THE BLAZE
VOL. 3

YOU THINK YOU KNOW...
BUT YOU HAVE NO IDEA

You thought you would never make it through seven periods every day.

You laughed at the homecoming pep rally
when that English teacher corrected our spelling.

You cheered on our school's
NUMBER 1 state ranked girls basketball team.

You were so affected by last year's wreck
in front of our school that you created 34 VOICES.

You held your breath and closed your eyes
the last 20 seconds of the game.

RUMORS...

The time has come for us to depart. It may feel like the end but it's only the start. We say our goodbyes. We cry our last tears. We take all these pictures that will last us for years. We'll look back on the drama. We'll look back on the fights. We'll laugh it all off because we're going on with life. There we are in our neat lined-up rows in our caps and gowns anxiously waiting to be let go. Our names are called and we finally approach the stage as we look upon the audience. We all of a sudden become very afraid.

But then it goes away. As we come closer and closer to our goal. We're finally going to graduate and go into the world with all we know. Let's all at once throw our caps in the air. Let's all at once scream like we don't care. We did it, we're done! Oh my goodness, it's great! We finally made it. We're now the graduating class of 2008!

Advice to Underclassmen

"Invest in a barf bag."

"Don't get caught up in drama."

"Do your work & get out!"

"Make everyday count, because it goes by fast."

"Never give up and always do your best!"

"Make everytime you hang out with your friends worth it; you never know when you're going to see them next."

More advice...

"Be respectful to your teachers, it helps everyone out."

"Teachers and staff are there to help you; take advantage of them."

"It's cool to be kind."

"Patience! you'll need it to get out alive."

"Don't try to control others; just try to control yourself."

"Good luck!"
