Goff's Sociology class. The highlight of each year is babysitting the eggs. The senior class also learns to understand social behavior and problems and the culture of man.

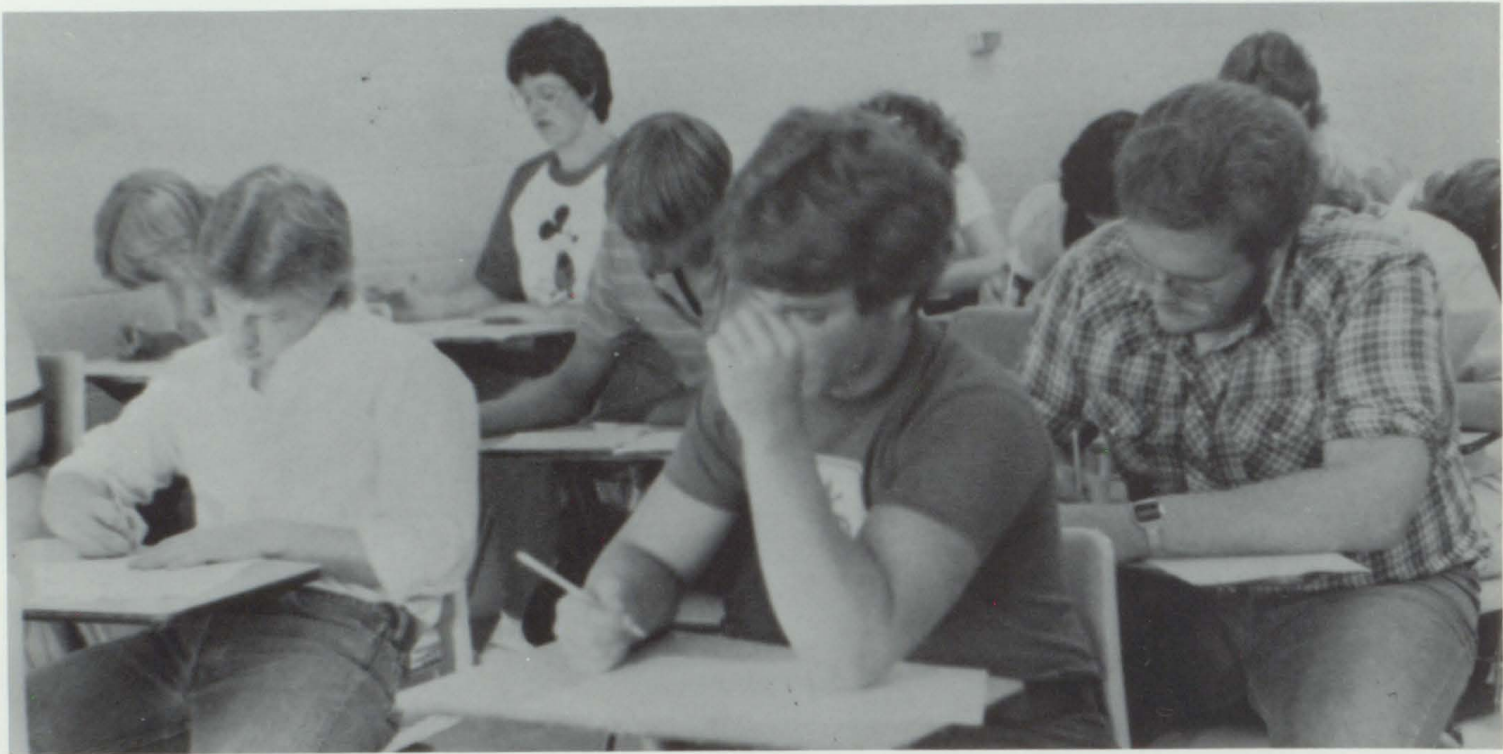

We hope through this class, Consumers Ed., and Drivers Ed., students will become better acquainted with cultural aspects, good judgments, and safe driving.

School Board members consist of President, Mike Boyer; Secretary, Barbara Paris; Lovell Green, Clark Kelly, Roger Seitz, Jack Pruett, and Tim Gray.

They met new challenges of maintaining high quality education, salaries of teachers, and new administrative positions.

