CLUBS

Elementary students come out to enjoy Ag Day.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

FFA competed in many events and contests over the course of the school year. One of the major highlights was the cattle judging team attending the national competition in Denver, CO.

Another highlight of the year was FFA Ag Day, where many young and old WC students were able to learn about the various projects FFA members were involved in.

It was a challenge to get Ag Week in this year due to an unseasonably cool and wet spring, however, eventually students were able to celebrate.

OPERATION TEEN SAFE DRIVING

Operation Teen Safe Driving was an event that took place over several days at WC. This event was headed by students who planned and oversaw many of the activities that took place. Some of those activities included playing Mario Kart with drunk goggles and taking a pledge to drive safely.

ICTM

Brad Bavery receives his accolades with aplomb

Ms. Smith recognizes the success of the ICTM team at an assembly.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

FBLA is a club that helps students develop skills that will help them to become successful in the world of business. Each year they compete at several levels of competition and attend both a local and national convention.

Here the FBLA members return from contest sporting certificates, trophies, and a whole lotta swag.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society is a group founded to recognize students who excel both academically and as members of their communities through volunteer work.

NHS Officers: Sydney Bigger, Abby Hubbard, Emily Hopping, and Colin Rothzen

ART

Students showcase many of the great works they create for various area art festivals.

PRIDE

Band

Choir

Band and Chorus participated in many events including LTC and IMEA Contest. They put on several concerts including Veteran's Day, Christmas and Spring. Many of the students in band and choir also participated in Solo and Ensemble Contest.

The band performs at the Spring Concert.

The choir gives Mrs. Hilligoss a fine send off for her last concert of the year.

SPORTS

An abstract watercolor splash in shades of purple and orange is positioned behind the word "SPORTS". The splash is irregular and textured, with some blue and red tones. The word "SPORTS" is written in a large, bold, black, sans-serif font, slanted upwards from left to right. The background is a light beige, textured paper with some faint watercolor washes and small blue and red specks.

FOOTBALL

Dedication

Kevin listens to a speaker at our Career Day. This year we had almost 50 different participants.

Education

Hard Work

Colin John and Colton Knapp attended this session. Students were able to choose from all the different speakers and follow their own customized schedule.

Here Dr. Good discusses the challenges and opportunities he has faced while working as a dentist. Chief amongst his advice was working hard to achieve a good education.

Communication

Character

Many careers that one at first might not suspect require a significant amount of post-secondary education. Here the course work is outlined for becoming a state trooper.

Enthusiasm

Although many of the speakers do not normally speak in front of people as part of their job, many of them took to it rather well.

Creativity

Career Day

Tommy Lewis attends a session here with someone wearing an orange hoodie. Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Frakes worked many hours to come up with each students schedule and to line up all of the speakers.

Dependability

Mr. Grimm, WCHS superintendent, sits down to discuss with kids some of the realities of today's evolving job market.

Many of the nights events would not have been possible with out the generous donation of time from the parents, students and faculty of WCHS. Thank you! Also many local businesses donated money and prizes for both prom and after prom activities. Without these sponsors many of the activities we take for granted would not be possible. Please continue to support our local businesses as they in return support the school and many of its endeavors.

THANK YOU!

I would like to thank Jim Straub the yearbook representative from Walsworth Yearbooks. He has once again been able to fix every problem and make sure all of this gets done on time. Thank you for your willingness to go above and beyond the call of duty.

Also great thanks to my yearbook editors Maddy and Mackenzie, both of whom came out to school well into June to work on the yearbook. Their creativity and skill with graphic design makes the book what it is.

Thank you to my yearbook staff members who continued to show up to meetings even when the technology wasn't working or when I had forgotten to bring bacon for the 10th meeting in a row.

A huge thank you to Deb Cole and her staff at Cole's Photography. They donate countless hours documenting all of WCHS's sports and activities. Not only do they do this service without charging the school, but they also then send me the pictures from these events so that I can use them in the yearbook. This is also done without charge. This kind of attitude and willingness to give back to the community is something we should all work to reward with our business. I strongly encourage you to think of Cole's Photography when planning events, family portraits, or senior pictures.

Finally I would like to thank all of the local businesses who bought ads in our book this year. This has allowed us to meet our financial obligations to Walsworth and continue providing WC students with a quality product. It warms my heart that so many businesses were willing to donate this year. I think this is reflective of the dedication the owners of local businesses in Henderson and Warren Counties share for supporting their communities.

Sincerely,

Erik Davis