Three board members' terms will be ending in November. They are Lovell Green, Jack Pruett, and Roger Seitz.

Unit # 115 Secretaries

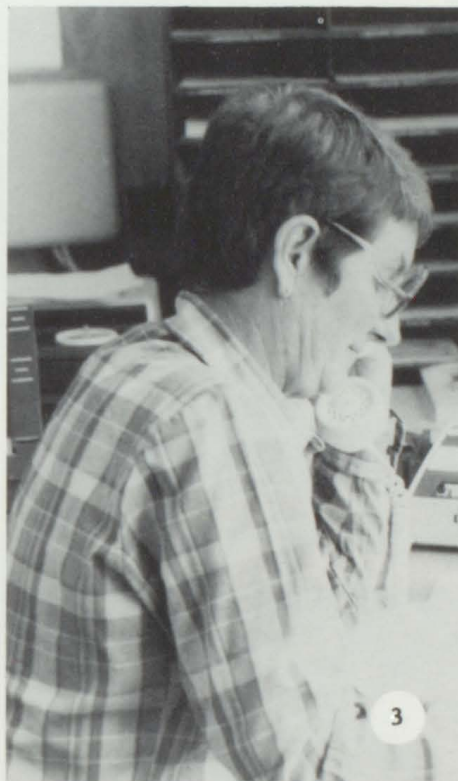

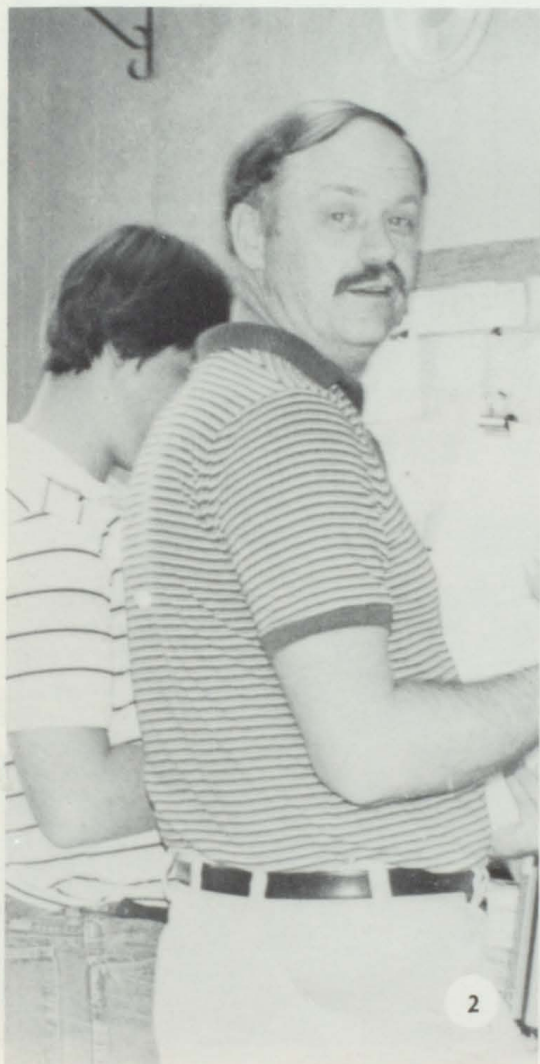

My first year at Union has been filled with many exciting events. I have enjoyed meeting and working with the students, faculty, administration, and Board of Education at Union High School.

As principal, my major concern involves providing an atmosphere in the school setting that is conducive to the greatest level of student achievement that is possible. My greatest reward is observing students excelling in the many facets of the well-rounded educational program that is offered at Union High School. This year I have observed students excelling in almost every area of our educational program. Many obstacles were overcome as students achieved great feats in the areas of Speech, Sports, Math, Art, Agriculture, and many others.

I am also impressed by the building and grounds that house Union High School and the great pride that our school community takes in its maintenance. As the 1984-85 school year draws closer to an end, I would like to wish the very best of luck to this year's graduates in their future endeavors.

Mr. Tom Long
Principal

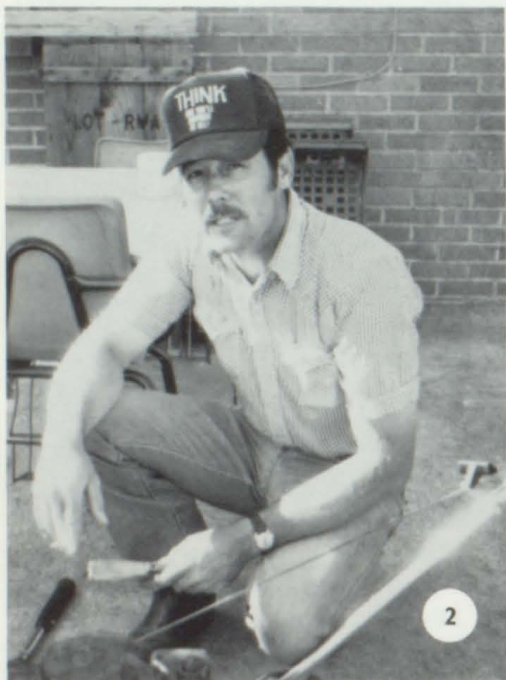

Mr. O'Brien has a natural talent for being around high school students. He makes everything seem so easy and is very easy to get along with. He provides students with information about colleges, scholarships, and financial assistance. If there is ever anything you need, go to Mr. O'Brien, he is always there and willing to help you.

Barb Price is the school secretary. She keeps everything going in the office and punches lunch tickets at noon. She has really been a fine person at the high school and will be missed by this year's graduates.

2. Mike O'Brien, Guidance Counselor
3. Barb Price, Secretary

Cooking & Cleaning

This year's cooks, Sylvia, Donna, and Sue, did a fine job in the kitchen. The meals were always hot, full of nutrition, and well prepared. Thanks for making the 1984-85 school year a fun-filled one!

Important Employees Of U.H.S.

The maintenance around Union High School is well supported by Dale Olson and Buck Burk. If there is ever anything wrong with plumbing or a bus, those two are always there to save us. We appreciate all you've done. The bus drivers, Sandy Hastings, Ron White, Matt Gray, and Eldon Aby make school possible by getting students here on time. Without their concern and enjoyment of driving, things wouldn't be the same. Substitute drivers are Jerry Shauman and Clarence Huntley

School workers help in the office with attendance records and necessary daily duties during the students' study hall periods. The jobs range from picking up attendance cards to answering the phone. The various school workers help out each hour of the day. Without their efforts and time given, the hours in the day to get the work completed would not be long enough.

Paula Simpson, Cindy Huff, and Joni Oaks are school workers that receive credit for their work. They work as school secretaries answering the phone, typing, and filing. Paula works for Mr. O'Brien in the Guidance office on assignments given to her such as xeroxing materials needed and looking for information on students entering high school and Cindy works in the main office on the attendance policy. Joni works for Mr. Reynolds, typing athletic schedules and sports rosters.

SPORTS

Dedication And Leadership Key To Season.

The Lady Yanks finished the 1984 season with a 5-12 record. Among those 12 losses were 4 forfeited matches. The girls worked hard all season long. They dedicated themselves to playing volleyball. Not once did any of these girls complain about playing time. They were willing to do what was necessary to help out the team. I am very proud of this year's squad. Our record may not indicate a winning season, but the ladies who made up this year's volleyball team are winners in every way.

At the Fall Sports Banquet Mandy Furnalnd won the most points and most passes awards, Linda Parrish most assists, and Paula Simpson most spikes. Linda Parrish was also a first team all-conference selection.

Youth And Hard Work Provides For A Good Season

The junior varsity Lady Yanks ended the 1984 season with a 6-9 record, with four of the games being forfeited. If this group of girls improve themselves in the next few years as much as they did this year they will be unbeatable. They should be very proud of their record and scores of their games. Watch for them in the next few years, they are going to be tough.

At the Fall Sports Banquet Janese Campbell won the most assists award, Amy Hamilton most spikes, and Crystal Montgomery most points and passes.

High And Low Season For Varsity Yanks

The Yankee football team ended this year 3-6. After a 30-6 loss to Carthage, the 1984 Class 1A State Runner-up, the Yankee's had a big 28-0 win over Westmer. The Yankees then played defending state champions Yorkwood at home. In one of the most exciting games of the year the Yank's took Yorkwood down to the wire but ended up on the losing end because of the teacher's strike. After the strike ended we came back strong to beat Roseville 35-18 for Homecoming. After the Homecoming, Union had a letdown and lost the last two games to Southern and Avon.

The team was led by 6 seniors, Steve Rusher, Darren Schulze, Ray McIntire, Brian Stevenson, Rusty Hains, and Kendall Engen. Rusher made first team all-conference as a punter, and Engen made second team center. Junior Joe Bigger and sophomore Don Rice both made second team defensive tackle. Rusher and Bigger also made the All-Hawkeyeland second team.

1984 Junior Varsity Football.

The Union Yankee junior varsity football team ended its season with a 2-4 record. After a canceled game with Carthage, the JV's then had two impressive victories over Westmer and Yorkwood. They then lost two games by forfeit to LaHarpe and Northwestern. After the strike, the JV team seemed to lose a lot of enthusiasm, and ended up losing to Roseville, Southern, and Avon to end the season. At the Fall Awards Banquet, Lawrence Pullen won the Most Promising freshman award and Don Rice and Scott Pullen each won the Most Promising sophomore award.

The cheerleaders were involved in many functions. To lift school spirit, pep assemblies were provided, not to mention performing at football and basketball games. The cheerleaders also planned senior night for football and basketball seasons. Spirit signs were made and stuck on all lockers of the boys who participated in football and basketball. Hard work at practices payed off for the cheerleaders as they cheered well with an excellent cheering section that accompanied them at all the games.

Varsity Yank's Finish Second In Conference

The Union Varsity basketball team had a very good year ending the season with a 17-9 record. The Yankees finished second in the conference standings, third in the conference tourney and second at the Winola Holiday tourney. Players who finished the 84-85 season were: Seniors, Steve Evans, Rusty Hains, Dan Beal, Kendall Engen, and Steve Rusher. Junior players were Dan McKune, Dick Goff, Cary Bonner, Richard Temple and Joe Bigger. This was a group of ten individuals that understood their player roles on a team that set their goals quite high at the beginning of the season. Although the Yankees may have fallen short of their number one ambition, I feel that the players should be satisfied with their accomplishments and achievements.

Individual honors received were: Steve Evans — First team Bi-County Selection, WMOI all star team, Player for Pizza Hut Classic at Monmouth College. Rusty Hains — Second team Bi-County selection, Player for Pizza Hut Classic. Dan McKune — Second team Bi-County selection, All tourney team at Winola tournament.

I wish the best of luck in their endeavors to the seniors, and to our juniors another successful year.

J.V. Boy's Get A Lot Of Helpful Experience

This year's JV Boys Basketball team was coached by Bob Reedy and though their record was only 4-14 they gained a lot of helpful experience. This years team consisted of seven sophomores, David Green, Troy Wilson, Mark Alexander, Don Rice, Scott Pullen, Don McKune, and Robby Scott. Freshmen this year were Jay Law, Darren Beal, Jason Ruble, and Jay Schulze. Hopefully this experience the JV's obtained this year will provide for a successful season next year.

Lady Yank's Compile 16-8 Season.

A team which doesn't have outstanding talent but has a lot of desire and hustle can make itself into a successful team. This year's edition of the Lady Yankees was a good example of that. There were a lot of question marks and problems at the beginning of the season. The biggest obstacle was rebuilding a team from scratch with only 3 returning letterwinners. The girls accepted the challenge and set their goals and never wavered from that. For 4 months they sacrificed, sweated, and drove themselves to become Union's winningest team in Lady Yankee history with a 16-8 record. It is a fitting tribute to these young ladies. Our seniors were a huge part of our success. They lead by example and by doing the little things that make winners. Linda Gray, Paula Simpson, and Melissa Scott have as much right to be proud of this season as anyone does.

Young JV Ladies End With 8-11 Record

The Junior Varsity girls finished with an 8-11 record. The girls were 7-5 in the conference which gave Union a 3rd place finish. Our record does not indicate the way that our 3 sophomores and 6 freshmen played. Out of 19 games our team held the opposition to 29 points or less 14 times. We played 5 games in which we lost by 2 points or less and 11 games were lost by 7 points or fewer.

The experience that our future sophomores gained this season combined with a sound group of incoming freshmen will provide a bright future for girls basketball for the 85-86 season.

Senior Year

It's Senior year.
Our last big chance,
To get good grades,
And attend the Sweetheart Dance.

It's our turn to party
And have fun.
It's our turn to pick on the Freshmen,
One by one.

It's our turn to roam the halls
And rule the roost!
It's our final chance,
To give the athletes that extra boost.

It's the year we graduate
And leave each other
But our love will be strong,
Like that of a sister and brother.

ACTIVITIES

Still Loving You

Homecoming week gave us all little time to prepare as we came back to school on Wednesday after a well remembered "two week vacation." On Thursday, red, white, and blue day, along with a big pep rally got us into the swing of things. The cheerleaders presented the school with an obstacle course and jello-eating contest. Friday everyone came dressed in PJ's or camo clothes. The gym was decorated in lavender and grey by student council members and cheerleaders. The football field was also decorated by the cheerleaders.

The victory win, Union 35, Roseville 18, portrayed the excitement of the dance. Music was provided for by Eternity Road. Coronation presented the theme song, "Still Loving You," by the Scorpions, to the freshman attendants: Amy Johnson, Mike Bielser; sophomore attendants: Yvonne Paris, Mark Alexander; junior attendants: Stacey Foster, Pat Reid; crown carriers: Tina Link, Jason Carnes; and flower girl: Jenny Bigger. King candidates were: Tag Olson, Darren Schulze, Tim Dixon, and Rusty Hains. Queen candidates were: Joni Oaks, Linda Parrish, Mandy Furnald, and Brenda Oaks. The 1983 Homecoming Queen and King, Candi Hutson and Patrick Bigger presented the royal crowns to the 1984 Queen and King, Mandy Furnald and Rusty Hains.

The Homecoming candidates pictured are: 1. Darren Schulze and Linda Parrish, 2. Jenny Bigger, Tina Link, Candy Hutson, Mandy Furnald, Rusty Hains, Patrick Bigger and Jason Carnes, 3. Jenny Bigger, 4. Jason Carnes and Tina Link

Union's Best Show Choir Ever!

The show choir departed from Union on April 4, 1985. Their destination, Florida! Mr. Lee Wiggins, band, choir, and show choir director, organized the trip. The show choir competed in a national contest against other show choirs and came out on top.

They visited the Epcot Center and many other places. All in all they had a terrific time.

Track News

Formally recognized at the Awards Banquet on May 13, the Union Yankees boys track squad still had two weeks of participation left prior to actual presentation of awards. On May 23, Coach Larry Sterett presented letters to freshman Darren James, juniors Joe Bigger, Dick Goff, and Russell Trulson, and seniors Brett Alexander and Rusty Hains, plus statistician, senior Melissa Scott. (Brett Alexander was a member of the Yankee track squad for four years, while Rusty Hains had participated for three years.) Sophomores David Green, Tim Leonard, and Chad Shutwell were presented with track patches, and freshmen Andy Dunn and Darren James earned their numerals. The High Scorer Award for the 1985 season was presented to Joe Bigger; the contest for this award was very close, with Joe edging out Rusty Hains during the Sectional Meet the previous Saturday.

The 1985 Yankee track season started with several members of the squad participating in the Invitational Meet at Western Illinois University on March 15, and ended with three members — Brett Alexander, Joe Bigger, and Russell Trulson — participating in the State Meet at Eastern Illinois University in Charleston on May 24. In the interim, Brett Alexander broke the school records in the 1600 meter and 3200 meter runs with times of 4:38.1 minutes and 10:24.9 minutes, respectively, while Joe Bigger set new records in the shot put and discus events with a put and throw of 51 feet 5 1/4 inches and 141 feet 10 inches, respectively, and Rusty Hains set a new high jump record with a leap of 6 feet 1 1/2 inches. Several other records came close to being broken, with the participants being off the record time by only one-tenth of a second.

Damn Yankees

Damn Yankees, which is based on Douglass Wallop's Book-of-the-Month selection, The Year the Yankees Lost the Pennant, tells the story of a middle-aged real estate salesman in Washington, D.C., who is a fan of his hometown ball team. In a rash moment he murmurs that he'd sell his soul to see the Washington Senators win the pennant from the damn Yankees. At this time the Devil appears as a personable gentleman called Mr. Applegate, who offers to make a pact with him: in return for his soul, he will transform him into a young and unbeatable ballplayer. The real estate agent agrees but insists on an "escape clause" whereby at a certain date he will be restored to his former self to rejoin his wife and live out his years normally. The Devil agrees.

The young player, now known as Joe Hardy, joins the Senators, and the team moves right up to second place in the American League. But Applegate has other plans; he is secretly on the side of the Yankees and is plotting to what the hopes of the Senators and then to wrest the victory away from them at the final hour. When young Hardy learns this, he asks to exercise his option and to be returned to his former status at the side of his faithful wife. But Applegate employs the services of Lola, a beautiful witch, to tempt him into staying on the side of the Devil. However, Hardy remains true to the wife he left behind him.

Lola breaks a precedent by falling in love with her victim and aids him in defeating the Devil. For her trouble she is converted into an ugly old crone. The Washington ball club emerges victorious, and the real estate agent is restored to his wife.

Heaven

1. Faustus rocks Union at the Holiday. 2. King candidates: Pat Reid, Todd Stevenson, Dan McKune, and Dick Goff. 3. Queen candidates: Debra Bielser, Beth Flowers, Stacey Foster, and Kelly Virgin.

The 1985 Jr-Sr Prom was held on Friday, May 3rd, at the Holiday in Burlington, Iowa. The theme was "Heaven" by Bryan Adams, with the colors being pink, burgandy, and silver. Faustus, the number one rock band from St. Louis, provided entertainment for the evening. Coronation was at 9 p.m. The Queen candidates were: Debra Bielser, Beth Flowers, Stacey Foster, and Kelly Virgin. The King candidates were: Dick Goff, Dan McKune, Pat Reid, and Todd Stevenson. The 1985 Prom King and Queen were Beth Flowers and Todd Stevenson.

This Prom marked a turning point for Union's upperclassmen. Juniors broke tradition by having a banquet instead of a full-course meal, which shortened Prom time a bit. It was held from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. instead of the usual 6:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. The students and faculty were at first hesitant about the change, but all in all it turned out to be a great 1985 Prom.

1. Steve and Brenda crown the new King and Queen, Todd Stevenson and Beth Flowers. 2. Dick escorts Debra to the stage during coronation. 3. Pat and Kelly dance to the theme song "Heaven."

Whats New

NATIONAL NEWS: This was election year and there was a first for our country. Democratic candidate Walter Mondale named the first woman vice-presidential candidate. She was Geraldine Ferraro. This team, however, could not defeat Ronald Reagan who was re-elected to another four years as President.

Baby Fay received a baboon heart.

Coca-Cola changed its taste. The new taste is sweeter. The old formula was used for ninety-nine years before this years change.

Sports: The Chicago Cubs won the Eastern division this year but were defeated by the San Diego Padres for the penant. The Padres went on to the World Series. They were defeated there by the Detroit Tigers.

In Football, the Miami Dolphins were a super power behind the arm of Dan Marino. They couldn't go all the way however as they were defeated in the Superbowl by the San Francisco 49'ers. It was their second Superbowl championship.

In Basketball, the Boston Celtics could not defend their NBA championship as they were defeated by the Los Angeles Lakers.

Entertainment: "Rambo" is the big news this year at the movie theaters. The sequel to "First Blood" opened all over the country in May to a very receptive audience.

Wrestling: Since wrestling could have been put in either the entertainment category or the sports category, it was given a category of its own. The spectacle of wrestling has risen to great heights this year. Hulk Hogan and Andre the Giant have given their profession a great boost of popularity. The rumblers of the ring still put on the same show they have for years, but now their clutches are on almost every cable channel and are starting to get hold of the networks. The growing popularity of wrestling shows us one thing, anything can happen. Many things did happen this year. Who knows what next year will hold.
